6 HOSPITALS SIGN PACTS

Two from This County Among First To Sign In Medicare Program

Two Floyd county hospitals — Prestonsburg General and Our Lady of the Way at Martin — are among the first six in Kentucky to sign contracts with the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare to participate in the Medicare program from its outset, July 1.

Seventy hospitals in the state have been certified by the State Health Department for participation, and applications of 35 others are pending. Twenty-three others have not returned to the Health Department a "utilization review" plan showing to what extent they are making best use of their resources to improve the quality of care they may afford. Such a plan is required before a hospital can be accepted.

Our Lady of the Way and Prestonsburg General joined Muhlenberg General at Greenville, St. Luke's at Covington, Somerset City and the Whitesburg Appalachian Regional in signing contracts today (Thursday).

RECAP HINTS REAL ESTATE HARDEST HIT

New Assessment May Not Attain Expected 6 Times 1965 Figure

Floyd county's property assessment for taxes will be less than five times that of last year, the first recapitulation of the new assessment, released this week by Tax Commissioner, Orpha Akers, shows.

The exact ratio of this year's assessment to that of last will not be known until the second recap is made of increases and decreases in individual assessments made by the board of supervisors. This recapitulation, being done by the office of County Clerk C. Ollie Robinson, is expected to be completed later this week.

That done, the Floyd fiscal court will begin a study of the totals before setting the tax rate.

This year's assessment, before any adjustments were effected by the supervisors, totalled $81,410,529. Last year's final assessment figure was $18,152,623.

The assessment increase, on the basis of these preliminary figures, hit residential property and land and improvements hardest, the 1966 total being about six times that of 1965. Commercial and industrial holdings were increased slightly more than four times, and oil, mineral and timber rights were little more than doubled.

The comparative figures follow, in each instance the final assessment total for 1965 appearing first, followed by the unadjusted 1966 figures:

Residential, $3,728,990; $26,910,860 (the 1966 total includes rural non-farm land and improvements).

Farm land and improvements, $3,283,407; $17,194,625.

Commercial and industrial, $2,746,114; $11,539,630.

Oil, mineral and timber rights, $2,511,270; $6,136,003.

The total assessment of these holdings was $12,269,781 for 1965 and $61,781,050 for this year.

Added to these totals for this year is the tangible property assessment of $19,629,479. Last year, the tangible assessment was $5,882,842.

Intangible personal property jumped from $8,459,572 in 1965 to $10,594,015 in the current assessment.

The tangible property evaluations for this year included these items:

Aircraft, $87,500; watercraft, $75,950; inventory of finished goods, $3,457,015; trade tools and business furniture, $1,242,319; drilling, mining and construction equipment, $6,294,208.

DAN STAMPER AUTO VICTIM

Knott Native, Former Legislator, Is Fatally Hurt at Betsy Layne

Daniel H. Stamper, Sr., 71, former Pike county legislator and retired carpenter, was fatally injured last Thursday afternoon in a two-car, head-on collision at Betsy Layne in which five others were injured.

Mr. Stamper succumbed at the Methodist hospital, Pikeville, at 6:45 p.m. Thursday, about five hours following the crash.

His auto, in which he was driving south, and that of Billy James Tussey, 23, of David, met, head-on, on a curve of U.S. 23 near the C. & O. Railway bridge at Betsy Layne. Tussey was brought to the Prestonsburg General hospital but was released, the following day.

Ray Smith, a passenger in Stamper's car, was hospitalized at Pikeville. Two other passengers, Keen Blankenship, 21, and David Keathley, 18, both of Teaberry, were dismissed after treatment. Ballard Lewis, 59, of Betsy Layne, a passenger in Tussey's car, also was released after hospital treatment.

A native of Knott county, Stamper was a son of the late Marion and Martha Stewart Stamper. He was a veteran of World War I and was a member of the Primitive Baptist Church. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Exie Lee Mullins Stamper; two sons, Dr. (See Story No. 4, Page 8)

EXPLOSIONS DESTROY MUD CR. MINE TIPPLE

Two explosions at the mine of Tim Jones at Teaberry on Mud Creek late Tuesday night destroyed the mine tipple and fan at an estimated loss of $2,550.

The mine was dynamited in a case of explosives taken from Jones' own magazine. The door had been forced, then nailed back, Sheriff Joe W. Lewis and State Detective Chester D. Potter said.

There were two explosions, the officers were told. Apparently, the fan was first dynamited around 11 p.m., then the tipple itself about 10 minutes later. The tipple was reduced to ruins.

The investigating officers said there is no known motive for the dynamiting. The mine worked Tuesday, and there had been no labor trouble or dissension. The mine works eight men and has been in operation since last year.

Sheriff Lewis reported the arrest of James Calvin Reynolds, of Clear Creek, Saturday night when he, Deputy Sheriff Wallace Frazier and State Trooper Tom Engle found seven half-pints of whiskey in Reynolds' store. Reynolds told the officers he had the whiskey for his own use, but Sheriff Lewis said there were three or four different brands in the seven pints taken. Reynolds was booked on a possession charge.

Lewis and ABC Agent Claude Finney destroyed a moonshine still Sunday at Galveston. The operator was not found. Approximately 50 gallons of mash were destroyed.

Booked at the county jail within the week were: Bobby Ray Newsome, accused of reckless driving, by Deputy Sheriff C. B. Hall and State Trooper Engle; Henry Scott, Johnny Prater and Bill Hughes, charged with destroying public property, jailed by State Trooper Jerry Combs; Douglas C. Coleman, driving while under the influence of alcohol and reckless driving, by Deputy Sheriff Lonnie Herald; Tommy Brown, drunk driving, by State Trooper Ray; Clarence E. Johnson, reckless driving and failure to yield to siren, arrested by Deputy Sheriff Frazier and Trooper Engle; Larry Herald, reckless driving, by Deputy Sheriff Frazier; Glenn Hockett and Bill Shepherd, charged with hit-run driving, by Deputy Sheriff Buster Thacker.

TWO ACTIONS ASK $50,000

Auto Wrecks Result In Suits for Damages In Circuit Court Here

Two $50,000 damage suits growing out of automobile wrecks were filed in the Floyd circuit court last week.

