SPEAKING OF AND FOR FLOYD COUNTY

This Town . . . That World

JUST FOR THE RECORD

Wednesday night, Nov. 2, Indian Summer only a day gone down the line—and it's snowing outside.

VOTE!

Next Tuesday — need we remind you? — is election day. If you fail to vote, you rob yourself of a privilege and deny your country your duty as a citizen.

Here's a question dropped on my desk today by Jack Hyden that will require a lot of answering:

Did you ever think how much cheaper a man would get through life if he never did anything that required a license? (Gee, that would cut out fishing!)

NOW, SEE HERE . . .

Now that the Visage has been on television, the following message has reached this desk:

PLEASED TO OFFER YOU CONTRACT TO APPEAR ON TV FOR LBJ IN NEXT PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION. WIRE TERMS.

BIG SNOW HITS STATE

Wednesday Snowstorm Misses Sandy Valley; Is Earliest Heavy Snow

A light sprinkle of snow this morning (Thursday) added a touch of white to the brilliant autumnal colors of Floyd county's countryside.

The snow fell Wednesday night after a day of heavy snowfall in other sections of the state.

Glasgow had 15 inches of snow. Central Kentucky was hardest hit by the storm, with depths recorded from 12 to 15 inches. Schools in nine Central Kentucky counties were closed.

It wasn't the earliest snowfall on record in Kentucky — the earliest, a bare trace of snow, was on Oct. 10, 1906 — but it was the heaviest for this time of year. This evidence of winter came a month early for Eastern Kentucky.

The main storm apparently missed the Big Sandy valley. Tennessee had one of its heaviest snows, and a three-inch snowfall was recorded in Alabama.

Prestonsburg suffered a blackout of about an hour Tuesday night through power failure, but this had no connection with the advent of wintry weather. Rain was falling at the time. It was said a cut-out blew and that the effect was entirely local.

Mobile X-Ray Unit To Be Here Nov. 10th

The mobile X-ray unit will be at the Floyd County Health Department Thursday, November 10, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 to 3 p.m.

Those eligible for chest X-ray must be 18 years or over. Persons under 18 years of age may be X-rayed if they have a positive tuberculin skin test, or are referred by a physician. Pregnant women may be X-rayed only if referred by a physician.

Dr. R. L. Hall, county health officer, urges all citizens in the Prestonsburg area to avail themselves of this free service.

PLANT SITE FUND DRIVE STILL SHORT

Groundbreaking Awaits Worker Training Start; Machinery Stored Here

The drive to raise money with which to purchase a site for the United States Shoe Company plant across the Big Sandy from Lancer was exactly $3,863.54 short of its $18,500 goal, Wednesday morning.

Approximately $2,000 has been added to the fund total within the week. In all, $14,636.46 has been collected.

But, said Mayor George P. Archer, "Right now, we're on center, and we've got to get off."

Groundbreaking at the plant site, originally planned for this week, necessarily awaits two things: 1. A title to the site; 2. The beginning of a program to train workers.

The training program has met with a delay which Mayor Archer described as temporary. The Kentucky Department of Commerce is to provide this worker-training through the Division of Vocational Education. Mayor Archer said he hopes to confer with Miss Katherine Peden, commissioner of commerce, during her visit here today (Thursday).

Machinery in heavy volume has been arriving at West Prestonsburg from U.S. Shoe Company and this is being stored in the two buildings at Archer Park against the time when the training program can be put into effect.

Those contributing to the site fund since last Wednesday are: Allen Lumber Co., E. J. Conn, Brown Produce Co., Hughes Motor Co., Marshall Davidson, Mary Jane Harkins, Harold J. Stumbo, employees of the Bank Josephine, Rondall Lawson, Chester Layne, Pratt's Machine Shop, Donald Hughes, Garrett, C. L. Senters, Prestonsburg Building Supply Co., Tom O. McGuire, Walter P. Walters, Messer's Department Store, Jimmy J. DeRossett, employees of the Ben Franklin Store and the B. F. Casual Shop, Hall Brothers Funeral Home, East Kentucky Beverage Co., J. W. Howard, Harris S. Howard, Prestonsburg Dry Cleaners, A. H. Mandt, Oscar Richardson, Zella Greene, E. P. Grigsby, Floyd and Sally Goble, Bernadean Jarvis, T. P. Reynolds.

Coal Workers Win Judgment of $37,642 From Sturgill Firm

Judgments totaling $38,192 have been entered in U. S. District Court at Jackson against two coal firms for alleged violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

The Oak Branch Coal Mining Co., Hazard, and its president, William B. Sturgill, have agreed to pay $37,642 to 29 employees and former employees under a 1962 injunction governing minimum wages and overtime.

In the other action Judge B. T. Moynahan ordered Tarr Coal, Pineville, and its three top officers to pay $550 in back wages to eight employees. The defendants were (See Story No. 5, Page 6)

COMMUNITY CONCERT SERIES TO FEATURE U. OF K. GROUP SUNDAY AT COLLEGE HERE

The University of Kentucky Chamber Singers will present a concert next Sunday at 3 p.m. in the Commons Room at Prestonsburg Community College.

This concert, third in the Community Concert Series, is open to all students and the public without charge.

The Chamber Singers, under the direction of John Alexander, was organized at the beginning of the present school year. The group is composed of 16 outstanding vocal students, both undergraduates and graduates, many of whom are graduate assistants.

COMBS WITH BROWN, PERKINS SPEAK HERE

Former Governor Bert Combs joined John Y. Brown, Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate, and Congressman Carl D. Perkins, Democrat, candidate for re-election, last Saturday morning in calling on Floyd county to make next Tuesday's Democratic majority greater even than the record margin by which Combs carried the county when he was elected governor.

The three addressed a gathering in the circuit courtroom here prior to leaving for Carter Caves where a dinner honoring Congressman Perkins was given.

Perkins declared that every program put into effect by the present administration has been opposed by the Republican leadership. "A Democratic Senator under a Democratic administration would be invaluable to Floyd county and all of Eastern Kentucky," he said.

"The haystacks are on fire across this state," Ex-Governor Combs announced by way of reporting an upsurge of Democratic strength in the senatorial campaign.

Of Congressman Perkins he said: "Carl Perkins should not have any opposition. The best way to keep him from having opposition is to give him such a majority at this election they will be ashamed to oppose him at the next."

When Combs remarked that "you people, in a way, are stuck with me, since I was the only governor from Floyd county," somebody in the audience remarked in a voice heard over the courtroom, "We could have you again."

FIRMS POST $500 REWARD Tampering with Lines Reported During Strike; Picketing Is Peaceful

The strikebound Columbia Gas Company of Kentucky, United Fuel Gas Company and affiliates this week posted a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of persons who unlawfully open or close gas line valves and regulators or tamper with any equipment used to supply gas to customers.

The reward was offered after several communications lines had been cut and valves had been closed, a company spokesman said.

Some instances of line-cutting and valve-closing have occurred in this county since United Fuel union employees went on strike October 25 after contract negotiations had broken down. No attempt was made to fix the blame for the offenses on any individual.

The town of Logan, W. Va., was deprived of its natural gas supply, a few days ago, when a valve was closed.

Generally speaking, it was said, the strike has been confined to peaceful picketing.

No attempt has been made toward a resumption of contract talks on the part of either company or union.

Two-Day Heart Clinic Slated Here Nov. 15-16 For Medically Indigent

A two-day consultative and diagnostic heart clinic for medically indigent patients will be held at the Floyd County Health Department, on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 15 and 16.

The clinic is being organized so that adults only will be admitted to the clinic on November 15, and children only will be seen on November 16.

Physicians from the departments of Medicine and Pediatrics at the University of Kentucky Medical School will conduct the clinic.

Co-sponsored by the Kentucky Heart Association and the state and county health departments the clinic will provide a diagnostic service for the patient along with recommendations for treatment and management of the case. It will also provide an opportunity for the referring physician to consult with the clinician regarding his patient.

Necessary expenses of the clinic are being underwritten by the Kentucky Heart Association and the State Department of Health.

Clinic personnel as well as space and equipment will be provided by the Floyd County Health Department as well as the State (See Story No. 4, Page 6)

Kenwood Site Span, Road Receive Grant Totalling $224,000

Gov. Edward T. Breathitt last week announced approval of a $224,000 grant from the Appalachian Regional Commission for the construction of an industrial access road to the proposed Kenwood Products plant in Johnson county.

Breathitt said the Appalachian Act funds would be matched with $96,000 in state road funds. The project will consist of an access road and bridge from U. S. 23 across the Big Sandy to the 190-acre industrial park site.

