This Town . . . That World

One reference to God no atheist will ever find objectionable. It's on good American pieces of silver.

GOOD NEWS

Crappie in greater size and volume than ever found there before are being caught at Dewey Lake. Whether you agree that fertilizing the impoundment helped, or want to be contrary and argue that nothing helps, something has happened over there that offers hope.

THE RICH GET RICHER AND THE POOR MOVE AWAY

Those of us who have entertained an idea that the ideal farm life would be to own a tall foxhunter, bestride him and ride over to the south pasture, then canter over to the adjacent forty and see how the hands were doing, later inspect the grazing herds and wind up with a tour of a nearby golf course or a fling at fishing—we have another idea coming since these stories of crop subsidies and the like have reached the newspapers. After reading about one Texan getting two million for banking purposes in return for retiring from production several thousand acres of cotton land, and the thousands collected by a Kentuckian for the same non-productive activity, I've decided that's the farm life with a future—get paid for doing nothing.

AN APPEAL TO A THIEF

The following, written by a woman who made some of those quilts which were stolen from the fairgrounds here speaks for itself:

To the unknown person or persons who have in their possession items taken from the Fair, especially the quilts:

What do these quilts mean to you?

Let me tell you just a few things they mean to the owners.

Many long hours were spent cutting out the material and sewing it back together again, creating a pretty pattern or design. Then the work was only beginning. Next you put together the lining, padding and top. Then comes long hours of quilting. While the rain falls, the snow comes down and the winter winds blow, you quilt.

You go to bed at night with aching shoulders and fingers so sore you can hardly touch them. But, somehow, you complete the quilt—and how proud you are of it! Whenever friends and neighbors drop in, you show them your quilts. They think they are

ASSESSMENT IS CERTIFIED FOR COUNTY

Court To Set Rate At Friday Meeting; Late Billing Seen

The 1967 Floyd county assessment for tax purposes was certified this week, without change, by the State Department of Revenue after a delay of weeks while the "borderline" status of this and 14 other counties was being studied.

Until certification was received, the possibility of a blanket raise to increase real estate assessments existed. The new assessment shows a loss of $560,523 on real estate, but the figure was permitted to stand without alteration.

Despite this action, tax bills may not reach the people who pay them before December. First, the fiscal court must set the tax rate on the basis of this assessment. This is expected to be done Friday. After that will come the job of making out the tax bills. A special effort may get the bills to the Sheriff by November 15. Then will come the Sheriff's task of getting out tax notices to individual taxpayers.

The approved assessment figures are:

Real estate, $63,573,219; tangible personal property, $19,932,270; bank shares, $1,674,760; public service corporations, $37,949,807.

Judge To Cancel Tipsy Drivers' Licenses

Police Judge Earl Blackburn has adopted a policy of revoking the driver's license of every driver convicted in his court of drunken driving. One such case, that of Chester Green Jarrell, was heard, a few days ago. James Clayton Cox was also jailed here on a reckless driving count. Both arrests were made by Policemen Ray Click and Woodrow Lafferty.

TWO MURDER TRIALS SET

Jury Difficulties Seen for Salisbury Case Set, Sept. 27

Two murder cases are docketed for trial the same day, Sept. 27, of the current circuit court term, but the duplicate docketing is expected to present no problem because one of the defendants is Roy Salisbury, back for retrial after the Court of Appeals had voided his death sentence for the slaying of Mrs. Mallie T. Denney.

Where the trial jury will come from for the Salisbury case, or where the trial will be held, will postpone trial past the date set, and it is possible his second trial will be continued.

An effort to empanel a jury of Floyd countians willing to impose the death penalty failed at the first trial after a long and

HURTS CLAIM 'KIT' STUMBO

Well-Known Man Is Fatally Crushed Between Coal Cars

Willie (Kit) Stumbo, 56, of McDowell, brother of County Judge Henry Stumbo and a tipple employee of the Left Beaver Coal Co., Drift, was fatally crushed last Thursday when he was pinned between two coal gondolas at the company's siding.

He was caught between the cars as one was being shoved down the track and the coupling of one slid over that of the other car, it was said. Mr. Stumbo died at the McDowell Appalachian Regional hospital at 4 p.m., about five hours after the accident occurred.

The victim was widely known as a baseball pitcher for the team composed of Stumbo brothers and cousins in the days when the sport was its peak in this section. He was a son of Greenville and Hannah Stewart Stumbo, was a member of the United Baptist Church and of the United Mine Workers of America.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Verdie Hall Stumbo, six sons and three daughters: Paul, Klein, Larry, Johnny and Carl Stumbo, all of McDowell, Donald Stumbo, of Martin, Mrs. Greta Clark, of Harold, Mrs. Helen Hall and

REPORT HITS 'TERRORISM,' ASKS ACTION

Crittendon Accused Of Poisoning Spouse; 1 Death Held Mishap

The grand jury voted two murder indictments during its session which ended Friday, and failed to return a true bill in two other shooting deaths.

