Cheryl Ladd, 20th Century Fox Make Opening Week Memorable

Just before the start of the Jenny Wiley Summer Music Theatre's production, "Music Man," last Thursday evening, the capacity crowd which filled the state park amphitheatre was treated to the appearance of Cheryl Ladd, popular television actress and star of a new movie, "Mantrip," which is being filmed in Martin and Johnson counties. Her presence during the night coincided with the presentation to the Jenny Wiley Drama Association of the largest private contribution ever made to the theatre organization.

The donation, Twentieth Century Fox Studios check for $7,500, was made by Raymond Bradbury, president of Martin County Coal Corporation.

The contribution resulted from Bradbury's willingness to allow the production crew of "Mantrip," to use company mines for filming location at no charge, according to McCann. Since a location fee is customarily paid in such instances, Twentieth Century Fox told Bradbury that the money could be donated to his favorite charity—hence, the contribution to the summer music theatre group.

McCann also pointed out that an additional $1,875 would result from the donation, since a special state Governor's Challenge Grant Program would provide $1 for every $4 in contributions. "It's really a boon to the theatre," commented McCann, who also said first week attendance for the theatre's productions has been much better than last year.

Miss Ladd, who will portray an Appalachian woman trying to win acceptance as an underground coal miner, thanked the people of the area for the kindness and hospitality she had been shown since arriving here.

Plaques were also presented to Mr. Bradbury and Walter Donigar, writer, director and producer of "Mantrip." Mel Efros, production manager for the movie, and Jim Toole, of the Kentucky Film Commission were also on hand for the occasion.

No Oil in Water Here, Claim . . .

But Pike Spill Shakes Consumers

Did the Pike county wreck which early last Friday morning began spilling several thousand gallons of diesel fuel into the Big Sandy river affect the water supply here?

Bill H. Howard, superintendent of Prestonsburg utilities, said Monday that the most careful checks he and employees of the water system have made failed to show that the water here was affected.

Various residents say, however, the water from their spigots smelled of oil, and that they could taste it.

These reports began Saturday afternoon and continued through Sunday.

Howard is not disputing anybody's word, but says the situation has its puzzling aspects.

Metts Releases Contract Dates For Area Work

Transportation Secretary Frank Metts has announced the contract letting dates for improvements to remaining sections of U.S. 23, but the Prestonsburg-Paintsville gap remains an "unmentionable."

"We'll have five sections of U.S. 23 from Pike county to Boyd county under contract by the end of this year," Metts told members of the Big Sandy Area Development District at their Paintsville meeting last week.

Metts said that the first contract is scheduled for the July 23 contract letting. It calls for reconstruction of U.S. 23 from KY 3 to Waller Branch in Lawrence county, a distance of about two miles.

The Aug. 20 letting will include the section from the Shannon Branch road to the Isaac Branch road, a distance of about five miles, also in Lawrence county.

The Dorton Connector in Pike County will go to contract on Nov. 19. On Dec. 17, bids will be opened for a nine-mile section of U.S. 23 in Johnson county from Paintsville to the Lawrence county. (See Story No. 5, Page 4)

Wets Win Tuesday's Election

This Town...That World

STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN A SPELL

I have become so resigned to having to wait at street intersections before daring to pull into traffic on the main highway here that when I stopped at the corner of Graham street and Lake Drive, "the main drag," the other afternoon, looked left, saw no approaching vehicle, looked right and saw the same, I wasted another minute or so doing a double-take, fearing I had overlooked some small item such as a coal truck. (And how's that for a long sentence?)

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

This Wet-Dry campaign has been hard-fought and occasionally tempers may have flared. But not all of it has been a grim, life-and-death matter. A little humor has relieved the situation at times. Possibly the best example of the lighter side was exemplified by that Wet radio commercial in which the speaker, warning of possible election chicanery, solemnly advised to this effect:

"If you see a deceased person voting, notify your local funeral director."

SORRY, FELLOWS

I erred last week in listing the wildlife seen around our premises, these days. As we often are obliged to say, I inadvertently omitted the chipmunks. But they're real tolerant; they didn't demand a correction.

Arson Seen As 3 Fires Hit County Church and Store Near Printer Burn; One Man Arrested

Arson is suspected in the destruction by fire of three buildings in the county last weekend, and one man has been arrested.

Separate blazes on the Spurlock Fork of Left Beaver Creek, near Printer, early last Saturday morning destroyed the Church of Christ and gutted the Spurlock Grocery Store at an estimated loss of $80,000.

Saturday night at Endicott, a home owned by Nannie Maynard and occupied by the James Messer family was burned, and later James Barry McKenzie, State Police arson investigator, arrested Woodrow Collins, 64, and booked him at the jail here on a second-degree arson count.

At Printer the first fire broke out in the grocery store. Thirty minutes later and about 250 yards away, the church was in flames.

Victory Margin For Wets, 1299 In Heavy Voting

For the first time in more than 35 years Floyd county has voted a Wet majority.

The voting in Tuesday's election was comparatively heavy, with a total of 12,187 votes cast, and of this total the Wets had 6743 votes to 5444 for the Dry cause—a Wet majority of 1299.

The results were in marked distinction to the last local option election, held in 1969, when the Drys polled a majority of about 2000 votes.

Twenty-six of the county's 44 precincts polled Wet majorities, but of the 204 absentee ballots cast, the Drys held a 141 to 63 edge.

Only in Magisterial District 1 did the Drys lead.

The election, held in perfect weather, was quiet, with no disturbances reported, and the tally of the vote was quickly over, only the belated arrival of the Antioch returns delaying completion of the count beyond 7:30 p.m.

The voting followed several weeks of spirited campaigning by both camps. Wet forces had as their leaders Sandy Boyd, chairman, and Fred Bingham, treasurer. Their Dry counterparts were Huey J. Darby, chairman, and George Barnett, treasurer.

The vote by precincts appears elsewhere in this edition of The Times.

County 1 of 5 In Area Named For 'Host' Role

Floyd county is one of five in Eastern Kentucky that have been designated "host counties" to receive refugees in the event of natural disaster such as flood, tornado, earthquake, or in other crisis, and last week a team began reviewing available facilities.

Facilities designated some years ago by Civil Defense as bomb shelters and the location of new facilities are included in the survey being undertaken by eight architectural or engineering students from Southern Technical Institute, Marietta, Ga., and employees of the South Atlantic division of the U.S. Corps of Engineers.

The survey will include churches, other religious facilities, public, commercial and industrial buildings. Participants in the survey will carry identification, including their photographs and a letter of introduction. Cooperation of building owners is asked to the extent of permitting survey team members to enter and survey structures for the purpose of determining shelter capacity.

In addition to this county, "host" counties are Johnson, Carter, Greenup, Estill and Whitley.

The Floyd survey, which is in support of the National Shelter Survey Program, is being made in cooperation with Floyd County Civil Defense and the state Division of Disaster and Emergency Service.

Mass Slayings Send Murder Rate Soaring

Little longer than two years ago, Floyd county was figuratively, if not actually, pointing with pride to a crime record which showed that over a 13-month period not a murder had been committed within its borders.

That enviable record no longer exists. From one case of murder or manslaughter in 1980, the total jumped in 1981 to 9, according to the annual preliminary crime report released last week by Kentucky State Police.

Although the current rate of deaths by violence—three over the last three weeks—indicates a continuing upward trend, it is noted that the 800 percent increase in 1981 was largely the result of the mass slaying at Allen where five were killed at one time.

Statewide, the murder rate dropped last year, according to these figures, from 322 to 305, or 5 percent.

Counties which had increases in the number of slayings included these in Eastern Kentucky:

Harlan, from 6 in 1980 to 12 last year; Boyd, from 1 to 3; Breathitt, from 4 to 7; Johnson, from 4 to 6; Perry from 7 to 19; Wolfe and Boyd, each from 1 to 3.

Fayette county murders increased last year to 18 from 11 the preceding year, but Jefferson's fell from 76 to 63. Counties of this area which had fewer slayings were:

Lawrence and Martin, each from 1 to 0; Pike, from 11 to 7; Clay, from 9 to 3;

Elliott, from 2 to 0; Rowan, from 3 to 1, and six area counties—Estill, Greenup, Knott, Menifee and Owsley had no murders for the second year in a row.

While forceable rape had a 3.9 increase over the state last year, Floyd county experienced a decrease (from 7 to 4). The state had more robberies, but not Floyd (from 8 to 5). This county's reported cases of aggravated assault rose from 45 in 1980 to 106 last year while the state as a whole was having a 1.1% increase. The county also followed the downward state trend in burglaries (breaking and entering) with 212 last year as compared with 269 in 1980, and its auto thefts dropped from 92 to 72 while the statewide figures showed a 12% drop.

(The report emphasizes that its figures are preliminary and that its data is limited by the fact that there was "somewhat less than 100% reporting by the Commonwealth's 343 local police agencies.")

No Compromise in Sight For Cheerleaders' Suit

"See you in court."

It wasn't that curt but that was the sense of the Floyd County Board of

Financing OK'd For Med Center

The Highlands Regional Medical Center here has reached the stage at which, barring further complications along the road to financing, it may expect to begin a major expansion project next fall.

Although a Frankfort report says the Kentucky Development Authority earlier this month had voted to issue $12 million in industrial revenue bonds to finance the hospital expansion, Russell Dean, assistant administrator at HRMC, said the financing situation is not as final as all that.

"This is a major approval for us, as it sets up the mechanism for the issue of bonds, but the actual sale of bonds is still pending," Mr. Dean said. "We're very optimistic now, but there's another step or so to go."

The hospital plan, now three years in the making, envisions a three-level addition at the rear of the present structure to afford 47 additional hospital beds, a new emergency room and laboratory, with an area for other services.

STREETS FLOODED, cars "drowned out" in the muddy water, and even light damage was sustained by at least one Prestonsburg business following heavy, localized rain, Sunday afternoon. Construction of a new water tank on the hillside behind the postoffice and Highland Avenue here may have added to runoff since vegetation in the area has been cleared, according to City Manager David Evans. He said the disturbed area would be replanted in coming weeks.

Education's response last Wednesday evening, to a plaintiff's plea to agree to a compromise settlement of the litigation surrounding the selection of cheerleaders at Allen Central High School.

The board's decision was reached at its last meeting of the fiscal year, which was perhaps its shortest of the year, as it was devoted mainly to a cleanup of odds-and-ends of business remaining in fiscal 1981-'82.

After Mrs. Delores F. Dingus, plaintiff in the circuit court suit as next friend of Mary E. Click, a minor, had spoken briefly, reviewing the May 26 selection of cheerleaders, and asking the board to act for settlement of the issue and not let it go to the court, the board conferred with David Barber, who was standing in at the session for Woodrow Burchett, board attorney and Barber's legal associate. Then it was pointed out that another plaintiff had entered the case with an amended petition.

