MODERN DANCE

You who have laughed at the old mellerdrammers with the leering villain giving his mustache a twist and cackling his triumph with an "Aha, me proud beauty!"—you should know that "the Perils of Pauline" are being re-enacted in this enlightened year of 1966.

Just the other day, so the authorities there allege, Punkin beat up on the Little Woman, apparently without getting the desired results, then tied her to the railroad tracks just before a train was due to pass over same.

Wife Katie managed to untie herself before the B. & O. cannonballed onto the scene, and set the law on hubby.

Punkin not only was foiled again—he was jailed. Zounds!

OOPS!

I've been hanging around that fellow again, so you must pardon me.

Know what the plow said to the tractor? No? Well, it said, "Draw me closer, John Deere!"

IT'S DRY

You walk the pavement and, if you aren't careful, you become blind to the weather, particularly to drought and what it means to so many people.

Out in the country, this month of June, where there is a dirt road, the dust is flying. One farmer commented that the showers, the other morning, was just enough to keep him from smothering in the dust when he hoed his garden.

WOMAN, 83, AUTO VICTIM

Johnson County Crash Friday Evening Claims Mrs. Susan B. Anderson

One Floyd county woman was killed and four other persons injured, two seriously, Friday evening in an auto wreck near Paintsville.

Mrs. Susan Burke Anderson, 83 years old, of Buckingham, was instantly killed when the car in which she was riding was struck by another at the intersection of Routes 23 and 460, two miles north of Paintsville on the Paintsville bypass.

Seriously injured were Mary Alice Hall, R. 2, Catterburg, Kentucky, and Maurine Mann, of Abingdon, Virginia.

According to State Police, the collision occurred when a car driven by Mrs. Frances Ann Mann, traveling north on Rt. 460, failed to yield the right-of-way at the intersection and crashed into an auto driven by Everett Reeves, of Ashland.

CROWD WITNESSES COMPTON SLAYING

ALLEN MAN GUN VICTIM AT PIKEVILLE

Wheeler Is Arrested As Gunman; Slaying Scene, Busy Street

A busy Pikeville street was the scene, Monday noon, of the slaying of a Floyd county man as a score of more persons stood transfixed by the tragedy.

The victim was Palmer Compton, 50, of Allen, manager of Holiday Mobile Homes, Pikeville, who, shot three times, died en route to the Pikeville Appalachian Regional hospital.

Named in a murder warrant was Cecil Wheeler, age about 30, of Regina, Pike county, for whose release from the Pike county jail County Judge Bill Pauley has asked $5,000 bond.

Wheeler is being held "in protective custody," in the jail until after the funeral of Compton today (Thursday). Deputy Sheriff Calvin Runyon, quoting a number of witnesses, gave this version of the shooting:

Compton, with Wheeler's wife, Myrtle Sue, a woman of about 25, seated beside him, drove his car east on Huffman street and rounded the corner onto Main. Wheeler stood on the sidewalk, near the corner, and as the auto turned the corner he fired three shots from a small-caliber revolver of German manufacture. One bullet struck Compton in his left arm. The car moved on down Main street but was slowed by preceding traffic so much that Wheeler, afoot, kept pace with it.

County Attorney Marris Allen May said Wheeler made no statement. He entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of murder in the warrant sworn out by Sheriff Perry A. Justice and waived examining trial. The Pike grand jury does not convene till September.

An investigating officer quoted Mrs. Wheeler as saying (See Story No. 5, Page 6)

CATCH-UP PROGRAM IN SCHOOLS READIED

The Floyd county school system next Monday will initiate its Catch-Up Program, the first of its kind to be undertaken in this part of Kentucky and one which is being carried out this summer on a purely experimental basis.

Financed by federal-aid-to-education funds (Public law 8910), Catch-Up is exactly what its name implies—a program designed to give youngsters an opportunity to make up ground they have lost in one or more subjects during past school terms.

It will last for six weeks and will afford students intensive tutoring in small classes to which the instructor will give more personal attention than she could devote to larger classes.

"I would like to urge all parents, as strongly as I may, to encourage their children to take advantage of this opportunity," County Superintendent Charles Clark said. He pointed out that, although the main purpose of Catch-Up will be to provide

Officers Nab Shelton; Drivers, Drunks Taken During Period of Week

James Shelton, who was arrested Sunday by Sheriff Joe W. Lewis and State Trooper Engle on a charge of possessing untaxed beverages, was booked in Magistrate Zeb Ousley's court and is at liberty under bond.

During the week officers booked three for drunk driving and 20 for drunkenness. Among those jailed:

Ralph B. Wells, Richmond, Virginia, arrested by Policemen Ray Click, Woodrow Lafferty and Sam Hale on a drunk driving charge; Hanson Holbrook, Jr., drunk driving, by Policemen Click and Hale; Norman Conn, booked for drunk driving by Deputy Sheriff Milt Hunt; Carl Reed, reckless driving, resisting arrest and failing to stop for siren, jailed by Deputy Sheriffs M. Martin and J. K. Roberts and State Trooper Delmer Laferty.

PARK'S POOL HITS DELAY

Clark Says Facility At Park Should Open Sometime Next Week

Opening of the City Park junior Olympic swimming pool, set for Wednesday of this week, has been delayed by failure of a filter to arrive from the manufacturer. City Manager Curtis Clark said.

The filter has been promised not later than next Monday, and Clark quoted the contractor as saying its installation should require no more than two days.

Clark said the pool should open, sometime during next week. Other work remaining to be done is the installation of diving boards and lights and the plastering of the pool interior.

A minor leak which developed in the pool was no problem, Clark said. Some federal aid on the park was made available last week. Congressman Carl D. Perkins announced that the Department of Housing and Urban Development had made a grant of $1,690 to aid in the purchase of five acres of land for park and recreational purposes. This, he said, represents 50% of the purchase price. City Manager Clark said a 50% grant will be available from the federal government for development of the fair grounds at the park and that the same help can (See Story No. 4, Page 6)

LEWIS ASKS INFORMATION

Thefts, Rum Violation Tips Especially Needed; Asks Letters Be Signed

Sheriff Joe W. Lewis this week appealed to Floyd county citizens who are sincerely interested in law enforcement to cooperate with him to the extent of supplying information.

And he promised to keep strictly confidential the names of any who so favor him. At the same time, Sheriff Lewis asked all peace officers to join him in "bearing down" on the liquor traffic. He said that this is needed all over the county and especially in the areas of county lines, pointing out that the boundaries between Floyd and Pike, Knott and Magoffin counties have their problem spots.

Lewis asked those who write him about thefts and liquor-handling to sign their names to their letters. "Their names will not be used and nobody except me will see them," he promised.

He pointed out that letters which are not signed may contain worthwhile information but that he does not have the time to investigate anonymous tips and cannot afford to put much faith in unsigned letters.

NEW ZONING ACT VOTED

Emphasis Is Placed On Building Permits; Map Changes Effected

A new zoning ordinance which supplants the first such ordinance enacted here in 1959 was approved by the City Council Monday night, almost exactly a month after its completion by the Prestonsburg Zoning Commission with the assistance of the Planning Division of the Kentucky Department of Commerce.

The new ordinance, it was explained, spells out in greater detail what may or may not be done by property-owners in the matter of construction but, in the whole, does not differ greatly from the original ordinance. It emphasizes one point which many property-owners yet do not (See Story No. 8, Page 5)

OPENING OF SKYLIFT SLATED FOR FRIDAY

Official opening of the Mountain Parkway Skylift at Jenny Wiley State Park and its companion attraction, "the world's highest ferris wheel," on top of the mountain to which the skylift carries its passengers, has been set for 11 a.m. tomorrow (Friday).

The skylift itself has been completed, and testing was done during the week. Only odd jobs remain before the opening. In the interim, press, radio and television representatives were taking shots of the new attraction and its surroundings.

Eight thousand pounds of sand were used in the testing process. Each seat was weighted with 300 or more pounds of sand. On occasion, the load was placed on one side to test the skyride's

JURIES VOTE JAIL TERM

2 Liquor Defendants, Fined and Jailed, May Appeal from Verdicts

Jail terms and fines were imposed on two men of the Prestonsburg area Monday by juries of the Floyd quarterly court at the conclusion of their trials on liquor offenses.

W. B. Williams was given trial in absentia and was fined $100 and given a 60-day jail term on each of the two charges against him, possession and sale of intoxicating beverages in local option territory.

Bobby Joseph, Jenny Wiley State Park employee, was fined $100 and given a 60-day jail term on a selling charge.

Williams, owner of a motel on the Dewey Lake road, near Lancer, had previously gained continuances of his case on a doctor's statement to the effect that he was unable to appear for trial. County Judge Henry Stumbo two weeks ago directed that notice be given that the trial would be (See Story No. 6, Page 6)

WET-DRY ELECTION SET FOR JULY 27

Prestonsburg Picked For Annual Meeting On Ky. Development

Prestonsburg and seven other communities have been picked for July sessions of the second annual Kentucky Industrial Development institute, to be co-sponsored by the Kentucky Department of Commerce and the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce.