Earlier in the term, the first murder bill, accusing Charlie Hall of the shotgun slaying at Cow Creek of Bert Hamilton, was reported. Last week, Granville Crittendon was named in an indictment charging him with the murder by poisoning of his wife, Alpha Jean Crittendon.

The jury in its final report said it found that the death of Bert Randall Patton at Estill was the result of accidental shooting. Though failing to vote an indictment, the jury sugegsted that the death of Charlie Bryant from a revolver shot at Melvin should have a more thorough investigation by law enforcement officials.

Terrorism on Right Beaver Creek was investigated by the grand jury, and in its final report to Circuit Judge Conley the jury said:

"We have investigated a situation on Right Beaver Creek which has caused considerable alarm among the members of the grand jury, because we have evidence before us which would indicate that there are several persons who are members of a lawless gang."

Members of this gang, the report pointed out, "have no regard for law and order, and we recommend that all law enforcement officers take serious action against any and all groups of persons who advocate or engage in the practise of committing terror upon their fellow-citizens."

Commenting on the two indictments made earlier for negligent homicide and involuntary manslaughter, the jury report said, "Our investigation has concluded that offenses against property by force is on the increase, and we have indicted a number of persons for such violations."

The report, signed by W. J. Martin, foreman, recommended

THEFT OF EXHIBITS MARS 'FINEST' FAIR

What was perhaps Floyd county's finest fair ever and one of the best to be held in Eastern Kentucky was marred last Thursday night by the theft of a number of exhibits.

Dismayed by the looting, the Floyd County Fair Board already has begun to prevent any future loss. A concrete footer was being readied for pouring around the building at Archer Park from which the articles were stolen. On this foundation concrete blocks will rise approximately 3½ feet, and wood construction will continue from these to the roof. Strong doors, which will be locked, will be provided. Fair Board officials said a watchman will remain behind these locked doors at night during future fairs.

A nightwatchman was on duty when last Thursday's break was made, but he had two sheds to guard, and the looters under cover of darkness easily timed their break with his patrol of the second building. Wire used at the bottom of plastic sides of the exhibit shed was raised to gain entrance.

Identity of the thieves has not been determined.

Lost were the following items: Five quilts, one sweater, six pillows, one evening dress, one suit, two skirts, a dress and a blouse.

But for this occurrence, the fair was highly successful from the standpoint of both exhibits and attendance. The exhibits were more numerous than ever before and of unusual quality, and Saturday's attendance was placed at a minimum of 5,000.

WORLD'S STRONGEST MAN COMING HERE

Paul Anderson, the world's strongest man in the 1956 Olympics, will speak and give a weight-lifting demonstration at the Prestonsburg Community College next Monday afternoon at 4 p.m., and at the Prestonsburg high school gymnasium that evening at 7.

The program is sponsored by the Baptist Student Union at the college. There is no charge, and the public is invited.

The 36-year-old Anderson lifted a record 1,130 pounds in three lifts for a Olympic triathlon in Munich, Germany, in 1955, and won the Olympics heavyweight crown in Australia in 1956 by lifting a total of 1,102 pounds in three lifts.

On a "back lift" he listed 6,276 pounds, a record which no other person has ever approached.

Anderson's great strength, plus his personality, fine outlook on life and his spiritual convictions have sent him around the world several times as a good-will ambassador for the United States State Department. On one such trip, he captivated Russia, a country seldom enthusiastic or impressed with American athletes.

Today, Anderson has a different kind of burden on his back. With the help of his 26-year-old wife, Glenda, he operates the Paul Anderson Youth Home, Inc., a foster home for homeless youngsters at Vidalia, Ga.

From 15 to 20 youngsters are cared for at a time in the Anderson home, and since its founding in 1962, more than 40 young people from across the state of Georgia have found a haven in the old, ante-bellum mansion, which the Andersons bought in 1963 to provide a place "for the children."

Anderson is an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, but his main work today is managing and supporting his home for unwanted boys and girls in Vidalia.

P'BURG CC STUDENTS TO RECEIVE $70,000

The University of Kentucky Prestonsburg Community College has received nearly $70,000 to be distributed as financial aid to students during the 1967-'68 school year.

The record sum will be administered in five general categories: the college work study program, state rehabilitation program, federally financed Economic Opportunity grants, federally financed National Defense Education loans, and academic and community scholarships.

Glen Cowan, business manager and financial aid officer for the college, said approximately 30 percent of all students in the college are receiving financial assistance—many helped by the United Student Aid Loan Program administered by private banks.

Of the five programs, the college work study program is the largest, providing about $48,000 to 83 students. Thirteen students will get $4,600 through the rehabilitation program, eight will receive $2,500 in Economic Opportunity grants, 12 will get nearly $2,500 in National Defense Education loans and 41 students will receive approximately $12,000 in scholarships given by the college.

DOLLARS AND SENSE TALK ABOUT ELECTRIC HEATING FROM FOLKS WHO NOW HAVE IT.

Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Arnett of Dixie Addition, Salyersville, Kentucky, installed electric ceiling heat in their new 7-room, 3-bath home. Their average monthly electric bill for heating and all other uses of electricity is just $29.72. Recently, Mr. & Mrs. Arnett were asked the following questions about their heat:

Q: Does total electric living with flameless heating cost any more than you were paying in your previous home for both fuel and electricity?
A: Yes.
Q: How much more?
A: We didn't keep close records of heating costs in our old home, but the difference isn't great.
Q: Do you think the difference in cost is worth it?
A: As far as we're concerned, electric heat can't be beat. It was really hard to believe at first, it was so warm. Even in the coolest weather, the floors are always warm. And clean, it's so clean. I'm pleased that my wife has to spend very little time cleaning. We had fuel oil in our old house and we find this electric heat much cleaner.
Q: Why did you choose ceiling cable over other types of electric heat?
A: We liked the idea of heating units that were completely concealed.

Like the Arnetts, you can modernize your home with flameless heat. A Reddy Kilowatt Recommended Dealer or Kentucky Power Company will help you select the type heating that best suits your home and your preference.

No Guesswork on costs

Your dealer or Kentucky Power will accurately figure your monthly electric cost in advance. Then, compare for yourself the cost of safe, cleaner, more comfortable electric living with what you are presently paying for fuel and electricity.

Cleaner Air School At Jenny Wiley Park Scheduled, October 6

Frankfort, Ky.—As part of the continuing effort toward "Cleaner Air for Kentucky," the Air Pollution Control Program of the State Department of Health will soon conduct a series of one-day combustion schools.

The first school will be held Sept. 27 at Pennyrile Forest State Park, Dawson Springs. Other sessions are scheduled for Oct. 3 at the State Department of Health Auditorium, Frankfort, and Oct. 6 at Jenny Wiley State Park here.

According to Harold E. Hodges, director of the Air Pollution Control Program, the purpose of the schools is to present some practical operating knowledge and a few of the basic principles of good combustion and apply them to the art and technique of good burning practices.

"Operating personnel can often correct their own air pollution problem by correcting their operating technique," Hodges stated. "Improper burning is inefficient and costly as well as a potential source of nuisance in air pollution."

The schools are directed to both management and personnel in industry, commerce, various public institutions, such as hospitals, schools and municipal installations, and to others who might benefit by such training.

LONG DROUTH ENDS, CATS LICK JENKINS

The Prestonsburg high school Black Cats did something last Friday night they had been trying to do without success for six years. They defeated Jenkins at football.

The long winless skein came to an end in the final quarter of a hard-fought game on the Jenkins field when the Cats scored twice.

The 13-0 victory was the Cats' fourth win of the season without defeat.

The Cavaliers kept Prestonsburg on the defensive through the second half, and it was only because the Cats made their finest defensive effort of the year that they escaped early scoring damage. To start the game, Jenkins kicked off and Prestonsburg fumbled on the first play, with Jenkins recovering. The Cats held the opposition three times within their 10-yard line.

The scoreless deadlock was broken in the fourth quarter when Mark Miller plunged over from the Jenkins two. Phillip Haywood's kick for extra point was good. Then, with five minutes remaining in the game, John Webb got a tremendous rush on the Jenkins punter and the kick was good for only 15 yards. This was followed by Miller's second touchdown, scored from four yards out.

Coach Crager was pleased not only by the defensive play of the team but also by the following of fans for the game. The offense, he said, did little till the fourth quarter. He commented on the punting done by Mike Castle, who got off some booming kicks, and praised the work of Steve Collins, Eric Ousley and Steve Leslie on both defense and offense.

The Cats go to Pikeville this Friday night in quest of victory No. 5.

beautiful, so you decide to share them with more people by taking them to the County Fair.

And in one swift, ungodly act, hours, days, months and even years of hard work vanish as if it had never been.

Let me tell you a few things about the quilts. The green and white one was to be the first item in a little 13-year-old girl's "Hope Chest." A little girl who cried when told her quilt was stolen.

The tulip quilt was to have been a gift from mother to daughter, who would cherish it long after the fingers that stitched it were still. The others would probably be gifts to daughters-in-law or grandchildren as they grew up and married.

So, you see, a quilt, to the one who makes it, is not just something to put on a bed to keep you warm. It actually becomes part of the one who worked so long and hard on it, with so many plans for its future. Plans that never included falling into the hands of a thief.

Little League Gridders Play Sunday Twin Bill; Colts and Eagles Win

Little League football in doubleheader form was again the fare here last Sunday afternoon, with the Eagles defeating the Clark Elementary 49'ers, 20-0, and the Colts downing the Cardinals, 13-0.

Eagle backs, Allen Cline, Robert Tackett and Earl Stephens scored on long runs against the 49'ers while the opposition attack was almost completely stopped by fine Eagle line play.

The second game was more hard-fought. Colt backs, Campbell and Heinze, piled up good yardage, and the team's defense held for naught strong efforts by the Cardinals' quarterback, Jim Blackburn, and Randy Goble.