The board also pointed out that any action it might take to reverse the outcome of the original selection of cheerleaders could result in a new court action against it from members of the squad who had already been selected.

But the legal tangle surrounding the cheerleaders was not untangled by the mere decision to let the court hear the case. When motions were filed Friday morning on the issue Circuit Judge Hollie Conley told the plaintiffs they should make a written request to the board of education to hear their complaint that the board had failed to comply with legal guidelines and thus get the board's official determination of the question.

McDowell Boy Scouts demonstrated pioneering at camp Shawnee.

Boy Scouts from Floyd and Pike counties participated in a two-day "See & Do" recently at Camp Shawnee, the Boy Scout camp located on Dewey Lake. Each troop demonstrated a Scout skill or activity and then gave the other troops an opportunity to try it for themselves. Demonstrations included lashing, fire lays, first aid for broken bones, pioneering, rope making, building the fire and compass.

Scouts also conducted a tug-of-war between troops. At the close of the weekend, the traditional Scout campfire ended the day, along with humorous skits and Scout songs.

Troops from Floyd county which participated included 832 of Prestonsburg and 870 of McDowell.

State Jobless Rate Declines

For the fourth consecutive month, Kentucky's unemployment rate declined during May. The state's May unemployment rate was 9.8 percent, down from the 10.3 percent April rate, according to statistics released today by the Department for Human Resources.

The May rate marks the first time since December 1981, that the state has recorded an unemployment rate below 10 percent.

Nationwide, May's comparable unemployment rate was 9.1 percent. This is a nonseasonally adjusted figure—meaning that seasonal employment factors have not been considered.

The state's unemployment rate for May of last year was 8.1 percent. Kentucky's civilian labor force this May was 1,622,800 persons, 23,700 more than in April but 52,100 fewer than May 1981. The civilian labor force only includes persons currently employed and unemployed persons actively looking for jobs.

A total of 159,000 Kentuckians were unemployed in May, down 6,400 from April, but 22,700 more than were unemployed in May 1981.

Kentucky's total employment for May was estimated at 1,463,800. This is 30,100 higher than the department's April estimate and 74,800 lower than the May 1981 estimate.

The increase in the state's employment was primarily due to workers being recalled in the transportation-equipment manufacturing industry, according to the Human Resources' labor analysis section. Significant employment gains also occurred among agricultural and nonagricultural self-employed and unpaid family workers, as well as workers in the textile, apparel and trade industries.

Labor market analysis in Human Resources report that employment in Kentucky's construction industries is at a standstill and employment in the bituminous coal mining industry is declining because of decreased demand.

Come to the seminar to learn how you can build your own home the Miles Homes way. Thousands have already built their reward — and you can do it, too!

*Sample Credit Terms: Let's assume you purchase a Basic Miles Home with a cash price of $24,000. No down payment is required. Processing charges would be approximately $100, bringing the amount financed to $24,100. Through the interest rates vary from state to state, in the example we'll use the 12.9% annual percentage rate. The total finance charge for the 24 month contract is $6,217.80. The deferred payment price of $30,317.80, which is the amount financed plus finance charges, is paid in 22 interest only payments of $282.63 and a 23rd payment of $24,100. The first 22 payments will not reduce your obligation to Miles. If you purchase a home under Miles Homes' Build-A-Home Revolving Credit Account and Security Agreement, the amounts and due dates of payments are similar to those in the above example. With this plan, your finance charge is calculated at an annual percentage rate of 12.9%, which is applied to a balance that is equal to what you would owe each day of the billing period divided by the number of days in the billing period. In both cases, your final payment is normally paid with longer term financing, arranged through your local lender. Miles does not arrange long-term financing. The figures above may vary depending on the Miles model you choose, local sales taxes and recording fees and whether you alter the Basic Miles Home or add optional packages at additional costs. 6-23-21

Farmers Urged To Plan Best Tax Strategy

In the wake of recent tax law revisions, careful financial planning has become critical for Kentucky farmers who want to maximize their tax benefits.

The Economic Recovery Tax Act of 1981 included a new, accelerated system of recovering the cost of depreciable personal property placed in use after 1980. Under the new system, taxpayers can write off property costs over much shorter periods of time than before.

Most agricultural assets, including farm machinery, almost all breeding stock and single-purpose buildings such as chicken houses and finishing barns, now are classified as "five-year property"—to be depreciated over the span of five years. Before 1981, farmers usually depreciated these items over the estimated useful life of the asset, which represented a much longer period of time.

"For example, almost all farmers used to depreciate tractors for seven or eight years and buildings normally were written off over 15 or 20 years," said Don Reid, Extension farm management specialist in the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture. "Now these assets qualify for five-year write-offs."

The new system allows taxpayers the option of writing off five-year assets over a 12- or 25-year recovery period. "But this does not mean a farmer can depreciate his new tractor over five years and the chicken house he just built over 12 years," explained Reid. "He must choose one of these recovery periods for all assets in the same class."

Farmers should plan their cost recovery strategies with future income expectations in mind. "Farm producers who expect income growth within the next 10 years or so might be better off by stretching out their tax write-offs," said Reid, "while those who foresee a decline in income should take advantage of short recovery periods."

The specialist explained that it takes only moderate increases in taxable income in future years to make long periods of depreciation more valuable than shorter periods.

"Without careful planning of long-term assets," said Reid, "the farmer may experience depreciation expense lumping—too much depreciation one year and too little in other years."

Another change brought about by the new law, the current expensing option, allows taxpayers to deduct up to $5,000 of the cost of assets put into service during the tax year rather than depreciating these costs over a longer period. "This option appears attractive, especially in high-income years," said Reid. "But it reduces the amount of investment tax credit for which the taxpayer is eligible."

For example, if a farmer bought a tractor for $9,000, he would be eligible for a 10 percent investment tax credit ($900) for the year he put the tractor in service. If he exercised the expensing option, however, his credit would amount to only $400—10 percent of $4,000.

Although the $5,000 deduction may reduce the farmer's tax liability for the year in which the assets were placed in service, it will not offset the declining value of the assets in future years. This is true because the expensing option reduces the base cost upon which the assets could be depreciated. In the example above, a farmer who used the option could depreciate only $4,000 of the $9,000 purchase price of his tractor. Without the option, he could write off the entire $9,000.

The changes brought about by the new tax act make up-to-date records of income and expense transactions an important tool for the farmer. But the changes also point out that records kept for tax purposes probably are not the best records to use in making management decisions.

"Farm managers should keep separate tax and management records," Reid said, "because, among other things, depreciation has different meanings in these different settings." He explained that depreciation should reflect the actual, expected useful life of an asset for management purposes. When figuring taxes, depreciation represents a cost recovery period and will be much less than the useful life.

Reid recommended that anyone no well-versed in tax matters get in touch with an adviser who is interested and knowledgeable about farming as well as tax problems. "But an adviser cannot be expected to perform miracles at the end of the tax year," cautioned the specialist. "The rule is to plan ahead and consult your adviser throughout the year."

Genealogy Society Plans Annual Seminar August 7

The Kentucky Genealogical Society will present its Eighth Annual Genealogical Seminar on Saturday, August 7, at Morrison's Cafeteria, Capital Plaza Tower Complex, Wilkinson Boulevard, downtown Frankfort.

The theme this year concerns Kentucky military records and is entitled "The Fighting Kentuckians: They Fought and They Left Records, 1774-1865."

A special feature of the seminar will be a tour of and reception at the new Kentucky Department for Libraries and Archives Building, 300 Coffee Tree Road in Frankfort.

President Ted Walter said, "The seminar is open to all interested persons and is limited to the first 200 registrants. Early registration is encouraged, since this popular event attracts genealogists from several surrounding states, as well as from Kentucky." Registration forms may be obtained by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to The Kentucky Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 153, Frankfort, KY 40602.

The average wage of job openings listed by employers in federal-state Job Service offices during the 1981 fiscal year was $4.46 an hour, compared with $4.13 an hour the previous year.

Hour Glass or Dumb-Bell?

We have achieved that state of emotional ambivalence in which we are pleased and displeased at the same time.

We are, for example, gratified by the news that the Department of Transportation has definitely scheduled contract-letting on uncompleted sections of US 23 in Johnson, Lawrence and Pike counties, because these are important parts of Eastern Kentucky; and we are little short of downright angry about the continued neglect of the most heavily travelled sector of them all, the two-lane section between Paintsville and Prestonsburg.

The end result of present planning makes certain that US 23, four-laned at either end of the valley and narrowed to two lanes in the middle, will for many of us be known as "The Hour-Glass road." Or, more appropriately yet, "the Dumb-Bell road."

As it stands, it not only is inadequate but is also dangerous. All ordinary traffic hazards aside, the overhanging cliffs that border it continue, and will continue, to shed their boulders and rockslides onto the roadway.

The state excuses itself of responsibility for a new road by reminding us that the Appalachian Regional Commission was told 15 years ago, or longer, that the present road, then recently completed, was adequate, and the ARC then promptly and permanently put it into that classification.

Since the ARC is scheduled for termination within the next year, and consequently will never be able to appropriate funds to improvement of this road, does this mean that Kentucky will never do anything about it at its own expense?

"If you don't," Judge Conley said, "I will dismiss the case because it is not properly before the court."

The amended petition filed in the case is that of Aileen Osborne, suing as next friend of Angie Osborne, a minor. Both girls named in the litigation are 17 years old and will be seniors next school year. Mrs. Osborne asks the court to issue a declaratory judgment holding illegal the May 24 selection of cheerleaders and enjoining, temporarily and permanently, the defendants—J.O. Dingus, principal, Judy Sloane, cheerleaders' sponsor, and the board of education—from allowing any activities of the cheerleading squad until a proper selection is made.

The loss of state funds as a result of pupil absenteeism and the importance of guidance counselling were two topics raised toward conclusion of the meeting by Dr. J. D. Adams, board member. When it was pointed out that the Floyd school system loses from $700,000 to $800,000 a year in A.D.A. (average daily attendance) funds because of pupil non-attendance, he asked if it might not be a good idea to employ an uncertified person at each school to use the telephone each morning after the absentee list is prepared and so ascertain the reason pupils were not in school.

At Prestonsburg High School, he said, the principal and assistant principal during the term just ended did this work themselves, with the result that absenteeism was reduced by 2.4 percent. Countywide, the loss to ADA was cut about 1% this year, which means a saving of $60-$70,000, Supt. Pete Grigsby, Jr. said. It is estimated that the high school here lost as much as $175,000 this year.

Dr. Adams said the principals' work is commendable but contended that it could be done by some other person at minimum pay, leaving the principal and assistant for important work inside the school.