The institute will offer community industrial development leaders throughout the state expert counseling on how to promote industrial growth.

State Commerce Commissioner Katherine Peden pointed out that the institute workshops will emphasize the problems confronting local development efforts and solutions to those problems.

The institute session here will be held from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., July 27 at Prestonsburg Community College.

WET PETITION HELD VALID BY JUDGE

Arguments on Petition Heard Monday; Judge Says No Alternative

Floyd county wet forces have won their fight for a local option election this year. Date of the election will be Wednesday, July 27.

County Judge Henry Stumbo commented on the wet petition, after a hearing held Monday morning in the circuit courtroom here:

"I have no other alternative. There are irregularities in the petition but not enough names have been challenged to void it."

Judge Stumbo at that time said he probably would enter the order calling the election, sometime Wednesday.

The law provides that such an election must be held not later than 90 days prior to the November general election. July 27 is the last day for the vote to be held within that legal limit.

Monday's hearing was attended by a crowd which filled the courtroom. After hearing arguments of attorneys, Judge Stumbo announced that he was taking the petition under advisement, that he wanted to study the petition further. He indicated at the time, however, that the election date would probably be July 27.

The Christian Dry League of Floyd county opposed the election, contending that many names appeared on the petition more than one time and that many were signed by the same person.

Joe P. Tackett, attorney for the petitioners, argued that the petition bore the signatures of thousands of legal voters and that the dry forces were contesting from 1,100 to 1,500 names, which would still leave enough signers to demand the election. He said that the law provides that 25% of the number of votes cast at the last general election is all that is needed on a petition to have a local option election. This, he said, would mean 3,098 signatures.

"Even if 1,500 names are disallowed, and I don't believe they will be, we still have enough signers to get the election," he said. Judge Stumbo had earlier continued the hearing till this week when dry forces asked time for time to make a study of the petition, validity of which they challenged.

Food Stamp Office Finds New Location, Reopens at Martin

The Food Stamp office serving Magisterial Districts 1 and 2 was reopened today (Thursday) at Martin after having been closed for about three months for lack of adequate housing of the office.

County Judge Henry Stumbo spent a part of Tuesday at Martin as preparations were being made to open the office in the Sea Cafe building, in the "Twin Bridges" area of Martin.

BOARD TO ASSUME HELP TO RETARDED

With the beginning of the school term next fall, the Floyd County Board of Education will assume full responsibility for the training and education of exceptional children of the county.

Essentially, the board of education will be assuming the responsibilities and work that since 1954 has been the problem of the Floyd County Council for Retarded Children.

County Superintendent Charles Clark said this week that for this first year the board will perhaps make no changes in the location of centers for the training of these children—a class for educables and one for trainees at Martin and one trainable class at Prestonsburg, or at the nearby Spradlin Branch school.

He added that he hopes later to have such a school for each of the four main sections of the county. One difficulty the board has encountered is finding teachers for assignment to these classes.

The Council for Retarded Children last year had a budget of about $8,000, and the figure was kept that low because the board of education paid the teacher of the educable class at Martin and churches supplied classrooms.

Mr. Clark said he expects the board to spend 50% more during the coming school year on this work than the $8,000 spent by the Council last year.

All exceptional children, regardless of the financial status of their parents, are eligible to attend the classes.

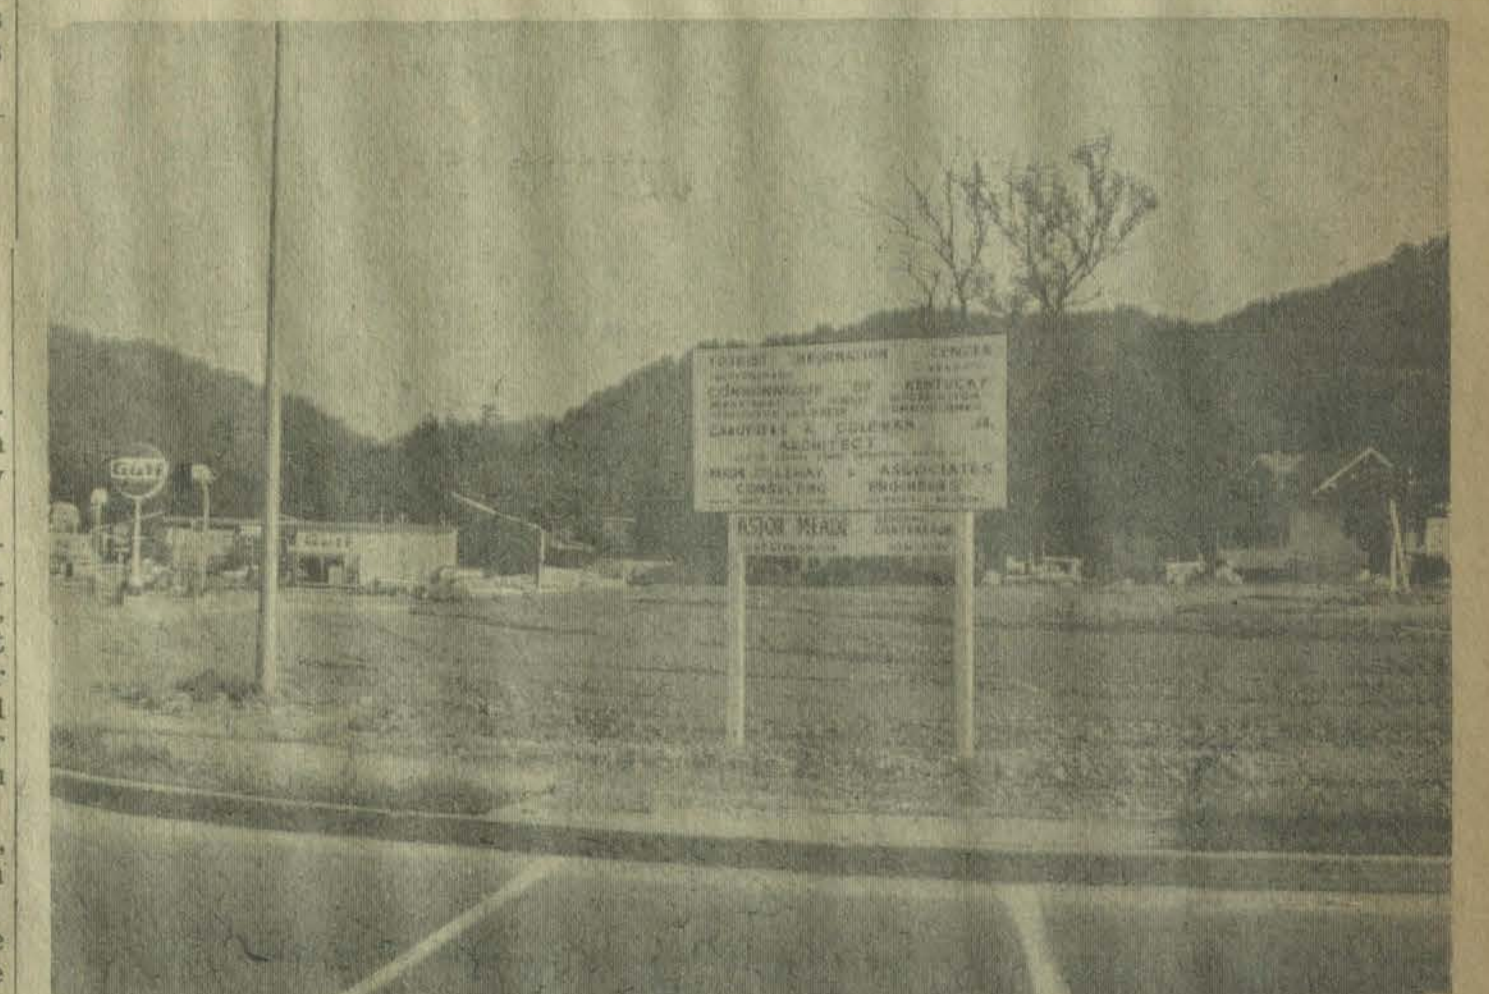

Mrs. D. C. Stephens, of Prestonsburg, president of the Floyd County Council for Retarded Children, said the council will continue to exist, although it no longer will conduct fund-raising drives, including the WPRT-sponsored radio auction, since support of the work will now come from public funds. The Council will continue to offer whatever help it can, cooperating with the board with the aim of reaching and helping every child needing the facilities of such classes.

Mrs. Stephens expressed on behalf of the Council appreciation for the support given by private individuals and business firms during the years when the Council was struggling to keep the work with retarded children going and to the Floyd County Board of Education for its assistance.

"Our struggle," she said, "was to keep the work going till the school board could take over. Now that that has been done, we want to keep our organization alive in order to help out whenever our services may be helpful."

Mrs. Stephens also expressed appreciation for the financial aid given by the Crusade for Children, which is sponsored annually by The Courier-Journal, Louisville Times and WHAS. This help was continued until last year.

Last year, there were 30 children enrolled in the classes here and at Martin.