Next Sunday, the unbeaten Colts and Eagles will meet. The standings:

Team	W	L
49'ers	0	2
Cardinals	0	2

STAI EXPLAINS CARE CENTER SERVICES IN MENTAL HEALTH FOR AREA OF FIVE COUNTIES

The new mental health service called Mountain Comprehensive Care Center, was described to members of the Lackey - Garrett - Wayland Woman's Club last Monday evening by Richard T. Stai, executive Director of the Center. This was the club's first propram meeting of the new year and was held at the vacation trailer camp of Mrs. Mervil Dixon, Stratton Branch, Jenny Wiley State Park.

The Center serves the five-county area of Pike, Floyd, Martin, Magoffin, and Johnson, and is located in Prestonsburg, with 21 fulltime staff members in the five counties.

According to Mr. Stai, the five current services the Center is trying to provide to the people of this area are: 1. Hospital in-patient care (21 beds in the five-county area); 2. Out-patient care (400 patients are being seen regularly in the clinics); 3. Twenty-four hour emergency service (such as threatened suicides, etc.); 4. Hospital program (in conjunction with Pikeville Methodist, Paintsville, McDowell Appalachian, and Prestonsburg General hospitals; and 5. Consultation and education.

"Such services in the field of mental health range in price from $1 to $17 per visit, depending on the patient's ability to pay, and in some instances the services are entirely free," Stai said, explaining there are no funds available for operating expenses except where provided by the community itself.

"Transportation is the big problem at the moment," the speaker explained, emphasizing the importance of getting the retarded and mentally ill to the clinic as soon as possible in order to return them to their homes at an early date, since they adjust better if not taken away from community life.

During a question-and-answer period, Mr. Stai remarked that in the future the Center hopes to have clinics for anyone interested in bringing problems to them (marital, child, teenage, etc.) At present, office hours are from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. daily, and the telephone number is 886-3893.

Mr. Stai was accompanied by Dr. Willard Dill, a practicing psychiatrist, whose services are available at the Center.

At a business session following the program the president, Mrs. L. B. Price, advised that a business meeting had been called for September 25, in the Wayland Methodist Church basement. Announcement was also made of the forthcoming district convention of the K.F.W.C. at the Paintsville Country Club, October 7. October 23 has been set for the dinner at which the daughter clubs will be entertained, with Floyd County School Superintendent Charles Clark as guest-speaker.

Prior to the program, a "cook-out" supper was served by the hostesses, Mrs. S. M. Martin, Mrs. Otto Martin, and Mrs. Mervil Dixon, to 16 members and Mr. Stai, Dr. Dill, Mervil Dixon, and J. C. Wells. Mrs. S. M. Martin was program leader.

costly effort. A jury from Pike county heard the case and convicted him. Pike county may be eliminated for consideration as a source of another jury for the trial. The law provides that a jury, if not from the county where the crime was committed, must be from an adjoining county.

Knott county has a strong Combs family influence, and one of the three persons killed, allegedly by Salisbury, was Thomas S. Combs. Neighboring Johnson likewise has prominent members of the Turner family. If these are eliminated from consideration, only Magoffin and Martin counties would be left to supply jurors.

Again, a move may be made for a change of venue to shift the trial to another county.

The other case set for trial Sept. 27 is that of Charlie Hall, charged with the slaying at Cow Creek recently of Bert Hamilton, slayer of his wife, who was Hall's sister.

The charge of obtaining money under false pretense which had been lodged against James and Barbara Slone was amended to fraudulent use of a credit device. They waived jury trial and were given 12 months in jail. The jail sentence later was probated on condition that defendants pay an additional $300 at the rate of $50 a month.

Ed Kidd's motion to quash the armed robbery indictment against him was overruled, and the case was set for trial Sept. 29. His bond was set at $5,000.

Arthur Lyle, Jr. entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of involuntary manslaughter. His trial has been set for Sept. 26, and Paul C. Combs was appointed by the court to represent him. The grand larceny and knowingly receiving stolen property case against Curtis Carroll was docketed for Sept. 27. The court appointed Burl W. Spurlock as his attorney.

Eighteen cases, most of which are for child desertion, have been dismissed within the week.

OPPOSES MARSHALL PLAN FOR CITIES

EDITOR, The Times:

A new war on poverty proposal has been silently introduced, without fanfare. The American people believe it will go for the war in Vietnam. It will NOT. It will cost an extra $100 per taxpayer and it will go for mass bribery to big city rioters who made summer 1967 a living hell for millions. H. H. let the cat out of the bag when he stated, "The administration will launch a Marshall Plan for cities"—it was quickly denied by L.B.J.

Time is short—this bill will be pushed thru. Write your protest to Congressmen and Senators. Tell them you believe that people ought to pay for their own riots; that such payoffs only encourage further riots, and that YOU, the American taxpayer, object to your money being used to bribe other citizens to obey our laws.