In one of the actions Naoma Allen Green, administratrix of the estate of her late husband, John H. Green, names Ellis Duncil and Larry Bentley as defendants. She alleges that her husband was killed on Ky. 7, near Wayland, last October 20 when a truck owned by Duncil was driven by Bentley with gross carelessness and negligence, running into Green's auto. In addition to $50,000 damages, the plaintiff also seeks to recover $1,100 funeral expenses.

Former State Representative Allen Slone and his son Larry are named defendants in the second suit, which was filed by Clyde Phillip Robinson, suing by and in the name of his father, Claude Robinson. Plaintiff claims permanent injuries resulted from the wreck of the elder Slone's auto, which was driven by Larry Slone. He claims the younger Slone drove the auto with his father's consent and that his operation of the car was in such "a willful and negligent manner" as to cause the wreck. Robinson also claims he was a passenger in the car at the invitation of defendants.

Following the dedication, refreshments will be served by women of the church under the leadership of members of the Geneva Fellowship.

Other officers installed were: Harold Cooley, vice-president; Alvin Webb, secretary; Bobby Crager, treasurer; Dick Clark and Lloyd Walker, directors.

THE TAX SITUATION

The inequities which The Times feared have resulted from the hurried and ill-prepared attempt at full "fair value" assessment of Kentucky property for purposes of taxation. As a consequence, dissatisfaction is pretty general.

Sombody will be the "fall guy" as indignant or fearful taxpayers look for a man or a group of men upon whom they can vent their wrath. But, as one property-owner said, whom shall we blame?

The Court of Appeals had no alternative when the Louisville suit asking full assessment reached it; for the state Constitution clearly demanded it. The disgraceful aspect of that part of the taxation story is that the law had so long been ignored, compromising for the mere sake of convenience.

The Appellate Court decision was just, since it put an end to a statewide annual pastime, which was a general lying contest about property values. It demanded honesty, even though it has not yet achieved it. Without full assessment, just and impartial taxation is an impossibility.

But the court erred when it forced a "crash program" on the tax commissioners of the several counties by setting a deadline for the new assessment to be made and threatening these officials with prosecution on charges of misfeasance if they failed to comply with the court mandate.

For the new assessment program is still dependent not upon the value the ordinary citizen sets on his property but upon how much that citizen values his word and respects the sanctity of his oath. No board of supervisors, however able or dedicated it may be to the service of the people, can ferret out every injustice and make the adjustments which cry out to be made. Nor can any tax commissioner, elected by popular vote, be expected to adopt the "justice is blind" ideal and place fair values on the hundreds of parcels of property in a county. And, if we view the matter realistically, we must also conclude that no official depending upon votes for the next election can be expected to institute proceedings which will bring a taxpayer into court on a charge of perjury.

The high court, we think, should have shunned the urgency with which this job has been tackled, especially so in view of the fact that it was a century overdue already and a few months more would not be fatal. Instead of a crash program dumped into the laps of county tax commissioners, a period of grace should have been permitted—two years, say—and that time should have been used by the state itself in employing and sending out professional appraisers to each county to do the job. It would be a costly undertaking but the financial returns would justify the expense, and the results would surely be more satisfying to the individual taxpayer.

As matters now stand, many of the old inequities remain—and, worse, many are compounded to the point that a host of taxpayers are thoroughly disgusted.

The governor of Kentucky should look about to determine if he can find the legal authority, even now, of providing for a professional assessment. True assessment may never be done at the local level.

THE ANOMALY OF PARTY LOYALTY

Party loyalty as basic political "ethics" is pretty generally accepted by politicians, but sometimes the principle grows just a bit sticky for most of us. For example:

Two weeks ago Governor Breathitt was giving more than mere moral support to the candidacy of Judge Brady M. Stewart for the Democratic nomination for the office of Appellate Judge. Judge Stewart lost the Democratic race to Circuit Judge Osborn but won the Republican nomination.

Judge Stewart sought nomination on both ballots, since the office of a judge of the Court of Appeals isn't, in the first place, considered a purely political matter. His successful Democratic opponent played the role of opportunist, if not that of demagogue, by fanning the resentment of taxpayers, pointing out that Stewart was one of the judges who handed down the unpopular "fair value" assessment ruling, meanwhile quite naturally disregarding the fact that Stewart and his colleagues on the appellate bench did only what their oath of office enjoins—to support the Constitution, which plainly prescribes such an evaluation of property for tax purposes.