A development grant of $425,000 was approved for the site early last month by the Economic Development Administration.

Breathitt said the Appalachian Act funds would be matched with $96,000 in state road funds. The project will consist of an access road and bridge from U. S. 23 across the Big Sandy to the 190-acre industrial park site.

4th VICTIM IS COLEMAN

Wayland Soldier Dies In Action in Vietnam Oct. 29th, Is Reported

Pfc. Phillip R. Coleman, 21, of Wayland, brother of former basketball star, Kelly Coleman, became on October 2 the county's fourth serviceman to be killed in action in Vietnam.

A 1965 graduate of Wayland high school, where he followed his brother as a basketball player, he had been an infantryman 11 months.

Other Floyd countians who have been killed in the Vietnam fighting are Cpl. Arvel Dewitt Akers, of Grethel, killed January 6, this year; Pfc. Andrew Jackson Campbell, of Eastern, April 11, and Pfc. Lawrence Edward Clark, of Harold, October 10.

Pfc. Coleman was a son of Mrs. Rusha Collins Coleman, of Wayland, and the late Guy Coleman. Surviving, besides his mother, are two brothers, Kelly Coleman, Cleveland, Ohio, and Keith Coleman, of Wayland, and eight sisters, Miss Betty Coleman, Akron, Ohio, Mrs. Mary McKean, Muncie, Indiana, Mrs. Clemma Garland, Toledo, Ohio, Mrs. Priscilla Webb and Miss Linda Coleman, both of Cleveland, Ohio, Mrs. Phyllis Shepherd, of Louisville, Mrs. Sandra Thornsbury, Dayton, Ohio, and Miss Peggy Coleman, of Wayland.

The body will be returned to the Hall Brothers Funeral Home at Martin.

DISCT. TIME IS EXTENDED

Sheriff Not Expected To Get Floyd Taxbills Earlier Than Dec. 1st

The discount period for Floyd county taxpayers is almost certain to extend into early 1967, it was said here this week.

This probability was viewed after Governor Breathitt had issued a proclamation providing that the taxpayer will be given the usual discount if he pays his taxes within 30 days after the sheriff signs a receipt for the tax bills.

And it became obvious this week that Sheriff Joe W. Lewis will not have the Floyd tax bills in his hands and checked until December 1, or later. Both the sheriff and the tax commissioner will check the tax bills before they are accepted as prepared by the county clerk's office.

The procedure for reports from the sheriff also will be altered as a result of the delay which started with assessment details. The sheriff will be required to file two monthly reports of property tax collections—one on collections subject to discount, the other on taxes collected which are not given a discount. Both reports must be filed by the 10th day of the month following the month when the discount period ends.

Numerous requests have been received by Sheriff Lewis' office for tax bills, particularly from companies and other large taxpayers who are interested in income tax credits.

COOPER TALK USED TO ALLAY TENSION

A candidate for public office was used last Saturday to ease tensions in wrought-up Pike county.

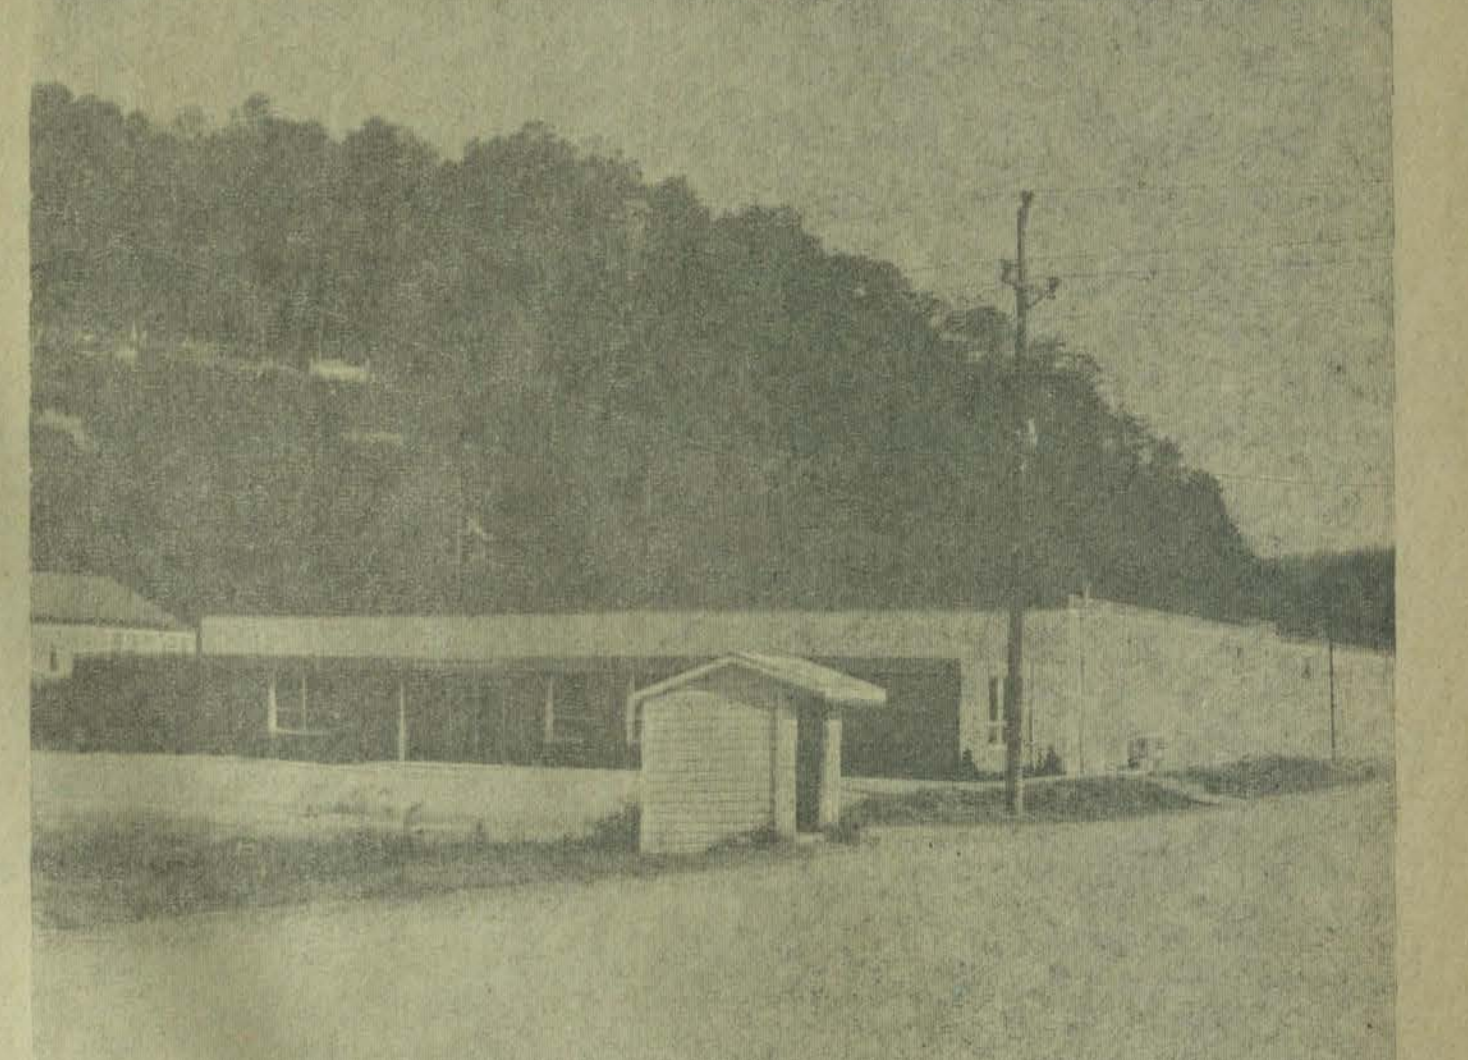

U. S. Senator John Sherman Cooper, campaigning for re-election, was scheduled to speak here that morning. But, shortly before the time for his Prestonsburg appearance, Bill Pettrey, co-chairman of the Cooper campaign in this county, was contacted by Pikeville men who described the situation at Pikeville after four magistrates had been jailed as very tense. They asked that the Senator be sent to Pikeville to speak and "take the people's minds off" the local matter that was considered highly inflammatory.

Cooper went to Pikeville where an estimated 4,000 persons jammed the sidewalks and the area near and around the courthouse. Besides advocating his own candidacy, he urged restraint.

The four magistrates remain in jail at Pikeville, but there has been no violence.