CUT-OFF JEANS AT UK NOT HIP, REPORTER SAYS

The University of Kentucky is a dressy place compared to many college campuses where beatniks and hippies congregate to outdo each other in "far out" dress, a girl reporter from a Cincinnati newspaper observed this week.

Karen Hopkins, of the Kentucky Post, reported that a corridor adviser in UK's Keeneland Hall told her girls there would be no cut-off jeans or hair rollers worn in the UK cafeteria.

Not only are the coeds denied cafeteria service when they appear in cut-offs and curlers, they are frowned on when they appear in shorts and bare feet in their dorms. Few girls wear slacks.

On the other side, very few of the men students wear hippie clothes with the beat sloppiness, Miss Hopkins wrote. "But their shirts and slacks are colorful."

WHY YOU NEED A SECURITY LIGHT AT

☐ PROTECTION

☐ PREVENT ACCIDENTS

☐ MORE WORKING HOURS

You get all these advantages and more when you install Security Lights. They're on at dusk and off at dawn—automatically. Discourage unwelcome visitors (both 2 and 4-legged.) There is less chance of falling down or stepping in mud. Yet a Security Light costs only pennies a say . . . a small price for the added convenience and working hours they provide. STRONG ON GEOGRAPHY?-- THEN WHERE IS SHUMLA?

By HENRY P. SCALF

Today, if you were to address a letter to Setser, Shumla, John, Ward, or Frew, Kentucky, it would not reach its destination because those postoffices are no longer in existence in our region. But, back in the mid-eighties of the last century they were outposts of Uncle Sam's far-flung postal system.

Setser was located at the mouth of Dick's Creek on Johns Creek but the neighborhood the office served is now covered by Dewey Lake. Setser, named for John Setser, early settler, disappeared decades before the lake was built. Long after it was discontinued the people had a new postoffice established, named Edgar. It, too, fell by the wayside. Shumla existed below the mouth of Brushy Creek on Johns Creek. There is no information as to whom it was named for; in fact it looks like a coined word. John was farther up Johns Creek at the mouth of Miller's Creek. It is said that this postoffice was named for John Leslie, prominent farmer.

Ward, Kentucky, was on the Big Sandy River at the mouth of Greasy Creek and Frew, Kentucky, was located at the mouth of Mud Lick Creek. Both were in Johnson county.

Information on these old postoffices is from a topographical sheet of the Prestonsburg area surveyed in 1834-1835 by the United States Geological Survey. The map, a gift to the writer of Mrs. Carra Allen, former head of the map division of the Department of Commerce, Frankfort, was printed in 1892 and reprinted in 1898.

Postal service was spread lightly in 1834, according to the map, for there was only one postoffice, East Point, between Prestonsburg and Paintsville. There was no Auxier, West Prestonsburg, or Cliff. Between Prestonsburg and the present-day Allen there was none at all; no Lancer, Emma or routes. In fact, there was no Allen then. The postoffice, believe it or not, and according to the map, was Alpharetta. (Alphoretta later was the postoffice serving the Dinwood area.) Between the mouth of Beaver Creek and the present-day Betsy Layne there were no postoffices. Betsy Layne was Laynesville back in the 1830's but it was finally moved to opposite the mouth of Mud Creek and was succeeded by the postoffice of Harold, named for Harold Hatcher, local merchant. Laynesville was established by the pioneer, James Shannon Layne, and for decades was kept at his general merchandise store near where the present-day Betsy Layne school lunchroom stands. When Layne died in 1871 the postoffice was moved to opposite the mouth of Mud Creek. Decades before that, there was a postoffice at the mouth of Mud Creek called Mouth of Mud, Kentucky. It was kept by the early Hatchers.

If you had been traveling in the mid-1800's from Allen (Alpharetta) up Beaver Creek you would have found no postoffice until you reached Hueysville, then at the mouth of Brush Creek. There was no Martin then and residents for lack of a better name referred to the locality as the Forks of Beaver. There was no Wayland, Estill, Garrett, Lackey, Manton or Dinwood then and no postoffices at all on Left Beaver Creek. Residents of that valley journeyed either to Alpharetta (the spelling is from the map) at the mouth of Beaver or to Laynesville. If a man had been a subscriber to a daily paper he would have had to put in full time walking or riding to get it. However, there were no daily papers coming into the Big Sandy in 1880 and few weeklies.

There was only Goodloe postoffice to serve the residents of Middle Creek in 1885; no David, Pyramid or West Prestonsburg. Many postoffices today in our area were already operating in 1885. Bonanza, Ivyton, Denver, Oil Springs, Lowmansville, Boon Camp, Georges Creek and Flat Gap. There was a postoffice called Pattonia on Big Paint Creek and we wonder if this now non-existent office was named for the Patton family.

If, back when the map was being surveyed, you had to travel between Prestonsburg and the mouth of Rockcastle Creek on the Tug River you would have found only two potsoffices. Eden, now Inez, had been established and the other office was Clifford, at the mouth of the creek.