Read Says 8 Hospitals Meet Civil Rights Act, Eligible for Medicare
 Thomas L. Read, Social Security district manager, announced Monday that eight hospitals in this area have thus far been found eligible under the Civil Rights Act of 1964 to participate in Medicare, beginning July 1, provided they also meet requirements for hospital standards set by the Department. The hospitals found eligible in this area are: Prestonsburg General, Beaver Valley and Our Lady of the Way, in this county; Methodist hospital, Pikeville; Grundy hospital, Grundy, Va.; Paintsville hospital, Paintsville Clinic and the New hospital, all of Paintsville.

The Civil Rights status of other hospitals is now being reviewed, Read said. Their names, he added, will be announced as the information submitted by them is evaluated and processed. Nationwide, 5,583 hospitals have been found eligible, representing approximately 72% of all general and special hospitals able to care for elderly patients, with approximately 77% of hospital beds in this classification.

The 1966 winners of Hall of Fame honors will be announced at the meeting, after which the election of officers will be held.

Dedication of Marker At Moses Stepp Grave To Be Held July 17th

By RUFUS M. REED
 A historical marker placed recently at the grave of Moses Stepp on the Pigeon Roost Valley Road, 10 miles south of Lovey, Kentucky, will be unveiled and dedicated Sunday, July 17, at 2 p.m. The marker, prepared by the Kentucky Historical Society, states that Moses Stepp was a Revolutionary War soldier, and that he fought the Indians and Tories in Carolina and Tennessee. He was captured by the Cherokees, who tortured him and nailed his ears to a tree. He tore loose and escaped to this area where he spent the remainder of his life.

The ancient headstone at his grave states he was born in 1735, died in 1855 at the age of 120 years. He is believed to have been the oldest man living in Kentucky.

Principal speaker for the dedication will be Henry P. Scaf, Floyd county historian, whose wife is a direct descendant of Moses Stepp. Other speakers expected to take part are Clifford Ward, editor of The Martin County Journal, and W. A. Wentworth, Frankfort, state chairman of the Highway Historical Marker Program.

IN MEMORY
 In memory of our beloved husband and father, Rev. Green B. Allen, who passed to his eternal home June 25, 1965:
 He, who always knew the worth of every little clod of earth— Who knew how each row should be planned And placed each seed with careful hand So all the plants could grow up straight And strong enough to bear the weight Of fruit when it was fully grown— He has left his garden all alone, The garden he had loved and tended, Because his days with it are ended. But he has comradeship that is rare With all the new things growing there, Sharing the beauties of the night That are obscured in common sight; Knowing the way that he must go, Finds rest in earth that he loved so.

Sadly missed by HIS FAMILY—WIFE, CHILDREN, GRANDCHILDREN and GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN 4-1-

WHITE DEATH UNDER PROBE
Body of Dentist Found Atop Powell-Co. Cliff; Onetime Pike Resident

Marks found on the wrists and ankles of a dead man in Powell county June 2 could have been caused by rope or other bindings, investigating officers said.

The body of Dr. David Cody White, formerly of Pikeville, 43-year-old Frankfort dentist, was found near the top of a 60-foot cliff about 15 feet from his parked car.

A four-foot stone wall was between the body and the man's car, parked at a scenic overlook on Ky. 15 (the Mountain Parkway).

Powell county Coroner Carl Wells said that the wrist and ankle marks did not rule out any cause of death. An examination of the body also disclosed that the right wrist was broken.

It was said that the victim was shot in the back of the head at the base of his skull. The bullet, which lodged in the front and upper part of his head, was removed for ballistics tests, and an autopsy was performed at the University of Kentucky Medical Center. Coroner Wells said he did not expect to call a jury for an inquest until sometime this week when he hopes to have all the necessary information assembled.

A .38-caliber pistol was reported found besides the man's body. Ownership of the pistol has not been disclosed and officials investigating the death have been reluctant to discuss their findings, pending a formal hearing after all evidence has been compiled.

Dr. White, who lived at 8 Grand View Drive, Frankfort, was a former Pikeville dentist and had practiced in California before moving to Frankfort.

Coroner Wells said Dr. White had been dead several hours when his body was discovered by two tourists.

State Police reported the body was lying about three feet from the top of a 60-foot cliff beyond a four-foot stone wall which borders the overlook where a view of the Mountain Parkway often attracts tourists.

Dr. White's car was parked in the space provided at the overlook, which is atop Slade Hill on a curve about 13 miles west of Stanton. The car was headed west and the key was still in the ignition. The body was about 15 feet from the car.

A member of Dr. White's family said the dentist was in the habit of taking Wednesday afternoons off from his work and appeared in top spirits and good health Wednesday afternoon, June 1.

The family member said Dr. White left his Frankfort home about 2 p.m., June 1, to return to his office to attend to some minor business details and announced that he would be back home within a few minutes.

His wife and daughter became concerned when hours passed and he failed to return home. After failing to locate him at his office or elsewhere that afternoon and night, his wife notified officers that night.

Born in Elliott county, he was the son of James E. White and Rilla Mobley White, of Ashland. He was a veteran of World War II and the Korean War. He was a member of various Masonic orders and El Hasa Temple of Shriners at Ashland.

Survivors, other than his parents, include his wife, Mrs. Emily Ratliff White; a daughter, Miss Kitty White, at home, and a sister, Mrs. Ione Warren, of Dallas, Texas.

Funeral services were held at the First Presbyterian Church, Pikeville. Burial was made in Johnson Memorial Park.

LBJ'S DOG KILLED
Lincoln, Neb.—President Johnson's pet beagle dog, Him, was run over and killed on the White House lawn yesterday. Mrs. Johnson was notified of the accident while taking part in a big parade here.

FEDERAL, COUNTY FARM VALUES VARY

If the U. S. Bureau of the Census and the Floyd county Tax Commissioner's office are ever to get their figures reconciled, something's got to give. The former will have to revise its farm evaluation figures, 'way up, or the assessment figures will have to drop. Here's why:

At the last agriculture census (in 1964) the Bureau of the Census listed only 768 farms in this county and all 768, including buildings, were valued at only $5,346,584. But the 1966 assessment figures tell a different story — the total assessment of farm lands stands at $17,257,603. And this 1966 figure excludes rural plots of less than six acres.

While the assessment for tax purposes shows a record increase, the trend is downward with the Census Bureau. That agency of the federal government showed a decrease in the number of farms between its census of 1959 and the last in 1964. The value of farm products sold, crops, livestock and livestock products likewise dropped.

The 1959 census showed 1,209 farms as against 768 in 1964; the value of farm products sold as $199,862 in 1964, as compared to $285,915 five years earlier; the value of crops in 1964, $71,470, approximately $7,000 less than in 1959.

The value of livestock and livestock products was placed at $207,866 in 1959, but this total had dropped in 1964 to $128,391.

fully realize—that a building permit must first be procured before almost any type of structure can be erected here.

The new zoning plan takes into account the fact that U.S. 23 no longer is to be regarded as extending on through Prestonsburg to Lancer. As a result, the city planning map (which is available for inspection at City Hall) has been changed to make some areas which had previously been restricted to business now open for residential construction.

The new ordinance provides that no residence may be built in a district zoned for business. The old did not include this prohibition. The aim, it was explained, is to protect the property-owner who, without such an ordinance, might find a garage or other commercial structure going up beside his home. Clearance between buildings is required to minimize fire hazards.

Application for building permits are to be filed with Chester Meade, building inspector.

Meade, the Fire Department and the Floyd County Health Department are now engaged in a move to eliminate sub-standard homes in Prestonsburg. Homes declared unfit for human habitation or dangerous to occupants will be branded so, and their owners will be required to improve the buildings to meet required standards or to tear them down.

Homes to be labeled "Unfit for Habitation" will include those which are not connected to the city sewer system, it was said this week. There are dozens of such homes, and action is planned during the summer.

FLOYD SENDS RECORD GROUP TO DISTRICT 4-H CLUB CAMP

Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia.

They will supplement the work of 29 regular VISTA volunteers now serving on one-year assignments in the area.

About half of the 500 summer volunteers are from colleges in the Appalachian area. These will continue to serve through next winter on week-ends and during school vacations.

The others come from 35 other states. Kentucky furnished the largest single group, Shriver said.

The volunteers began a 10-day orientation Wednesday. The first four days will be spent at East Tennessee State University, Johnson City, Tennessee. The remaining six days will be spent in the field in areas closer to their assignments.

Then they will work in the communities until about August 20.

Volunteers will receive the regular VISTA pay—a subsistence allowance plus $50 a month at termination. Shriver said he hoped some of the volunteers would get involved enough in the project to come back later as one-year volunteers.

Volunteers will be assigned only to communities where they have been invited. Most are small, isolated, and beset by poverty. The volunteers will live with the families they serve.

They will work in a variety of community programs, stressing remedial education for both adults and children.

Kentucky was the first state in the nation to establish complete vocational rehabilitation facilities in all state mental hospitals.

TIMES WANT ADS REALLY WORK WONDERS!