An upsurge of feeling followed the issuance of an order by Special Judge W. D. Sparks, of Louisville, directing that the four magistrates — Burbige Prater, Darvin Newsome, Taylor Justice and Foster Bentley, all Republicans — be transferred from a Pike county jail to the Floyd county jail here. The order was quickly revoked, however, upon assurances from Pike county officials that the prisoners could be better protected in their home county.

Judge Sparks' action was promoted in part, he said, by statements of Sheriff Perry A. Justice and Jailer Grover Atkins which were quoted in ## Pay Small, Experience Rich . . .

VISTA DOCTOR ENDS $60 MONTH SERVICE

Dr. Sophia Locke, the VISTA doctor who came out of retirement to spend a year working in Mud Creek communities and at Ligon, on Left Beaver Creek, has retired again—if she can make it stick.

She is now at her home in Hollywood, Florida, but, come spring, another call to service may draw her away.

The 38-year veteran of the children's hygiene section of the New York City Department of Health first retired, nearly two years ago. She decided to take it easy, the rest of the way, in Florida. "But when a spring came," she recalled in a recent interview, "I looked up from my flowers and said, 'What am I doing here?'"

Result: She filed her application with VISTA, her credentials were checked—and she was out of retirement, at once engaged in a running battle with infection, disease, parasites and human need.

Working with the Floyd County Health Department, she set up clinics in five communities in the Mud Creek area where treatment ranged all the way from pre-natal care to psychiatric advice, and worked with John M. Stumbo and Mrs. Regina Maye Roberts in the big community-wide sanitation project at Ligon.

For her work in this county Dr. Locke was paid $65 a month for both living expenses and supplies. Her apartment cost her $20 a month. This for a woman who earned $17,000 a year in the city.

But she is the richer for the experience.

"Coming to the Mud Creek area has enabled me to realize two things," she said before leaving the county. "I am still able to work, I'm bored doing nothing and it's really good to be useful. For years I made money, but here I see people who really need me. When you work in New York for money, you see the people who can pay — not the ones who need you."

One of those who pleaded most earnestly with the woman-doctor to stay in this county was Mrs. Roberts, who herself came to Floyd county from Oregon almost 40 years ago to work as a public health nurse.

"She has been an answer to a need only the Lord knew," the Prestonsburg woman said recently of Dr. Locke. "I never rejoiced so much as when she came."

In temporary retirement, the lady is more than a mere doctor. Now she's a Kentucky colonel. In recognition of her work in this county Governor Breathitt saw that.

JAIL HOWELL FOR SLAYING OF SHANNON

Victim's Body Found Day After Shooting On Bee Bird Hollow

Noah Howell, 42, was jailed here Sunday, a few hours after the shot-riddled body of Noah Shannon, 56, had been found near the Howell home on Bee Bird Hollow, between Mimmie and McDowell.

The slaying was the first in this county of more than 40,000 population since last May 22 when Darwin Music was killed on Cow Creek.

Steno Detective Caster D. Potter holds that two of three blasts fired by Howell from a .12-gauge automatic shotgun struck Shannon. The shooting took place at the Howell home, around 5:30 p.m. Saturday, but the accused man and members of his family claim they were not at that time aware Shannon had been hit.

The body was found Sunday morning by Howell's 13-year-old son, Calvin, in the weeds at the roadside, little more than 200 yards from the shooting scene.

Howell waived examining trial Wednesday, and $7,500 bond was asked by County Judge Henry Stumbo for his release pending action of the January grand jury. He was arrested Sunday by State Trooper J. Harmon. When it was established that the prisoner is not financially able to employ counsel, Judge Stumbo appointed Joe P. Tackett to represent him.

Howell told officers that Shannon came to his home, armed with a pistol and fired a shot at him, to which he replied with his shotgun. He added that he did not think his shots had hit Shannon and that he did not know of their effect until the following morning.

COMBS MAY RUN, IS REPORT HEARD

The Courier-Journal in its Thursday morning edition published a speculative story to the effect that Ex-Governor Bert T. Combs will make the race for Governor next year.

It is known that such a report emanating from Governor Breathitt's office has been circulated over the state during the last 10 days. A telephone call to County Attorney Barkley J. Sturgill from Breathitt's office last week conveyed that information, but in the absence of a statement from Combs the report drew little interest locally.

Here briefly last Saturday, the former governor told The Times he expects to make an announcement, perhaps next week. He did not indicate what his decision will be but in the last two weeks the impression has been steadily growing that he is inclining more heavily to the idea of becoming a candidate.

The report heard over the state says Commissioner of Highways Henry Ward, who has been regarded as an administration choice for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, will run for lieutenant-governor and that Attorney General Robert Matthews would manage their campaign.

If the former Prestonsburg man does decide to enter the Democratic primary, the ranks of Democratic candidates for the governorship will quickly be depleted. But Former Governor A. B. Chandler and Lieutenant Governor Harry Lee Waterfield, both administration foes, are expected to stick with their earlier decision to make the race.

TIDBITS

Of Kentucky Folklore
By GORDON WILSON, Ph.D.

Some years ago a rather expensive publication was put out by some agency of the state government. It was, basically, an account of famous places all over the whole area of Kentucky and contained some valuable information about the early history of famous homes, great watering places, public buildings, and historic events, many of which are only dimly remembered by most people. All this was to the good. A feature of the book, however, that caused much laughter among people who had been about, as we used to say about people who had traveled extensively, was its recognition of places as still existing that had been gone for a whole generation or even two. In a county neighboring to Warren, where I live, existed before the Civil War some decades, but not since then, a famous rural hotel. It was listed along with the county seat, the villages, some fine old homes, and all the rest. A friend of mine, who lived in that county and is a walking encyclopedia of its history, was completely puzzled by the name of the great place. She had to confer with her aged father, who could barely remember having heard his parents talk about the place.

At the time I laughed heartily at the failure of the book-writer to check over her manuscript with somebody else before it appeared as a rather beautiful book. In recent years I have somehow felt a little kinder to the memory of the lecturer and her book, for oodles of places that seemed as fixed as the North Star, let us say, have folded up and completely disappeared within the last two decades. Not only have choice locations of residences been transformed into filling stations and shopping centers, with not a trace of what used to be around; some of the country places, known for generations as the Old Jones or Smith Farm, would not be recognizable if one of the earlier inhabitants came back to earth on a visit. A little village where I taught, away back in 1906-10, lost its age-old postoffice; most of the older portion of the village has completely disappeared; the present scattered houses are across the creek from where the village used to be. The name is still on the map, but the place I knew is now only a memory. When I went down into that area a few years ago, I could not determine where stood the house where I roomed and boarded for two years. The kind people who lived fairly close by were late-comers to the area and had never even heard of the family, a very prominent one, who used to live somewhere within a few yards of them.

The day before I wrote this essay I drove by the last remaining school building of the famous one-roomed type within miles and miles. For years it has had other uses; probably the younger people would be surprised to know that it was never used as a schoolhouse. And who ever heard of a schoolhouse with just one room? And how did the children get there before the school buses were running?

My earliest memories go back to some piles of bricks or pudding stones that marked the remains of a pioneer chimney, over at the back of our field. Who lived there? Frankly, I do not know. He had been gone for several decades before I arrived. He did not know me, and I did not know him. Except for the remains of the chimney and a sunken place where the cellar had been the only reminder that this used to be somebody's castle was a good-sized plum thicket that had grown up from two or three trees that the original owner had set out. I was told. I often walked through that thicket, in broad daylight, but somehow it seemed slightly haunted after sunset. I wonder whether other haunts are now visiting the places where somebody's fine house, or even somebody's prosperous village used to stand?

Why VETERANS OPPOSE John Y. BROWN

Veterans remember that John Y. Brown has opposed them. They remember that when Brown was in Congress for one term in 1933-1934, he not only voted against them but took special pains to do so and to speak against them. The Record shows:

1. In 1933, Brown voted against the veterans by voting for H.R. 2820 — a bill which gave the President power to reduce and eliminate payments to veterans on a permanent basis and which even barred and prohibited payments to veterans of judgments they had recovered in court on policies of war risk insurance. The sweeping provisions of H.R. 2820 were described as "a slaughter of the disabled service men of the United States." Yet Brown voted for it, and even opposed an amendment, earlier approved in party caucus, which would have restricted cuts to veterans to 25%. His Kentucky colleague, Congressman Vinson (later Chief Justice), publicly rebuked Brown on the floor of the House — saying "John Young Brown's political life shows that he cannot spell loyalty."