The Chattaro Railroad (map spelling) came to Richardson in 1885. Peach Orchard is listed as a good-sized town. Between Richardson and Paintsville was only the tiny postoffice of Ward.

Today, 77 years after this map was drawn, a resident of the region has to drive only a few minutes to visit a postoffice. In many creek valleys there is rural free delivery. Quite a contrast to those "good old days" so many recall with so much nostalgia.

'68s Top Secrets are here

1968 Chevrolets

The 1968 Chevrolets are the very essence of modern design. Every line, every curve is in close harmony. It's a smooth, uncluttered look with roof lines compatible with body lines, grilles and bumpers that blend gracefully into long, rounded fenders. Clean, flowing, beautiful in their simplicity, these '68 Chevrolets are rich and advanced in styling beyond any you've ever seen.

A MORE SILENT RIDE

And for 1968, we've gone to every length to give you more peace and quiet inside. The most sophisticated computers have been used to strategically place body mounts and successfully isolate noise and vibration. Shock absorbers have been improved. The wheel stance on many models is wider for greater smoothness. Exhaust systems have been redesigned to make them whisper-quiet. Even the clocks tick more softly. A sound car is a silent car. The '68 Chevrolets are the most silent, highest quality cars we've ever built.

BETTER PERFORMANCE

There are new engines, a bigger standard Six and V8. There's a new 250-hp V8 you can order that runs on regular fuel. Many new engine components increase dependability and keep your new Chevrolet running stronger. There's a new rear axle ratio you can add for greater economy. On most engines equipped with automatic transmissions, there's a special heater for the carburetor which gives you more efficient performance in cold weather. And with every engine, you get the new GM exhaust emission control.

UNIQUE ASTRO VENTILATION

There's a whole new idea in ventilation, called Astro Ventilation, for Camaro, Corvette and the elegant Caprice Coupe. It's also available on many other models. By opening two new vent-ports on the instrument panel, you bring in outside air that can be directed where you want it. This way, you can leave your windows rolled up and add still more to your peace and quiet.

PROVED SAFETY FEATURES

You get the proved GM-developed energy absorbing steering column, folding front seat back latches, dual master cylinder brake system with warning light, plus many more new features. Among them: energy absorbing front seat backs, and safety armrests that shield the door handles.

MUCH MORE THAT'S NEW

There are new roof lines, some formal and graceful, others sporty and quick. There are new instrument panels, richly designed and all controls within easy reach. There are new interiors, new vinyls, new fabrics, new colors. There are models with Hide-A-Way windshield wipers and headlights that disappear behind grilles. There are new side marker lamps, new recessed taillights. There's even a new ignition alarm buzzer that reminds you not to walk away and leave your keys in the car.

These are the newest, the most different, the most dramatically changed Chevrolets ever. And they're at your Chevrolet dealer's now. You'll thoroughly enjoy slipping behind the wheel, experiencing the smooth new handling and library-quiet ride and, more than anything, seeing and feeling the even greater quality built into every new Chevrolet for 1968.

Be smart! Be sure! Buy now at your Chevrolet dealer's.

CHEVROLET

There's more quality and value built into Chevrolets than ever before, making every new 1968 model an even better buy!

TWO JAILED IN PIKE CASE

Carl Braden and Wife Are Arrested, En Route To Hearing on Sedition

Pikeville, Ky.—Two civil rights leaders from Louisville were arrested last week after they failed to appear in time for their arraignment on a sedition charge.

Carl and Anne Braden were picked up en route to the Pike county courthouse, where three antipoverty workers pleaded innocent to the same count earlier in the day. Their trials were set for October 5.

Counsel for the Bradens, leaders of the Southern Conference Education Fund (SCEF), said the couple had car trouble on the way here from Louisville.

Circuit Judge Charles Lowe waited two hours after the time set for their arraignment, then issued bench warrants for their arrest. The couple was placed in Pike county jail and Braden said they did not intend to make bond.

"Why should we waste money on stuff like this?" he remarked.

Lowe also was on the bench when Mr. and Mrs. Alan McSurely, field workers for the SCEF, and Joseph Mulloy, local staff member of the Appalachian Volunteers, entered their pleas. They were released on bond.

McSurely, speaking Tuesday before a student-sponsored forum at the University of Kentucky at Lexington, blamed his arrest on Commonwealth's Atty. Thomas Ratliff, claiming it was motivated for political reasons. Ratliff is the Republican nominee for lieutenant-governor in the November election.

The day before the three antipoverty workers were arrested, McSurely said, a meeting was held in Pike county attended by several "distinguished" members of the county Republican party and other local people.

Those present, he said, discussed the political campaign, strip mining, and "the best way to get us out and at the same time to get the most political news from it."

The five were indicted Monday by a grand jury that said its investigation showed a "well-organized and well-financed effort is being made to promote and spread the communistic theory . . . to overthrow the government of Pike county."

The jury also was critical of the Appalachian Volunteers, an antipoverty organization financed in part by the federal Office of Economic Opportunity.