On the matter of guidance counselling Adams pointed out that the high school here has an excellent counsellor but that a student body of 800 makes it a job too great for one person to do. He added that 20 graduating students at the high school here won scholarships this year and that Robert May, principal, has said that with another counsellor that total might have been 40.

The board indicated it will study the suggestions further

McKenzie said both of the Printer fires "appear to be arson," and that the investigation continues. Three men were arrested at the scene by a state trooper and were jailed here on the charge of public drunkenness, but they have not been implicated in the fires. The store was of concrete block construction, and it was said the fire which swept through it, destroying all its contents, started in a small, wooden structure at its rear. It was owned by Elza Adkins.

The church, a frame structure, seated about 200. Roy Spurlock, who lives in the vicinity of the church, said the fire apparently was started from inside the building.

Nothing was saved from either building and neither was insured, it was said. The twin blazes were fought by the Left Beaver Rescue Squad and the Martin Fire Department.

The congregation of the church held its Sunday services outdoors at the nearby home of Leon Greer. Damage estimates, described as "low," placed the loss at church and store at $40,000 each.

A State Police report said a flammable liquid apparently was used in the Endicott fire. No motive was given. Bond of $5000, asked for Collins' release, had not been executed as of Tuesday morning.

The old Leslie home, near Sugar Loaf on Old US 23, was damaged Monday night by fire which, an early report said, started in the bathroom.

How long has it been since you heard somebody say, "It's not worth a postage stamp"?

THE LOCAL SCENE

Complaining about bodily ills, headaches caused by the tax collector, the high cost of living and dying, or whatever, keeps most of us so busy we're blinded to some of the good things, and when we do see them we're so busy griping we can't take a few minutes off to acknowledge them. I, for one, have observed the cleanliness of streets here, the absence of clutter and the general improvement that's apparent without using your bifocals. But it took a visitor, back home from the city, to see it all as it really is and to get enthusiastic about it.

Somebody deserves a lot of credit for making us look bright, even if we aren't.

It's summer, the longest day in the year is past and the election is over—and we're thankful on all three counts.

VISIT IN MARYLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Dotson, of the Abbott Road, and grandson Jim Allen, of Prestonsburg, have returned from College Park, Maryland. Where they visited with their son, Dr. and Mrs. Charles O. Dotson, Dwayne and Chris. While there they attended the Kemper Open Golf Tournament in Bethesda, Maryland.

GRADUATES FROM SCHOOL AT DANVILLE, MAY 28

Sherman Hackworth graduated from the Kentucky School for the Deaf in Danville at its 159th Commencement exercises on May 28 in Thomas Hall.

He has attended KSD from 1971 to 1982 and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hackworth, of the Middle Creek Road.

Our Yesterdays

Ten Years Ago

(June 28, 1972)

A Tinker Fork of Mud Creek strip-mine operation operated by a Pike county man was closed down Monday when a reported 200 persons from the area joined in a demonstration. The Kentucky Department of Parks surrendered its lease on the German Bridge camp area, effective June 16, and the U. S. Corps of Engineers immediately began work to provide camping facilities there in more attractive surroundings. The Patsy Development Company, Inc. closed its two mines at David, June 16, but Ralph T. Huffman, Falls Branch, Tenn., president of the company, is hopeful that operations can be resumed early in August. Trustees of the University of Kentucky last Thursday filed for UK's Prestonsburg Community College suits in Floyd quarterly court to acquire by condemnation proceedings approximately five acres of land which, it is claimed, the college needs for its campus. Born: to Mr. and Mrs. James Hall, of Melvin, a daughter, June 8; to Mr. and Mrs. Rabon Dye, of Orkney, a son, June 9. There died: Mrs. Sarah Bailey, 59, Tuesday at her home at Hueysville; Ed Hall, 83, Friday at his home at Drift; Duran W. Hamilton, 84, of Ligon, Tuesday at McDowell Appalachian Regional Hospital; Lola Viola Burke, 60, of Stanville, Thursday at Mt. Manor Nursing Home; Billie Green, 80, Thursday at his home at Handshoe; Sam Click, 71, of Weeksbury, Saturday at Mountain Manor.

Twenty Years Ago

(June 28, 1962)

Governor Bert T. Combs will be here Saturday to hear the case for and against food stamps before deciding if the pilot food stamp program is to be continued in Floyd county. Prestonsburg will be the first of the county-seat towns along the Big Sandy to end its contribution to river pollution, it became certain last Thursday as the City Council voted unanimously to accept the $710,000 loan offer of the Community Facilities Service, Housing & Home Finance Agency to finance a sewer system here. The strawberry processing plant established here for the current season grossed $35,000 for Floyd and Johnson county farmers, it was said this week by Robert Jones, county agent. Prestonsburg, Martin and McDowell will feature beauty contests, string music, greasy poles, sack races and ball games as the towns celebrate the upcoming July 4th holiday. Four new voting precincts were created Monday by County Judge Henry Stumbo by dividing existing precincts. At D. & D. Food Market here, a 10-lb. bag of sugar is selling for 98 cents, T-Bone steak is 98 cents a pound, and sliced bacon is going for 3-lbs. for a dollar. There died: Mrs. Elizabeth H. Hall, 83, of Hippo, Monday at home; Mrs. Babe Clark, 54, of Amba, Monday at the Methodist Hospital, Pikeville; Marion Taylor Allen, 81, Sunday at his home at Printer.

Thirty Years Ago

(June 26, 1952)

A 40-room frame building owned by Cluett Messer, which was originally the Wells-Elkhorn Coal Company clubhouse, was destroyed by fire Sunday night. Four from this county entered the state bar examination this week: Miss Mary Louise Osborne, of Bypro, who was Miss Kentucky of 1950, Charles Tackett, Jarvis Allen and Barkley Sturgill, all of Prestonsburg. A coroner's jury has held that Worley Hobert Evans, of Melvin, whose body was found early Wednesday in Abner Fork of Left Beaver Creek, was a victim of drowning. Norma, two-year-old daughter of Astor Woods, of Cow Creek, was severely burned when the one match in the box with which she was playing ignited. Born: to Mr. and Mrs. John Allen, June 17, a son, Stephen Reynolds, at the Prestonsburg General Hospital. There died: Lucy Turner Jones, 71, June 18 at McDowell; William E. Stanley, 29, native of Cliff, June 19 at Riverview, Kentucky; John Hall, 75, Friday at Honaker.

Forty Years Ago

(June 25, 1942)

County Agent S. L. Isbell estimated that flood-swollen streams inundated 5,000 acres of cropland in the county last week and that the damage may exceed $200,000. Fire believed to be of incendiary origin destroyed 40,000 feet of lumber at the E. W. Jesse Lumber Company yards here Wednesday morning. As the filing deadline for district office passed Monday midnight, it became apparent that neither Congressman A. J. May (D), candidate for re-election, nor Carl Sinters (R), will be opposed in the Congressional primary. John Young Brown filed for the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senator, 10 minutes before the deadline, to be the primary opponent of Senator A. B. Chandler. Shelby Newsome was found seriously injured a few days ago, in a coal mine at Jump. Irvin Ramey, 40, of West Prestonsburg, suffered a fractured pelvis Saturday night when caught between a shuttle car and the roof of the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company mine at David. There died: Mrs. Mabel Case, 24, of McDowell, Tuesday at a Martin hospital; Oscar Evans, 48, of a heart attack Friday when stricken at the Northeast Coal Company mine entrance at Auxier; Argie Tucker, brother of Mrs. S. R. Auxier, of Prestonsburg, in Oklahoma; Lee Stewart, 64, of Melvin, Saturday on Shelby Creek, Pike county.

Fifty Years Ago

Bids have been asked on the construction of a road from Salyersville to the mouth of Trace Fork of Licking River, and this is expected to develop into a highway on to the head of Licking and down Salt Lick Creek to connect with Ky. 80 at Bosco. Not more than half the candidates for school trustee filed an expense account 15 days before the June 2 election as required by law. Deputy Constable Willard Hamilton, 48, was fatally wounded last Thursday night. Three Prestonsburg men filed for office this week—A. J. May, Democrat, and S. C. Ferguson, Republican, for Congress; Dr. A. L. Hill, Democrat, for the U. S. Senate. There died: Mrs. Alpha Nelson, about 55, Monday at her home on Town Branch; Mrs. Beatrice Price Leslie, 24, of Emma, Saturday at a Paintsville hospital; Luther, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mosley, of Emma, Friday at a Martin hospital.

ty line and for the unimproved portions of the road from the Johnson county line to Shannon Branch in Lawrence county.

Those sections of U.S. 23 scheduled for lettings in 1983 include the south end of the Pikeville Cut-Through, about four miles of the highway in Boyd county from KY 757 to I-64, the Louisa bypass and Greenup Dam bridge approaches.

Metts also said that a 3.6-mile section of U.S. 119, between Buckley Creek and Caney Branch in Pike county, will be included in the Aug. 20 letting.

The scheduled projects are valued at a total of more than $200 million.

"I'm giving you a chance to call me a liar if these dates are not met," Metts said. "The Transportation Department has more credibility now than ever before. By making the public aware of our plans and schedules, we are building on this credibility."

"The public is our watchdog and our planners. You can tell us what the top road priorities are for your area, and you can tell us when proper maintenance is not being done on state roads," Metts said, referring to the Transportation Department's spring offensive maintenance program in which citizens are urged to report road problems to local highway garages.

Metts said that if 1975 was used as a base year, the Transportation Department's budget has grown only three percent while the rest of state government has grown 120 percent.

"Contrary to some accusations, there have been no disasters. The roads are getting better maintenance, our resurfacing cycle has been reduced from 25 years to 15 years and we will award over $400 million in contracts in 1982," he said.

"We have been able to do this only because there was so much fat and waste in the Transportation Department. For example, by reducing the number of transportation employees by 28 percent, we cut $50 million annually from the department's payroll. After this was done, another $50 million in overhead surfaced. It rained money in our department for awhile," Metts said.

The Kentucky Turnpike authority allotted an estimated $54 million of unused bond money last week for the US 23 work in Johnson and Lawrence.

Of the Big Sandy ADD meeting at which Metts spoke last week, The Paintsville Herald reported:

"Although he made no specific reference to that section (the section of US 23 between Paintsville and Prestonsburg) in his talk, he said later that there still had been no solution found for funding of a new road between those two communities. The part of Route 23 was not included in Appalachian Regional Commission road funds because it was considered up to standards when the corridor plan was made years ago. It has never gone beyond a study of possible new corridors between the two county seats."