David Cooley, the great-great grandfather of the present I. Richmond Co. Store manager, operated a general store in Prestonsburg more than a hundred years ago. He owned a bear which was kept chained to a tree next to the store. It was his custom in those days to invite home for lunch all customers who happened to be in the store at the noon hour. The invitation was usually accepted and store and bear were left unattended.

On one such occasion he and his friends returned to the store to find the bear had broken his chain and was inside the building. They found him inside the overturned sugar barrel, enjoying the sweet. As a result of this incident he staged the first sale in Prestonsburg... A sale of the sugar from the barrel, at bargain prices.

And now Richmond's go back to the bear and this bit of history to turn over barrels and barrels of bargains in their vacation-time sale.

AND IT WAS THEN
I am aware of the inadvisability of overmuch harking back, but I wonder if boys still find a hole in the road filled with dust and make that squishing sound and miniature explosion by socking a bare foot down into it, hard.
We played farmer in the dust, back then, on many cooling dusks laying off a field in the roadway, planting imaginary corn and going through all the motions of farming, short of getting down to work. What a marvelous age that was—there wasn't a car to come along and tear through your field and its fine "crop" growing right there in the road.

OLD STORY—NEW VERSION
This mother whom I know had patiently advised her son as to what he should and shouldn't do, and got nowhere at all. Another of the family didn't help matters by remarking that "your little boy is a big man now."
The incident reminded her of the old story of the hen who sat on a batch of duck eggs and hatched the little creatures and loved and clucked away at them, never knowing that she wasn't the mother of a fine brood of young chicks. Then came the day that her "chickens" took to the pond and while the frantic hen ran, clucking and squawking back and forth along the shore, swam heedlessly away.
"I think of the hen when I talk and advise and suggest and see them go ahead as if I had never spoken," she said. "There's something funny about that story of the mother hen and her brood of ducklings, but at the moment I just don't seem to find it."

No "Quickie" Divorces
Under New Legislation
One of the laws enacted at the 1966 General Assembly session became effective today (Thursday), and it ended "quickie" divorces.
The new law requires both an interlocutory and a final decree before the divorce is final, and between the first decree and the last must be a period of 60 days.

ZONING ORDINANCE FOR

THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY

ARTICLE I PREAMBLE

11. ENACTING CLAUSE

The City Council of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, as authorized by the Kentucky Revised Statutes, Sections 100.500 through 100.600, ordains as follows:
12. TITLE

This ordinance is entitled "Zoning Ordinance for the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky," and may be referred to as the Zoning Ordinance. The Zoning Map referred to herein is entitled the "Zoning Map for Prestonsburg, Kentucky," and may be referred to as the Zoning Map. The Prestonsburg Zoning Map is hereby made a part of this Ordinance. There is on file with the Prestonsburg City Clerk one copy of the map and text comprising together the official Zoning Ordinance for the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky. A certified copy of the map and text are on file with the Planning Commission. The Chairman of the Planning Commission shall be responsible for maintaining the currency of both the official Zoning Map and the certified copy, according to Sections 65 and 66 of this ordinance.

13. PURPOSE

The purpose of this ordinance is to promote the general welfare by establishing and regulating zoning districts throughout the City of Prestonsburg for the specific purposes detailed in the Kentucky Revised Statutes, Section 100.520. In establishing the zoning districts, this ordinance seeks the general welfare, in other words, by designating sufficient space for all necessary uses of the land, by protecting the permitted uses in each district from the undesirable effects of conflicting uses, and by ensuring the stable value of all permitted development. This ordinance further seeks the general welfare by protecting the efficiency and encouraging the improvement of traffic circulation and access to the land in all districts in order that daily travel and commerce may increase in safety and may be carried forth with a minimum of delay for the benefit of all activities and persons in the City of Prestonsburg.

ARTICLE II
GENERAL REGULATIONS

21. DEFINITIONS

The words which are defined are those which have special or limited meanings as used in this zoning ordinance and might not otherwise be clear. Words whose meanings are self-evident as used in this zoning ordinance are not defined here.

1. Accessory Structure or Use: Any structure or use, other than the principal structure or use, directly incidental to or required for the enjoyment of the permitted use of any premises; also as specifically designated under the zoning district regulations of this zoning ordinance.

2. Alley: A public passage or way affording a secondary means of vehicular access to abutting property and not intended for general traffic circulation.

3. Agriculture: The use of the land only (minus agricultural structures) for the cultivation of crops or the raising of animals or preservation in its natural state.

4. Agricultural Structure: Any structure or building accessory to the principal agricultural use of the land.

5. Alteration: Any change or addition to the load-bearing members or the foundation of a structure.

6. Building: Any structure constructed or used for residence, business, industry, or other public or private purposes, or accessory thereto; and including tents, lunch wagons, dining cars, and similar structures, which fully enclose space for occupancy by persons or their activities.

Principal Building: A building, including covered porches, carports and attached garages in which is conducted the principal use of the lot on which it is situated. In any residence district any dwelling shall be deemed to be the principal building on the lot on which the same is situated.

7. Commercial Floor Area: Floor area of buildings which is devoted to the storage and display of merchandise, the performance of consumer services, or the circulation and accommodation of customers.

8. Consumer Services: Sale of any service to individual customers for their own personal benefit, enjoyment, or convenience, and for fulfillment of their merchandise, the performance of consumer services, include the provision of personal services such as cleaning and barbering, the provision of lodging, entertainment, specialized instruction, financial services, automobile storage, transportation, and similar services.

9. Dwelling: A dwelling is a building providing shelter, sanitation, and the amenities for permanent habitation. It does not include mobile homes, temporary lodging, or sleeping rooms.

Dwelling Unit: One room, or rooms, connected together, constituting a separate, independent housekeeping establishment for owner occupancy, or rental or lease on a weekly, monthly, or longer basis, and physically separated from any other rooms or dwelling units which may be in the same structure, and containing independent cooking and sleeping facilities.

10. Family: One or more persons occupying a single dwelling unit, provided that unless all members are related by blood or marriage, no such family shall contain over five persons, but further provided that domestic servants employed on the premises may be housed on the premises without being counted as a family or families.

11. Height of Structure: The vertical distance measured from the average finished grade at the front building line to the highest point of the structure.

12. Home Occupations: Professional offices, studios, personal services, and the renting of sleeping rooms maintained or conducted within a dwelling. Such activities are incidental to the principal residential use and involve the employment of no more than one person who does not reside on the premises.

Such activities occupy no more than twenty-five percent of the total floor area of a dwelling. Any activity in which the selling of any merchandise is the primary function is not a home occupation.

13. Industry, Heavy: Those industries whose processing of products results in the emission of any atmosphere pollutant, light flashes or glare, odors, noise, or vibration which may be heard or felt off the premises, and those industries which constitute a fire or explosion hazard.

Industry, Light: Those industries whose processing or products result in none of the above conditions.

14. Lot: A parcel of land under one ownership devoted to a common use or occupied by a single principal building plus accessory structures. Agricultural tracts are not included.

Mobile Home Space: A parcel of land delineated within a mobile home park upon which may be located one mobile home. The word space, when used in Section 24.1 and 24.2 of this order, shall be held to mean "mobile home space."

17. Nonretail Commercial: Commercial sales and services to customers who intend resale of the products or merchandise sold or handled. For example, nonretail commercial includes wholesaling, warehousing, trucking terminals, and similar commercial enterprises.

18. Outdoor: Refers to that which is not within a building.

19. Planned-Development Project: A complex of structures and uses planned as an integral unit of development rather than as single structures on single lots.

20. Premises: A lot or other tract of land under one ownership, and all the structures on it.

21. Processing: Manufacturing, packaging, repairing, cleaning, and any other similar original or restorative treatment applied to raw materials, products, or personal property. Processing does not refer to the fabrication of structures.

22. Public-Service Building: Any building necessary for the operation and maintenance of a utility.

23. Retail Sales: Sale of any product or merchandise to customers for their own personal consumption and use, and not for resale.

24. Road: A traffic-carrying way. As used in this zoning ordinance, a road may be privately owned.

25. Signs, Advertising: Any device designed to inform or attract the attention of persons not on the premises on which the sign is located, provided however that the following shall not be included in the application of the regulations herein:

a. Signs not exceeding one square foot in area and bearing only property numbers, post box numbers, names of occupants of premises, or other identification of premises not having commercial connotations;

b. Flags and insignia of any government except when displayed in connection with commercial promotion;

c. Legal notices, identification, informational, or directional signs erected or required by governmental bodies;

d. Integral decorative or architectural features of buildings, except letters, trademarks, moving parts, or moving lights;

e. Signs directing and guiding traffic and parking on private property, but bearing no advertising matter and four (4) square feet or less in area.

Signs, Number and Surface Area: For the purpose of determining number of signs, a sign shall be considered to be a single display surface or display device containing elements organized, related, and composed to form a unit. Where matter is displayed in a random matter without organized relationship of elements, or where there is reasonable doubt about the relationship of elements, each element shall be considered to be a single sign.

