City Gets Initial Aid on Water Job

EDA's Check For $131,000 Paid Monday

Floyd Improvements Get $6,920,000 Total From Federal Agency

The city of Prestonsburg received Monday a check for $131,000 from the Economic Development Administration, U. S. Department of Commerce, as a first disbursement on a grant and loan of $684,000, which makes possible the expansion of the city's water facilities to serve industrial and commercial sites located north and south of the city on U. S. Highway 23. This is one of the projects being assisted by EDA, which has approved Floyd county projects for a total of $6,920,000.

Here to present the check was H. H. Smith, Jr., Economic Development specialist, who represents the EDA in 25 eastern Kentucky counties from his office in Hindman. Mayor George P. Archer accepted the check on behalf of the city.

The city's application for financial assistance was processed to approval by the Economic Development Administration mid-eastern area office, Huntington, W. Va., directed by William E. Davis. Mayor Archer said Congressman Carl D. Perkins was instrumental in procuring for Prestonsburg the help needed from EDA.

Contract for the water system expansion here has already been awarded, and work is now under way.

PHONE FIRM TO END TOLL

Equipment To Give Toll-Free Service, Wright to P'burg

Toll-free telephone service between the Wheelwright section and a large part of Floyd county, including the Prestonsburg area, will become a reality next spring when equipment ordered this week is installed.

Paul R. Gearheart, president of the Harold Telephone Company, said switching equipment ordered from the Stromberg-Carlson Co., Rochester, N. Y., for this purpose will cost $87,885. Mr. Gearheart also said the improvement program to be undertaken by his company will provide one-party service for all Wheelwright subscribers for the first time and that the Wheelwright and Melvin exchanges will be merged and will be known as the Wheelwright exchange.

Engineers are now at work preparing plans preparatory to the awarding of a contract for the work.

Big Crowd Hears Kirk at GOP Meet

Seventh Congressional district Republicans thronged May Lodge, Jenny Wiley State Park, Tuesday night to attend a testimonial dinner for Republican Congressional candidate James D. Nickell, and hear Governor Claude R. Kirk, Republican governor of Florida, lash out at the candidacy of Alabama Governor George Wallace for the Presidency.

Between 700 and 800 persons attended the $5-per-plate dinner, it was reported. Gov. Kirk claimed that Wallace "knows he will not be elected, but since this is not his real aim it really doesn't bother him." In an interview Tuesday he admitted that Wallace stands a 50-50 chance of carrying Florida.

Kirk said Wallace sees America as a collection of self-seeking minorities. "He goes from place to place and meeting to meeting, always preying upon the responsive chord of whatever minority he is talking to." The guest of honor, Mr. Nick-

H. H. Smith, Jr., of Hindman, EDA specialist (left), presents Dr. George P. Archer, mayor of Prestonsburg, EDA's first installment on the $684,000 grant and loan for water system improvement—a check for $131,000.

The Prestonsburg Kiwanians will sponsor the clinic and will assist in its conduct. The Prestonsburg Kiwanis Club and the Floyd County Health Department will also assist the Commission staff.

WARNING

If I clear port, as I firmly intend to do, and head for open water in the old fishing skiff, batten down the hatches, and you may lay to that. That's a blow comin'—it always does.

IT'S A PLEASURE—SHE SAYS

Of course I wouldn't know anything about the matter, but a friend called to recount the absolute absence of drudgery in this job of leaf-raking. In fact, she said, it was a pleasure. I remained noncommittal. Anyhow, she pointed out that all you need is a leaf rake, not a heavy rake that gets down in the grass and gets tangled; and an old sheet, shower curtain or some such material onto which to rake the leaves. This is to get away from this idea of sacking leaves or cramming them into baskets or other containers. Then up with the four corners of the sheet, or whatever, and away you go. And why burn leaves? P'burg, Martin Set One Night Only Limit On 'Trick-or-Treaters'

Mayors of Prestonsburg and Martin acted this week to provide control of the celebration of Halloween.

At the request of civic groups and governmental agencies, Mayor George P. Archer issued a proclamation pointing out that control is necessary to protect the rights and property of citizens and set these limitations to the celebration: "Trick-or-treat" limited to one night only, Wednesday, October 30; a curfew of 9 p. m. set on all persons engaged in that celebration, and no person above the age of 12 to wear a mask of any kind.

Mayor E. P. Grigsby, of Martin, also restricted "trick-or-treat" to one night, Wednesday, October 30.

Mental Health Leader Tells Program Impact

The impact mental health services is having on Kentucky was noted by Dr. Dale H. Farabee, Kentucky commissioner of Mental Health, when he was the guest recently at a special meeting at May Lodge of the Region 20, Mental Health-Mental Retardation Board, Inc. and the Mountain Mental Health Service staff.

Farabee expressed his pride in the rapid development of Mountain Mental Health Services as well as Community Mental Health Centers throughout Kentucky. He reported that 17 centers are now in operation in the state, serving more than 7,000 persons with mental health-related retardation problems. This is nearly double the number of patients now in the state's four mental institutions. Yet community Mental Health Centers receive only three percent of the Kentucky Department of Mental Health budget.

Commissioner Farabee also noted that because of the availability of Mental Health Services through mental health centers many patients can be cared for in their own communities, speeding up the recovery of many patients and saving the taxpayers thousands of dollars annually. He compared the costs of $3,600 a year per patient treated in a state hospital with the $300-a-year cost per patient treated at local mental health centers.

Guests Daniel B. Howard, deputy commissioner for Regional Services, Department of Mental Health; Dr. George P. Archer and Rev. Milton Skiff, of Prestonsburg; Lon Rogers, Mrs. Roland Conley, Mr. and Mrs. Hilmar Ely, Mrs. Jack Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Woodraska, and members of the Mountain Mental Health Services staff.

Forum Speakers Tell Merits of Candidates

Three men, each to make a statement, each assigned three minutes—this was the formula prescribed for the political forum staged at Prestonsburg Community College last week by the Prestonsburg Junior Woman's Club. But the meeting developed added interest as the principals replied to questions from the audience.