FLOYD COUNTY HEALTH NEWS

By JANE BOND Health Educator

Glaucoma is the second leading cause of blindness in the United States; this is a disease which strikes without symptoms. It is for this reason that persons over 35, the high risk age for glaucoma, should be checked regularly for the disease. The Floyd County Health Department is having a glaucoma screening clinic on Friday July 2 which is a free service of the Health Department and is open to persons of all ages, although those over age 35 are especially urged to be screened for the disease.

Cervical cancer kills 11,000 women in the United States each year; this figure should be much lower since cervical cancer is one of the most curable of cancers if it is detected in its earliest stages. The Pap test is a simple painless test which takes only a few moments to perform and could save a woman's life.

The Floyd County Health Department is having a Pap clinic on Wednesday, July 7, from 8:30 until 11:30 and from 1 until 2. This clinic is a free service of the Health Department and any woman who has not had a Pap test in the past year is urged to take advantage of this free service.

Floyd County Family Planning Services will be in The Wheelwright Branch Office of the Health Department on Friday July 2, call 886-2788 or 452-2184 for an appointment.

The Floyd County Health Department will be closed Monday, July 5, in observance of the Fourth of July holiday. The clinic scheduled in Martin at the Beaver Valley Clinic has been cancelled.

Dist. 38 Masons Hold Annual Meet

With Jerome Hicks, District Deputy Grand Master, presiding, District #38, of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, held its annual district educational meeting, June 3, at the J. H. Allen Central High School. James W. Alley Lodge #869 of Wayland was the host Lodge. Master Sammy G. Bentley opened the Lodge at 5 p.m. then recessed for dinner served by the Virginia Spencer Chapter #573 Order of the Eastern Star of Kentucky. After a delicious meal the Lodge was opened on the Master Mason Degree. The meeting was attended by 241 Master Masons representing the 14 Lodges in District #38 which include: Zebulon #273, James W. Alley #3869, Wheelwright #889, John W. Hall #950, Paintsville #381, Flat Gap #616, East Point #657, Chandlersville #858, Van Lear #885, Marion Hale #672, Warfield #882, Thomas C. Cecil #375, Stone #890, and Thomas DeVenny #928.

Grand Lodge officers and distinguished guests introduced by Bruce Scott, acting marshal, were: Kenneth C. Morgan, Grand Master; Marlin White, Deputy Grand Master; H. Kenneth Farley, grand senior warden; Harold W. Downard, grand junior warden; J. C. McClanahan, grand secretary, P.G.M.; John Wesley Hall, past grand master; James Hiram Baxter, grand junior deacon; Joseph Robert Conway, grand marshal; Willie Justice, comm. on youth activities; Dana Howard, comm. on suspensions; Billy Roger Eulett, comm. on publicity; Billy H. Haywood, comm. on Grand Lodge Endowment fund; Tony Combs, D.D.G.M., Dist. #39; William G. Hinton, past Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar; James E. Goble, past D.D.G.M., Dist. #36; Rudolph Spencer, Grand Rep. to Argentina; John Turnley, past D.D.G.M., Dist. #38; Herman Harmon, past D.D.G.M., Dist. #38; Bosh Petry, past D.D.G.M., Dist. #38; Donald E. Hughes, past D.D.G.M., Dist. #38; James O. VanHoose, past D.D.G.M., Dist. #38; Charles T. Halhill, past D.D.G.M., Dist. #38; A. P. Mason, past D.D.G.M., Dist. #45; and Bill Baldridge, past D.D.G.M., Dist. #45. Other than the 14 Lodges in District #38 there were nine visiting lodges represented.

Jerome Hicks, D.D.G.M., would like to thank all members of Dist. #38, especially James W. Alley, for making this year's meeting a success and encourages all members to support the next D.D.G.M. so that all Lodges can better benefit from the enrichment of Masonry.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE SECRETARY at the Prestonsburg Job Corps Center is Missy Allen, wife of Claude Allen, of Hippo. Her parents are Arnold and Nadine Hicks, also of Hippo. Allen was one of the first staff hired at the Center after the contract was awarded to the Singer Company in October, 1980, and she has proven to be one of the Job Corps Center's most valued employees. Her previous work experience was with Mountain Comprehensive Care Center where she was for five years personnel secretary. Her duties at the Job Corps Center include working closely with the center director, and in personnel and purchasing functions.

Air Pollution Hearing Scheduled Tomorrow

The Kentucky Department for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection will hold a public hearing on proposed new and amended air pollution control regulations tomorrow in Frankfort.

The hearing, scheduled for 10 a.m. in the auditorium of the Capital Plaza Tower, will consider nine proposed regulations which are part of Kentucky's State Implementation Plan for attaining and maintaining federal air quality standards.

The regulations are 401 KAR 50:010, 401 KAR 61:005, 015, 020, 075 and 40, 401 KAR 63:010, 401 KAR 59:005 and 010.

The proposed regulations deal with general air pollution control provisions, definitions and abbreviations, new process operations, existing indirect heat exchanges, existing process operations, steel plants and foundries using existing electric arc furnaces, existing by-product coke manufacturing plants and fugitive emissions.

The full text of these regulations is available at Division of Air Pollution Control offices in Owensboro, Bowling Green, Paducah, Henderson, Florence, Hazard, Ashland, Elizabethtown, Lexington, Louisville and Frankfort.

All interested citizens are invited to attend. Oral testimony will be accepted at the hearing. All written comments must be received by July 1, 1982 to be included in the hearing record. Written comments may be sent to the attention of Larry Wilson at Division headquarters in Frankfort.

For additional information on the regulations or the hearing, contact Larry J. Wilson, Development and Evaluation Branch, Division of Air Pollution Control, Kentucky Department for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection, 18 Reilly Road, Frankfort, Ky. 40601, telephone (502) 564-3382.

Named to Special Legislative Work

State Representatives Gregory D. Stumbo (D-Prestonsburg) and Herbert Deskins, Jr. (D-Pikeville) have been named by House Speaker Bobby H. Richardson to serve on special legislative committees.

Richardson announced that Stumbo will serve as Kentucky's representative on the Regulatory Improvement Committee organized by the National Conference of State Legislatures while Deskins has been appointed to a post on the Southern Legislative Conference's Environmental Quality and Natural Resources Conference Committee.

"Greg's service on our Administrative Regulations Review Subcommittee and Herbie's position as chairman of the House Natural Resources and Environment Committee certainly qualify them for the appointments and should stand them in good stead to make valuable contributions to the work of their respective committees," Richardson said.

Stumbo, a two-term legislator, represents the 95th legislative district. In addition to his membership on the Administrative Regulations Review Subcommittee, he serves as vice-chairman of the Energy Committee and as a member of the Judiciary-Civil and Natural Resources and Environment Committees.

Deskins has served as a member of the House since 1976. In addition to his committee chairmanship, he serves on the House Banking and Insurance Committee. He represents the 94th legislative district, in Pike and southern Floyd county.

DAV To Meet Friday

Disabled American Veterans Chapter 18 and the Ladies Auxiliary Unit 18 will hold their regular meeting Friday, July 2, at 7 p.m., and their regular meetings will be on the first and third Fridays of each month in the future.

Any person who has a wheelchair or a hospital bed, walkers, etc. that are no longer needed and would like to donate them to the Disabled American Veterans, Chapter 18, are asked to call Charles Hicks (886-6909), Elmer Hackworth (886-6213) or Millard Hughes (886-2566).

Donate blood.

Dr. Stumbo To Leave Post With State, November 15th

Dr. Grady Stumbo, the former Floyd countian assigned to the biggest single job in state government, confirmed last week Governor John Y. Brown's announcement that he has submitted his resignation as secretary of the Department for Human Resources, effective November 15.

Stumbo said he will spend the remaining five months concentrating on major projects such as medical care for indigent people, medicaid cost containment, implementation of nursing home reform, regionalization of the state's local health departments, and the contract with NKC of Louisville to operate that city's University Hospital.

Responding to reporters' questions, Stumbo said he has not made a decision on whether to run for public office. "I will not make a decision on my political future while I am Secretary of the Department for Human Resources," he said. "After I leave I will have to choose whether I will go back to my medical practice in Eastern Kentucky or become a candidate."

He has been mentioned as a possible candidate for governor.

Stumbo and his friend, State Senator Benny Ray Bailey, founded the nationally recognized East Kentucky Health Services Center in 1971. "That clinic was a dream of ours, an important ambition and something I am very proud of," he said.

His resignation was made five months in advance to provide an opportunity for an orderly transition to a new secretary, Stumbo pointed out. "Also, by November we will have completed the first 90-day implementation of the 1982 General Assembly legislation and phased in the changes in the federal budget which takes effect October 1, 1982."

The Department for Human Resources receives two-thirds of its budget from the federal government and anticipated reductions in those funds are expected to cause cut-backs in programs.

When he announced the resignation Governor Brown praised Stumbo as an "effective, creative manager in hard financial times. He has made an important contribution and has been an outstanding public servant and I thank and congratulate him for the job he's done. I expect him to finish in the next five months with the same energy he has today."

Stumbo's medical background, and experience at his Knott county clinic "have given him an understanding, compassion and sensitivity to be sure that the people who need human services get them effectively," Brown said.

Children Win Awards In Wildlife Contest

More than 100 children from 37 states, Japan and Mexico took awards in this year's annual Ranger Rick's nature magazine contest. The 118 contest winners, who either created a card to honor the American bald eagle or completed a story on bald eagles, were chosen from a field of close to 7,000 entrants. The entries were judged on "creativity, imagination and accuracy of message," according to the National Wildlife Federation, which produces the monthly children's publication.

To coincide with the "Year of the Eagle," which honors the 200th anniversary of the bald eagle's selection as this country's national symbol, this year's contest focused on the American bald eagle. Entrants either created a birthday card for the eagle or wrote a conclusion to an adventure story about eagles. The story and the contest rules were published in the January, 1982, issue of Ranger Rick's nature magazine.

First prize in the birthday card category went to Christine Letsky, 10, of Woodbridge, Va. Christine's fold-out birthday card included a four-stanza poem honoring the eagle.

Michael Buckley, 11, a "lover of all sports" from Marion, Iowa, took second prize for a birthday card that featured a soaring bald eagle with a colorful banner in its talons. Michael's card also featured a poem.

In the essay category, Joel Zamzow, 13, who raises sheep in Portage, Wis., won first prize, and Roger Lianoz, a 12-year-old surf-fisherman from California, took second place. Both of these young writers displayed a creative talent and an unusual understanding of conservation issues, according to the Federation.

First place winners in both categories won 12-day vacations at Ranger Rick's Wildlife Camp in North Carolina. Second place finishers won 35-mm cameras.

Each of the following third-prize winners received a part of 7 x 35 mm binoculars: Michael Johannes, 8, Bly, OR.; Mark Scott, 11, Hillsdale, N.J.; Laura A. Congdon, 13, Horicon, WI; Kristy Huss, 11, Spokane, WA.