All this is a matter of record (Cong. Rec., House, March 11, 1933, pages 198-200, 209, 217-218; March 23, 1933, page 838; March 27, 1933 pages 883-884).

2. In 1934, Brown opposed and spoke and voted against a bill (H.R. 1) providing immediate payment to veterans of the remainder due on their adjusted-service certificates. He took special pains to do this. He told the House that he had returned to Washington from his home in Kentucky just that morning especially to vote against the bill. He said that "I started behind the C. & O. train and drove for 200 miles in order to catch that train. I ran out of gas five miles out of Ashland, Kentucky, and walked those five miles, getting there just barely in time to catch the back end of the train to get here" — to vote against the bill and the veterans.

He said that there was only "a noisy minority among ex-service men who make a big fuss about this matter;" that he intended to follow the man in the White House; and that the bill was nothing but "a piece of bait to get the veterans' vote this summer" — repeating this three times.

All this is a matter of record (Cong. Rec., House, March 12, 1934, pages 4287, 4313-4314).

Brown was never re-elected or returned to Congress. But he has since served in the Kentucky Legislature from Fayette county, and he has voted against veterans there.

In 1962, he voted against a bill (H.B. 23) — one of only four members of both Houses of the Legislature to vote against it — to authorize an extension of time to file for the veterans' bonus in cases of hardship.

And this is a matter of record (House Journal 1962, pages 1243-1244; Senate Journal 1962, pages 1384-1385).

Veterans remember these things. They remember John Y. Brown's record of opposition and hostility to them. They also remember that in July, 1963, the American Legion, Department of Kentucky, conferred on Senator Cooper its Distinguished Service Award "for his untiring efforts rendered in the Senate of the United States in behalf of the veteran, his widow and/or dependent, and for his years of dedicated service." Again in March, 1965, Senator Cooper was cited by the same organization for his objections to the proposed closing of VA hospitals and other facilities, the resolution stating that "this Nation's veteran population can be assured that as long as members of the Congress of the calibre of the Honorable John Sherman Cooper serve their constituents and the Nation, their needs will not be jeopardized."

Senator Cooper's distinguished record of public service as Judge, Delegate to the United Nations, Ambassador and United States Senator, includes years of service to veterans and attention to their problems. This election offers Kentucky veterans the opportunity to reelect their friend—their friend who offers them this record.

Veterans will support and re-elect a veteran and a friend of veterans, JOHN SHERMAN COOPER, to the United States Senate on November 8th.

Election, Tuesday,

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

PERTINENT QUESTIONS
EDITOR, The Times:

During the past few years there seems to be an ever-increasing disregard for law and order in our nation, and every ruling on laws and lawbreakers tends to favor the criminal.

Our law enforcement officers, in the performance of their duties, have been injured, insulted, brow-beaten and even dismissed from the force for trying to handle crowds of rioters, looters and others joining in to destroy public and private property.

Now what puzzles me is, all you hear from the troubled areas is, "police brutality" but I have never read or heard from any source of any complainant being asked, "just what were you doing when the alleged brutality occurred? Were you obeying the law, or were you trying to stir up more trouble for the officers to cope with?"

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

FOR REVISED CONSTITUTION EDITOR, The Times:

As a private citizen, I would like to urge all the people of Floyd county to vote "yes" for the new constitution on Tuesday, November 8. There are many phases of the new constitution that none of us will agree with; however, if citizens will take stock themselves, they will realize that rarely in history will three people agree on every phase of a document.

Every constitution that has ever been written has stirred up violent controversy including our national and state constitutions; but in the long-run rarely has a new constitution of any sort on a local, state, or national level ever been completely acceptable to all the people nor has one ever been worse than the one which it replaced. People are inclined to think of "How does this affect me?" and selfish interests play a great part in their decision as to whether to vote "yes" or "no." However, that is not the issue. Before any one man can vote on any major issue, conscience requires him to ask himself this question: "Is it better for ALL the people than what it is replacing?" I believe that this constitution is, and I urge all Floyd countians to vote "yes" on November 8.

Island Creek Will Send Coal To Japan

Hamilton, chairman, said this week. The contracts call for more than 16 million long tons, with revenues substantially in excess of $100 million, he said. The mine is expected to produce development tonnage early next year, and the Japanese orders assure a full operating schedule over the 10-year period, he said. He added Island Creek marketed 17,995,000 tons in the first nine months this year, 2,748,000 tons more than in the like period of 1965.

HARD OF HEARING? READ THIS

October 20, 1966
West Prestonsburg, Ky.

DEAR BELTONE HEARING AID CENTER—

After suffering with shingles for the past four years I have steadily been losing my hearing. Being saved 60 years ago I have lived a Christian life and placed my faith in the Lord. Recently, I have prayed to God for my hearing again—and the hearing aid was my answer. It is almost impossible for me to speak my heart and say what a blessing it has been. I now enjoy my church, my neighbors, my friends like I used to.

My advice to anyone having a hearing problem — don't put it off another day, enjoy your life while you can.

AMEN!

Some years back, this column descanted at length upon the subject of modern hymnals and the decision reached by certain churches to omit some of the old "gospel songs" to which the earliest memories of worship were tied for many of us. We grew downright apologetic about the omission of "The Old Rugged Cross." I recall.

Now, the Herald-Advertiser
(Huntington, W. Va.) comments on a new hymnal which is meeting with considerable approval
but which still forgets to include some of the old favorites—"In the Garden," for example, and
"The Church in the Wildwood."
"There's a Land That Is Fairer Than Day," "Throw Out the Lifeline" and others. This newspaper notes that in their stead are hymns which few oldsters ever heard. Then it quotes from Phillis Naylor's poem, "All Six Verses Yet!" to illustrate the reactions of us oldtimers who know what we like and don't like to surrender our old favorites to hymns we rot not of:

"In unison we rise and stand and wish that we were sitting/We listen to the music start and wish that it were quitting/We pass our hymnal to a guest or fake a smoker's cough/We drop our pencils, lose our gloves, or take our glasses off/We move our lips to keep in style, emitting awkward beats/And when the last 'Amen' is sung, sink gladly in our seats/Oh Lord, who hears our every prayer and saves us from our foes/Deliver now thy little flock, from hymns nobody knows."

NO "DOUBLE"

Doug Fitzpatrick says the only bird he hit on which at least one of his companions didn't claim a "double" on their recent Nebraska hunting trip was when a stray pellet struck Magistrate Bill Wells in the chin.

non had has not been found,
Commonwealth's Attorney Harold J. Stumbo said. Calvin Howell told Stumbo that he heard, that night, a shot in the vicinity
where the body was found, heard cars pull up and next day saw beer cans at the scene. He expressed the belief somebody may have taken some of Shannon's personal belongings and then put his body in the weeds. But $8.63 in cash and coins remained in the slain man's pockets, it was pointed out.

"It was either him or daddy," Howell's son said of the shooting.

Mrs. Howell admitted that Shannon may have been jealous of her husband but added that when he was drinking he was jealous of others also. She and all other members of the family except Calvin said they did not see the shooting. Calvin told Commonwealth's Attorney Stumbo and Detective Potter that he heard Shannon tell his father that he did not have a gun. Mrs.
Howell claimed Shannon drove up to their home and announced he had come to kill them and that Mrs. Shannon had told her, only minutes earlier, that her husband would kill her (Mrs.
Shannon).

A nine-year-old son of the accused man said he heard Shannon say, "Stop shooting, and I'll go." He added that one shot was fired after he heard this said.

Detective Potter said he counted 228 shotgun pellet marks in Shannon's car and 61 places where shot hit the victim's body.
(He said a new 12-gauge shotgun cartridge which he opened contained 273 shot.) Five shots, he said, penetrated the chest cavity, and he expressed the belief the man bled to death. Potter also said he believes that the shots in Shannon's body and right arm came from one blast and that those in his feet from another. He apparently was inside the car when the first shot was fired, Potter said.

Shannon had been working in Indiana, and he and Howell earlier had been close friends, members of the Howell family said.

The victim was a son of Mrs.
Polly Johnson Ricky, Akron, O., and the late Emmitt Shannon. He is survived by his mother, his widow, Mrs. Missouri Baker Shannon, and the following children: Theodore Shannon, of Michigan; Robert Lee Shannon,
Lake Worth, Florida; Charles
Daniel, Kenneth Paul, Mrs. Phyllis Ann Bohn, Brenda Kay, Emily Rose and Katherine, all of McDowell. He also leaves a half-brother, Theodore King,
Ligonier, Indiana, and a sister, Mrs. Pearl May Hall, of Topmost.