The three who spoke for their candidates were Dr. L. James Black, native of Alabama and now a Pikeville physician, representing Wallace for President; E. P. Sawyer, county attorney of Jefferson county, for the Nixon-Agnew ticket, and Don Sturgill, Lexington, former Kentucky commissioner of Public Safety, for Humphrey and Muskie.

A gathering of approximately 150 persons heard their statements on why their candidates deserved public support. Mrs. Jack Stumbo presided.

Their initial statements: SAWYER: This time, this year, we the people have the biggest decision we have ever had to make. Our country is in the worst condition since the Civil War. We must decide which man can more nearly gather together again the 'fragmented segment' of our population. We are engaged in the longest war in our history—an 'unwinnable war.' We as Kentuckians, Americans and Floyd countians must search our souls and on November 5 express our consciences on that day.

BLACK: I met George Wallace when he was governor and have gained more respect for him, each time I have met him. In the last two or three years I have stood by and seen the country by appeasement get where it now is. It takes as much reading to find what is halfway the truth as to study for a medical diagnosis. MILLER DIES OF BEATING

Two Magoffin Men Victims of Violence During the Week-End

Arnold Miller, 34-year-old Magoffin county man who was brought to the Prestonsburg General hospital Saturday for treatment of head wounds, was later taken to the University of Kentucky Medical Center, Lexington, where he died Sunday night.

Miller's death was the second by violence in Magoffin county over the week-end. Carl Adams, 25, of Bradley, was dead on arrival Saturday night at the Paintsville hospital after he had been shot at a drive-in on US 460, a mile east of Salyersville.

James Arnett, 29, of Salyersville, surrendered to Flemingsburg police Monday and is being held for the shooting of Adams.

Sammy Jackson Pinks, 28, of Fredville, was jailed in connection with the beating death of Miller.

Magoffin Coroner Ishmael Caudill said Adams had been shot in the left side with a .38 calibre pistol, and that the bullet lodged in his heart.

Pinks surrendered to Magoffin Sheriff Wiley Salyers Monday morning. His bond was set at $5,000 by Judge Watson for appearance before the February grand jury.

The beating of Miller was reportedly the climax of an argument at the Miller home.

Funeral services for Adams were conducted Tuesday at the Bradley Free Will Baptist Church and burial was in Patrick cemetery.

He was a son of Curt and Mary Whittaker Adams, and was an employee of the Kentucky Department of Highways. Other survivors include two brothers.

Miller's funeral was held Wednesday at the family cemetery. He was a son of the late Mrs. Dovey Howard Miller, of Fredville, and the late Will Miller. Also surviving are three brothers and three sisters.

Nixon Big Favorite With PCC Students

The Nixon-Agnew ticket polled a heavy lead in the mock election held Oct. 16-17 at Prestonsburg Community College, receiving 40% of the 272 ballots cast.

Third-party candidate, George C. Wallace, ran a strong second with 30% of the vote, and the Humphrey-Muskie ticket pulled up third with 24%.

The "straw vote" for U. S. Senator gave Marlow W. Cook, Republican, 122 votes to 97 for Katherine Peden, Democrat. The Congressional race was not on the ballot, but Carl D. Perkins, incumbent, received two write-in votes.

Fifteen students cast write-in votes for Presidential candidates, and some of these write-ins apparently expressed lack of interest on the part of

Bosco Vicinity Fires Within Month Cause Community Concern

Destruction by fire of a fourth building in the Hucysville-Salt Lick section this week caused mounting concern among residents that a firebug is operating in the community.

A reward of $200 was offered this week for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons guilty of the Handshoe and Turner burnings.

Latest of the structures to burn was a small, unoccupied tenant house on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Turner, on Salt Lick Creek. The building was seen in flames at 10:30 Tuesday night. It was recently vandalized, its windows smashed and the interior generally wrecked.

Knott Man, Wife, Child Are Victims

Two Others Injured Near Kenwood Bridge; P'burg Woman Unhurt

A former Knott county man, his wife and 16-month-old daughter were killed Friday afternoon in a head-on collision with another auto on US 23, in the vicinity of the new bridge which connects the highway with the Kenwood development in Johnson county. Two others were injured.

The dead are Louis P. Combs, 33, of the U. S. Navy, his wife, Belia Irene Combs, 33, and their infant daughter, Margaret Louise, of Imperial Beach, California.

Seriously injured in the accident were Lawrence Brown, Paintsville City Councilman and part owner of the Jenny Wiley Rest Home, with whose car the Combs auto collided; and Leroy Thornton, 21, Thornton, Miss., a passenger in the Combs auto.

State police said Combs, driving toward Prestonsburg, attempted to pass the auto of Mrs. Combs (See Story No. 1, Page 7)

TESTIMONY NOT HEARD

In Redistricting Case At Lexington Monday By Federal Judges

Hearing of the petition asking redistricting of Floyd county's educational divisions was postponed Monday by a three-man panel of federal judges until after the November election.

One member of the panel, Judge John W. Peck, explained that importance of the case is not being discounted by the panel but that the election is only two weeks distant and several days would be necessary for the presentation of population figures and other data. He expressed the hope that in the meantime, settlement of the issue will be accomplished at the local level.

County Superintendent of Schools Charles F. Clark said recently that it is the intention of the Board of Education to do whatever redistricting is necessary but that this cannot be done without careful study of division boundaries and the population encompassed by them.

The action seeking redistricting on the grounds that educational divisions in this county had been gerrymandered in violation of the Supreme Court's one-man, one-vote ruling was instituted by 38 residents of the Bull Creek section of this county.

26,202 in County Eligible to Vote

Floyd county will have 26,202 voters eligible to vote in the November 5 election, County Clerk C. Ollie Robinson said this week.

Robinson also said that there were 309 absentee ballots mailed and that 14 absentee applications were postmarked after the Oct. 17 deadline.

Cliff precinct here has the most eligible voters with 991, and Jack's Creek is second with 980. Third is John Ant (McDowell) with 976.

TWO BREAKS ARE LISTED

Lewis Says Lootings In Virginia May Have Floyd-Co. Connections

While engaged in the investigation of a continuing series of breaks into Floyd business places Sheriff Joe W. Lewis was looking this week into the possibility of a Floyd county connection with two recent lootings at Coeburn, Va., which netted the looters around $8,000 in cash, equipment and items of merchandise.