The surface area of a sign shall be computed as including the entire area with a regular geometric form or combinations of regular geometric forms comprising all of the display area of the sign and including all of the elements of the matter displayed. Frames and structural members not bearing advertising matter shall not be included in computation of surface area.

Sign, On-Site: A sign relating in its subject matter to the premises on which it is located, or to products, accommodations, services, or activities on the premises. On-site signs do not include signs erected by the outdoor advertising industry in the conduct of the outdoor advertising business.

Sign, Off-Site: A sign other than an on-site sign.

26. Sleeping Room: A single room rented for dwelling purposes but without the amenities for separate and independent housekeeping.

27. Special Use: A use which must receive special approval by the Planning Commission, or by the Board of Adjustment if delegated, in order to be permitted in a zoning district.

28. Street: Any highway or other public traffic-carrying way. An arterial street is any numbered Federal, State, or County highway or as designated by the Planning Commission.

29. Structure: Any combination of materials fabricated to fulfill a function in a fixed location on the land; includes buildings.

30. Trailer: Any vehicle or similar portable structure used or so constructed as to permit its being used as a conveyance to transport cargo other than persons upon the streets and highways. The term "trailer" does not mean "mobile home" as defined and used in this ordinance.

31. Use: Broadly, refers to the activities which take place on any land or premises and/or to the structures located thereon and designed for those activities.

32. Variance: A departure from strict conformance with the dimension and area regulations, which may be approved by the Board of Adjustment.

33. Yard: The open space surrounding the principal building on any lot, unoccupied and unobstructed by any portion of that building from the ground to the sky except where specifically permitted by this zoning ordinance. Yards are further defined as follows:

Front Yard: That portion of the yard extending the full width of the lot and measured between the front lot line and a parallel line tangent to the nearest part of the principal building, which line shall be designated as the front yard line.

Rear Yard: That portion of the yard extending the full width of the lot and measured between the rear lot line and a parallel line tangent to the nearest part of the principal building.

Side Yards: Those portions of the yard extending from the front yard to the rear yard and measured between the side lot lines and parallel lines tangent to the nearest parts of the principal building.

22. APPLICATION OF REGULATIONS

All existing and future structures and uses of premises within the City of Prestonsburg shall conform with all applicable provisions of this ordinance. Each zoning district is established to permit only those uses specifically listed as permitted, except as hereinafter provided under the nonconforming provisions, and is intended for the protection of those areas.

23. GENERAL REGULATIONS
FOR STRUCTURES AND USES

23.1 NONCONFORMING STRUCTURES

Nonconforming structures may be continued subject to the following regulations:

A. Alterations: A nonconforming structure shall not be enlarged, replaced, or structurally altered except in conformance with this ordinance. Any structure, however, may be restored to a safe condition if declared unsafe by the Enforcement Officer or other official with jurisdiction.

B. Restoration: A nonconforming structure damaged more than 50 percent of its replacement value shall not be restored except in conformance with this ordinance. Value of the site of undamaged buildings on the site, and of other improvements on or about the site may not be used in determining percent of damage to the particular structure or structures. Restoration must be begun within ninety (90) days of the date of damage, and in accordance with all pertinent regulations.

C. Construction approved prior to adoption or amendment of this ordinance: Proposed buildings for which building permits have been issued prior to their designation as nonconforming by the adoption or amendment of this zoning ordinance may be completed and used as originally intended provided they are completed and in use one year after the date on which the permit was issued.

23.2 NONCONFORMING USES

Nonconforming uses may be continued subject to the following regulations:

A. Extensions: A nonconforming use shall not be extended or moved to occupy any portion of land or a structure which would otherwise conform with this ordinance.

B. Discontinuance: Whenever a nonconforming use of any premises has been discontinued for a period of six months, no nonconforming use may be re-established on those premises.

C. No nonconforming use may be changed to any other nonconforming use unless the Board of Zoning Adjustment shall find that the proposed nonconforming use is less detrimental to the district than the existing nonconforming use of the property. The Board of Zoning Adjustment may specify such appropriate conditions and safeguards as may be required in connection with such change.

23.3 APPROVED WATER SUPPLY AND SEWAGE-DISPOSAL FOR BUILDINGS

It shall be unlawful to construct any building without water-supply and sewage-disposal facilities approved by the County Health Officer. Wherever water and sewer mains are accessible, buildings shall be connected to such mains. In every other case, individual water supply and sewage disposal must meet the requirements set by the County Health Officer. The County Health Officer's certificate approving proposed and completed water sewage facilities must accompany applications for building permits and certificates of occupancy.

23.4 REGULATION OF PRINCIPAL BUILDINGS

Unless a plat has been approved for a planned-development project, only one principal building and its permitted accessory structures may be erected on any lot of record. Temporary structures are permitted during construction only.

23.5 PLANNED-DEVELOPMENT PROJECT

A planned-development project which may depart from the literal conformance with the regulations for individual-lot development may be permitted in those zoning districts where it is designated as a special use under the zoning-district regulations, or may be permitted in any district after an amendment to the zoning ordinance. All planned-development projects shall be subject to the following regulations:

A. Procedure: When a planned-development project is proposed, the procedure and standards for subdivision approval as set forth in the Prestonsburg Subdivision Regulations shall be followed in their entirety. A preliminary plat and final plat, both approved by the Prestonsburg Planning Commission, shall be required for every planned-development project. The Planning Commission may establish a schedule of reasonable fees to be charged for plat review. The project shall be developed according to the approved final plat. Building permits and certificates of occupancy shall be required for each building according to Sections 52 and 53 of this ordinance.

B. Uses: The uses of premises in a planned-development project shall conform with the permitted uses of the zoning district in which it is located when it is permitted as a special use. If a planned-development project is proposed which includes mixed uses or other uses that are not permitted in the zoning district where it is proposed, or uses not permitted in any zoning district, the project may be permitted after an amendment to the zoning map designating the proposed location as a planned-development district in conformance with Section 64 of this ordinance. The amendment may be made after the conditional approval of the preliminary plat and shall be valid only for that project as approved.

C. Standards: In any planned-development project, although it is permissible to depart from literal conformance with the individual-lot dimension and area regulations, there shall be no diminution of the total equivalent-lot-area, parking-area, and loading- and unloading-area requirements that would be necessary for the equivalent amount of individual-lot development. The Planning Commission may allow reductions in these requirements, however, upon proof by the developer that efficiencies of large-scale development may permit such reductions without destroying the intent of this ordinance.

D. Special Conditions: The Planning Commission shall attach reasonable special conditions to insure that there shall be no departure from the intent of this zoning ordinance. The planned-development project shall conform with all such conditions. Because a planned-development project is inherently more complex than individual lot development and because each such project must be tailored specifically to the topography and neighboring uses, the standards for such projects cannot be inflexible.

The following standards define the typical special conditions the Planning Commission shall attach in addition to the standards for lot, parking, and loading- and unloading-area defined in paragraph C above. The Planning Commission may also attach any other reasonable special conditions.

1. It is desirable that access points to all arterial streets shall be located no more frequently than once every eighth-to-quarter-mile. The Planning Commission may approve the platting of temporary access points in conformance with Section 25.1 of this zoning ordinance.

2. Wherever there is an abrupt change in use—e.g., residential to commercial—it is desirable that a buffer area of open space or protective planting be placed between them in order to protect each use from the undesirable effects of the other.

3. Parking and other public areas used at night shall be adequately lighted, and private areas shall be adequately protected from such lighting and any other lighting from public areas. Public streets may also require protection from excessive glare of lighted areas.

4. It is desirable that all planned-development projects be constructed promptly after approval of the final plat. Construction shall be initiated within one year after approval of the final plat.

23.6 SPECIAL-USE REGULATIONS

Special uses may be permitted in districts as designated under the zoning-district regulations but only when specially approved by the Planning Commission. The Planning Commission may delegate any portion of its authority for approval or disapproval of special uses, with the exception of that of planned-development projects, to the Board of Adjustment and may also withdraw such delegation of authority. Such delegation or withdrawal shall be effected by written notice to the Board of Adjustment by recording in the official minutes of the Planning Commission. All special uses shall be subject to the following regulations unless otherwise stated in this order:

A. All districts: The following special uses only may be approved in all zoning districts:

1. Non-local public utility and private transmission lines and pipes.

2. Radio, television, and telephone transmission towers.

The Enforcement Officer shall refer the application to the Planning Commission, or to the Board of Adjustment in cases where the authority has been delegated to it. The Planning Commission may establish a schedule of reasonable fees to be charged for special-use building permits. The applicant shall meet with the Planning Commission or the Board of Adjustment, either of which may attach reasonable special conditions to an approval of a special use to insure that there shall be no departure from the intent of this zoning ordinance. These special conditions may be similar to the conditions that may be required for planned-development projects. Effect of the special use on surrounding uses shall be considered in determining whether a special use shall be approved or disapproved. The Planning Commission, or the Board of Adjustment if delegated, may approve the application and may issue written authorization to the Enforcement Officer to issue a building permit in full conformance with Section 52.3. The special use, if approved, shall conform with all attached conditions.