His funeral was conducted Wednesday morning from the home of his sister, Mrs. Hall, and burial was made in the Waddles cemetery at Kite, Knott county, under direction of the Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

Meet Set at College To Answer Questions About U. of Kentucky

High school seniors interested in procuring information about University of Kentucky admission policies and academic programs will find answers to their questions at a meeting set for 7:30 p.m. Thursday, November 10, at Prestonsburg Community College.

A visitation team made up of UK administrators and faculty members from Lexington will discuss admission procedures, costs, availability of financial assistance and academic requirements. After presenting this information, the UK officials will answer questions from the high schoolers and their parents.

The November 10 meeting here is open to all high school seniors and their parents in Floyd, Johnson, Magoffin, Martin, Menifee, Morgan, Pike and Wolfe counties.

Dr. Elbert W. Ockerman, dean of admissions and registrar at the University, said the meeting is designed to provide the students with as much information as they could obtain by visiting the UK campus in Lexington.

The Prestonsburg meeting is one of 17 such sessions which have been arranged in cities throughout the state.

Their purpose, says Ockerman, is not to recruit students but to provide interested high schoolers with as much information about UK as they desire, without requiring them to travel to Lexington.

FORMER CIRCUIT JUDGE STEPHENS SAYS VOTE NO ON PROPOSED CONSTITUTION

In my long career as a small farmer, coal miner, merchant, postmaster, barber, teacher, Circuit Judge, Circuit Clerk, and a banker for many years, I have acquired a wealth of experience and knowledge in public matters. I am familiar with the workings of our present Constitution and have seen Kentucky progress under that Constitution. If our present Constitution was as out-moded as some say, Kentucky would be the most backward state in the union. That it is not, attests to the greatness of our present Constitution.

Permit me to point out to you several reasons why the proposed Constitution should be defeated.

The proposed Constitution was not prepared or written as provided by our present Constitution. The true system was for election of various delegates throughout the state to meet in Frankfort for the purpose of preparing any amendment to our present Constitution and then submit it to the people of Kentucky for their rejection or approval, but the promoters, in order to get around this method, appointed fifty different people from various parts of the state to appear in Frankfort and prepare their method of approval by the voters of Kentucky. Now you will note that the voters of Kentucky had nothing to do with the selection of these fifty people to write the present proposed Constitution to be voted upon November 8, 1966. Many of the people selected by the Governor were too busy to give much time to this proposed amendment, and only attended such meetings in a very limited way and gave very little effort in the preparation of the proposed amendment, but instead four or five people prepared the major part of this amendment, including an ex-convict who served time for vote fraud. (Case No. 7688 heard before H. Church Ford, United States District Judge.)

Now this same man who served time is going over the state making public speeches before various groups, including colleges and students, in an effort to get their votes for this proposed amendment. There was no public discussion of this proposed amendment and the voters of this state were not informed as to what was taking place in this set-up by the Governor, and, so far as I know, the outside public did not know what was taking place behind closed doors. But about the time it was completed, this new proposal provided that it would be fifteen years before you would have an opportunity to make a change, however BAD or good it might be. The people would at least be compelled to live with it for 15 years, whether they liked or disliked it. Evidently the framers of this proposed Constitution felt there would be a great lot of discontent with this proposal if adopted but that within fifteen years most of the opposition now would be dead within that time.

Most of the county officials now in office under the proposed Constitution would be permitted to serve out their present terms and an extra term without opposition. No one could oppose them for an extra term.

Circuit Judges in office in most counties would remain in office for life, perhaps against the will of the people they serve. No one could run against a Circuit Judge in office. The voters could only vote YES or NO on retaining him in office and if the majority voted "No" the Governor would by a complicated system appoint a man, and there is nothing in the proposed Constitution that would prevent the Governor from appointing the same man. The State of Missouri tried this system years ago and in only three instances were the people able to get a circuit judge out of office and then only when they became so corrupt that they were repugnant to the voters of the state.

The proposed Constitution would eliminate the fee system and substitute salaries for public officials and under a set-up that would insure the collection of few fees and the ultimate cost to the taxpayers of a colossal amount of money. If public officials do not have to collect fees to pay their salary and office expenses and the state is obligated to pay his salary anyway, the state would lose millions of dollars in fees. Then, too, salaries would climb and climb as fees dropped to a bare minimum. The fees system has its faults but some better system should be proposed than this new Constitution offers.

Under the proposed constitution State Representatives would be elected to four years instead of two, and State Senators from four to six-year terms. Instead of meeting every two years for sixty or seventy days, they would meet every year for 90 days. They would be put on FULL SALARY, the amount to be determined by themselves. At the last session of the Legislature they received $50.00 per day for services and expenses, which amounted to about $3,500.00 each for 138 members and in addition they voted themselves a salary of $150.00 per month for each of the members, making $1,800.00 each, multiplied by 138, their number.

With the Legislature in session every year the state would be in perpetual uncertainty in many new matters. Kentucky cannot afford the luxury of an almost perpetual legislature at an un-named but certainly very high cost.

Under the present Constitution farm machinery, products and bank deposits are free from assessments, or practically so, but under this proposed amendment these items would be assessed at 100%, but no one knows what the rate would be and if the rate was very high depositors who have saved a little money on which they paid a tax or taxes when earned, would withdraw their money and place it in a lock box or hide it somewhere in their homes to escape such a tax.

As for myself, I cannot understand why any banker or any one connected with a bank could in good conscience support such an amendment as now placed before the people. If I was in the banking business I would oppose such an amendment with all the power I could possess. Surely no one would want to injure his own business.

Now figure out how many officials each county has and multiply that by 120 counties and you will get the number and of course this does not include their deputies, which would be many more. The proposed Constitution proposes to place all these people, or practically all of them, on a fixed salary, payable out of the State Treasury and figures at $1,200.00 each for the top ones in 120 counties, and I don't think it would be anything less, since the Court of Appeals this year 1966 increased the salaries of practically all county officials from $7,200.00 to $9,600.00, which is $400.00 short of $10,000.00 and it would be well understood that when the payments are to be made out of the State Treasury, it will increase to at least $12,000.00. I have calculated these matters on a basis of 120 counties and I arrive at a figure of approximately $40 million. This would take such an enormous amount, I think would deplete the Treasury to such an extent that our teachers would rarely ever get an increase if any increase at all. I think the teachers should begin to do a little figuring themselves and try and determine just where they will be in this great so-called movement under the new Constitution. This new proposal is just simply taking away from the people what few rights they have left and placing it in the hands of dictators. The philosophy of Thomas Jefferson, a great statesman and President of the United States, was to take the Government to the people and not away from them.

Under the proposed Constitution the power to elect a State Superintendent of Public Instruction would be taken from the people and vested in a state board of education. The members of the state board of education would be sponsored by politicians. Instead of taking the office out of politics it would thrust it into the jungle of partisan politics. Until something better is offered, let's elect the State Superintendent of Public Instruction by vote of the people. If you ever have a Superintendent appointed, it will be for life. If possible, he would be wanting all the power over the entire school system and the right perhaps to place the various Superintendents of schools in each county in accordance with his wishes. I think this is something to be thought about. Dictators are after power and under this proposed constitution this is what the Moguls at Frankfort are seeking. You might look the word Mogul up in your dictionary and you will find that it has various meanings, one of which is a powerful, important person with autocratic power. A lot of people have simply gone perfectly wild in order to secure power over the lives of others. Under the proposed Constitution most county and district officials would be perpetuated in office for life. The young generation would be unable to break down the barriers erected by old line politicians and would be unable to run for office. Let's give the young generation an opportunity to serve, but under the new proposed set-up you will have plenty of difficulty facing you until and when the old line politicians get out of the way.

Under the proposed Constitution the office of sheriff and jailer would be combined or consolidated into one. The sheriff would take over the duties of the jailer and, since the sheriff would have additional duties to perform, in that event that would bring about the appointment or selection of Tax Commissioner, or collector, to collect the tax of the people, those who pay. Anyway you put it, there will be some means by which an appointment for such tax collector will be made.

I think I have pointed out many reasons why the proposed Constitution should be defeated. You will observe by reading this proposed document there so many reasons to vote NO it is hard to write and discuss all of them. I think this amendment is disastrous to the people of Kentucky in that it places too much power in the hands of a Kentucky in that it places too few.