Lloyd's Standard Service Station here was broken into Monday night and between $45 and $60 in cash was taken. Entrance was effected by smashing a glass in the door of the service department. Imes' Service Station at Allen was broken into the following night, the Sheriff's office was told, but the loss had not been established, it was said. At McDowell two wheels and their tires were stolen from the truck of Buzz Allen.

At Coeburn the high school was looted of $5,494.25 worth of equipment last Thursday night. On the night of October 7 Coeburn Automotive lost $635 in cash and $2,091 in merchandise. Sheriff Lewis said he is interested in both cases.

The mother of James Postom, Jr., 19, who was arrested after an arson attempt had allegedly been made on a tenant house owned by Famer Halbert at McDowell, said this week her son was not guilty. Sheriff Lewis countered with the statement that Postom was released on bond Tuesday after he had signed a warrant charging his older brother, Henry, with attempting to burn the house. Henry Postom is out of the state, Lewis said.

A contract for $85,426.40 for bridge repairs on KY 80 at Allen has been awarded to the Whiting-Turner Contracting Co., Baltimore, Md., by the Department of Highways, Commissioner of Highways William Hazelrigg announced this week.

Ford Lashes GOP As Rally Speaker

Speaking at a $5-per-plate Democratic fund-raising dinner at the high school cafeteria here Monday evening, Lieut. Gov. Wendell Ford emphasized his appeal for support for the Democratic ticket by hitting hard at the opposition.

He told the gathering, reported at 200 that, true to the Republican slogan, "Time for a Change," the people of Kentucky have indeed had a change—a change from three percent to five percent in sales tax, the greatest increase in history.

The lieutenant governor also commented on the added burden imposed on the people by the blanket tax raise and the increase of auto licenses from $5 to $12.50.

"The Democratic party," he said, "is traditionally the party which represents the working class of people and has always had concern for the poor."

Of the George Wallace bid for the Presidency he said the American public is now referring to the Wallace-LeMay team as "The Bombsy Twins."

County Attorney Barkley Sturgill.

Glenn S. Anderson, Jr., co-chairman of the Floyd Democratic campaign, presided, and introduced Dr. George P. Archer, mayor of Prestonsburg, who spoke of the need for a bridge to the shoe plant, across the Big Sandy from Lancer. He predicted that this factory will soon be bringing into Floyd county more than a million dollars a year and stressed the need to unite and work for the Humphrey-Muskie ticket and the team of Peden and Perkins, "to assure continued progress and prosperity for this area."

James Lafferty, president of Local Union 3-510, Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers, spoke briefly to refute the rumor that Labor is for Wallace. He read telegrams from union officials endorsing the Humphrey-Muskie ticket and urging all workers to support the Democratic ticket.

Others introduced included Albert A. Burchett, co-chairman of the Democratic campaign in this county, and others who are active in the party's drive for votes.

Labor Supports Humphrey-Muskie Democratic Ticket

From The United Mine Workers Journal:

The Vice President of the United States has a pro-people, pro-labor record of being "right" for our kind of people that is unsurpassed by anyone else who has ever run for the highest office in the land. But you, personally, shall have to decide when you step into the voting booth on November 5. And you, personally, will have to get out the vote for him. You, personally, will have to do everything you can to get the adult members of your family to vote for HUMPHREY-MUSKIE.

From AFL-CIO NEWS:

MEANY WARNS NATION ON NIXON, WALLACE

The nation's future cannot be entrusted to Richard M. Nixon who has built a career on deception and trickery or to George C. Wallace who seeks office on a platform of bigotry and hate.

"There is only one reasonable choice," AFL-CIO Pres. George Meany told the country in a pair of radio broadcasts, the Humphrey-Muskie ticket, "men who have proved themselves in the bright glare of public affairs."

Speaking over the NBC radio network on programs sponsored by the AFL-CIO and the Intl. Ladies' Garment Workers Union, Meany ran the record of the Kennedy-Johnson-Humphrey Administrations of eight years of gains and progress and Nixon's opposition to those programs.

He characterized Nixon as "the certified enemy of the labor movement, the opponent of medicare, the man who delayed federal aid to education for years, the man who throughout his career has used tricks and deception so often that the word 'tricky' has become part of his nickname."

Of Wallace, Meany declared him to be a man "who arouses the worst passions in the hearts of men, who has demonstrated in his own state his unfitness to govern, who seeks the presidency on a platform of bigotry and hate."

CARPENTERS GO HUMPHREY FOR HIS 100% RECORD

The Carpenters' executive board has unanimously endorsed Hubert H. Humphrey for the presidency, as a "tested and proven" leader who advances programs of "vital concern" to the union.

Citing Humphrey's "long public career" in support of health care, social security, jobless benefits and education, the board said "his voting record has been 100 percent in the interest of working people."

The endorsement was explained in an "open letter" to each of the union's 800,000 members. It was signed by Pres. M. A. Hutcheson, Sec.-Treas. Richard E. Livingston and all of the board members.

In studying the records of the presidential candidates, the board found that Richard Nixon "was against legislation supported by organized labor" on 59 of 69 votes. His election, it said, would "undermine" social and labor laws and unions' rights.

As for George Wallace, the board pointed out that as governor of Alabama he had "done nothing to change" anti-union laws and had increased taxes "which hit working people hardest."

"This is no time to jeopardize our gains," it concluded, "by turning over control to Nixon or Wallace, neither of whom has shown any real concern for the cause of organized labor."

Louisville, Ky.—Fourteen part-time field representatives have joined the staff of the Kentucky Education Association to help KEA expand its services at the local level throughout the state.

Their KEA duties will be carried out after school hours and on week-ends, since all of them have full-time positions as teachers or administrators.

Each part-time representative will serve an area that includes about 1,500 KEA members. Each will spend about 10 hours a week "staying in close contact with local association leaders in the area and communicating local needs and problems to the full-time KEA field staff," according to Owen Arnold, KEA assistant director of professional development.