24. COORDINATION WITH KENTUCKY
REVISED STATUTES ON SPECIFIC USES

24.1 MOBILE HOME PARKS

Mobile Home Parks may be permitted only in those zoning districts where they are designated as a special use under the zoning-district regulations. All mobile home parks shall conform with all provisions of the Kentucky Revised Statutes 219.120 through 219.250 and shall conform with all applicable provisions of this zoning ordinance and all attached special conditions. All mobile home parks shall be subject to the following regulations:

A. Procedure: In applying for a building permit for a mobile home park, the applicant shall follow the procedure set forth in Section 23.6 C of this ordinance describing the application procedure for special uses. The plan to be submitted to the Enforcement Officer shall show at least the following information:

- 1. Name and address of applicant.
- 2. Name and location of mobile home park.
- 3. Dimensions and locations of all lot lines, roads, easements, and mobile home spaces. Each mobile home space shall be numbered.
- 4. Contour lines to indicate slope and drainage.
- 5. Location of all utilities: public and private water, sewage, drainage, and electrical facilities and easements.
- 6. Public areas such as visitors' parking, recreational areas, etc., if such areas are proposed.
- 7. Large-scale plan of one typical mobile home space, showing home location, automobile parking area, etc.
- 8. Location of planting for landscaping purposes or as required for protective buffer purposes as a special condition.

B. Standards: All mobile home parks shall conform with the following standards for development:

1. All mobile home parks shall include spaces for at least ten mobile homes. Mobile homes are not permitted on individual lots outside of approved mobile home parks in any district unless specifically permitted by other provisions of this order.

2. Each mobile home shall have a space of at least 3,000 square feet and shall be at least 40 feet wide.

3. All mobile home parks shall front on a public street for at least one hundred feet.

4. No mobile home or accessory building or structure shall be located closer to any street than the minimum front yard setback for permanent residential structure along said street. Where the mobile home park is not bounded by a dedicated street the minimum setback shall be twenty-five (25) feet.

5. No mobile home shall be located within thirty (30) feet of another mobile home, except that a minimum end-to-end clearance of not less than ten (10) feet shall be permitted, and in instance where the sides opposite the entrance of two (2) mobile homes face each other, the distance between the two mobile homes may be reduced to not less than twenty (20) feet. No mobile home, accessory building, or structure, including patios and carports shall be located within five (5) feet of any individual space boundary.

6. A road with a pavement at least twenty (20) feet wide shall provide direct access to each mobile home space. The area occupied by the road shall not fulfill part of the area requirements for any space. All roads shall be designed to enable mobile homes entering the mobile home park to reverse direction without having to back more than one mobile home length.

7. Automobile Parking Area: See Section 26.1 D 2.

8. All mobile home parks shall conform with the State Board of Health regulations which prescribe standards for water supply, sewage-disposal, and other facilities, and to all other pertinent City, County, or State codes, ordinances, and regulations. Each mobile home park shall be adequately drained so that no mobile home space shall be subject to the collection of storm water.

9. All mobile home parks shall be used for the exclusive purpose of providing parking spaces for mobile homes, except that this shall not be construed to prevent the erection of any structure, such as an office building which would be used solely for the administrative activities connected with the park, or storage shelters which would be used by the residents of the same park for the purpose of storing personal effects, or any other structure which may be deemed an accessory to the operation of a mobile home park.

C. Issuance of building permit: The Planning Commission, or the Board of Adjustment if delegated by the Planning Commission, may attach reasonable special conditions to its approval of mobile home parks and may direct the Enforcement Officer to issue a building permit when the applicant presents a valid construction permit from the State Department of Health as required by Kentucky Revised Statutes 219.150. The Enforcement Officer shall not issue the building permit until the valid construction permit is presented.

D. Issuance of certificate of occupancy: The Enforcement Officer shall issue a certificate of occupancy only after he has determined that the mobile home park has been prepared according to all applicable regulations and special conditions and only after the applicant presents a valid permit to operate from the State Department of Health, as required by Kentucky Revised Statutes 219.130.

E. Enforcement: The Enforcement Officer shall ensure that all mobile home parks maintain valid permits to operate and maintain conformance with all applicable regulations of this zoning ordinance and all special conditions.

24.2 INDIVIDUAL MOBILE HOMES

A. A mobile home is permitted on a lot of record other than in a mobile home park in those districts where they are designated as a special use if it may be shown that no such park facilities are available within reasonable proximity and that all other provisions of this and other city ordinances and the Kentucky Revised Statutes pertaining to mobile homes are satisfied, and providing that they conform to all regulations established for principal buildings in those districts. Such permission must be secured from the Planning Commission and is subject to termination after reasonable notice when adequate facilities within a lawful trailer park become available. The Prestonsburg Planning Commission shall decide the availability or unavailability of lawful mobile home park space, as intended by this section.

B. No part of this ordinance shall be construed so as to prevent a resident of a conventional home to park a single mobile home on the same lot, provided that the mobile home is parked on the rear of the lot and the set-back and yard requirements for an accessory building in the district are observed and that the mobile home is not connected to any service utility nor used for sleeping or residency purposes.

24.3 JUNKYARDS

Junkyards are not designated as permitted uses in any district and are consequently nonconforming uses in all districts. They shall conform with Section 23.2 of this ordinance prescribing regulations for nonconforming uses. The Enforcement Officer shall ensure that all existing junkyards maintain valid permits to operate issued by the Kentucky Department of Highways, as required by the Kentucky Revised Statutes 177.905 through 177.990, and he shall ensure that all screening required by the Department of Highways is maintained as long as the junkyards remain in operation.

25. GENERAL REGULATIONS
FOR LOTS AND YARDS

25.1 CO-ORDINATION WITH SUBDIVISION REGULATIONS

In all cases where the ownership of land is divided for the purpose of eventual development of lots of any kind—residential, commercial, or industrial—the provisions of the Prestonsburg Subdivision Regulations shall apply in addition to the provisions of this ordinance. It is desirable that access points to the major streets serving all zoning districts shall be located no more frequently than once every eighth-to-quarter-mile. Topography and traffic volumes shall determine the exact locations, heavy volumes requiring greater spacing. Along any major street where subdivided land and its minor streets are not sufficiently developed to permit acceptably spaced access points, the Planning Commission may approve the platting of temporary access points and may require that temporary access points shall be eliminated by the developer when minor streets or marginal access streets are extended to the permanent access points.

25.2 OBSTRUCTIONS TO VISION
AT STREET INTERSECTIONS

The following shall apply in all but Central Business Districts. Within the area defined by the intersection of any two right-of-way lines of streets, or of streets and railroads, and a straight line intersecting those two right-of-way lines at points thirty feet from their intersection, no obstructions to vision between a height of three and one half feet and ten feet above the imaginary plane defined by those three points of intersection are permitted. This regulation shall not be deemed to prohibit any necessary retaining wall.

25.3 FRONT YARD REGULATIONS
FOR DOUBLE-FRONTAGE LOTS

Double-frontage lots shall, on both of the streets involved, meet the front-yard regulations of the district in which they are located.

25.4 FRONT YARD REGULATIONS
FOR CORNER LOTS

Corner lots shall meet the front-yard regulation on the side facing the principal street, but a ten-foot reduction in the front yard regulation is permitted on the side facing the secondary street, providing such reduction does not result in a side yard less than that otherwise required by this ordinance.

25.5 APPLICATION OF YARDS TO ONE BUILDING ONLY

No part of a yard required for any building may be included as fulfilling the yard requirements for an adjacent building.

25.6 USE OF YARDS FOR ACCESSORY BUILDINGS

No accessory buildings are permitted in front yards. They are permitted in rear or side yards according to the dimension and area regulations.

26. GENERAL REGULATIONS FOR VEHICLES

26.1 OFF-STREET PARKING SPACE REGULATIONS FOR AUTOMOBILES

A. Existing parking space: Existing off-street parking provided for any building or use at the time of adoption of this ordinance shall not thereafter be reduced if such reduction results in parking area less than that required by this ordinance. Any existing building or use not provided with conforming parking space shall be provided with off-street parking space in conformance with this ordinance at the time of any structural alteration of the building or expansion of the use.

B. Required off-street parking space: When any building is built or any use of the land is initiated, there shall be provided sufficient off-street parking space on the premises so that no automobile parking on any street will result from the normal activity. If the off-street parking capacity is exceeded and street parking is generated more often than six times during a six-month period, this shall be considered as resulting from normal activity, and additional off-street parking shall be provided. The Board of Adjustment shall interpret the amount of parking space required for any building or use, assisted by the following standards, whenever the Enforcement Officer is unable to apply the following standards literally or determines a parking-space deficiency according to the standard above. In either case, he shall apply to the Board for an original interpretation.