These Frankfort autocrats know Kentuckians have a great reverence for our present Constitution but they are determined to win approval by money, pressure or machine votes and other repugnant methods. This new proposal of amending the Constitution is the worst weapon since the Atom Bomb. It seems they intend to wipe out of existence the tax-paying people and all those who do not bow to their wishes. It is said that self-preservation is the first law of nature, so please save yourself from the calamity that may befall us all if this ambiguous monstrosity and Atom Bomb in the form of the Constitutional amendment passes. Save yourself while you can. On November 8, 1966, VOTE NO. No one as yet has received their tax bills and this may be a good thing for the proposed amendment, since it might keep down some animosity against the amendment. I had my tax figured the other day and it is more than twice the amount of last year. If you ever voted to save yourself, now is the time.

HENRY STEPHENS (Adv.)

SPECIAL FALL RECREATION PROGRAM OFFERED BY KENTUCKY STATE PARKS

For Kentuckians interested in an Autumn holiday, there are still many good accommodations available at Kentucky state parks which are featuring special events week-ends as part of a planned program of fall vacation recreation.

For persons with a flair for painting, Ray Harm, noted Kentucky naturalist, and Sam Sarkisian, of the American Greeting Card Corporation, will provide lectures and individual advice during a scheduled art seminar November 11-13 at Jenny Wiley State Park, Prestonsburg. If you fish, square dance, paint or play bridge, there'll be something to your liking November 11-14 at four Kentucky state parks, according to Julian Walker, recreation supervisor for the Parks Department.

At Lake Cumberland State Park, near Jamestown, another "Fishing Unlimited" week-end has been scheduled for these dates. Trophies will be given for the largest catches. And, fishing experts will be on hand to give timely tips on how to land the big ones.

The final square dance week-end is set for the same week-end at Cumberland Falls State Park near Corbin. A full schedule of dancing and workshop instruction is on tap with top-notch teachers giving lessons in both round and square dancing.

Master points may be earned at a planned duplicate bridge week-end for the same dates at Kenlake State Park near Hardin. Besides points, there'll be prizes at the tourney, sanctioned by the American Bridge Association.

Registration fees are required for both the bridge tourney and art seminar. For more information or reservations, contact the Central-Reservations office in Frankfort, phone (area code 502) 223-2326.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

A VOTE AGAINST

EDITOR, The Times:

I realize the letters you print from time to time do not reflect necessarily your viewpoint, nor that of The Times, therefore I submit to this department the following:

A small group of Communists blueprinted strategy to take over Kentucky by changing the Constitution. They have a headquarters at 3210 West Broadway in Louisville.

If the Constitution can be changed, it can destroy local self-government and the land rights and set up executive rule over us. They lost by a mere 2% in 1960. They tried again in 1963. In November, 1966, they seek to do so again via the ballot route and take the liberties of a free people as NOW contained in the PRESENT Constitution!

The Communists have shifted their headquarters to Louisville. The truth is blacked out in Kentucky by a monopoly press in the main. A few local papers stand alone in the area of truthful reporting.

Present operations in Kentucky are heavily financed, by the Communists.

Let every true Kentuckian, regardless of party name vote AGAINST changing our Constitution.

When is the best time to put in a pool?

Not many people know it, but Fall is the very best time to buy a pool. There are four important reasons why:

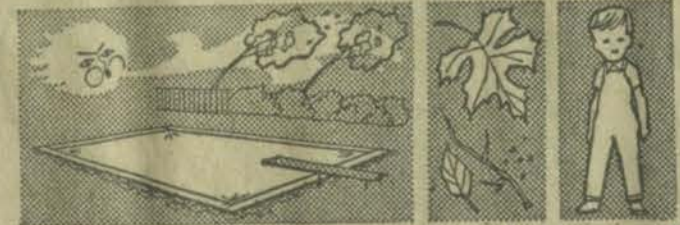

1. Our crews have the time to take extra care in installation.
2. Grass and shrubs are best planted in the Fall. They have months to get established. Water is more available, too.
3. When the pool is complete, we give you a free Aqua-Lock® Pool Cover. It seals out dust, leaves, and dirt throughout Winter and Spring.
4. On the first hot day next Spring, just peel back the cover and dive into sparkling water in a clean pool. No raw dirt around. No muddy backyard from Spring rains.

DISTRICT SOCIAL SECURITY MANAGER WARNS AGED AGAINST CONFIDENCE MEN

"If someone comes to your door and says he is from the social security or medicare office, ask to see his credentials," social security district manager Walter H. Hobbs advises senior citizens in this area.

Hobbs said that there have been scattered instances around the country in which confidence men have used medicare as a pretense for getting money from social security and medicare beneficiaries. There have been one or two reports of such incidents in nearby counties, Hobbs said.

In issuing his reminder, Hobbs said he did not wish to alarm local elderly people but would put them on notice so that they would not be victimized.

Any bonafide social security representative will readily show his identification and will not mind at all if a check is made on him by calling the social security office on the telephone.

He cited one instance in California where an alert woman was responsible for the capture of three burglary suspects. Three men posing as medicare investigators left her home when she asked to see their identification. She called the police and they picked up the men, who had used medicare as an excuse to enter several homes and steal articles of value.

In another case, in Colorado, men posing as social security representatives promised higher benefits if elderly persons would sign a piece of paper. These people had been tricked into signing away rights to money in their savings accounts.

Another incident involved a purported social security representative who called on an 86-year old woman, claiming he was looking for counterfeit money being passed around in connection with medicare. He asked her for her money so that he could have it photographed. She gave him $72. Of course, he never returned.

It is a federal offense, Hobbs pointed out, to impersonate a government employee and is punishable by imprisonment. Further penalties are applicable if some other crime, such as theft, is also involved. He advised older people to protect themselves against fraud by checking carefully on the identity of visitors not known to them.

"Ask for identification if someone comes to your house and says he is a social security representative," Hobbs emphasized. "If you have reason to doubt his identity, call the social security office to see if they sent him out to see you."

CATS TROUNCE LOUISA IN HOMECOMING GAME

The Prestonsburg Black Cats had a victorious Homecoming as they romped over Louisa 41-7 last Friday night.

A Louisa fumble, recovered by Bennett Leslie, set up the first touchdown for Prestonsburg. Leslie carried the ball over from one yard out. The extra point, attempted by Clark, was missed because of a bad pass from center.

Junior fullback Mike Castle followed this with a 20-yard touchdown run, but the play was called back.

In the second quarter, Leslie scored again from 10 yards out. The conversion by Clark was good.

Louisa came alive in the second quarter when James Pack passed to Ernie Stone for 65 yards and a touchdown. Marty Vaughn booted the extra point. The score was 13-7 at halftime.

In the third quarter the Cats scored twice. Donnie Ratliff scored on a seven-yard pass play, and Clark's conversion was good. Bennett Leslie then took off on a 69-yard run for the next marker. The point-after by Clark was good.

In the fourth quarter John

Webb recovered a Louisa fumble on the Prestonsburg 30, and in nine plays the Cats went 70 yards for the score. Bennett Leslie made his fourth touchdown of the game on a 20-yard pass play. The conversion by Clark was good. John Webb came through again when he intercepted a pass on the 40-yard line. This time, John Clark went over for the Cats from 20 yards out. Clark booted the extra point, making the final score 41-7.

Clinton Hager, Eric Ousley and Larry Mann were impressive for Prestonsburg in the line.

This week, the Cats will travel to Paintsville for their last game of the season.

A Summary of the Proposed Kentucky Constitution Revision as it affects LOCAL GOVERNMENT

A key sentence in the Constitution Revision says: "Units of local government may create any democratic form of government and perform any functions not denied to them by their own charters, the Constitution or general law." Local governments would be able to do what was not specifically denied to them. Now, local governments have only the powers specifically granted to them.

LOCAL ELECTIONS Under the Revision, local voters would continue to select their own elected officers, voting for them at the same time they chose their Representatives and Senators for the General Assembly. Present elective offices would continue until changed by general law.

TERMS OF OFFICE The chief executive and the members of all units of local government would be elected by local voters for terms of no longer than four years.

RELATIONSHIP OF LEGISLATURE The State Legislature could exercise authority in providing forms and functions of local government. It would continue to have the power to make classifications of cities.

stitution Revision would prohibit any county from being merged or abolished without approval of the voters residing in that county. Under the present Constitution a county may be abolished by the General Assembly.

TAXATION AND REVENUES Under the present Constitution, county tax rates are limited to fifty cents per hundred. The Constitution Revision permits rate and limitation to be set by general law. The Revision would permit the State to share a portion of state tax revenue with cities and counties. Also, local units of government, as well as school districts, could finance schools and other public buildings with general obligation bonds.

Kentucky Bookmobiles' Combined Circulation

Now About 5 Million

Frankfort, Ky. — The truck with "Kentucky Bookmobile" across the back is a familiar sight across the Commonwealth. In most counties, the State Department of Libraries reports, the bookmobile accounts for more circulation of books than do the public libraries.