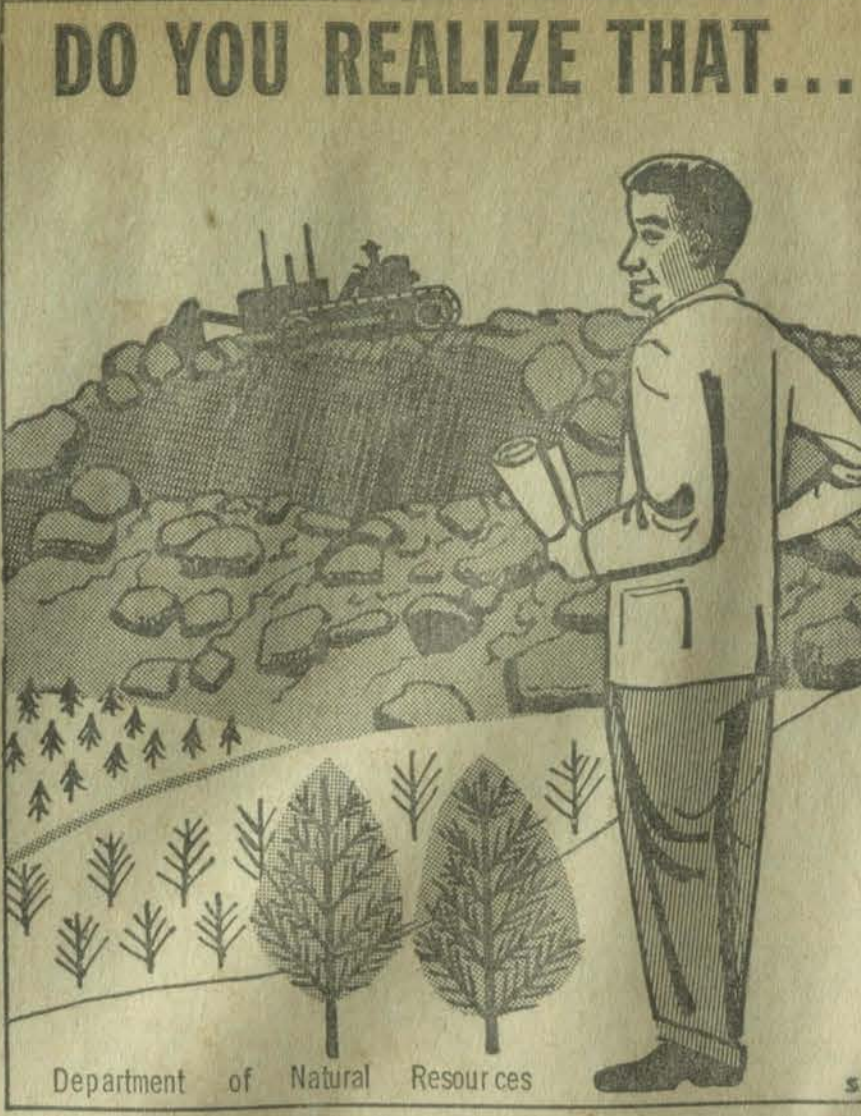

So it was that, in the pre-primary campaign, Judge Osborn was to the Breathitt administration a demagogue, unworthy of its support. But now, after Osborn is the Democratic nominee and Stewart, once the favorite of the administration, is the Republican, who gets the Breathitt support? You guessed it.

This is only one example of such "party loyalty." Governor Breathitt is joined in its practice by politicians of both parties, all the way from Washington to the local precinct. But why?

Clothes may not make the man, but a party label can make a candidate look like a fashion plate to the professionals. And we simon-pures "just don't get it."

Dry League To Meet Friday at Allen School

The Christian Dry League of Floyd county will hold its second meeting of the week at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Allen elementary school. The chairman, the Rev. Adrian J. Roberts, said that all ministers and interested laymen are invited.

... Kentucky's new strip mine laws, enacted by the 1966 General Assembly, are considered to be the best surface mining laws in the U. S.?

FLOYD-CO. GRANDMOTHER RECEIVES COLLEGE DEGREE

"Mother and Daughter in College Together" was the caption over the picture published in the July 4, 1963 issue of The Floyd County Times. The story went this way:

"Mother is a freshman, Mrs. Shelby Draughn, of Garrett, enrolled, along with her daughter, Pam, at Alice Lloyd College last week.

"Both registered for and are attending English and Economics classes together. Pam is a sophomore and will complete her study at the college next June. Her mother anticipates taking a full college load in the fall, working toward graduation in 1965 to senior college studies in art education."

That's been three years now. Pamela Sue got married and dropped out of college after the summer terms. She has two sons and is happily raising her own family. But mother continued her study and was graduated from Alice Lloyd at the end of the 1964 summer term. By this time she had become a grandmother.

In the fall of 1964 Mrs. Draughn enrolled at Pikeville College and was on the Dean's List the first semester there. In the summer term of 1965 she persuaded her husband to go back to college with her. She has carried a full load of study, sometimes as many as 19 and 20 hours a semester. Through her example and encouragement, her husband is enrolling at Pikeville again this coming summer.

Sunday, June 5, at 3 p.m., Mrs. Draughn will receive her bachelor of arts degree in elementary education with minors in both art and German. She will have a total of 146 hours.

The day following her graduation at Pikeville, she will begin teaching the first and second grades at Beaver elementary school in Knott county in its summer Head-Start Program. She plans to teach this fall in the elementary system.

The Garrett woman's college career has been far from easy. She commuted daily to Alice Lloyd and to Pikeville. She has three other children to look after. Hubert, who is 18, has just finished his senior year at Garrett high school. Janet Marie, 11, completed the fifth grade and

Handicapped Children To Be Guests at Camp, Starting New Season

Fifty Kentucky children with multiple handicaps, youngsters who are physically handicapped and mentally retarded, will attend a two-week camp session at Camp Kysoc, Carrollton, beginning Sunday, June 5.

The youngsters to attend the camp session will come from 13 Kentucky counties. They include: Bourbon, Carlisle, Carroll, Christian, Fayette, Greenup, Hancock, Henry, Hopkins, Jefferson, Logan, Mason, McCracken, Oldham, Pike, Pulaski, Spencer and Whitely.

The program will provide opportunity for the youngsters to enjoy a social and educational experience in an outdoor setting, Kelley said.

Professionals in several fields will be on the camp staff for this session. They will include a social worker, nurse, physical therapist and educators. Twenty-eight students from George Peabody College, Nashville, and the University of Kentucky will be among the staff.

Activities for the youngsters will include boating and barge rides, swimming in a heated pool, fishing, cook-out, nature lore and campcrafts.

The camp period beginning Sunday is the first of 10 sessions scheduled to be held at Camp Kysoc during June, July and August. An estimated 360 campers are expected to attend camp sessions during the summer months.

Ex-Governor Combs' Father Dies Monday After Long Illness

Stephen G. Combs, 81, father of former Governor Bert T. Combs, died Monday at a Louisville hospital after a long illness.

Mr. Combs was a resident of Manchester and formerly was in the lumber business in Clay county. He was a veteran of the Spanish-American War.

His funeral was conducted Tuesday afternoon from the First Baptist Church, Manchester. Because of his death the State Economic Security Department announced that dedication of its new office building at Whitesburg has been postponed till next Monday. Ex-Governor Combs was scheduled to speak at the ceremony, Tuesday.

Survivors, in addition to the former governor, include two sons, Lee Combs, Middlesboro, and O. S. Combs, Louisville; and three daughters, Mrs. Ed Marcup, Fort Lauderdale, Florida; Mrs. Maurice Kaufmann, Lexington; and Mrs. Paul Rhem, Versailles.

Our Yesterdays

(Items taken from files of The Floyd County Times of 30 and 20 years ago.)