The part-time representatives will report to the heads of KEA's three new field offices: Miss Betty Jean Rowland, Eastern Kentucky office, Prestonsburg; Wade Bolton, Jr., Central Kentucky office, Richmond, and the as-yet-unnamed head of the Western Kentucky office at Madisonville.

The part-time program was adopted by the KEA board of directors as the outgrowth of a pilot project last year in cooperation with the Fourth and Fifth District Education Associations, the Louisville Education Association, the Jefferson County Teachers Association, and the National Education Ass'n.

Part-time field representatives in the Eastern Kentucky KEA district are Glenn D. McDowell, Pikeville, and Mrs. Ada Lee Salisbury, Morehead. McDowell, vocational agriculture teacher at Johns Creek high school, is past president of the Pike County Education Association and past president of the Kentucky Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association. Currently he is vice-president of the Eastern Kentucky Education Association (EKEA) and vice-president of Region IV of the National Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association. Mrs. Salisbury, a Floyd countian and a graduate assistant in the department of business education at Morehead State University, formerly was secretary to EKEA secretary Monroe Wicker, Morehead's director of school relations.

Bosco (Hueysville post office) have burned this month. A four-room residence owned by Beech and Vonnie Handshoe burned, the night of October 5, threatening the nearby home of Murph Allen and other residences. Last Saturday night, an empty store building owned by the Handshoes was destroyed.

Last week, the home of Mrs. Goldie Castle, widow of Hawley Castle, with all its contents, was destroyed, a mile outside Bosco.

None of the buildings was insured. The store building which was levelled was for more than half a century the location of general merchandise businesses but in recent years had been vacant. body has ever won a championship backing off, and I don't think any man will win by turning from a challenge to debate issues. I know Hubert Humphrey, and I know one thing—there is no man in the world who wants to do better than Mr. Humphrey... The Democratic party has put together every piece of social legislation that has ever been enacted... There has been only one Republican President in this generation—President Eisenhower for most of his life wasn't even registered with any party... We have made our mistakes—more than our share, maybe. But Hubert Humphrey has not made these mistakes."

To the question from the floor, "How does your candidate propose to end the war? these answers were given:

BLACK: Wallace is for talking reasonably in Paris up to a certain time. This country has not committed itself to end a war in the last 25 years. Wallace does not believe the Viet Cong should be represented at the peace talks, because they represent neither North nor South Vietnam. The war can be won with proper leadership and with conventional weapons, not nuclear.

SAWYER: I would not presume to say what Mr. Nixon would do. During the 16 years the Democrats have been in power we have been in similar situations. Dwight Eisenhower said he would go to Korea and end it. He did. This man I represent was Dwight Eisenhower's right-hand man. I think Richard Nixon will end the war because he will muster the strength of the people of this country.

STURGILL: Hubert Humphrey proposes to put the burden on the South Vietnamese and to get our forces out of this country where they are not wanted. He would leave our share of the war effort to supplying South Vietnam with materials, technicians and the like.

she asked. Pile them in one spot, dampen them down, and let the winter take care of the rest of the job. Next spring, there's mulch for the garden—or even a nice bed for fisher worms.

TRANSPLANT NEEDED

Another citizen complained that she needed a transplant job done. But there's nobody around to do it. "And such a lot of money!" she wailed.

"But you don't look like you have heart trouble."

"Who said anything about heart trouble?" she asked. "All I want is my chrysanthemums transplanted."

ARTHRITIS CURE

The old codger said he had arthritis, the worst way, in his right hand. Said he went to two doctors and both said, "Si, it's got to come off, right at the wrist!" And there, he said, he was, till one day he told the aching hand, "If you're gonna hang around, you're gonna have to do yore part." And he banged the hand down hard and flat on a table top till his palm was red. Now he swears the arthritis is cured and if the hand comes off it'll be because his wife makes him work it off up to here.

HAD THE EVIDENCE

Fellow up from Florida tells about these Kentuckians coming down there and doing some jug-fishing; minnows on the hook, gallon plastic jugs for floaters. He doesn't vouch for the truth of the story but he says one of the fishermen reported his gallon jug missing—said a big bass swallowed it.

When a bystander histed his brows and expressed some slight doubt about that being exactly the case, another of these Kentuckians up and stated that he believed the man was telling the truth.

"Why do you believe it?"
"Because," said this second liar, "I caught a bass yesterday, and he had a gallon jug in him."

Then there was this lawyer who wound up in a hospital following a wreck.

Not until last Sunday, years after she left the White House, did Jackie become in the eyes of many of her countrymen the former First Lady.

Will Prestonsburg and other colleges of the Community College System in Kentucky enter intercollegiate basketball competition or keep the sport on its present level, as an intra-mural program?

That question is being bounced around in earnest this week as faculty representatives of the 14 community colleges begin a three-day general planning session in Louisville.

Most of those connected with athletics at the junior colleges want to get into organized competition. They would either join the existing Kentuckiana Junior College Conference or form a separate conference with only community colleges as members.

Ellis Hartford, dean of the community college system, likes it as it is. "I believe," he said recently, "that all students should be given the chance to compete in organized activities to include drama, speech and music—as well as intramurals. Competitive sports programs usually benefit only a few boys."

Dean Hartford said he is more concerned with "realizing our highest educational priorities first. Membership in any athletic conference is a matter to be resolved later."

One of the most developed teams talent-wise is Prestons-burg which compiled an 18-1 record against junior colleges and college freshman teams last year.

"I'm definitely in favor of joining the KJCC or forming a conference," said Glenn Anderson, Prestonsburg coach. "We've had some people in Prestonsburg mention that they would be interested in a booster's club to help things along."

"All they need is an indication that some of the other community colleges are in favor of it," he added.

Claud (Sonny) Haws, coach of the Paducah basketball team, is one of the main spokesmen for the group. Haws advocates that the community colleges become part of the KJCC.

"If our system of athletics (in the community colleges) can't continue to progress, I plan to get out of it," Haws said. "There's a lot of demand for intercollegiate competition and I think we should support the programs that local people want."

Paducah's basketball team is provided with nine tuition scholarships and six full scholarships by property taxes. When PJC entered the community college system last year, the contract arrangement allowed for the continuation of the existing program.