The total annual circulation provided by the 110 bookmobiles in Kentucky is nearly five million, a figure which breaks down to an average circulation of close to 50,000 books per bookmobile—20 times the number of books that are actually available, according to the Department.

The purpose of the bookmobile program is to extend library service throughout the rural areas of Kentucky. Many rural Kentuckians have no transportation to a library and many areas have no public library.

The average bookmobile, with a capacity of up to 1,600 books, reaches families in some of the most inaccessible areas of Kentucky.

Miss Margaret Willis, state librarian, has a full basket of letters from schoolchildren grateful for the bookmobile project.

In 1954 the project consisted of a fleet of 100 bookmobiles, many of which were converted panel trucks, with a maximum capacity of 800 books each. The Department has been gradually replacing these with larger bookmobiles costing $7,000 each, which provides space for 1,600 books.

The new bookmobiles replaced 20 of the smaller ones last year, and an additional 10 have been ordered this year, making a total of 86 new bookmobiles since 1960.

For years, long before his opponent was in public life, JOHN Y. BROWN was fighting the battle for Eastern Kentucky. JOHN Y. BROWN has always been in the forefront of any battle for any project to help Floyd county and Eastern Kentucky.

CARL D. PERKINS, our Congressman, is one of the most outstanding members of Congress — hard-working and nationally recognized, particularly for his legislative achievements in the area of education. His service to his district has no equal.

As a former member of Congress and the Kentucky Legislature, he has sponsored and supported more laws that benefit our people. A vote for JOHN Y. BROWN for U. S. Senator is a vote for a man who has stood in the past, and who will stand in the future, for Floyd county and our part of Kentucky.

CARL PERKINS needs a partner in the Senate. He and JOHN Y. BROWN will work, hand in hand, with the Democratic administrations in Washington and Frankfort to win for Floyd county and Eastern Kentucky those things so greatly needed.

TO FRIENDS OF EDUCATION IN EDUCATION DIVISION NO. 1

Although I have been an announced candidate to succeed myself as a member of the county board of education for some weeks, I feel compelled to make the following statement regarding my candidacy.

I was first elected to the board almost eight years ago in opposition to the administration, as it existed at that time. Two years after my election to the board, a new superintendent was hired by the majority of the board, as it was made up at that time. We did have some stormy board meetings after the new superintendent was seated but during the stormy period we all learned a great deal about each other and about our responsibilities as board members and school officials. We discovered that what we all really wanted was the best school system possible for Floyd county's children and we had the same hope for creating a better Floyd county through greater opportunity for our youth.

Under the leadership of Superintendent Clark and his staff the Floyd county school system has made more progress during the last six years than during any other period in our history. I am happy to have been a part of that period of great progress. Our school system has gained a reputation as one of the best and most progressive systems in all of the Appalachian Area. As evidence of progress made within the last six years I list below a few examples:

1. More than 80 new classrooms completed and in use (Contract let for 7 rooms at Prestonsburg Elementary school.)
2. One of the first county systems to qualify for "Head Start."
3. Most complete lunchroom program in Eastern Kentucky.
4. Adult Education program which has been copied by school systems in Kentucky and West Virginia.
5. One of only thirty-two school systems in Kentucky operating a N.Y.C. program in Kentucky, whereby our young people have earned over 1/2 million dollars on workshops during the past school year. We are assured of a similar program this school year.
6. Summer school program for over 4,000 of our educationally deprived young people.
7. A complete vocation school program at Garth which can be used by young people from all sections of Floyd county.
8. Clark Elementary School consolidating all the Middle Creek section.

The above accomplishments, as well as many others, have made all the board members very happy to have been a part of such a school system. Greater things are planned for the future and I want to be a part of that future. For this reason I wish to solicit your support in order to insure harmony and to keep this school system moving forward. I have complete confidence in the leadership of Superintendent Clark and his staff and I want them to have a chance to continue their dynamic leadership.

Senator John Sherman Cooper worked against inflation in the Senate before inflation became a national problem. He supported tax reductions when they were needed to stimulate the economy, and, more recently, he supported cuts in Federal spending as an alternative to a general tax increase. It was for his sound record on finances that the National Associated Businessmen, Inc., recently made him an award.

Shown, left to right, are Rondal Hart, national director, Kentucky Jaycees; Alvin Webb, secretary, and Jack Stumbo, president, Prestonsburg Jaycees, looking over material on the proposed revision of the Kentucky Constitution. The Prestonsburg Jaycees have adopted the project of presenting to other Jaycee clubs throughout the region the proposed revision on an unbiased basis and not recommending which side of the issue the Jaycees should accept or reject, but rather present the facts relative to all sides of the issue so that Jaycees may analyze them and make their own individual decisions.

Why do Kentucky's leading newspapers support Constitutional revision?

"Constitution aids farmers"

"... The revision will aid the progress of the state's total agricultural industry as well as the overall economy... The farmer is given a special tax break he does not have under the present Constitution. In addition, farmers, like other taxpayers, can save millions in school taxes — since the cost of school construction financing can go down under the Revised Constitution... (Under the revised constitution) The State Department of Agriculture can be strengthened to provide better services to farmers through career leadership..."

GLEANER & JOURNAL, Henderson, Ky.

"Entire text of Constitution is submitted to vote of people"

"We have been questioned as to the reason for the charter being submitted in its entirety. The answer is that this method makes it possible for voters to know exactly what will be contained in the new document... It may not be a perfect document, but it is 100 percent improvement over the antiquated charter designed in 1891."

REGISTER, Richmond, Ky.

"Facts win converts for revision"

"Having all the facts can make a lot of difference. A case in point is the Kentucky Municipal League's decision to support the proposed new state constitution, reversing a position taken last May... Those who joined in reversing the league's position in this important matter see the issue in its true light and through intelligent eyes. We believe the majority of voters will do likewise when they go to the polls November 8, provided enough arm themselves with the facts beforehand."

LOUISVILLE TIMES, Louisville, Ky.

"A better school system and free of politics"

"... The proposed constitution provides for an elected non-partisan (school) board to sit and then appoint a school superintendent. Education would be his only concern. And Kentucky schools... would move faster. Educators agree, Democrats and Republicans alike, that the proposed non-partisan system would do much to eliminate the heavy hand of politics from Kentucky Education."

PROGRESS, Dawson Springs, Ky.

"A vast improvement"

"... We do not doubt the integrity of a single individual who participated in the deliberations of the (Constitutional revision) Assembly... We believe that most citizens, when they have read and comprehended what is in the document, will feel as we do that it is good, that it is a vast improvement on the old constitution, and that it should be adopted..."

SUN-DEMOCRAT, Paducah, Ky.

"Divorcing education from politics"

"One of the most desirable features of the modernized constitution offered Kentuckians is its divorce of public education from partisan politics..."

LOUISVILLE TIMES, Louisville, Ky.

"Needs to be modernized"

"... The present constitution of the State of Kentucky was... framed to suit that era (1891) and, like the modes and methods of that time, it has served its usefulness and needs to be modernized..."

SUN, Springfield, Ky.

"Clearly worded, readily understood"

"... This newspaper is convinced that the interests of Kentuckians will best be served by adopting the new basic law to replace the 75-year-old constitution of 1891... There will be many more discussions and interpretations before election day. But there is no substitute for first-hand knowledge and the new document is clearly worded and readily understood."

INDEPENDENT, Ashland, Ky.

"The revised charter offers a new chance for Kentucky"

"This newspaper does, indeed, support the proposed revision of the constitution. It represents for Kentucky an opportunity the state cannot afford to miss... (The Revised Constitution) is the result of two years of hard, dedicated, unpaid effort by an assembly of Kentuckians which included many of the state's outstanding minds—men skilled in law and commerce, farming and education, men representing small towns, cities and rural regions, men of all religions, both parties, Negro and white, labor and management, men working with one and only one thing in mind—to give Kentucky a better Constitution than she has, one that will help Kentucky not only catch up with other states but go ahead..."

THE COURIER-JOURNAL, Louisville, Ky.

"Strong statewide support appearing for revision of state Constitution"

"... One factor, we think, in the rising support for (constitutional) revision is the frankness with which the Kentuckians for a Better Constitution and other leaders are conducting the revision campaign. They are urging everyone to read the proposed changes, they are explaining the revision honestly and openly, they are inviting critical study... This is the kind of campaign that appeals to intelligent voters, and they are responding by giving the proposed revision their endorsement and active support."

HERALD-LEADER, Lexington, Ky.