Thirty Years Ago

(May 22, 1936)

If plans now being considered materialize, Prestonsburg within the next few months will have a free public library... Prestonsburg's on-again-off-again closing law is off again. The city council Tuesday night voted to permit restaurants to remain open as long as they like, thereby negating a previous ordinance which had fixed the closing time at 11 o'clock... Kentucky's new probation law, vesting in Circuit Judges the power of probation, under certain conditions, sentences below that of death or life imprisonment became effective May 15... John Hall, 35, formerly of Martin, was instantly killed, Sunday, in an auto wreck at Toledo, Ohio... Petition of Jack Branham for a writ of prohibition to prevent Circuit Judge John W. Caudill from presiding in his contest case against Guy Childers and Harold Bailey for membership on the Floyd county board of education was granted Friday by the Court of Appeals... A gas well reported as producing 1,500,000 cubic feet of gas daily is reported as having been drilled in on the farm of Harve Spears on Buffalo Creek, this week... Monday, the Floyd county building commission and the fiscal court will meet jointly in the letting of the contract for the construction of an addition to the Floyd county courthouse... There died: John Hall, 27, of Banner, at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, Saturday night; Mrs. Lee Burchett, at her home at Seng Factory, Saturday.

Retired Hippo Farmer Is Claimed Tuesday At McDowell ARH

(May 29, 1936)

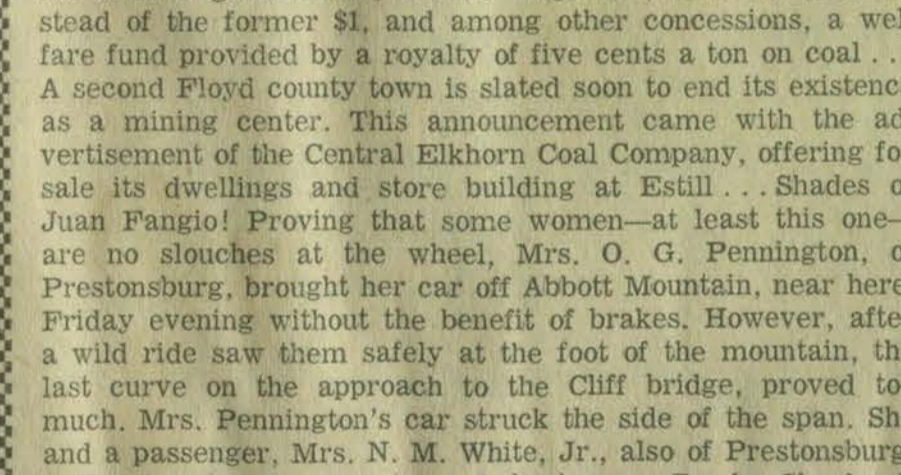

Bids were not received Monday, as had been planned, for construction of the addition to the Floyd county courthouse, and Forrest D. Short, County Attorney and a member of the Floyd County Building Committee, said that date of the opening of bids would be set ahead to such time as when sufficient number of bids received to insure the county the benefit of competitive bidding... Bill Hunt, 18 years old, was shot through the right side of his chest Monday night on the Mayo Trail here... Approximately $20,500 will be available for rural highways in Floyd county this year, Floyd county officials were told a few days ago in a meeting with highway officials at Frankfort... Though the new state law providing that all roadhouses outside of incorporated towns must be licensed by the county court, no applications for such permits have been filed by roadhouse operators in this county, it was said Tuesday... Contracts covering the expenditure of more than $14,000 on five school buildings were awarded by the Floyd county board of education, Saturday... Dr. R. S. Johnson, of Pikeville, this week was named director of the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, succeeding Dr. S. B. Casebolt... Married: Miss Mabel Underwood and Mr. Raymond Hopson, both of Prestonsburg, May 23 at Paintsville... Born: To Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Spradlin, a daughter, May 27 at their home here... There died: Mrs. Eva Alice Eisnagle, 59, at her home at Garrett, Saturday; Minnie Bradley, 13, of Estill, at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, Monday.

Twenty Years Ago

Government seizure of the soft coal industry was ordered by President Truman Tuesday afternoon, but four mines of this county and two in Letcher were idle Wednesday... Congressman A. J. May has resigned from the Atomic Bomb Commission in order to be in Washington ready for any legislative fight that may arise in Congress over the proposed rivers and harbors improvement, which includes canalization of the Big Sandy... As a result of an automobile wreck which took place late Saturday afternoon near Prestonsburg, Frank Hall, 26, of Dry Creek, and his 19-year-old bride, Frankie Isaacs Hall, are enduring a honeymoon at the Prestonsburg General hospital this week... Defective wiring is believed to have caused the destruction by fire early last Thursday evening of the Garrett 5 & 10c Store and Furniture Company at an estimated damage of $45,000... Workmen began construction here, a few days ago, of a 50x22-foot building which will house the Willys Motor Sales Company, owned by Ben Stansifer and Frank Layne... An FBI agent and County Attorney W. W. Burchett this week were investigating the theft at Dewey of government property along with belongings of the Ryan Construction Company... Married: Miss Virginia Lee Turner, of McDowell, and Mr. Haskell Hall, of Weeksville, May 4; Miss Pauline Osborne, of Prestonsburg, and Mr. Carl Tufts, of West Prestonsburg, Saturday at Pikeville; Miss Ovie Akers, of Banner, and Seaman Albert Nunnery, of Wheelwright, May 18; Miss Lola Holbrook, of Wheelersburg, Ohio, and Mr. Edgar W. Coburn, of Hueysville, May 2.

Golden Gloves Winner

Nineteen-year-old Brad Walters (left), son of Robert Walters, formerly of Prestonsburg, recently won the championship of the heavyweight division in the Golden Gloves tournament at Flint, Michigan. The youngster, who is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Walters, former Floyd residents, has since that time entered the armed forces.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

WORKS ON FAMILY TREE

EDITOR, The Times:

After about three years of severe illness, I have resumed work on the "Osborn(e)" family tree. Last fall I had the pleasure of spending a week-end in your town. I was not able, because of fatigue, to contact any of the Osborn clan and could not prolong my stay because of reservation schedules. Those mountain roads are rough for a flat-land boy!

I wonder whether it would be possible to put me in contact with any relative of Charles L. Osborn, who resided in West Prestonsburg, Kentucky (P. O. Box 53) in 1933. A letter in my possession leads me to believe he may have been a half-brother to my great-grandfather.