Somerset's community college has already taken a step toward organizing a basketball program—with financial aid from the community—according to Roscoe Kelley, the school's director.

Henderson Community College has a team that competes with junior colleges in Southeast Illinois. It is already a member of the Tri-State College Conference sponsored by the Evansville department of recreation.

"Our program is somewhere between intramurals and intercollegiate," says Charles Shearer, who volunteers as Henderson coach. "I think that eventually the UK administration will go along with the idea of a conference."

$52,515 MANPOWER GRANT TO TRAIN 20 IN COUNTY

Four training programs to develop new work skills for 90 unemployed or underemployed persons in four Kentucky communities under the Manpower Development and Training Act (MDTA) were announced last week by Secretary of Labor Wilbur J. Wirtz and Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Wilbur J. Cohen.

The federal government has allocated $201,497 in MDTA funds for these four projects which will be conducted at public education facilities in the four Redevelopment Areas, listed below:

Twenty persons will be trained in Floyd county as clerk-stenographers in a 33-week course on a MDTA grant of $52,515.

In Perry county, 20 persons will be trained as clerk-stenographers on a federal grant of $44,270.

Persons must be unemployed or underemployed to qualify for MDTA training.

Since the start of MDTA training in late 1962, more than 13,000 classroom type projects have been approved to offer training to about 750,000 people in some 800 occupations.

During the last two years, more than two-thirds of those enrolled have been disadvantaged—which means generally not only unemployed or underemployed, but from a poverty-level family and either a school drop-out, minority member, under-

Marion Fannin had the last laugh. "Some of my friends laughed when I told them I was saving money with electric heat... 'til I showed them my bills. The total of my gas and electric bills used to cost me more than I'm now paying for just my electric bill with electric heat. We've found electric heat to be less expensive—and we're getting more comfortable and convenient heat for less money" . . . Marion Fannin of Ashland, Ky. has lots of company. The switch to flameless electric heat is breaking all records because, in Marion Fannin's words, "it's so much better—and it's costing us less than our old heat." District Music Clubs Meet Here Saturday

The Fourth district, Kentucky Federation of Music Clubs, held a luncheon meeting at the Plantation Motel, Saturday, October 12, with Miss Jean Whiteside, district director, presiding.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Paul Jett, first vice-president, singing Shaw's musical arrangement to a poem by the late Mrs. Nora McGee. Mrs. Jett and Mrs. Donald Hendrickson sang a duet, "Lacyma Pavan," by John Dowland, from the Elizabethan era, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Ladd. Mrs. Tom James, state chairman of folk music, gave a brief resume of folk activities, stressing the Kentucky Highlands Folk Festival with the "Christmas in June" theme.

Mrs. Louis Power, president of the Kentucky Federation, lectured on the many facets of the Federation of Music Clubs, illustrating her talk with a chart representing a cut diamond as a symbol for the many committees in advancing or polishing their topics.

Mrs. Garland Clark, past president and chairman of membership extension, discussed ways to organize new clubs and student groups.

The table decorations carried out a fall motif, with large brass scales decorated with fruits in the center of table, and yellow chrysanthemums scattered along a runner of ivy. Souvenirs from the First National Bank, the Floyd Federal Loan Association and the Bank Josephine, Prestonsburg were assembled at each plate.

Groups represented were the Cecilia Club and Saturday Matinee Musical, Richmond; the Daniel Boone Club and Winchester Music Club, Winchester, and Ladies Matinee Musical, Glasgow. Special guests were Mrs. Chalmer Frazier, Mrs. Fred Francis and Mrs. Claude P. Stephens, Prestonsburg.

DO STUDENTS STUDY BETTER ALONE?

The University of Kentucky has an experimental program in progress to determine a student's reaction to companionship study, as opposed to impersonal academic life. Called a "cluster" program, a group of freshmen, randomly chosen, are taking three courses together for a year and living in the same residence hall. At the end of the year their reactions and their academic grades will be compared with those of students who did not participate.

NEW STRAIN OF "FLU" EXPECTED THIS WINTER

The flu warning flag is up again. The U. S. Public Health Service Advisory Committee now warns that a new strain of Asian flu may give the nation another outbreak of this troublesome ailment this winter.

The committee, which earlier had given the country an "all clear," revised its flu prediction following the identification of a new strain in Hong Kong in July. Already the Hong Kong virus, a variant of the A2 type that gave the country the miseries last year, is beginning to spread.

"It is felt that the present change in the influenza virus," reports the Public Health Service, "increases the probability that influenza A2 will occur extensively in the United States in the 1968-69 season."

Current vaccines may provide only limited protection against the new A2 Hong Kong virus, according to the Public Health Service. Better protection against it will require a newly formulated vaccine. The development, manufacture and distribution to physicians of such a vaccine will require considerable time and only a limited number of doses will be initially available, the agency reports.

In the meantime the Public Health Service recommends that currently available flu vaccines be given primarily to elderly persons or the chronically ill. Influenza is a viral infection of the respiratory tract. It differs from a cold in severity and the extent of complications. Its symptoms include sudden chilliness, fatigue, headache, and general aches, with temperatures of 101 to 104 degrees. Sore throat and coughing may also occur as symptoms.

The Asian flu A2 strain first appeared on the world scene in 1957 and is believed to have started in Hong Kong. From there this virus, which affects people of all ages, has traveled around the world.

Telephone Talk

Your Telephone Manager

PEOPLE ARE FUNNY ABOUT SLEEP. Charles Dickens used to carry a compass while traveling, to be sure the head of his bed faced north. Sir Winston Churchill once insisted on twin beds in his hotel room, so he could switch beds when the sheets got wrinkled. And Michelangelo slept fully dressed, including boots. You may not have this much trouble sleeping but you will sleep better, if you have a bedside extension. Just call our Business Office.

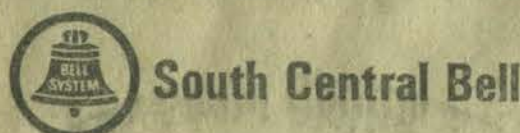

ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL PROBABLY WOULDN'T RECOGNIZE most telephones today. They're a far cry from the contraption he invented.