Ten fourth-place finishers were awarded bike packs: Joey Boehning, 12, Crestwood, IL; Julie Elston, 8, Kelseyville, CA; Bonnie Freedman, 4, Nashville, TN; Tanya Hoerr, 11, Peoria, IL; Ben Kaleshefski, 9, Winter Garden, FL; Jeffrey Kocur, 9, Mt. Laurel, NJ; Eric Perino, 7, Eugene, OR; Anne Price, 12, Perryville, OH; Erika Leigh Wheaton, 12, Palo Alto, CA; Karen Wight, 11, Ada, OK.

One hundred fifth-place finishers received adjustable Ranger Rick denim caps: James McLeod, 11, Bessemer ALA; Tonya N. Miller, 10, Huntsville; Steve Alderson, 11, Farmington.

To Celebrate 4th Approved Fireworks Precaution Advised

When you think of July 4, you think of fireworks. And, while you're on the subject, you should remember how potentially dangerous fireworks are.

Last year, approximately 11,000 Americans were treated in hospital emergency rooms for fireworks-related injuries. Three-fourths of those injured were under 25 years old.

"People just don't seem to appreciate the risk of playing with fireworks," said state Public Protection and Regulation Cabinet Secretary Tracy Farmer. "To be safe, only approved fireworks should be used and every precaution should be taken."

Approved fireworks have a state fire marshal (SFM) number printed on them. And, according to Jim Klosterman of the State Fire Marshal's Office, state law prohibits the sale of exploding devices.

"Anyone caught selling or possessing an unapproved device faces a possible $1,000 fine," said Klosterman. "We would hope that people enjoy the Fourth only at permitted displays."

To receive a permit for display, a person must apply to his or her local fire department.

State Fire Marshal Gayle Horn added that local fire departments, police departments and state fire marshals will be looking out for anyone who has fireworks without the SFM numbers.

"Hopefully, people simply won't use unapproved fireworks," said Horn. "But if we find someone with dangerous fireworks, we'll confiscate them immediately."

204 Mining Permits Issued During May; 48 In Area Counties

The division of permits in the state Department for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection's Bureau of Surface Mining issued 204 permits during the month of May.

The number and types of permits issued included 130 original permits, 47 revision permits, 27 continuation permits for amendments, renewals permits and succession of existing permits.

Of the total issued 141 were for surface-mining operations, 47 for underground mining operations, 11 for preparation plants and refuse areas and 5 for haul roads.

Permitting activities in May authorized the disturbance of 7,818 new acres of land and resulted in the collection of $416,880 in fees.

Permits issued for mining operations in Floyd and surrounding counties were:

Floyd, 5 surface, 2 underground; Johnson, 5 surface, surface-auger; Knott, 4 surface, 4 underground, 1 surface-auger; Magoffin, 3 surface, 2 underground; Martin, 3 surface, 2 surface-auger, 1 underground; Pike, 3 surface, 12 underground.

... about your Social Security

More than 10,000 Floyd county Social Security beneficiaries will receive a 7.4 percent increase, beginning with the checks received Friday, July 2, according to Jim Kelly, Social Security district director for the Big Sandy area.

"This increase provides over 2½ million dollars a month in Social Security benefits for Floyd county Social Security beneficiaries," Kelly said. "These payments are made to retired or disabled workers and their dependents as well as to surviving dependents in death cases."

"Social Security payments help not only the people that receive the checks, but the 2½ million dollars a month received in Floyd county provides quite a boost for local businesses and the local economy," Kelly added.

"Nearly $7 million dollars a month in Social Security benefits are paid to beneficiaries in the Big Sandy Social Security District, which includes Floyd, Johnson, Pike, Martin and Magoffin counties," Kelly said.

Beneficiaries are reminded to report events, such as changes of address, employment, marriages and other events that could affect their check. "By timely reporting, you can prevent an overpayment that may jeopardize your future checks," Kelly cautioned.

Persons wishing to file an application for benefits should contact the Big Sandy area office located on U.S. 23, between Prestonsburg and Paintsville.

Honored on 90th Birthday

The celebration of Woots Gearheart's 90th birthday June 19 was the occasion for a reunion of family and friends at the home in Scottsburg, Ind. of his daughter, Mrs. Magdalene Weddington. Mr. Gearheart is a native of Hueysville and has spent most of his life in this county.

Attending the gathering in his honor were his son, Hayden; his daughters, Mrs. Weddington, Mrs. Jewel Elliott and Mrs. Christine Sams and their families; his sister, Mrs. Ellen Martin; nieces, Mrs. Amanda Petry, Mrs. Jewel Vanderpool and Mrs. Mada Rutan; old friends from Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Peyton, and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

LEGAL NOTICE

Kentucky Department of Transportation

In accordance with KRS 176.051, Kentucky's noxious weed law, the Department of Transportation will destroy noxious weeds on state-owned right of way at the request of the adjoining property owner.

The noxious weeds named in the law are Johnson grass, giant foxtail, Canada thistles, nodding thistles, and multiflora rose.

Persons who own property adjacent to state right of way and who are involved in eradication efforts on their property can submit a written application to the highway district office in their area. Applications and addresses of each district office will be located at state highway maintenance-garages.

Mandatory Sessions Set For Landfill Operators

Training and certification sessions for Kentucky's sanitary landfill operators have been set by the state Department for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection.

The sessions, which are mandatory for all operators responsible for management and operational decisions at residential and contained landfill sites, will be held at four regional locations.

The sessions' schedule is:
 July 27-29, Western Kentucky University, Bowling Green; August 24-26, Ramada Inn, London; September 21-23, Holiday Inn North, Lexington, and October 26-28, Kentucky Dam Village State Park, Gilbertsville.

The three-day sessions will cover topics which include the Kentucky waste management program, landfill developments and operational considerations. An on-site visit to a landfill and an examination will also be included.

Upon successful completion of the examination, operators will receive certification from the state's Division of Waste Management.

A maximum of 40 participants will be accepted for each session. Division officials urge all affected operators to apply as soon as possible. A registration fee will be charged.

Registration for the session will close on July 14.

For additional information on, or application for, the training session, contact the Operator Certification Program, Division of Waste Management, Kentucky Department for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection, 18 Reilly Road, Frankfort, Ky., 40601; Telephone (502) 564-6716.

ASSEMBLY HEAD IN VISIT

Miriam Rebekah Lodge No. 31 was honored June 22 with a visit from Rebekah Assembly President, Mrs. Lucille Humphrey, of Greenville, Kentucky. She was accompanied by Miss Roma Wilkins, also of Greenville, who is a past president of the Assembly. Others receiving special recognition were Sue Moore, district deputy president, Mabel Jean LeMaster, past president of the Rebekah Assembly of Kentucky, John N. Burchett, past grand marshal and home board member, and James B. Goble, past grand chaplain. Mrs. Effie Hopkins and Mrs. Venelia Rinehart were recognized as 50-year members of Miriam Lodge.

Mrs. Humphrey was welcomed by the noble grand, Virginia Goble, after which she addressed the group and presented her program for the year. She outlined her goals and awards, and urged all lodges to participate in community projects. At the conclusion of her talk she and other guests were presented gifts from the lodge.

Preceding the meeting dinner was served to the following: Lucille Humphrey, Roma Wilkins, Sue Moore, Virginia Goble, Alicia Adkins, Violetta Wright, Mabel Jean LeMaster, Kelly Sue Moore, Hope Whitten, Theckley Short, Paulina Owens, Opal Dingus, Venelia Rinehart, Effie Hopkins, Rebecca Bingham, Verlie Joseph, Nola Stepp, Myrtle Allen, Patsy Leslie, Nancy Duff, Amma Kendrick, Myrtle Jo Potter, Winifred Blackburn, Beatrice Patton, James B. Goble, John N. Burchett, Brian Sexton, Kelly Moore and Ralph Leslie.

The next regular meeting will be July 6 at 7:30 p.m.

Christian Women in Annual Banquet

Bridal gown fashion show, oldest of gowns is 72 years old.

The Holiday Inn of Paintsville recently hosted the "Touch Of Love" banquet sponsored by the Independent Christian Women Fellowship of Floyd county. One hundred seventy-six attended.

Mrs. Alice Skeans, president of the group, gave a brief resume of the banquets. This was the sixth for the area. Mrs. Joan Flannery, of Ashland, gave the toast to mothers and her mother, Shirley Stumbo, of Printer, responded with a toast to daughters. This was complimented by a flute solo by Melody Murr, of Emmalena.

Miss Patricia Watson, of Risner, narrated a fashion show of wedding gowns, the oldest being 72 years old. Those modeling their own gowns were Mrs. Eva Furman, of Stanville, whose gown was 46 years old; Carolyn Burchett, of Red Bush, whose gown was 20 years old; also Sheryl Shepherd, of David, Sharon Fugate, of Pikeville, Patricia Lafferty, of Prestonsburg, Anna Wicker Risner, of Martin, Sandra Kay Travis Ousley, of Pyramid. The 37-year-old gown owned by LaVerne Tromp, of Grand Rapids, Mich., was modeled by Kathy Crum, of Martin. Libby Neeley, of Prestonsburg, modeled the gown of her sister-in-law, Teena Kay Neeley. The gown Lisa Johnson modeled belonged to her mother, Toby Johnson, of Prestonsburg. The gown was 23 years old. Alice Shepherd, of Flat Gap, wore her mother's gown which was 72 years old.

Music for the evening was furnished by the Dick Bowers family, of Sassafras. Piano, guitar, saxophone and accordian music and vocal numbers were included in the music program.

Mrs. Lillian Murr, of Emmalena, was honored as Mother of the Year and also for outstanding Christian service. She is a remarkable Christian who has undergone much illness and discouragement, yet continues to give praise to God for all things. She is a writer, poet, and artist. Miss Barbara Wynsma, who served as mistress of ceremonies, presented the awards to Mrs. Murr. Miss Wynsma was also honored for her 33 years of service in this area, and was presented a silver tray by Mrs. Skeans. She resides at Eastern.

Karen See, of Haiti, the speaker of the evening, urged those attending to "present themselves unto the Lord that they might have the influence in the world that God wanted them to have..." Mrs. See, who has been a sought-after speaker since she has been in the states, returns with her family to Haiti next month. She is a graduate of a School of Nursing, Detroit Bible College, and linguistic school in Quebec, Canada.

All decorations were made by the women of the sponsoring group, The Independent Christian Women's Fellowship of Hunter. Later in the evening, the dolls were awarded to Mrs. Bessie Spears for her 50th wedding anniversary this month; Mrs. Sherry Fugate, who was the newest bride; Mrs. Grace Clark for having the most daughters present; Mrs. Freda Willoughby for being married the longest, 69 years; also to Darcie See, Evelyn Clark, Durdra Robinson, Rhonda Wicker, Irene Conn, Gusta McCarty, Christine Furman and Shelly Hale.