My file of "Osborn(e)" data has become very large. By purchasing a Varifax Copier, I have enabled myself to serve as a clearing house for those interested in the "Osborn(e)" family. I will donate copies of any data in my possession, by specific request. I request donations of any authenticated "Osborn(e)" data, of any branch of the family. This includes the traditional stories of the family.

LIKES NEW ADDRESSING SYSTEM

EDITOR, The Times:

The new method that you have of printing the names on The Times is 100% better. I don't have any trouble at all sorting the papers now whereas before it was very hard at times to make out whose name was on them. I'm sure that all postal personnel feel the same. I meant to write sooner but like most people kept putting it off. I'm sure you had us in mind when you changed to the new method. You have a fine paper and I like all Floyd counties, look forward to receiving it each week. Thanks for a very fine job.

Mr. Smith was a son of Matt and Rebecca Brown Smith. His wife, Mrs. Erma Fannin Smith, survives.

Survivors, other than his wife, are a son, Jimmy Smith, of Hite; two daughters, Mrs. Dora Halbert, of Printer, Mrs. Minnie Miller, Lima, Ohio; one brother, Ben Smith, of Inez.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday at 10 a.m. from the Salisbury Regular Baptist Church, ministers of that church officiating. Burial in the Spurlock cemetery at Printer was directed by Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

4-H Leadership Conference Stresses More Than Farming; 17 From County To Attend

If you think 4-H Club membership consists only of doing project work in areas such as beef or clothing or entomology and exhibiting at fairs and other similar events, then you should sit in on one of the sessions at Kentucky's 4-H Leadership Conference. You'd soon find out that learning about citizenship and leadership is also an important part of 4-H work.

The state's top 4-H Club members attend the annual 4-H Leadership Conference at the University of Kentucky—and the emphasis there is on citizenship and leadership development. The theme of this year's Leadership Conference will be "Young Kentuckians and World Affairs." The delegates at the June 6-10 meeting will take part in mock United Nations sessions, discussing the Viet Nam situation.

Floyd county's Leadership Conference delegates this year will be Randy Blankenship, Glenda Hale, Paul DeCue, Danise Conroy, James Newman, Gary Akers, Kenneth Gayheart, Debbie Sammons, Bonnie Crisp, Delbert Martin, Floyd Davis, Jr., Debbie Branham, Carol Spears, Deanna Hall, Kathy Conn, Alva Lynch, Caroleen Harless.

The question for discussion at the mock UN sessions will be: "Should the United Nations provide assistance to the United States in its aid to South Viet Nam?" Each delegate will represent a United Nations country and will debate this topic from the point of view of the country he or she represents.

Plans are to divide the Conference delegation into groups of 20-25 boys and girls, with countries from most sections of the world represented in each group.

Each of these groups will then hold their own separate mock UN session, and the 4-Hers will debate and vote on the Viet Nam question as though they are actually UN delegates and citizens of the countries they are representing. When the delegation elects state 4-H officers, using regular voting machines, the UN question will be on the ballot, too, so the boys and girls will vote on the issue a second time.

Four-H members will conduct the UN sessions and take the major leadership roles at the Conference. Bonnie Crisp, of Martin, will serve as a discussion leader.

The UN sessions make up only a part of the Conference program—another feature will be several kinds of special interest sessions. For example, one afternoon, the delegates will receive special training in 4-H junior leadership work, with each delegate selecting the project area in which he or she is most interested. Career exploration also will be a part of the program, when the delegates have a chance to visit the University college or department of their choice.

The state 4-H Leadership Conference was known as 4-H Week or Junior Week until a few years ago, when the name was changed to be more representative of the emphasis on citizenship and leadership there. State 4-H demonstration, judging and public speaking contests, once held at this annual event, are now part of the Kentucky State Fair in Louisville. The state 4-H dress revue, held at the Leadership Conference through last year, will also be held at the state fair this summer.

JUNE 15 SET FOR OPENING

Of New Pool at Park; Classes in Swimming Slated in Mornings

Wednesday, June 15, has been set as the target date for the opening at City Park here of its brand-new Junior Olympic swimming pool.

There are "ifs" to be considered, but if the work moves ahead as scheduled the June 15 opening date will be met.

City Manager Curtis Clark said the pool will be open to the general public from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. daily, with full dressing room facilities. A wading pool for younger children also will be open.

Swimming lessons will be given by a qualified instructor from 9 a.m. to 12 noon daily. Bobby Cramer will be in charge of instruction and management of the pool.

It was said this week that parents who want to enroll their children in a swimming class should write Mr. Cramer, giving the name and age of the child and if he or she has any swimming ability.

The pool is one of a variety of facilities constructed, or under construction, to make of the park Eastern Kentucky's finest municipally owned recreation spot. Little League baseball already has moved to the park, and tennis, softball and other sports may be enjoyed there.

Land acquisition, general landscaping and trail construction. The recreation facility development included in the application, as approved by EDA, will provide three shuffleboard courts, a full-size multi-purpose court for tennis, basketball and other court games, and a miniature golf course.

The Department of Parks expects to move immediately toward initiation of the Jenny Wiley development program. Commissioner Bell said. Preliminary plans for the swimming pools have been completed but advertising for bids must await final plans of the architect, he said.

Congressman Carl D. Perkins was credited with rendering invaluable assistance toward winning approval of the application for federal assistance.

PARK FERRIS WHEEL TO BE THE HIGHEST

The Mountain Parkway Sky Lift is scheduled for operation at Jenny Wiley State Park June 10, and the same date is set for the introduction there of an added attraction—what is being billed as "the world's highest ferris wheel."

Announcement of the mountain-top ferris wheel attraction was made last week by Ed Music, head of the Mountain Parkway Chairlift Company which last year acquired the concession which will provide a 2,200-foot-long ride from the vicinity of the Stratton Branch recreation area to the top of Sugar Camp mountain overlooking the lake.