But, if you could see ahead a few decades, you might have the same problem. By the year 2,000, Bell System experts think, you'll be able to dial computers to plan your budget, pay your bills, even figure your income tax. Picturephones will let you shop at home — and see the merchandise. In fact, there may be a lot of surprises in store for you. And for us, too.

SURE-FIRE HELP — Driving along one winter day, the man began to feel uncomfortably warm. A glance in his rear-view mirror told him why — the back end of his car was on fire.

So he picked up his mobile phone, called the Fire Department, and told them to expect him. They were ready when he drove up, and soon he was coolly on his way again.

1969 Ford. Wider. Longer. Quieter. Roomier.
(Easier to handle.)

These are the things to look for in a great road car. And every day more and more people are finding them in the 1969 Ford.

Wider. The '69 Ford hugs the road with as wide a track as Cadillac.

Longer. The '69 Ford smooths your ride with a longer wheelbase than Chevrolet. Yet it turns in a smaller circle than last year's Ford.

Roomier. We've grouped all the controls in front of the driver, made our front passenger compartment so spacious people are calling it the Front Room.

Quieter. Our '69 LTD is designed to ride even quieter than the LTD that rode quieter than Rolls-Royce.

Record first-month sales of the '69 Ford tell us we've got a good thing going. A test drive will tell you.

Hunting Season Break Marked for Oct. 31st

Frankfort, Ky., October 21 (Spl.)—All is not lost for the dove, squirrel and archery deer hunters who may not have been successful in opening phases of these seasons.

But Minor Clark, commissioner of the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources, reminds hunters they are about to enter a period of non-activity, with the ending of the three seasons mentioned on October 31. There'll be no more hunting until November 21 with the opening of the rabbit and quail seasons, except for goose hunting which opens on November 4, and the gun deer season of five days beginning on November 13. Otherwise all hunting, even for crows and groundhogs, is barred from November 1 through November 20.

The gun season on deer will be open in 91 counties from November 13 through November 17. On November 21, seasons will reopen for squirrels and will begin for grouse along with rabbits and quail. This, Commissioner Clark says, is the main part of the hunting season with indications for good results in both the quail and rabbit categories.

CATS WIN SIXTH GAME, DOWN WHITESBURG, 31-0

The Prestonsburg high school Black Cats waded — literally — to their sixth victory of the season last Friday night, defeating the Whitesburg Yellow Jackets on a rain-soaked field, 31 to 0.

Fear that the Cats would have trouble on a muddy field against a heavier foe was quickly dispelled as they returned the opening kickoff to their 49-yard line and six plays later were on the visitors' 9. From there Fullback Mike Vance went over for the first touchdown of the evening.

Whitesburg was unable to move the ball after receiving the ensuing kickoff and was forced to kick. Taking over on the Whitesburg 42, Mark Miller on the first play rolled out on a quarterback keeper, picked up excellent downfield blocking and went all the way for the score. Again, late in the second quarter, Miller took the ball on another keeper play from his own 18 for 82 yards and the third touchdown of the evening. Darrell Leslie kicked the extra point.

Whitesburg was unable to get a sustained drive going at any time during the first half.

Near the end of the third quarter, halfback Tommy Burchett took a pass from Miller for another t. d., bringing the score to 25-0. In the fourth quarter Prestonsburg again was backed up on its 18, and Miller rolled out on another keeper. Behind the finest downfield blocking seen here all season, he scored on his second run of the night for 82 yards.

The win was regarded as a fine team effort.

The trouble feared at the end positions after the graduation of regular ends has not developed, with two new men, Robert Bryant and Wayne Brown, doing excellent jobs. Brown also does the team's punting chores.

Prestonsburg travels to Hazard Friday night. The Cats' next home game will be the Nov. Homecoming encounter with the strong Louisa Bulldogs.

The Black Cat record in other games to date: Prestonsburg 42, Wheelwright 0; Prestonsburg 56, Morgan County 0; Prestonsburg 7, Elkhorn City 6; Jenkins 31, Prestonsburg 0; Prestonsburg 32, Pikeville 7; Prestonsburg 66, Leslie County 0; Belfry 20, Prestonsburg 13.

AN IMPORTANT DIFFERENCE

(An editorial from The Chattanooga News-Free Press)

An important and major difference in the positions of Richard M. Nixon and Hubert H. Humphrey appeared yesterday as Mr. Nixon called for an end to aid trade and aid any country that aids the enemy in Vietnam—specifically including Russia.

Mr. Humphrey is part of an Administration that has promoted trade with Russia as "building bridges to the East" while Russia has been supplying 80 percent of the war materials that have enabled the Communists in Vietnam to kill Americans and maintain Red aggression.

Mr. Humphrey has aided the Reds, including Russia. Mr. Nixon favors cutting off all trade-aid to the Reds, including Russia.

This is a vital foreign policy issue that no American should mistake.

The only mystery is why the Lyndon B. Johnson-Humphrey position has been tolerated so long by the American people when it is clearly so wrong.

Mr. Nixon was speaking to the national convention of the American Legion in New Orleans when he declared, "I think we've been somewhat naive in some of our trade policies" toward the Communist world. "Let us not let our trade and our credit and our wealth be used for war... There should be no aid or no credits of any kind with any country, including the Soviet Union, that aids the enemy in Vietnam."

If any American official had suggested trade with Nazi Germany during World War II or with Communist China during the Korean War, he would have been driven from office with reminders that the Constitution of the United States defines treason as giving aid and comfort to the enemy.

But in recent years the Johnson-Humphrey policy has called for just such aid to enemies even while Americans have been shedding blood.

Instead of cutting down aid-trade to Russia and other Red countries, Mr. Humphrey's position has been one of expanding it. Fortunately, Mr. Nixon offers the nation a chance for important and sensible improvement.

Mr. Humphrey supports American appeasement of Communist aggression ranging from Vietnam to Czechoslovakia while supporting punishment of anti-Communist friends such as Rhodesia by boycotting trade with them.

The mistaken Humphrey position on this issue alone should be enough to make clear to every American a lack of judgment, principle and backbone that should disqualify him for President of the United States.