"Some employees of the Appalachian Volunteers," the jury charged, "and other federally financed antipoverty programs have collaborated and cooperated with known Communist organizers."

Randy Click explained the National Youth Corps Program which provided him work with Coach Gene Frasure and the Summer Physical Education Program at the school. Anna Howard represented the Maytown cheerleaders who attended camp at the University of Kentucky this summer and related their experiences. Tom Stewart, who traveled to the West coast this summer in a small car with his brother, told how much can be learned on a minimum expense account. Greg Ratliff reported on the activities of the Maytown FFA chapter officers at the Leadership Camp at Hardinsburg this summer. Jim Bailey, who attended a basketball camp at North Carolina State, Raleigh, N. C., (he played as an All-Star on the winning team) told about this activity. Dianna Ousley, who modeled for a Lexington and Louisville store, explained how she had this opportunity, and the resulting benefits.

Pupils who attended the Upward Bound Program at Alice Lloyd College at Pippa Passes, Ky. provided the second portion of the program. Morton Adkins, Jr. gave a resume of the program; Julia Huff talked about the craft activities and performed on the dulcimer which she crafted this summer; David Spencer reported on the sports program with special explanation of how to play soccer; Lily Branham, who attended the program last year, compared this year's activities with last year's; Bobby Meadows told about places visited during the summer, and Jerry Bailey, a first year student, gave his imbpressions of the program.

Edwin V. Stewart, principal, was master of ceremonies; Mrs. Alicia Ison, music teacher, led the group in singing, accompanied by Judelle Conley at the piano, and Eddie Boyd and Clarence Slone, Jr. presented the Pledge to the Flag.

HOPPER-DUSINA VOWS SAID

Miss Jennifer Lynn Hopper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Hopper of Melvin, became the bride of Mr. James Dusina, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dusina, of Bypro, August 26 in the Wheelwright Community Church.

Bennie Blankinship, minister of the Church of Christ, performed the double-ring ceremony. Miss Shirley Peraino, pianist, and Miss Amber Ferguson, soloist, furnished the nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a long, rosepoint lace gown fashioned with a fitted bodice and a bateau neckline, outlined with seed pearls and crystals and long lace sleeves draping to lily points at the wrists. The full bouffant skirt was of scalloped-edged, cascading lace tiers, sweeping to the back in a full chapel train. Her tiered bouffant veil of silk illusion fell from a braid and seed pearl crown. She carried a cascade of white daisies surrounding baby orchids.

Misses Patty Martin and Sheila Mead served as maids of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Trudy Vitatoe, Miss Shannon Logan and Miss Jo Harrison. They wore full-length, empire-waisted gowns of yellow satin with puffed sleeves and scooped necklines. Their headpieces were of yellow net caught up by large satin bows. They carried bouquets of green and white shasta daisies.

The mother of the bride wore a light blue silk dress and jacket with black accessories. She wore an orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a wine-colored dress with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

Don Cooper served as best man, and ushers were Russell Ray, Tommy Dale Rainey, Danny Wallen and Glen Dusina.

Miss Susie Johnson was the flower girl. Her dress was identical to the bridesmaids. Steven Coleman was ring bearer.

Assisting with the reception in the Wheelwright Community Hall were Mrs. J. T. England, Mrs. Gardner Newsome, Mrs. Tavis Little, Mrs. Dan Autore, Miss Rose Cury, Miss Maggie Cury, Mrs. Pascal Moscrip, and Mrs. Gaze Litafik.

For a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, S. C., the bride wore a pink crepe dress with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Dusina is a graduate of Wheelwright high school, where she was a cheerleader. She is a graduate of Automotive Institute of Ohio at Columbus.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Wheelwright high school. He has just returned from a tour of duty in Viet Nam, and is presently stationed at Fort Knox.

The couple now reside in Elizabethtown, Kentucky.

Golfers Enjoying Play Under the Lights At Jenny Wiley Course

Darkness doesn't stop golfers any longer at Jenny Wiley State Park. The recently completed golf course lighting project enables players to drive, hook and slice into the night.

The new lights—158 of them, strategically placed around the nine-hole regulation course—give "excellent visability."

Along the fairways are nine metal poles which support key lights. Twenty-eight wooden poles with lights are spotted around the course and many lights are situated in trees. Special quartz bulbs—some up to 1,500 watts—provide a strong, clear light.

Even with the lights, there is still a curfew. The course closes at 10 p.m. with the last tee-off no later than 9 p.m.

H.B. 1—Special session pertaining to ad valorem tax structure. Our 95th Representative voted YES.

This hodge-podge piece of tax legislation is a masterpiece of confusion. It does everything but rhyme. It permits a 20 percent increase over and above the 100 percent assessment for this year. It doesn't specify any limitations for next year. This law is responsible for the delay in your tax bills. They are figuring out how much to increase them now.

No need to offer a reward. This law has the best legal brains in Kentucky confused. Your tax bill will prove my statement.