Besides the ferris wheel which will be erected on the mountain top, the chairlift firm is preparing several conveniences and attractions for those taking the ride up the mountain. Fifteen picnic tables have been arranged along the hogback ridge, a souvenir stand has been constructed and vending machines will be installed. A four-foot-high railing is being built along the cliff-edge. This railing will be painted in iridescent vermilion, and a floodlight from the base of the precipice from the base of the precipice but also the railing at night.

Trails will lead from the observation point at the mountain-top landing.

WAR ON AIR POLLUTION SET TO BEGIN, JULY 1st

Eastern Kentucky's burning "gob piles," sources of malodorous effusions, rock quarries — these are a few of the points of attack when the war on air pollution will begin July 1 under authority of a law enacted at the 1966 General Assembly session.

Operating for the past 18 months under a federal grant, the Kentucky Health Department has sampled the air in many communities and held interviews with government leaders and doctors as well as people who live near suspected pollution sites.

Norman Schell, acting director of the air pollution program, said that he is helping to write a report intended to justify the expenditure of public funds. "It will be general rather than pointing the finger at anyone," he said. "However, we will next have to deal with specific communities and do it in depth."

The program has received almost $200,000 in federal money plus more than $100,000 from the state.

Schell said the state has just asked for $100,000 more in federal aid for a demonstration project.

"If we get that money," he said, "we will attack one definite problem and find out how expensive and effective our cure might be."

First efforts probably will focus on a large gob pile near Manchester—a collection of waste from mining operations.

Schell said spontaneous combustion in these piles causes noxious smoke and fumes over a wide area. Gob piles are found in both the Eastern and Western Kentucky coal fields.

The state will crank up its administrative machinery this summer with selection of 11 persons for the new Air Pollution Control Commission—five state officials and six members from the public, including three from industry.

Under Gov. Edward T. Breathitt's prodding, the 1966 legislature passed a bill giving the state jurisdiction to prevent or abate dirty air throughout Kentucky.

The new commission will draw up regulations and standards, investigate complaints and hold hearings.

It is expected to operate much the same as the well-established Water Pollution Control Commission—an alert watchdog which is regarded as fair and reasonable.

"We do not intend to upset old local air pollution districts," Schell said. That means that the current arrangements in the Louisville and Paducah areas, which police their own industries, will be left alone as long as the state regards them as satisfactory.

"Home rule will be promoted and encouraged where it suffices," Schell said. "But some cities have definite odor and problems and we'll have to grab the ball."

Schell said there is a mistaken public belief that air pollution is a real thorn only in the industrialized Ohio River cities of Kentucky.

"There is a variety of sore spots in rural areas," he asserted. "The burning of trash, the existence of gob piles, rock-crushing operations, asphalt mix plants, fertilizer factories."

The advantage for agricultural communities, he said, is that the cause of air pollution can be more easily isolated and cured.

CATS EDGED BY ASHLAND

Floyd Baseball Titlists Lose Regional Finals Saturday at Morehead

Though weakened by injuries, the Prestonsburg high school baseball team almost ended the Ashland Tomcats' 21-game winning streak when the two teams met in the finals of the regional tournament at Morehead last Saturday. But the Boyd countians made a final-inning comeback to score two runs, and edge the Blackcats, 7-6, and earn a place in the state tournament.

Prestonsburg won its way to the finals by defeating South Portsmouth, 7-6, in the first game and Clark County, 10 to 2, in the semi-finals.

Playing without the services of "Wimpy" Clark, who doubled as a pitcher and outfielder, Prestonsburg held a 4 to 1 lead through the fourth inning of the final game. Ashland scored one run in the fifth and three in the sixth, taking a 5-4 edge. But in their half of the inning the Blackcats bounced back to knot the score when Don Wallen singled, stole second and came home on an Ashland error. Ashland scored two runs in the seventh to establish what proved to be the winning margin, but the Blackcats came back with a run when Rice led off with a single, went to third on Paul Greer's hit but was cut down at the plate as Montgomery grounded to the Ashland second baseman. Greer scored the Prestonsburg run on Campbell's double off the screen. With Montgomery and Campbell on second and third and only one out, the Cats were still very much in the game, but Bill Lynch, star Ashland hurler, was called in, and he struck out the next two batters.

The championship game box score:

BOBCATS SLATED FOR AIT

The Betsy Layne high school Bobcats have become the fourth team to enter the perennially talent-laden Ashland Invitational Tournament.

The Bobcats follow host Ashland, Lexington Bates Creek and Covington Catholic into the fold for the 12th annual basketball classic December 26-30.

Regarded by many as the top prospect in the always-tough mountain area, the Bobcats are under the direction of Coach Tom Boyd.

Playing one of the toughest schedules in Eastern Kentucky, the Bobcats will take on such powers as Lexington Catholic, Bourbon County and Bryan Station during the coming season.

Betsy Layne lists nine men stretching the measuring tape to six-feet or better on the 12-man squad. Tallest cagers for BLHS are senior-to-be Doug Parsons who carries a hefty 215 pounds and Jim Bailey who will be in his junior campaign.

Parsons figures to be one of the top performers for the Floyd countians as he comes into the 1966-67 season already an All-Regional tournament veteran, a title he gained last season in the 15th Region tourney.

Also tabbed as a dangerous threat to opposition is 6-2, 170-pound senior forward Gary Hall. This cager attained All-Conference and All-District laurels last year. Hall's attributes also include a 49-point scoring outburst in a game against Wayland in the 1965-'66 season.

Three seniors are expected to be in the thick of the battle for the starting nods at guard as Chester Adkins, Randy Blankenship and David Layne all rate highly on the Bobcat roster.

Top sophomore prospect for the Betsy Layne crew figures to be 6-3, 175-pound center Jim Newman.

With the addition of the Bobcats, six more teams remain to be added to the tournament which was won last year by Louisville Male for the second straight time. The Purples then went on to the finals of the state tournament before bowing to champion Shelby County.

She has taught in the Floyd county schools for more than 20 years, and was employed as guidance counselor at Wheelwright high school, the past school year. While in Florida, Mrs. Crisp will attend the NEA annual convention at Miami Beach. She will be accompanied by her daughter, Miss Bonnie Crisp.

CIVIL WAR STUDY GROUP TO MEET AT PAINTSVILLE

Civil War buffs, historians, scholars and students will meet at Mayo School auditorium, June 17 at 8 p.m., to launch the first historical organization in Eastern Kentucky devoted exclusively to research into and study of the American Civil War, and especially the Civil War in Kentucky's mountain counties.