C. Parking Space: For the purposes of this ordinance, an off-street parking space shall consist of a space adequate for parking an automobile with room for opening doors on both sides, together with properly related access to a public street or alley and maneuvering room. Required off-street parking areas for three or more automobiles shall have individual spaces marked, and shall be so designed, maintained, and regulated that no parking or maneuvering incidental to parking shall be on any public street, walk, or alley, and so that any automobile may be parked and unparked without moving another. For purposes of rough computation, an off-street parking space and necessary access and maneuvering room may be estimated at 300 square feet, but off-street parking requirements will be considered to be met only when actual spaces meeting the requirements above are provided and maintained, improved in a manner appropriate to the circumstances of the case, and in accordance with all ordinances and regulations of the city.

D. Off-street parking standards: The following standards comprise the minimum off-street parking requirements for the several common types of building and uses listed.

1. Dwelling: one parking space per dwelling unit.

2. Mobile home park: one automobile parking area shall be provided on every mobile home space, plus one parking area for every four spaces in the park.

3. Indoor retail businesses: one parking space for each 100 square feet of commercial floor area plus one space for every truck operated by the business, in a Central Business District. For such businesses in a Neighborhood or General Business District, there shall be provided four spaces for the first 1,000 square feet of total floor area, plus one additional space for each 150 square feet of such floor area.

4. Industrial plants: one parking space for every two employees at maximum employment on a single shift plus one space for every truck operated by the plant.

5. Places for public assembly, institutions, and recreational facilities: one parking space for every five persons, based on maximum capacity.

6. Additional parking standards: The Board of Adjustment may raise the standards listed above when necessary to conform with paragraph B and shall use similar criteria of floor area, employment, or capacity to interpret standards for buildings and uses not specifically listed above.

26.2 OFF-STREET LOADING AND UN

distance of four hundred feet from the premises it serves, and may be consolidated into a large parking area serving other buildings and uses if approved by the Board of Adjustment. The Enforcement Officer shall apply to the Board for an original interpretation when building permits are requested in such cases. The Board may not authorize the total amount of parking space required for all buildings and uses to be diminished, except as follows: if a consolidated parking area serves buildings or uses which do not generate automobile parking at the same times — e.g., churches and stores — total parking space may be diminished to the maximum required by those buildings and uses which do generate the parking of automobiles at the same time.

B. Proof of availability: The Board of Adjustment may require a plat, deed, and any other proof necessary to show that required parking space, if located on the premises it serves, is controlled by and available to the applicant for a building permit.

C. Surfacing of parking, loading, and unloading spaces: Parking, loading, and unloading spaces and the access thereto shall be surfaced in a manner adequate to eliminate dust and mud.

26.4 PARKING AND STORAGE OF CERTAIN VEHICLES

(A) Automobile vehicles or trailers of any type without current license plates shall not be parked or stored on any property in a Residential District R-1, R-2, or R-3 (see Article IV) other than in completely enclosed buildings.

27.2 HEIGHT EXCEPTIONS

Height regulations apply to buildings and portions of buildings occupied regularly by human beings. Unless otherwise provided, they do not apply to structures or portions of buildings such as radio towers, silos, and flag poles, which are not regularly occupied by human beings except for maintenance. The Board of Adjustment shall interpret whether the height regulations apply whenever there is doubt.

If the area in question was delineated by amendment to this original zoning ordinance, the wording of said amendment, as recorded in the official minutes of the Prestonsburg City Council, shall define the boundary or boundaries in question.
- E. In any case where the exact location of a boundary is still not clear, the Board of Adjustment shall use these rules to determine the exact location, upon application by the Enforcement Officer for an original interpretation.

If the proposed construction or alteration fails to conform, the Enforcement Officer shall refuse to issue a building permit and shall deliver written notice to the applicant stating the reasons for the refusal. The Enforcement Officer shall act upon applications for building permits within two weeks from the date of their submission.

D. Validity: The issuance of a building permit by the Enforcement Officer shall not waive any provision of this ordinance.

54.1 APPOINTMENT AND ORGANIZATION

A Board of Adjustment of five members (hereinafter known as the Board) shall be appointed in conformance with the Kentucky Revised Statutes, Section

100.560, and shall conduct meetings and business in conformance with the Kentucky Revised Statutes, Section 100.570 and following.

52.2 POWERS AND DUTIES

The Board shall have the following powers and duties:

- A. By-laws: The Board shall adopt by-laws for its own government.
- B. Administrative review: The Board shall hear and decide upon appeals from decisions of the Enforcement Officer. The Board shall decide on questions involving literal interpretations of this ordinance, shall interpret the exact location of district boundaries according to Section 32 of this ordinance, shall interpret the amount of off-street parking, loading, and unloading space required according to Sections 26.1 through 26.3, and shall make only those other interpretations and decisions specifically delegated to it by the provisions of this ordinance.
- C. Special uses: The Board shall have the authority to approve or disapprove applications for only those special uses upon which it has been specifically delegated to act by the Planning Commission in conformance with Section 23.6 of this ordinance.
- D. Variances: The Board may vary the strict application of only the dimension and area regulations provided that unique conditions prevent strict conformance and would thus deprive the owner of the reasonable use of his premises. The Board shall not grant a variance unless all of the following general conditions are met:
 1. Physical conditions are unique to the lot or structure in question and do not apply to neighboring lots or structures in the same district.
 2. Strict application of the dimension and area regulations would deprive the owner of the reasonable use of his lot or structure equivalent to the use of neighboring lots and structures in the same district.
 3. The unique conditions are not the result of actions taken subsequent to the enactment of this ordinance.
 4. The granting of the variance will be in harmony with the intent of this ordinance and will not be detrimental to any neighboring premises.

E. Special variances: The Board may grant a variance when the following special condition is present in lieu of the four general conditions listed above:

1. If a lot of record, existing before the enactment of this ordinance, is too small to allow conformance with the dimension and area regulations and if the owner has owned no adjoining lot since that date, the Board may grant a variance to allow the owner the reasonable use of his premises. When adjoining undersized lots of record are under the same ownership, they shall not be used or sold separately except in conformance with the dimension and area regulations of this ordinance.

54.3 PROCEDURE

An application to the Board for an original interpretation or decision or an appeal from a decision of the Enforcement Officer shall be made in writing on forms prescribed by the Board. An appeal must be filed within sixty days after the Enforcement Officer has refused a building permit or certificate of occupancy, or the right to appeal shall be waived. The Enforcement Officer shall transmit to the Board the complete record of the decision appealed. The Board shall hold a hearing at which all pertinent evidence concerning the interpretation, decision, or appeal shall be examined, and the Board shall make their decision within two weeks after the hearing. The following rules shall govern all decisions made by the Board:

A. Limits of authority: The Board shall act only within the strict limits of its authority as defined in this ordinance. The Board has no authority to vary the use regulations or other regulations not specifically mentioned. The Board shall not hold hearings on applications or appeals seeking decisions that the Board is not authorized to make.

B. Special Conditions: The Board may attach special conditions to any decision it is authorized to make to ensure that the intent of this ordinance will be carried out.

C. Vote required: The concurring vote of four members of the Board shall have all the powers of the Enforcement Officer in addition to its other powers and duties.

55. CLARIFICATION OF ADMINISTRATIVE JURISDICTIONS

The following is recapitulation of the administrative agencies, with jurisdiction and the extent of such jurisdictions, concerning the administration of this zoning ordinance:

A. The Enforcement Officer has initial authority for the literal enforcement of this zoning ordinance. He has no discretionary authority to allow any departure from the literal conformance with this ordinance.

B. The Board of Adjustment has authority to hear appeals from decisions by the Enforcement Officer and to make literal interpretations of the pertinent provisions to correct any possible misinterpretation by the Enforcement Officer. The Board also has the authority to make only those initial discretionary interpretations and decisions and allow only those departures from a literal conformance which are specifically delegated to it.

C. The Circuit Court has jurisdiction to determine all questions and issues properly brought before it on appeal from decision of the Board of Adjustment or the Planning Commission, according to Kentucky Revised Statutes 100.590 or 100.099.

D. The Planning Commission, in addition to its other responsibilities concerning adoption and amendment of this order and subdivision plat review and approval, has the authority and responsibility for approval or disapproval of planned development projects and special uses. This responsibility—like that of subdivision plat review— involves guiding the initial disposition of non-agricultural land-development, including the proper arrangement of streets in relation to other existing or planned streets, provision of adequate open space, and the avoidance of congestion; consequently, it is equivalent to the Planning Commission's primary responsibility for subdivision plat review and approval. The Planning Commission may delegate any portion of its authority for approval of special uses only, but not planned-development projects, to the Board of Adjustment.

56. VIOLATIONS
56.1 REMEDIES

The Enforcement Officer shall issue notice to violators of all violations of this ordinance and shall order that such violations cease. In cases of possible violation where the Enforcement Officer cannot determine if there is a literal violation, he shall apply to the Board of Adjustment for an interpretation. The City Attorney shall institute appropriate action in court to eliminate the threat or existence of any violation of this ordinance in accordance with the Kentucky Revised Statutes paragraph 100.980 (3).

56.2 PENALTIES

Fines and other penalties may be imposed upon violators according to the provisions of the Kentucky Revised Statutes paragraph 100.990 (1).

How to succeed in business by really trying

Ford sales are at an all-time high. During May Ford outsold all other car makes!