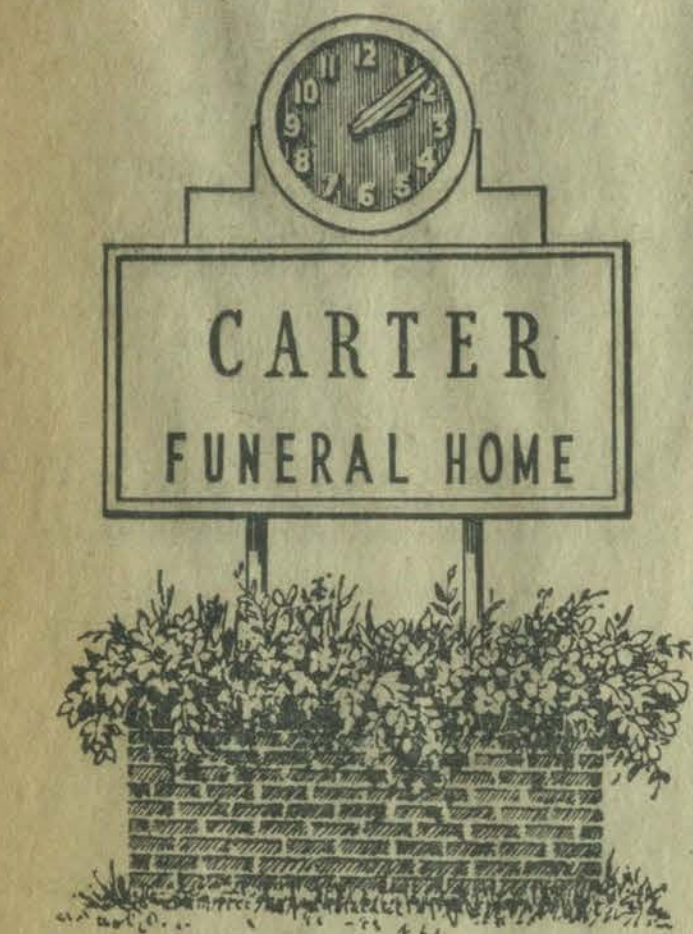

America is badly in need of clear-minded, tough-principled, courage-supported foreign policy. It has been a long time since we have had it. That is a chief reason we are bogged down in a horrible war and have fared so poorly in other matters throughout the world.

Mr. Nixon's call for an end of aid to our enemies is one indication of the sort of improvement that is so badly needed.

The people of this country should call for Mr. Nixon to speak up even more strongly on this matter and to expand the application of realistic policy, while repudiating the Humphrey position that has prevailed too long and the candidate who would perpetuate it.

Introducing the 1969 Volkswagens.

They're harder to take than ever.

Once you couldn't give away a Volkswagen. But times have changed. Now people actually steal them.

To help stop this, we're putting a new ignition/steering wheel lock in every 1969 VW. When you shut off the ignition and remove the key, it locks the front wheels in position. So if someone ever breaks in and jumps the wires, he'll probably wind up just going in circles. He may even end up going straight. Of course, this isn't our only improvement for '69. There are 28 others. Including an optional fully-automatic transmission for the Fastback and Squareback. (The bug and Ghia have our optional automatic stick shift. Which we introduced earlier this year.)

Whichever VW suits you best, the best way to see all its changes is with a test drive. Because, as usual, most of our improvements aren't on the outside where you can look at them. They're deep down inside. Where they make new VWs run better. And where they don't make old VWs look obsolete.

FRIENDS, TEACHERS, and FELLOW FLOYD COUNTIANS:

I was born and reared in Floyd county, and my wife and I are both graduates of Betsy Layne high school. We have always been concerned and involved in higher education. My wife has been teaching for eight years, and I am an X-ray technician and am currently enrolled in Pikeville College.

Contrary to deliberate rumors, I was not selected by a committee or urged by particular persons to become a candidate for board member to the Floyd County Board of Education, but I was persuaded by culminating events which have proved that our SCHOOLS, TEACHERS and CHILDREN do not come first in the thinking of our present administration.

School administrators spend a citizen's money and deal with his most priceless possessions; his children. A citizen has a right to know what officials are doing with both his money and his children, and he wonders:

1. Why Floyd county schools have a deficit of $43,000 when there is supposedly more available money than has ever been in history;
2. Why the administration's office staff has increased in the past few years when student enrollment has decreased, resulting in so-called "teacher surplus";
3. Why the staff worker's salaries are so out of line with teachers' salaries, and
4. Why his children's classes are being presently interrupted by those who want to campaign for the superintendent's choice candidate.

A citizen does not support that which he does not like or understand, and his understanding comes home every day with his children whom he sends to school.

We citizens can no longer pretend that our schools are not endangered! For the sake of our children we must stand for the truth and combine our efforts to remove our schools from political bondage.

That 81% of the Republicans in the House and 58% of the Republicans in the Senate voted against the Appalachian Program to help Eastern Kentucky?

That 73% of the Republicans in the House voted against the Elementary and Secondary Education Act?

Do not be misled by Republicans and other candidates. SUPPORT CARL PERKINS BY GIVING HIM A DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENT AND U. S. SENATOR TO WORK FOR THE BEST INTEREST OF THE NATION AND FOR FLOYD COUNTY.

Radiant Rays

Psalm 34:5—"They looked unto Him and were radiant."

A certain rich man who had many sons and daughters received great glory because these sons and daughters were always boasting about his great power and many wonderful attributes. They were constantly busy about their father's affairs, always leaving their own business unfinished until they had attended to his. Because these offsprings were so exuberant when talking to others about their father, these people also wanted to become a part of the family.

A plan was devised whereby anyone could become a member of this great man's family. People all over the world joined it. It grew and grew and grew, until he had sons and daughters all over the world from every race.

The father loved his children so much and was so anxious that they would reflect his glory he bestowed marvelous gifts upon them. He gave them new tools to work with so they could have more time to commune with him. He gave them new modes of transportation so they could go farther and faster in telling and sharing him with others.

But a strange thing began to happen. These children began to play with the new things and to play with each other. It was almost as if they thought these things were made exclusively for their pleasure. They talked less and less about their father and more and more about themselves and things.