The purpose of the organization, as explained by a local supporter, is to do a job that has not been done in a hundred years—thoroughly research and make available the story of the Civil War in the Big Sandy valley and adjoining territory. A greater emphasis on local history in Kentucky's high schools and colleges in recent years has created a great interest in the Civil War throughout the state.

Wallace J. Williamson, III, of Ashland, an outstanding historian and former professor at Princeton and Yale universities, will present an organization talk and serve as consultant for the meeting.

Many now living in the Big Sandy region had ancestors in the Union or Confederate armies. Numerous skirmishes were fought in Eastern Kentucky, Middle Creek, in this county, being the most decisive. Other well-known encounters were Ivy Mountain, Half Mountain, Wireman Shoals, Jennie's Creek, Pond Creek, Beaver Creek and Salyersville.

All who have an interest in the Civil War in Eastern Kentucky are urged to attend the organization meeting. Inquiries may be addressed to the Johnson County Historical Society at Paintsville.

NAMES OMITTED
Omitted from the list of those contributing to the success of the art exhibit of Mrs. Duna Combs at the Floyd County Library were the names of Mrs. Byron Bra-shear, of Manton, and Mrs. So-phia Cahill, of Drift, at whose encouragement the exhibit was held, and who were in charge of the reception. Invitations to the exhibit were provided by the Mountain Printing Co., of Allen.

Work of Lt. Clark,
Prestonsburg Native,
Premiered in Germany

Munich, Germany, May 3 (Spl.)—"The Area Command March," composed by the 30th Army Band commander, has premiered in a retreat ceremony at McGraw Casern.

The bandmaster, 1st Lt. William E. Clark, named his work in honor of the Army Area Comd., his "first major assignment." The ceremony took place at the entrance to the command's headquarters.

Clark, a 31-year-old former school teacher, said he found the months-long task laborious.

"Ideas for the melodic theme were not easy to come by," he said. "With me, writing is a great deal mechanical. When I was working on the trio, the middle of the standard march, I was tinkering on the piano for two or three days, picking a theme, playing it over, experimenting and finding what sounded right.

"Then, after the whole thing was formulated, I'd become dissatisfied and change it."

The quiet Kentuckian completed the basic construction of the march in a week, as part of the curriculum requirement of the Navy School of Music, Army Element.

After arriving here, the lieutenant revised the composition, revised the revisions and finally finished the march.

The most difficult part of the job, according to Clark, was finding the right-sounding theme. As he explains it, the structure of a march is, for the most part, standardized, consisting of an introduction, two themes, called strains, a trio and the appropriate transitions. The themes progress by means of chord changes, which give the march its individuality.

Lt. Clark is a native of Prestonsburg, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Clark, now of Ormond Beach, Florida.

DRIVING TIPS
Here's a driving tip passed along by the Kentucky Department of Public Safety: When you're in doubt about passing another car on a straight two-lane highway, the National Safety Council says: Don't risk it. But if you've checked the road ahead and behind, and the coast is clear, you should have no trouble. Just be sure to warn the driver ahead of your intentions. Speed up and pass him quickly. But return to the right-hand lane as soon as you see his car in your rear-view mirror. And, remember, passing skills are worthless unless you know when not to pass.

THREE FIRMS DEFENDANTS

Bottlers Are Named In Wage-Hour Action By Secretary Wirtz

Royal Crown Bottling Co., Inc., of Whitesburg, Royal Crown Bottling Company, of Paintsville, and Bradley Bentley, individually and as an officer of the three firms, have been named as defendants in a complaint filed in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky, at Pikeville, by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz. The complaint alleges that the defendants have violated the minimum wage, overtime compensation and shipping provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act. The court is being asked to enjoin and restrain further violations of the act, including the restraint of any withholding of payment of minimum wages and overtime compensation which may be found due the defendants' employees. The complaint is based on the reports of recent investigations conducted by personnel of the U.S. Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division. According to the complaint filed by Secretary Wirtz, the Fair Labor Standards Act is applicable to the defendants and their employees by reason of the fact that it is an enterprise engaged in the bottling, distribution and sale of soft drinks, substantial quantities of which are sold in commerce to points outside of Kentucky, and has an annual gross volume of business in excess of $1 million.

Willie Johnson Dies At Lexington Hospital

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. at the residence of Henry Johnson, the Rev. Wallace Calhoun officiating. Burial was made in the family cemetery near Risner under the direction of Floyd Funeral Home. The Bureau of County Health Work was created in 1920 to coordinate and direct the work of local health departments in Kentucky. It was the forerunner of the State Department of Health which was created in 1934.

The nutritionists, nurses, teachers, agriculturists, social workers and clergymen who compose the party will meet at Berea with Dr. Margaret Livingood, of the State Maternity and Infant Care Project; F. P. Ayer, executive director of the Council of the Southern Mountains; Dr. M. A. Shepherd, medical director of the South-Central Regional Health Office; Ralph Ramsey, rural sociologist, University of Kentucky; Darrell House, Kentucky representative of the National Red Cross; Thomas A. Lewis, state director, Division of Commodity Distribution, U.S. Department of Agriculture, and several of the Council of the Southern Mountain staff workers in community development and health.

One purpose of this project is to assist voluntary world relief services to carry out their programs with Brazilian organizations for feeding needy people through families, schools, and other institutions; through maternal and child feeding programs, in community development services and in disaster situations.

A second objective is to develop understanding of the American way of life and a perception of the interest of the American people in cooperating with other nations through community organizations such as service clubs, churches, cooperatives, and others.

A two-day trip to the Buckhorn Children's Center, to Alice Lloyd College and to the Frontier Nursing Service will be made on Wednesday and Thursday. After the final session on Friday the group will go to West Virginia and New York before embarking for home on July 2.

GIVE SIGNALS
Here's a driving tip passed along by the Kentucky Department of Public Safety: It happens on our highways countless times a day. A driver forgets to signal the driver behind him of his intention to stop or turn. The result: A crunching rear-end collision. Don't you be responsible for this kind of trouble. The National Safety Council reminds you to signal every move well before you make it. And try to make all your moves gradual and smooth. This gives the driver behind the extra time and space he needs to avoid you.