The word is spreading—fast—that Ford Division is building the best cars it has ever built. And it's true. Never have Ford cars been so good—never have Ford sales been so high.

People discovered our 1966 Ford was the strongest Ford ever built. A strong car, well-engineered, is a quiet car—and the '66 Ford has a ride that is quieter even than some of Europe's most expensive hand-built luxury cars.

Over a million people have already bought Mustangs. This rare blend of sports-car excitement and solid value is the most popular new car in history... and right now it's the world's best-selling hardtop and convertible.

Wagon buyers are excited about our Magic Doorgate—the greatest step forward in wagon convenience in years. It opens out like a door for people and swings down like a tailgate for cargo. It's standard equipment on all Ford and Fairlane wagons.

Car shoppers discovered a whole new range of comforts and conveniences. The '66 Ford offers power front disc brakes, a Stereo-Sonic Tape System, America's largest V-8 to perform on regular fuel, Silent-Flo Ventilation that keeps air fresh with all windows closed, and a new Safety/Convenience Control Panel that lets you lock all doors with one switch, has lights to warn if fuel's low or a door's ajar, reminds you to fasten seat belts.

A whole new group of sports-minded car buyers has come over to Fairlane. We've redesigned it completely with 30 new models, including GT's, sports-luxury XL's, convertibles, Squire wagons, and an exciting new Sport Shift Cruise-O-Matic Drive (on GT/A models) that gives you the ease of an automatic—or lets you shift manually for the fun of it.

People everywhere are finding out just how much extra value we've built into today's Ford cars—extra value that's the reason why Ford sales have soared to an all-time high.

And that's why Ford Dealers... leading from strength... are now offering you the best deals ever. There are specially equipped, specially priced Fords, Fairlanes and Mustangs, and special values on all our cars—across the whole line. See them soon.

AUXIER AND HOPKINS FOUGHT FOR EAST KENTUCKY IN 1891

By HENRY P. SCALF

In November this year the voters of Kentucky will either approve or disapprove a new constitution, the fifth proposed for the state in its 174 years of existence.

The present constitution, voted on August 3, 1891, is 75 years old and viewed by most attorneys as outmoded, although it served the state well for most of that time. It is one of the longest state constitutions of all the 50 states and was written after months of deliberation and at time much acrimonious haggling.

One reason for the drawn-out deliberation of 226 days was the inflexible determination of Eastern Kentucky delegates to kill the Virginia Compact, that provision in all previous constitutions of the state that protected dormant Virginia land grants. Another cause of delay in readying the final document was the fight to bar viva voce voting. There were many other basic provisions in the 1850 constitution the delegates were determined to change, one of these being the right of certain state officials to succeed themselves. Opponents to succession pointed with ire to a state treasurer who had entrenched himself for nine terms and stolen a quarter million dollars in tax money.

Leaders from Eastern Kentucky fighting against the old Virginia Compact and viva voce voting were A. J. Auxier, Pikeville, and Frank Hopkins, Prestonsburg. They sat in adjacent seats and formed the nucleus of a group of Eastern Kentucky delegates who knew what they wanted and were determined to get it if possible. They won their objectives by sheer force of commanding, intelligent argument.

Auxier was a prophet, too, of economic change and predicted things unheard of in 1891 but common-place today.

He said:

"I predict that before another Constitutional Convention shall be assembled in this hall men will be navigating the air instead of traveling in railroad coaches; that instead of going 30 or 40 miles an hour they will go 200 miles an hour and hundreds of thousands of things will be brought into existence; and new fields of operation and new systems of government or modifications, at least, will be required in those days to come . . . We want to make some changes in our Constitution to adjust it to the present wants of our people."

Auxier recognized that the document they were preparing would not serve for all time. "There is nothing so sacred about any of this Constitution but what the people can alter, modify or change and adapt it to the wants of the people when the emergency arises," he said in one of his many speeches on the floor of the convention and noted that the constitution they were forming would not suffice forever.

He continued: "We are simply representatives of the people. They sent us here to form a constitution; not for the government of all the generations yet unborn but to prepare a constitution suitable for the government of the people at the present time."

Thus did Auxier recognize that the document they were drafting in 1891 would not be sufficient three-quarters of a century later.

Auxier and Hopkins were bitterly opposed to viva voce voting for they had seen it used as a method whereby the votes of thousands of lumbermen in the mountains could be delivered as a bloc. Auxier told of how sawmill operators employing a great number of men would call them together before the election and tell them how to vote. To vote against the operator's will would bring discharge. The voter had no alternative for he must vote by calling out for everybody to hear the name of the men for whom he voted.

Hopkins, in agreement with Auxier, supported this move to introduce the secret ballot and spoke eloquently on the subject. Both men lashed out at the evils of vote-buying which was an evil abetted by viva voce voting. "What we want to do," Auxier said, "is to put an end to the practice of buying a man and putting him between two hoodlums, two strong men and leading him up to the polls and there telling him how to vote."

The adoption of the secret ballot in Kentucky's present constitution was one of the chief objectives of Eastern Kentucky delegates.

However, the attack on the Virginia Compact led off the bitterest fight in which Eastern Kentuckians were vitally interested. The Compact was in actuality the enabling act of the Virginia legislature granting Kentucky statehood in 1792. In seeking to protect Virginia land grantees in the new state and to which Kentucky agreed hundreds of patentees had thrown around them a legal protection they used to escape taxation. The development of the mountain region was thwarted.

Hopkins and Auxier enlisted the assistance of one of the ablest men in the state in the fight against reinserting the Compact into the new constitution. Their cohort was W. M. Beckner, a learned and polished gentleman from Clark county. It was agreed between the trio that Auxier would introduce the provision to bar dormant Virginia grant and that Beckner would speak first in support, followed by Hopkins.

Beckner led off on April 1 in a speech that reviewed the whole Virginia-Kentucky land grant system. (See Story No. 1, Page 8)

C. OLLIE ROBINSON,
Clerk, Floyd County Court 6-2-31

tems and he expressed lucidly the vells attendant upon the preservation of the mother state's dormant patents.

It was Hopkins, however, who followed him who thundered with impassioned oratory against the grants.

"Many of the Virginia patentees having been killed by Indians or died from the intense exposure of those early days without immediate representatives or being adventurers for spoils unable to see their new acquisitions develop into princely fortunes they had fancifully abandoned them as worthless and have for more than a hundred years failed to acquire possession, list for taxation or to assert title or claim whatever to the lands.

"These are the species of claims which hang over every foot of land in Eastern Kentucky," Hopkins continued. "They are a constant menace to our homes and to the improvement and development of the great natural resources of our section."

For more than two hours Hopkins held the delegates spellbound with a plea for his section. He pointed out that only when the mountain section prospered could the Bluegrass develop properly.

"It is well known that more than half of this great state is not self-supporting and is a tax and a burden upon the rest," Hopkins stated. "Thirty large counties in the eastern part of the state including the counties of Pike, Floyd, Knott, Letcher, two thousand square miles of Leslie, Harlan and Clay, with coking coal, of an average thickness of five feet, of a quality unsurpassed in the world and valuable beyond human conception, over these magnificent fields of wealth hangs this cloud, a constant threat and menace to their prosperity and development, shutting out capital, paralyzing industry and discouraging enterprise."

"Capital will not invest in doubtful titles and without it these endless stores of coal, iron, salt, fire clay, building stone and magnificent fields of hardwood timber, which would, if opened to the markets of the world, pour back a stream of gold into the lap of a grateful and deserving people, must slumber and moulder, while want and depression reign supreme."

Hopkins sat down to thunderous applause and when it had subsided Auxier arose and pleaded for his provision barring the ancient Virginia grants He sat down and W. G. Bullitt, of McCracken county, took the floor to argue that while Eastern Kentucky would probably benefit by the Auxier provision, the western part of the state could conceivably have disturbed land titles for years. Hopkins, Auxier and W. J. Hendricks, of Fleming county who was associating now with the Eastern Kentuckians, harassed him with questions. He sat down, angry and confused after the onslaught of the trio. When the vote neared he tried by several parliamentary tricks to delay the final tally but he was no match for the astute men of the mountains. The vote was 62 to 12 with 26 votes absent. Auxier's provision, rewritten and changed from his original draft but still acceptable to him, went into the new constitution as Section 251, titled, "Limitation of Actions To Recover Possession of Land Based On Early Patents."

This section and subsequent legislation by the Kentucky General Assembly wrought the death knell of the dormant land grants. Judge E. C. O'Rear, of the Court of Appeals, administered the coup de grace to them in his judgment in the Eastern Kentucky Coal Lands Corporation Case a few years after the turn of the present century.

Compared to the 1890-91 Constitutional Convention, the recent convention has been staid and probably boring to many delegates. There were no mountain delegates in the recent one, like Auxier and Hopkins, smarting under unjust systems of law.

To many men go credit for assisting in the development of Eastern Kentucky but to Auxier and Hopkins we must award the honor of brushing away the legal and ancient cobwebs that held a section back from entry into the new century.