The father's reputation began to diminish and in a few years there wasn't anyone who remembered for sure just exactly who their father was. So much so that people began to ask, "Is your father dead?" They'd reply, "No, why?" "Well, you never brag about him like you once did. I just thought he'd ceased to be."

At the same time—in the father's house—all the servants became quite alarmed and sorrowful. There was such sadness in the master's face. At one time they would receive millions of packages, letters, telegrams and communiques daily from his sons and daughters. They were always happily engaged in delivering these, and sending the replies from the father. But something must have happened. The packages and communiques became fewer and fewer—until finally, not one arrived.

And a remark was heard by one of the chief attendants. "All of his children must be dead, they don't communicate with the father anymore."

And that is the way the rumor was started in heaven that all of God's children are dead.

(II Chronicles 16:9, Psalm 34:15, 16, I Peter 3:12).

TALES OF WITCHCRAFT ADD HALLOWE'EN CHARM

Coming up October 27-31 is a Halloween "special" at Kentucky's seven year-round state parks, and for the many persons who anticipate joining in the fun for these special weekends a lesson or so in witchcraft might be profitable, especially if there is a haunted house or an ancient graveyard nearby.

Jenny Wiley, Cumberland Falls, General Butler, Kentucky Dam Village, Lake Cumberland, Natural Bridge and Carter Caves State Parks all are encompassed in a region that still remembers the witch tales of the old ones who traveled wilderness roads through the Cumberlands and across the Blue Ridge.

Everyone in those days kept a sharp lookout for "the old thing," who could bewitch a household if she entered and was able to borrow something. "It took a dime in buttermilk to undo her harm, or if the woman of the house when she combed and brushed her hair would save the loose hair, she could make a hairball and put under her front doorstep to break the charm."

Maidens who want to discover who their future husband will be can take tassels of corn silk from the ears of corn, name the tassels and hide them over the door. According to witch-lore, the first man to enter the door under the tassel bearing his name will become the girl's husband.

According to oldtimers, a witch will do harm, whereas a "ha'nt" will just put a scare into a body. Chilling tales can at least provide entertainment, if not a reasonable wariness of these witches and "ha'nts."

On Indian Creek, upstairs in a house where a murder was believed to have been committed years ago, a bloodstain cannot be removed from the floor. The man thought to have done the deed started hearing sounds at night, "like somebody was a-groaning, a-struggling, a-dying." He sold out and moved away, but the folks who bought the property heard the midnight sounds, too.

In Morgan county where a hanging was stopped by Captain John T. Williams, of Civil War fame, a horse and rider were heard for many years but were never seen. A friend of the Captain's, who sympathized with the Union, was being hanged when Captain Williams heard about it and galloped to the hanging tree to stop the deed.

Thereafter—and perhaps yet—in the dark of the night a horse was heard to gallop out the Licking River road, past the farm houses, suddenly to stop at the hanging tree, Mrs. Pearl Lewis, who lives a few feet from the tree, has heard the galloping many times, but try as she might she has never been able to see the horse.

There are men yet living who swear they saw, years ago in the coal mines at Cannel City, the figure of a beautiful woman clothed in misty white robe riding through the mines, perched on the front of a coal car. This was soon after the mysterious disappearance of two miners.

Don't let ghost stories and witchcraft dampen the fun of a Halloween "special" weekend at one of the seven state parks. Just take along a hairball and place at your door and all will be well.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank everyone who helped in any way upon the death of my husband, Dewey McKnight, who passed away September 26. A very special thanks to those who brought or sent food and flowers; to the Merion Funeral Home for its kind and efficient services; also to the Free Pentecostal Church of God for the beautiful songs and the inspiration that each gave me, and, last but not least, to my dear pastor, Rev. David Warren, for the comforting words and all the kindness he showed me during my hours of bereavement.

It's the "old look" that will make the Eastern Kentucky hills in coming weeks beautiful beyond description. Nature never needs new doo-dads to complete the picture.

We humans, dependent though we are on nature's gifts, must provide against it. Shelter from the cold, the storm, the heat, for instance. Homes, places of business which afford the greatest degree of comfort and yet are clean in line and beauty.

We supply materials for such buildings. Ask the man who has used our products.

MY FRIENDS:

Some months ago I decided to become a candidate for member of Board of Education, District 4. I proceeded to obtain 41 of my friends and neighbors' signatures on the petition declaring my candidacy. After I filed the necessary papers with the Clerk of the Floyd County Court, my opposition secured a copy of it and persuaded 24 of my signers (by telling them it wouldn't hurt me) to likewise sign Bill Blair's petition, thus voiding both documents.

An addition to the original petition containing an adequate number of new and different signatures was filed by Mr. Blair. As a result, my name will not appear on the ballot at the coming election. However, we have decided to conduct a write-in campaign.

I remain determined to oppose such tactics and maneuvering to attempt to evade a fair election. I strenuously object to the high-powered politics and pressure being applied to all the school employees and every phase of our society.

As all my neighbors and friends know, I have devoted much time and energy to help improve our schools and school program.

I will furnish a description of how a write-in can be made on the ballot.

'69 Impala Custom Coupe

Just sitting there, this '69 Chevrolet can do four things competitive cars can't:

It can wash its headlights.
It can apply liquid tire chain to its rear wheels.
It can silently defog or defrost the rear window.
It can keep you cool or warm automatically with Comfortron—the self-adjusting air-conditioning system.

And once you've added all these wonderful devices to a new Chevrolet, you just can't imagine why anyone would give a second thought to a second-place car.
The headlight washers and liquid tire chain for traction on slippery roads are operated at the touch of a button from the driver's seat. So is the silent new rear-window defroster. Invisible ceramic strips on the glass heat up to keep the window clear.
Also available: Chevrolet's Light Monitoring System that lets you know from inside if all your outside lights are working, full four-speaker stereo, a smooth 3-speed Turbo Hydra-matic transmission. All in a car made quieter, made stronger, made more comfortable. Now at your Chevrolet dealer's.

We've said it before, and we'll say it again.
Match this, you other '69s!
Putting you first, keeps us first.