Out-of-state guests were Mrs. Joanna Holmquist, Grand Rapids, Mich., Mrs. Julie Klint, Sawyer, Mich., Mrs. Dolly Maser, Lindenhurst, N.Y., Mrs. Lara Dunameyer, Monongahela, Pa., and Karen and Darcy See, of Haiti.

(For any information about the sponsoring organization, which meets monthly, call 285-3381.)

State Approves
$1 Million Loan
Sought by May

A $1 million bond issue to allow a Pikeville businessman to buy Lexington's WTKC-AM won approval last week from the state Industrial Revenue Bond Oversight Committee.

Walter May, formerly of Prestonsburg, who owns WPKE-AM and WDRH-FM in Pikeville, had sought the tax-exempt bonds to enable him to buy the financially struggling country music station. The Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government approved the bond issue earlier.

WTKC, an NBC affiliate operating at 1300 on the AM dial, has been involved in a bankruptcy action in federal court. May said he needed the bond issue to enable him to buy the station from Wendell and Donna Triplett, of Bellefontaine, Ohio.

May said that the station would go bankrupt if he were unable to buy it and that city would lose one of its three AM radio stations.

May told the Urban County Government at the time of the bond request that he planned to pay $1.1 million for the radio station property, near Greendale and Sandersville Pike in north Fayette county. The amount includes the bond issue and $100,000 in his own money.

Coloradans Came a Long Way To Work—and They Enjoyed It

"Working on the house was our one consistent work project during our week of Bible study in Drift. It's hard to believe that anyone could have so much fun cleaning house," but because it has been a sharing experience it has been that much more enjoyable," Karen Peters (above) said of her visit to Drift.

NOTICE OF PASSAGE AND SUMMARY OF ORDINANCE

The Fiscal Court of the County of Floyd, Kentucky, on June 28, 1982, enacted at second reading an Ordinance entitled:

ORDINANCE OF THE FISCAL COURT OF FLOYD COUNTY, KENTUCKY, RELATING TO AND APPROVING AN INDUCEMENT CONTRACT BETWEEN THE COUNTY AND FIRST PRESTONSBURG BANKSHARES, INC., A KENTUCKY CORPORATION, IN WHICH THE COUNTY AGREES TO FINANCE THE CONSTRUCTION OF AN ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT BUILDING PROJECT FOR FIRST PRESTONSBURG BANKSHARES, INC. ON A TRACT OF LAND LOCATED ON NORTH ARNOLD AVENUE BETWEEN U. S. 23 AND THE RIVER IN THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG IN FLOYD COUNTY, THROUGH THE ISSUANCE BY THE COUNTY OF APPROXIMATELY $6,500,000 OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT REVENUE BONDS, FOR THE PURPOSE OF CREATING ADDITIONAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES IN SAID COUNTY; DECLARING THAT THE PROPOSED PROJECT IS DESIGNED FOR THE REVITALIZATION OR REDEVELOPMENT OF THE DOWNTOWN BUSINESS DISTRICT IN PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY; AND AUTHORIZING THE BEGINNING OF CONSTRUCTION OF SAID PROJECT PRIOR TO THE ISSUANCE OF SAID BONDS, WITH SAID COMPANY PAYING FOR SAME AND TO BE REIMBURSED OUT OF THE PROCEEDS OF SAID BONDS FOR ALL COSTS ADVANCED BY THE COMPANY TOWARD THE COST OF THE PROJECT.

Said Ordinance:
 A. Authorizes the execution of an Inducement Contract between the County of Floyd, Kentucky, and First Prestonsburg Bankshares, Inc., which Contract contemplates that the County shall issue approximately $6,500,000 of County of Floyd Economic Development Revenue Bonds for the purpose of financing the costs of construction of a new economic development project (the "Project") on a tract of land of approximately three acres, located on Arnold Avenue between U. S. 23 and the River in the County, which Project would be operated by First Prestonsburg Bankshares, Inc. (the "Company"), in Floyd County.

B. Authorizes and directs the County Judge/Executive and other appropriate County officials to take any action as may be necessary to carry out the intent of the Ordinance;

C. Provides that the proceeds of the Bonds shall be lent by the County to the Company, which will agree to make loan payment to the County sufficient to pay all principal and interest requirement on the Bonds; that the Bonds shall not constitute a general obligation of the County and shall be payable only from the revenues of the Project (including the loan payments to be made by the Company); and that the County shall have no expense in connection with the Project or in connection with the issuance of the Bonds, as provided in the Inducement Contract; and

D. Provides that the Ordinance and the Inducement Contract shall be effective to the maximum extent permitted by law upon publication of a Notice of Passage and Summary of Ordinance.

(Signed) C. OLLIE ROBINSON,
 County Clerk

11.

Drift, Kentucky was a long way from home for 37 Coloradans, but it was their decision to spend a week there recently, painting, cutting weeds, mowing lawns and repairing one resident's home.

As part of the youth ministry at Montview Presbyterian Church in Denver, the young people, grades 9-12, are required to participate in a work trip every summer. The Presbyterian office in New York mails a brochure of work opportunities in the United States each year. The youth at Montview had three choices for their work trip this summer—an area in California, one in Chicago, or at Drift. Everyone decided on Drift because most of them had never been to the eastern part of the United States.

Monday, June 14, the 37 travelers from Colorado climbed the "99 steps" to Pikeville College to unload their baggage in the college dormitories, which was to be their home base.

For their week's visit the group had organized a basic recreational program which included group games, group singing, recreation, tutoring sessions, Bible study, and work projects. As Harriet Isbell, director of Christian Education at Montview and one of the adult chaperones, put it, "We care about people. These work trips give us experience in working with people; it's a mission opportunity."

After the group arrived in Drift and found their way to the community's small Presbyterian Church, they discovered that there had been no publicity on their week of Bible study. The first day brought out 18, but after two days of going door-to-door and spreading the word, their enrollment grew to 33 by the end of the week.

They began each day at 9 a.m. with a recreation period which lasted until 11:30 a.m. This time involved group games and group singing, art projects, playing ball and watching cartoons rented by the group. Each child was assigned a teenager buddy and after lunch they spent this time walking, talking and in tutoring sessions. If the child needed help in reading, writing or math, their "buddy" provided the assistance. From 1 p.m. until dinner the Montview youth were assigned work projects at homes of people in the community. They cut weeds, mowed lawns, cleaned yards, painted, etc.

Repairing a family's small, rundown home was the group's major project, although lesser jobs were completed. The living room of the home was freshly painted and the windows cleaned, as were the two bedrooms. In the kitchen, the entire ceiling had been replaced. A small child was standing on a chair in the bathroom cleaning out the medicine cabinet with members of the group cleaning the floor, bath tub and windows.

The Welfare Department was scheduled to inspect the home, the following week. This family of four children, living on food stamps, would receive a specified amount of money each month to live on if their home passed the inspection.

On three occasions members of the work party spent the night in the church at Drift, sleeping in sleeping bags on the floor with two showers to accommodate 37 people.

Several of the children, they discovered, were craving something to do with their time; they were bored. They needed to hear positive things about themselves. The program that the Montview group prepared for them during their week's visit met the children's needs. When the week was near a close, one little boy stood up and said, "What will I do when you leave? I won't have anything to do!"

Before embarking on Montview Presbyterian Church's 32nd work trip the students raised $4,000 and contributed $50 each. For an entire week they gave of themselves in every possible way the could, believing that love isn't love until you give it away.

Revenue Dept. Now a Cabinet

The state Revenue Department became the Revenue Cabinet, July 1. Cabinet status will properly recognize the critical importance of revenue collections to state government, Gov. Brown said. The department now collects more than $2 billion annually from the state's 43 taxes. "That's where it should be," Brown said, because of the importance of maintaining close supervision over fluctuations in revenue collections. The governor also said that he wanted to recognize the superb job done by Ron Geary since his appointment as Revenue Commissioner last November. Brown said that Geary, a 34-year-old attorney and certified public accountant, will be named Revenue Secretary under the reorganization. Currently, Geary serves as a member of the Governor's Cabinet. Geary said that the Department of Property Taxation will assume the duties of supervising the administration of state and local property tax administration, including intangibles taxation, from the former Property Valuation Division. The new Department of Processing and Enforcement will provide data services, conduct field audits, collect delinquent taxes and provide taxpayer assistance. The Department of Professional and Support Services will provide legal services, audit review and protest resolution, tax policy advice, fiscal and personnel administration, word processing services and management analysis. Also created was an Office of Revenue Estimating and Economic Analysis which will be headed by an executive director, Geary said.

More Formaldehyde Facts

The role of formaldehyde in hypersensitivity disorders and some of the dangers posed by the widely-used chemical, especially within the home environment, was touched on in an article which appeared in last week's edition of The Times. The problem is not restricted to any one area of the country—it is nationwide, although awareness of the potential hazards of inhalation of the chemical's fumes or absorption through contact, varies dramatically from region to region and even, state to state. The following article is meant to serve as more of a fact list, with information derived from U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission statistics and other sources.

The Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) points out in a formaldehyde "Alert Sheet" that consumers are most likely to be exposed to formaldehyde from products such as urea formaldehyde foam insulation, plywood, particle board and chip board, although CPSC has also received complaints concerning carpet, drapes, clothing and newsprint. Some of these, it is pointed out, may release formaldehyde gas, especially when the product is exposed to heat and humidity. Some other products in which the chemical is used includes: cotton clothing and fabrics, including permanent press garments, carpeting, paper products such as grocery bags, wax paper, facial tissue, plastic parts in some appliances and mildew prevention chemicals. Small amounts are in a multitude of other products, including shampoos, cosmetics, and toothpaste.

Identifying formaldehyde on the contents label of products (when such contents are listed) can be confusing since there are a number of alternate names for formaldehyde and formaldehyde containing chemicals. Formaldehyde may, for example, be listed as any one of the following ingredients: BFU, Fannoform, Formalin, Foralith, Formolaldehyde, Formol, Fyde, Ivalon, Karsan, Lysoform, Methylene oxide, Methyl aldehyde, Methanal, Morbicid, Oxomethane, Oxymethylene, Paraform and Superlysoform. Preservatives containing formaldehyde in cosmetics include Dowicil 200r and Bronopol R.