Thinking voters will say "YES" to Constitutional Revision November 8th.

BOARD MEMBERS SUPPORT HOWARD AND ALLEN

The entire membership of the Floyd County Board of Education is proud of the great progress made by our school system in recent years. This progress was not an accident. It was the result of love for Floyd county youth and dedication to the idea that much has been done but much remains to be done. Dr. J. H. Allen and Ray Howard have been two very important spokes in our wheel of progress. Ray has missed only one meeting in two years and Dr. Allen has missed only two meetings in four years. We the undersigned board members wish to urge our friends and the friends of education in Floyd county to see that Ray Howard and Dr. J. H. Allen are re-elected to the board November 8.

WE ALL MAKE DECISIONS . . .

In elections, in business, the matter of living out our lives — each of us is required to make decisions, to choose, hopefully, for the better if not for the very best.

The choices we make in building a home—in planning it, selecting a site, determining its size and the shape it will take, the materials that are to go into it to stand the stresses and strains, the wear and tear of time and use and climate . . . these are among our most important decisions.

For that home or business of yours we submit that we offer those materials which will stand the most rigorous test. Let us help you make the right choice.

LETTER TO THE PEOPLE

Do you remember how in the Old Bible times that Esau sold his birthrights for a morsel of meal? Beware, voter. Let us not sell our school system for a few unworthy promises. I don't intend to try to buy this office of Board member. If I did, I would have to sell you good people out in order to get my return.

I have been asked many times how I stand on the Constitution Amendments. I say vote NO as is now proposed. I know what it means to look up and say, "Dad, I want so and so," and to hear Dad say, "No, son, you can't have this or that." Also I have seven sons, I know what it means when one of the boys looks up and says, "Dad, I want so and so." When I have to look down and say, "Son, I would like to fulfill your wishes but I can't." Are we going to turn our state and our school systems over to dictatorship and have to ask the governor or school superintendent if we can have this or that? Let us not give up the last right that we have. Keep our voice in our school system.

Now, school teachers, you are being forced against your better judgment. Now is the time to stand up and be counted. Come out from under them and be ye a separated people. Have a VOICE in the WAY YOU CONDUCT YOUR SCHOOL.

Why can't we have a strong athletic program? Why don't we have a winning team? Is it the coach or is it the boys? I don't think so. The place to start, to help this program is the top end of the chairs and find that weak link and cut it out. I know we are being promised that after this ELECTION there will be something done. For many years past there has not been anything DONE. In old times when you went to a log-rolling you had to have a good, new hand spike. I think now is the time to cut a NEW HAND SPIKE in our school systems.

Watch out tax payers you won't get your tax bill until after the election. Then I bet we wish we had not got them at all. I am not a politician. Don't be persuaded. Elect Woodrow Branham to School Board, District No. 1.

Impala Super Sport Coupe—a clean new sweep in roof lines.

Now that you've seen all the daring new things our stylists did, get in and sample some of the safest, soundest ideas on the road!

What you feel is as new as what you see—thanks to all the fresh thinking that's gone into the way it rides, steers, starts, stops and looks after your safety.

It's got a remarkable new road feel—beginning with a ride so hushed and gentle you'll feel like calling this the '67 Shhhevrolet. The steering is as much as 10% easier and the stopping smoother. And both the standard V8 and 6 are quicker starting.

We put safety features on top of safety features. For example, there's an energy-absorbing steering wheel atop the new GM-developed energy-absorbing steering column. A dual master cylinder brake system with warning light. And seat belts front and rear with pushbutton buckles, and front seat belt retractors. All standard, to be sure.

And there's a new SS 427 performance package you can order for the Impala Super Sport Coupe and Convertible. For starters, you get a 385-hp Turbo-Jet V8. Plus a domed hood, special flat-cornering suspension and red or white stripe tires on wider wheels.

Of course, there are all sorts of new custom features you can add, too, such as tape or FM stereo. But if you find so much that's new a bit too much to remember—drop down to your dealer's and take a drive. It'll all become unforgettable.

Everything new that could happen...happened! Now at your Chevrolet dealer's.

"Caravan of Stars"
 Booked for Appearance At Paintsville, Nov. 14

"The Caravan of Stars," a Dick Clark Production, has been booked to appear in Paintsville on Monday, November 14. This show is being sponsored by the Student Council of Prestonsburg Community College and will be held at the Paintsville high school gym. Show time is 7 p.m.

Heading the attraction will be Gary Lewis and the Playboys and, direct from England, the Yardbirds. Also on the bill are Sam the Sham and the Pharaohs, The Distant Cousins, Brian Hyland, Jimmy Clayton, Bobby Hebb of "Sonny" fame, and the Jokers.

The show is being scheduled in Paintsville because the Prestonsburg Fieldhouse was already committed. Since the Paintsville gym has a capacity of around 2,500 and more than 3,500 attended last spring's show, there will probably be two shows. The Paintsville independent school system is providing the gym at no cost to the council.

Tickets are available at the college bookstore, Francis Store, Thomas Hereford Co. and Lake Lanes.

KY. ONE-TEACHER SCHOOLS
REDUCED THIS YEAR BY 82

Frankfort, Ky. — Eighty-two one-teacher schools closed this year in Kentucky, joining the consolidation movement which began in the public school system more than a decade ago.

The State Department of Education reports the state has 340 one-teacher public schools this year as compared with 422 last year.

Also removed from the public school system are 26 two-teacher schools, leaving a total of 100, and education authorities say three-teacher schools are cut from 58 to 49.

A report released by the State Department of Education shows a total of 1,927 schools in the public school system compared with 2,057 last year. This includes 1,123 schools of four or more teachers up through junior high school and 315 high schools.

All but one of the one-teacher schools are in 32 Appalachian counties where most of the reduction of one-teacher schools was made. The one exception is in Grayson county in Western Kentucky which reduced its total from six this year.

The Department said the other three one-teacher schools listed last year outside of Appalachia, all in Western Kentucky, are among those closed.

Dr. Harry M. Sparks, superintendent of Public Instruction, said it is significant that 17 of the 49 counties designated as Appalachia by the federal Bureau of Health, Education and Welfare have closed all one-teacher schools. These counties, most of which are on the northern and western side of the region, are:

McCreary, Bell, Casey, Lincoln, Garrard, Jackson, Madison, Clark, Montgomery, Powell, Men-see, Fleming, Rowan, Lewis, Greenup and Boyd.

He said most of the Appalachi-

PAUL FRANCIS CO.
 PRESTONSBURG, KY.

EDUCATIONAL DISTRICT NO. 2

On November 8, 1966 you, the voters, will have a decision to make. This may be one of the most important decisions you will have to make in your entire life. Should the present school administration be retained, along with their support of the Revised Constitution, then here is what to expect:

1. You will be required to pay county school taxes on 100% of the fair cash value of your livestock, poultry, farming implements, farming machinery and even your milk cows.
2. You will be required to pay local school taxes on 100% of the fair cash value of all money in hand, in banks, notes and other securities owned by you.
3. You will have your taxes increased 10% this year, 10% next year and then the Lord only knows—the sky will be the limit.
4. You people who are interested in your school at Martin will see it moved, with the children of Allen, Martin, Left Beaver up to and including Drift forced to travel many unnecessary miles to school.
5. You will see once again children transported from a more populated area to a rural area only to satisfy the greed of a few people. (We have seen this same thing happen in the past—i.e., the Lackey high school building which has 12 nice big rooms and an excellent gymnasium which has been squandered and at present serves only 30 children. At the same time in the Martin grade school you will find 40 children in each of two rooms that contain not one window.)

My recommendation and solution to this problem would be to allow the Right Beaver Consolidation to continue but to add a second new consolidated school in the vicinity of Martin so that those children there and the surrounding area can have their own school.

6. You can continue to expect your tax bills to be held up until after November 8—on all election dates in the future. REMEMBER that has been their policy this year.

7. You can continue to have a superintendent who you never see, who has an unlisted phone number at home and should you be able to corner him will never give a definite answer but will refer you to some designated Board Member to solve your problem.

8. You can expect to have an administrator (superintendent) who has from 10 to 20 assistants, 20 to 30 clerks and flunkies too numerous to mention. The quantity of auxiliary help (assistant clerks, etc.) is not indicative of a strong administrator. Could a private company or industrial concern possibly afford a staff that is made up of all chiefs and no Indians?

Should the aforementioned be what you want and what you will be satisfied with, then you should support my opponent. Should you desire a change back to normal in taxes, in economizing and in better schools, then you should vote for LEO MUSIC.

Let's change the tune. I will furnish the LEO MUSIC.