STARVATION FOR MILLIONS LOOMS, SCIENTISTS SAY

Several University of Kentucky scientists predict that by the year 2000, millions of human beings throughout the world are going to be at the point of starvation. Some of them even before—some of them, now.

The results of a staggering food crisis—a crisis that is predicted in many quarters—would be a catastrophe. It is doubtful, the scientists believe, that even the food-rich United States could escape.

Although it is doubtful that by the year 2,000 the United States will be at the brink of starvation, Americans would have to tighten their belts and share their food reserves or face the hostile nations of the world that could be driven to desperation.

Dr. George W. Irving, Jr., of the U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates that today more than half the people of the world are hungry. Within 20 years, or less, the number of hungry people will exceed today's population.

Agricultural experts point out that 70 million people are added to the world each year. Living space for them means less acreage available to raise food.

Latin America's population will increase from 25 million to 70 million by the year 2000. India will add 200 million by 1980. By 2000, another three billion people will be added to the three billion now competing for the world's food.

In the United States the resident population is expected to increase by 25 to 30 percent by 1980. This means that Kentucky will have to increase farm production—estimates range from 15 to as high as 65 percent—if the state contributes its share to the national production picture.

Hayden Timmons, executive director of Gov. Edward Breathitt's Commission on Agriculture, reports that Kentucky has the potential to produce 3.2 million acres of corn—about three times the 1966 production.

He says Kentucky could produce almost twice its present soybean output from 410,000 acres; more than four times the 1966 wheat crop of 231,000 acres, and five times the present barley and oat crop of 60,000 acres.

Dr. Milton Shuffett, University of Kentucky agricultural economist, with the help of other UK economists, recently completed a study of projected needs of Kentucky agricultural production in 1980, "when the pressure of the world food crisis will begin to be felt."

Dr. Shuffett found that in some categories—beef, for instance—production requirements evoke a "long-drawn whistle." Nationally, it should be up 65 percent from its present level. Wheat, the eternal diet staple, must go up 15 percent.

Both figures are national estimates. In some food categories, the economists say, Kentucky can match or exceed the estimated national needs level. Beef is one of these, pork another, dairying a third.

But in wheat, for instance, Dr. Shuffett and his associates have some doubts.

"We probably will be below the national increase. One reason is that other principal wheat states are geared (land, equipment, tradition) for wheat production. We need a 50 percent increase in feed grains, but probably will not realize that for the same reasons," he said.

"Poultry, where we need a 45 percent increase," Dr. Shuffett continued, "may be another such area. Though thousands of layers and broilers now are being raised successfully in Kentucky, we are not really geared to it as are some southern states like, say, Georgia. There, raisers operate in big units, thousands and thousands of birds in each handling period. We probably would have to change our methods to equal or exceed the egg and broiler figure."

Sheep and lambs, also, would need a sizeable increase—about 30 percent. But this is a chancy business for most operators. Although steady sheep-raisers do a good job, the inexperienced ones get in and get out. One reason is predators, such as uncontrolled dog packs. Labor also comes high for sheep flocks.

In round numbers, the case is interesting, Dr. Shuffett said. Beef now numbers about 1,777,000 animals. A 65 percent increase in 15 years would mean close to three million beef animals. Kentucky probably can do this, because the state is now surging steadily upward as an important beef producer.

Pork animals now number about 1,423,000, and by 1980 another 426,900 would be needed. Dairying also will add about 100,000 animals to its present 501,000, for a 20 percent rise.

Land presents a problem, Dr. Shuffett's survey shows. Kentucky now has 16.2 million acres, but by 198 the acreage probably will be down to 14 million. Losses will be to highways, urban development, parks, city expansion, and for other uses.

The number of farms which now total about 133,000 will probably be below 100,000 by 1980. Farm labor will probably be down to 150,000, from the present 190,000.

Dr. Shuffett said: "Essentially, we think we'll have 40 percent fewer farms that must produce 30-95 percent more food and fiber than now, and we'll have to do it with 40 percent fewer farm workers. We'll have more commercialization of farms, that is, a farmer will have to be a businessman and not just a citizen trying to subsist on a farm. He'll have to be a good bookkeeper."

You're missing a lot when you own a Volkswagen.

A VW has fewer parts than other cars because it needs fewer parts.

There's no bulky drive shaft to transfer engine power to the rear wheels. Our car's engine is in back to start with (and to maintain traction with). That's why it doesn't need a drive shaft.

And it doesn't need a radiator, or a water pump, or hoses. Because the engine's cooled with air, not water.

(When you drive your first VW, you may miss putting in antifreeze, rust inhibitors, and whatnot. But you'll soon get used to it.)

The stuff a Volkswagen doesn't use, it doesn't have to haul (and waste gas on). Which is one reason it averages 27 miles per gallon of regular.

And the parts you don't buy, you'll never repair.

So you can't waste money on that.

Now you know why you can drive a VW for years and years with a lot of parts missing. And never miss them.