Although some common symptoms of formaldehyde poisoning were mentioned in the earlier article, the CPSC includes the following as health complaints related to the chemical which they have received: severe breathing difficulties, eye irritation and impaired vision, rashes, chronic headaches, nausea and vomiting, swollen lymphatic glands and mononucleosis-type symptoms, heart palpitations and chest pains, insomnia and irritability, swollen joints, "colds" and flu-like symptoms, fever and chills, neurological disorders, lumbos syndrome, sun sensitivity, nose bleeds, cancer and in extreme cases, death.

The CPSC points out that "Formaldehyde is a strong sensitizer, which means that the sensitized individual may experience increasingly severe reactions to very low concentrations of formaldehyde." Such sensitization "presents serious problems since formaldehyde is used in the manufacture of many common consumer products."

Although the findings on formaldehyde exposure seem alarming enough, it would certainly be a mistake to assume that any of the symptoms listed herein should necessarily be ascribed to contact with the chemical. However, the CPSC recommends that home testing be carried out if there is reason to believe that formaldehyde may be causing persistent health pro-

Farm & Home Store Here To Host 1982 Cooperative Meet

Election of Advisory Board and Farm Home Advisory Committee members, as well as operations reports, will be among the highlights of the Southern States Cooperative's annual membership meeting July 9 at the Prestonsburg Farm & Home Store, the meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m.

Theme of the meeting will be, "Cooperation—Strategy for Success." The business session will be preceded by a potluck supper, with each family bringing vegetable and one salad or dessert dish. Meat, bread and drinks will be furnished.

Rondel Prater, of Hueysville, will serve as chairman of the local meeting.

John F. McCallister of Barbourville, a member of the Southern States Cooperative's regional staff, will report on Southern States supply and marketing operations for the 1981-82 fiscal year.

Local operations and services rendered to agriculture in the community will be discussed by store manager, Kenneth Meade.

Special recognition of local board and Farm Home Advisory Committee members who retire this year will be given.

Nominees for the local board are Eddie Akers, Harold, Charles Hicks, Blue River; Donald Hicks, Prestonsburg; Ernest Prater, David.

Farm Home Advisory Committee nominees are: Mrs. Audrey Cline, Mrs. Norma Stepp, Prestonsburg; Mrs. Patsy Leslie, Emma; Mrs. Syrdla Martin, Hueysville.

Another feature of the meeting will be a "Share-A-Craft" display arranged by the FHAC Committee. Members are being urged to bring handmade crafts for display.

blems. It is also advisable, according to CPSC, to ventilate the home by opening windows and doors and using air conditioners to try to reduce odor problems.

A large body of information has been collected on the formaldehyde problem and groups have organized to enhance public awareness of potential dangers and fight for legislation to restrict the chemical. As a result, consumers do have a number of places to turn. The CPSC is particularly interested in being notified about any health or safety problems arising from formaldehyde, especially where the chemical in the air has been measured. The organization may be contacted by writing U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, Washington, D.C. 20207, or by calling the toll-free hotline, 800-638-8326. The Atlanta Regional Office of CPSC, which serves Kentucky and eight other southeastern states may be contacted by writing: Consumer Product Safety Commission, 1330 West Peachtree Street, N.W., Atlanta, Ga. 30309 or calling 404-881-2231.

One group, Save Us From Formaldehyde Environmental Repercussions (SUFFER), has a coordinator in Pike county: Charlotte Scott, 142 Joes Creek Rd., Pikeville, Ky. 41505, or phone 437-7591.

Additional information and consultation is available through the above agencies.

West Garrett's Housing Project Wins Approval

Congressman Carl D. Perkins announced Monday that a block grant of $487,000 has been made by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development for housing improvement at West Garrett.

The program thus funded is the second in the county. The first and larger project of the kind has been under way at Wheelwright since 1980.

The new work, known as the West Garrett Rural Neighborhood Improvement Project, will involve the rehabilitation of 37 dwellings over a period of 18 months.

The Floyd fiscal court is scheduled to do street improvement work there, and the office of the Floyd County Urban Renewal Agency at Wheelwright, headed by Anna Jean Tackett, said an effort will be made to correct the community's sewage disposal problem. Septic tanks, the only sanitation facility there that helps keep raw sewage out of nearby Right Beaver Creek, are inadequate.

Funds for the work are expected to be available around Sept. 1. In the past, HUD administered funds it generated for such projects, but financing for the West Garrett work will be administered by the state. The Local Development Corp., a non-profit organization that is an offshoot of Urban Renewal, will do some of the rehabilitation work, it was said.

Softball Tournament, Display of Fireworks Local Holiday Fare

Although no greasy pig or hog callin' contests are expected to be scheduled, there will be a few things to get out into for folks wanting to celebrate the Fourth of July in Prestonsburg.

A carnival, the James H. Drew Shows, which was set up Monday at Archer Park, will remain through Sunday, and the park pools and other facilities will also be open to the public during this time.

To add to the festivities, the ball fields at Archer Park will be the site of constant activity, beginning Thursday with the opening games of the 12th annual Fourth of July Men's Softball Tournament. Including 20 of the best teams in Eastern Kentucky, from Hazard to Ashland, games will begin at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday and Friday, and 10 a.m. Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Floyd County Softball League Commissioner Bill R. Collins called the tournament "the biggest Fourth of July tournament in Eastern Kentucky."

The city's annual fireworks display will begin at about 10 p.m. from the hillside opposite Archer Park (best viewing is from right-of-way of Mt. Parkway in park area). City Manager David Evans stressed that, although the same amount of money had been spent on this year's fireworks as last, the number of fireworks was down for the upcoming display, a result, he said, of inflation.

Did Not Take Part In Rescue Effort

A spokesman for the Floyd County Emergency & Rescue Squad this week requested that The Times point out that the rescue squad did not participate in any way in the emergency call which resulted in connection with the accidental death, last Tuesday, of young David Gibson, of Prestonsburg, as reported in The Times.

BROWN SPARKS PAINTSVILLE WIN

Roy Brown allowed just four hits and struck out eight as Paintsville defeated Bluefield 5-1 in Appalachian League baseball Sunday at Bluefield.

First Birthday

Architect Offers Help In P'burg Sidewalk Work

Planning of major sidewalk renovation in downtown Prestonsburg, from the postoffice to First Avenue, which has been talked for more than a year, came nearer reality at Monday night's meeting of the Prestonsburg City Council with the announcement that William J. Miller, Cincinnati architect-planner, had offered to contribute his time as a collaborating architect in the preparation of Street Scape Design drawings.

Miller, who has worked extensively in this area, primarily in the employ of Prestonsburg banker, H. D. Fitzpatrick, Jr., stated in a May 20 letter to Councilman Estill Lee Carter that he is "more than prepared to contribute my time" and asked only that his firm be reimbursed for the actual costs of travel, lodging, telephone communications and printing and reproduction costs.

Miller pointed out that he had spoken with Ted Nairn, of Prestonsburg, and indicated he would welcome his participation as engineer, "particularly in the area of the street lighting and related underground utilities."

City Manager David Evans said the plan envisions paving and widening of sidewalks with the removal of the tangle of overhead wires which crisscross Court street. He stressed that the work is still in the planning stage and that funding for the project is not yet certain.

In other business, council moved to advertise for bids on a new truck for the sanitation department. The action came following a statement by Evans that the department's two trucks, 1976 and '77 models, "were in almost daily need of repair."

In executive session, the council reinstated Ricky Davis to his former position as sergeant with the Prestonsburg Fire Department. Davis suffered a serious head injury while on the job, January 2, 1980, and was reinstated after council reviewed medical reports that indicated he is fit to resume his duties as firefighter.

July Fourth Softball Tournery Begins Friday

Twenty of the best softball teams from Eastern Kentucky will be featured in the 12th annual Archer Park July 4th Softball Tournament which is scheduled to begin at the park here, Thursday at 6:30 p.m. Friday's games will begin at the same time, while Saturday and Sunday's games will begin at 10 a.m. as well as the tournery finals, Monday.

We all know someone who says, "If I even smell a piece of chocolate cake, I gain a pound." They could be telling the truth, says the June Reader's Digest. Two men and their daughters who set out from Maine in Memorial Day to cross the Atlantic in a 38-foot sailboat have arrived in Cork, Ireland.

Finally, an Adequate Sign

Prestonsburg street department workmen Robert Hurd (left), and Tom Wright are pictured last week as they worked on the block pedestal of a new sign at the southern entrance to Jenny Wiley State Park (intersection of old U.S. 23 and Water Gap Road). The sign, which was provided by the park and erected about a month ago by state Department of Highways personnel, represents the first time in the history of the park that the frequently used access to Jenny Wiley has been adequately marked by a permanent and aesthetically pleasing sign. Prestonsburg provided the materials and workmen for the sign's base and flowers will be planted later to further enhance the marker, it was said.

Miss Bishop, Mr. Gunnell To Wed in Columbus

Mrs. Patsy Krywick, of Columbus, Ohio, announces the forthcoming marriage of her daughter, Deborah Jean Bishop, to Dennis Gordon Gunnell, of Columbus, Ohio, on July 3.

The outdoor wedding will be held at 1031 Richter Road, Columbus Ohio, at 2 p.m., and the custom of open church will be observed. Miss Bishop is a receptionist at Huntington National Bank of Columbus. She graduated from Central High School of Columbus Ohio. Mr. Gunnell graduated from Mifflin High School and is now employed by Kyrion Tool and Die, of Columbus, Ohio. After their honeymoon in Kentucky, they will be residing in Columbus. Mr. Gunnell is the grandson of Mrs. James Gunnell, of Emma.

CARMAKERS ARE EXPECTED TO BUILD 203,000 TRUCKS

The major U.S. automakers will build an estimated 203,000 trucks this month, the first time since October 1979 that they have passed the 200,000 mark, an industry trade journal reports.

Drift Man Remains Jailed Here After Stabbing Incident

Yet in jail here is Garland Snyder, 47, of Drift, charged with first-degree assault after the June 20 stabbing of 17-year-old Allen R. Case, also of Drift.

The youth's condition was described as "stable" after he had undergone abdominal surgery. Snyder is accused of stabbing Case during an argument which arose while the two were in Snyder's car. Case was the driver, it was said.

Another Left Beaver man, Tom Martin, 59, of Printer, was taken to Highlands Regional Medical Center here after he had been shot in his leg by a shotgun charge allegedly fired by his sister, Chaddie Martin Dingus, last Thursday. State Police said the shot followed a dispute. No formal charge had been placed against Mrs. Dingus.

Fifty-two Vietnamese refugees arrived yesterday in Nagoya, central Japan, aboard a tanker that rescued them in the South China Sea, the Nagoya Immigration Office said.

FLOYD COUNTY PLANNER
 MALCOM D. LAYNE
 COURT HOUSE ANNEX
 PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY 41653

June 28, 1982

606/886-9193 OFFICE
 606/478-9221 RESIDENCE

TO: ALL THE PEOPLE OF FLOYD COUNTY, COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY

This is an open letter to all the people of Floyd County.