ALLEN

(Last week's correspondence)

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Allen Methodist Church presented a program in the church, Sunday night, May 15, in observance of the 25th anniversary of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Opening remarks and prayer were by the pastor, the Rev. Paul Pepon, who also introduced the leader, Mrs. G. L. Gray. After the welcome by Mrs. Gray, she gave a brief history of the work of Methodist women, telling of the first group being organized in the year of 1768 at Old John Street Church in New York, which was at that time called the Ladies' Aid Society. In the church year 1939-1940, three churches of Methodism, the Methodist Episcopal Church, Methodist Episcopal Church, South and the Methodist Protestant Church, united to form the Methodist Church. Each of the three churches had its own woman's organization with its own particular name and area of responsibility, and these were united and named the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Mrs. Palmer Crisp gave a history of the local Society, which was organized in 1949, with the help of the late Mrs. Thomas B. Ashley, and Mrs. Sallie Baker, of Pikeville. The first president was Mrs. George Adecock, now of Glen Wilton, Virginia; vice-president, Mrs. Jimmy Greene, now of Pikeville, and Mrs. Harry Snodgrass, recording secretary. She also reported some of the work done in the church. Four charter members were present: Mrs. Crisp, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Snodgrass and Mrs. Charles Callison.

Rev. Pepon rendered a piano solo. A film, "The Living Response," which had been prepared for the anniversary program, was shown.

Mrs. Gene Allen gave the memorial meditation for those who have died since the Society was organized. They were Mrs. Theop Salmons, Mrs. Lizzie Woods, Mrs. L. J. Gerlach, Mrs. Rebecca Harmon and Miss Florence May. Members placed flowers in a basket in memory of each. A trio, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Crisp and Mrs. Snodgrass, sang "Going Down the Valley," with Mrs. Earl Allen, pianist.

The Rev. Pepon installed the following officers: President, Mrs. G. L. Gray; vice-president, Mrs. Harry Snodgrass; secretary, Mrs. Edna Mae Callison; treasurer, Mrs. Earl Allen; Secretaries of Lines of Work—Christian Social Relations, Mrs. Galloway Lafferty; Membership Cultivation, Mrs. George Laven; Missionary Education and Service, Mrs. Palmer Crisp; Programs Materials, Mrs. Gene Allen; Spiritual Life Cultivation, Mrs. Palmer Crisp; Supply Work, Mrs. Charles May; Local Church Activities, Mrs. Paul Pepon.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Crisp were shopping in Pikeville, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Snodgrass were business visitors in Ashland, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hall and Mrs. Bennie Lafferty were visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Hall at Burnside, Kentucky, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonzo Lafferty were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lafferty in Cynthiana, Sunday of last week.

Harry Snodgrass and George Snodgrass were business visitors in Ashland and Huntington, Wednesday.

Y., May 15 with the newly-formed 196th Light Brigade from Fort Devens, Mass. Harless is serving with Company A, 4th Battalion of the brigade's 31st Infantry. The 22-year-old soldier entered the Army in September, 1965. He is a 1963 graduate of Prestonsburg high school.

197 ARE AWARDED DIPLOMAS AS PRESTONSBURG HI SCHOOL GRADUATES LARGEST CLASS

ZELLA FAYE WALLACE

TERESA JO HOPSON

The Prestonsburg high school 197-member graduating class, largest in its history, was led this year scholastically by Zella Faye Wallace, valedictorian, and Teresa Jo Hopson, salutatorian. They were the first to achieve this rank under the new academic policy adopted by the school faculty in April, 1964, which provided that 5 extra points per semester be given for "college preparatory" subjects such as the higher maths and sciences and foreign languages. It is possible under this scholastic ranking system for a student to graduate with a higher than the 4-point average customarily achieved.

Miss Wallace is the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wallace, of Prestonsburg. Besides her scholastic achievement, she has been active in such extra-curricular activities as band, Co-Ed-Y, and National Honor Society. Last summer she attended Centre College and participated in the National Science Foundation Summer Science Program there. She is the 1966 recipient of the DAR Good Citizen Award. Miss Wallace will attend Prestonsburg Community College and plans to major in chemistry at U.K., the following three years.

Miss Hopson, the salutatorian, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Hopson, of Auxier. She has maintained a perfect standing throughout high school and was recently inducted into the National Honor Society. She will enter Prestonsburg Community College in the fall and will major in commerce and foreign languages. Miss Hopson has been awarded an academic scholarship to the college here.

The commencement activities opened with the baccalaureate service, Sunday, at 8 p.m., with Barclay Walker, pastor of the Arnold Avenue Church of Christ, the speaker. The class night program with the theme, "Tomorrow Is Now," was presented Monday evening. The commencement address was delivered Wednesday evening by Dr. Elbert W. Ockerman, dean of admissions and registrar, University of Kentucky, Lexington.

Caterpillar Control Near Impossible Task

Lexington, Ky. — Do you have caterpillars with a black stripe down the back and blue tufts along the side crawling around your house?

If so, says Dr. R. L. Miller, University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service entomologist, don't waste your time and money spraying insecticides on this Eastern tent caterpillar. Here's why:

When the caterpillars leave their home trees, they are seeking a place to spin a cocoon and develop into a moth. They are through feeding; thus, an insecticide spray will be largely ineffective. "You'd almost have to spray every caterpillar to get control," Dr. Miller says. "They are almost immune now to spray because they are not feeding anymore."

They are seeking places to crawl under or into, such as rocks, cracks in walls, etc. One caller said she had already found one under the counterpane of her bed.

When it does feed, the pest feeds principally on wild cherry trees, says Dr. Miller, but it will attack apple trees (ornamentals and orchard type), elms, and a variety of other ornamentals. They spin large silken webs in the trees. They can defoliate a tree in a few weeks.

The caterpillar is disappearing now. After early June, you won't see either the caterpillars or the moths into which they turn. But next year, you'll have the same problem, Miller says.

If you see webs in trees now, spray them with DDT or Sevin. Follow label directions for Eastern tent caterpillar control, and observe safety precautions.