As you know, I have resigned as your Floyd County Planner, effective July 5, 1982. In order that there be no misunderstanding as to why I have taken this action, I am having the Floyd County Times of Prestonsburg, to publish in its 30th day of June, 1982, issue this open letter, and a copy of my letter of resignation.

I want to thank Floyd County Judge Executive Jerry Lafferty, Jr., the Floyd Fiscal Court, and all of you for the kindness, help, and support that you have given me during my tenure of service as your Floyd County Planner.

Sincerely yours,

Malcom D. Layne

Malcom D. Layne, Planner
 Floyd County, Commonwealth of Kentucky

County Judge Executive, Jerry Lafferty, Jr.
 Floyd Fiscal Court, Courthouse Annex
 Prestonsburg, Kentucky

Dear Judge Lafferty and Members of the Floyd Fiscal Court.

I want to thank you for the confidence and trust you have shown in me by appointing me to and allowing me to serve in the position of Floyd County Planner for the past six months. I brought a philosophy of service to all the People of Floyd County with efficient, responsive, responsible and honest government dedicated to increasing the standard of living of all the citizens of Floyd County by creating an economic atmosphere of financial security, educational opportunity, moral well being and physical safety. Judge Lafferty, you and the Court have shared this with me, in the directions that I was given by you in the setting of goals for this county.

I want to report to you that planning is underway for a County Wide Sewer System, a cheap efficient County Wide Solid Waste System, a County Wide Water System, a County Wide Ambulance Service, a Convention Center for the Floyd County Park, located at Allen, renovation of the Golf Course at the Floyd County Park, a Park on Right Beaver Creek with a community swimming pool, a concrete, steel, two lane bridge spanning the Big Sandy River at Ivel, a Mountain Top Airport Facility for Eastern Kentucky located in Floyd County, a Rock Quarry with Crusher and Blacktopping Plant to aid the financially ill Floyd County Highway Program and a new Floyd County Highway Maintenance Facility.

Also within the past six months I have worked diligently in finalizing the obtaining, along with Anna Jean Tackett of the Floyd County Urban Renewal Community Development Agency, a $500,000.00 Community Development Block Grant to rehabilitate thirty-seven houses in West Garrett, titled West Garrett Rural Neighborhood Improvement Project; with Julia May, Executive Director and Ron Reynolds, Chairman of the Floyd County Housing Authority approximately 2.3 million dollars in housing units for low income housing, consisting of thirteen buildings located at Warco on Right Beaver Creek; $400,000.00 in Industrial Revenue Bonds for an office complex in downtown Prestonsburg being developed by the law firm of Combs and Combs, Prestonsburg; $100,000.00 in grant funds for the Auxier Community Park at Auxier, Kentucky; $29,500.00 grant funds from the Corps of Engineers to the Floyd County Sheriff's Office for patrol of the highways located within Jenny Wiley State Park; $13,200.00 grant funds from the Department of Human Resources of the Commonwealth of Kentucky for the operation of the Juvenile Detention Center in Floyd County Courthouse Annex; and approximately $4,500.00 total grants, shared equally between Left Beaver Rescue Squad, Auxier Fire Department, Maytown Fire Department, Mud Creek Fire Department, Martin Fire Department and the Allen Fire Department, Wayland Fire Department, Southeast Floyd County Fire Department, and the Betsy Layne Fire Department.

I have obligations to my mother and brother and personal goals which are now putting a greater demand upon my time and energies than I had when you entrusted the job of Floyd County Planner to me. As a consequence I can no longer serve you and all the People of Floyd County in the manner in which you deserve and demand. Therefore, with a heavy heart, I am hereby resigning my position with the Floyd County Fiscal Court as County Planner effective July 5, 1982.

I am also resigning my position on the Floyd County Urban Renewal Community Development Board and Big Sandy Juvenile Detention Board effective the same date. I will continue to serve in the appointment by you, Judge Lafferty, and Prestonsburg Mayor Harold Cooley to the Big Sandy Area Development District Board. Also I will be available, at no charge for my services and at no cost, to advise the Floyd County Fiscal Court and you Judge Lafferty on any matter in which you may choose to consult with me. Likewise, I will work with the Court and your appointees in any of the positions that I have held in making an effective, efficient and smooth transition in the change in the administration of the positions I have held.

I will continue to serve all the People of Floyd County in any capacity in which I may be needed now or in the future, but at this time I have to fulfill personal obligations to myself that I have made and the obligations I have made to my family. I have enjoyed working for all the Citizens of Floyd County and the rewards of the accomplishments that all the People of Floyd County have received during the past six months through the leadership of you, County Judge Executive Jerry Lafferty, Jr., and the Floyd Fiscal Court.

Sincerely and Respectfully submitted,
 MALCOM D. LAYNE, Planner
 Floyd County, Commonwealth of Kentucky

THE TEACHER-SALARY QUESTION

Mr. O. J. Jones, assistant superintendent of public instruction, has apparently lost his conception of practical school work for this county in the mist of educational idealism.

In brief, Mr. Jones insists that the minimum monthly salary be placed at sixty dollars, with additional pay being made for high school, college and other work.

It is obvious, therefore, that he knows little of conditions in Floyd county. He should have more first-hand information.

Mr. Jones should know that this county cannot at this time depend upon college men to form its teaching corps.

Too, he should know that some of the finest teachers in this county—indeed, the greater number of the tried-and-true veterans of the profession—have had little or no college work.

And, moreover, Mr. Jones should give earnest consideration to the fact that few of these old teachers will continue the labor of years for only sixty-five or seventy dollars a month.

We hold no brief for antiquated standards of education; but, knowing Floyd county as we do, we are constrained to remind those not so familiar with this section that this county is not Jefferson county or Fayette. Our problems are different.

To all those fine, young women and men who have studied in high school and college the better to fit themselves to serve as teachers, and who have emerged from those institutions of learning with the clean record of having worked hard and each with the strong support of a sterling character, fit to guide little children—to these we extend greetings and offer praise.

It will do no harm to hope for the day when such teachers will be available in Floyd county. Let us not, however, permit ourselves to forget those veterans who have worked faithfully and well so many years almost as a labor of love, so little have they received for what they have given.

DEATH THE INEXORABLE

James Oliver Curwood, the writer, died Saturday at the age of forty-nine. . . . Died less than a year after his article, "I Shall Live To Be One Hundred Years Old," was published in Cosmopolitan Magazine.

Curwood, virile man of the great north woods, in the prime of life, succumbed to an infection caused by an insect bite. He died when not yet abreast the half-way mark of the century-long life he firmly believed and declared would be his.

There are those who will sermonize upon the trick fate played Curwood, from the angle that man has not his life in his own hands alone—that death comes to all alike and often when least expected.

On the other hand, it may be observed that, reckoned as the average mortal lives, Curwood's life was easily a hundred years in length. This may be judged from his career as a novelist, indefatigable worker and ardent nature-worshiper.

Curwood failed of reaching the age of one hundred years as we reckon time by the calendar. But, if time were calculated by human achievement, many graybeards would die in infancy, while such as James Oliver Curwood and the workers of the world would be noted for longevity.

A HOUSECLEANING NEEDED

Judge J. G. Forester, of the Harlan circuit court, commands the attention and the respect of every Kentuckian who believes in justice and honesty by his instructions to the Harlan grand jury now in session to investigate election fraud in that county.

The Harlan jurist's instructions to the grand jury form a scathing editorial in themselves against dirty politics, and may be applied to conditions which existed in this county during the recent primary. The instructions follow in part:

"You will have plenty of proof of repeaters, of vote buying, vote selling and every violation known to the election laws. You have a right to call the secretary and treasurer of every coal company in this county to ascertain if they contributed money to any candidate. It is a violation for any corporation to contribute money to a candidate.

"There are no sore spots on me, but the time has come to call a halt. Let us turn over a new leaf and give the people of this county the opportunity to believe that money is not the measure of merit in seeking office.

"Conditions are getting worse, and if they are ever expected to get better, now is the time to start. Some men voted five or six times, were hauled from precinct to precinct. Indict them and the man who hauled them. It is the will of this court that you indict for election violations, without fear or favor high or low, to the end that a righteous institution shall not be dragged in the dirt by men who have winked and scoffed at the law."

Floyd county's political arena is a veritable Augean stable, and a Hercules of justice is needed to clean it. Vote-sellers in this county once were disfranchised. A repetition of this, with the buyers coming in for their share of punishment, would not be amiss.

No injustice should be wrought, no partiality shown. It should all be done for the betterment of the county, that the infamous traffic in human rights be eradicated and that the privilege of expressing their wishes through the ballot may be secured beyond theft to the voters of this county.

KENTUCKY PROVIDES FREE EDUCATION FOR SIGHTLESS

Miss Florence L. Lewis, of Louisville, was here Wednesday, making inquiries in order to ascertain the number and addresses of blind children living in this county.

In line with other progressive states, Kentucky is doing its part for the education and industrial improvement of its sightless children, and maintains at public expense the Kentucky School for the Blind, at Louisville, which ranks among the best of such institutions in this country and is recognized the world over for the high standard it has sustained for over three-quarters of a century of its existence, it being a pioneer in the work of educating the blind.

Strange as it may appear, that although the state has provided so liberally for their education without cost in an institution of such excellence, conducted by an efficient corps of teachers and equipped with every appliance for the work, a problem that has always been confronted has been the fact that only about half of the blind children in Kentucky are taking advantage of the great opportunity afforded them to receive a splendid education and become self-sustaining. It is to meet these conditions, that the press and public are urged to cooperate in a movement to bring into the school for the coming session the full quota of blind children.

The Kentucky School for the Blind is not to be confounded with an asylum or hospital for the treatment of defective eyes, it being in the strictest sense a public school for those denied attendance at the ordinary schools. From the kindergarten to the graduating class, the same high educational standard prevails, and in addition, the boys are taught several lines of industrial work and the girls, domestic science and needlework, in which amazing progress has been made by the pupils.

Every blind child in Kentucky, or any child whose sight is so weak as to prevent it from attending an ordinary school, can get a free education at the Kentucky School for the Blind. There is no charge for board, tuition or books.

The school session is from the second Wednesday of September to the second Wednesday of June, and the children all go to their homes for the summer vacation.

There are separate schools for the white children and for the colored children, some distance apart, each with its own set of teachers. The state has endeavored to make these schools everything they should be for the education, health and comfort of the blind children of Kentucky. The buildings are large and beautifully situated and filled with every possible device for the training of the blind and the teachers are the best that can be had.

To get a child into the school it is only necessary to write to the superintendent of the school, the name of the child and its age, the name of its parents and their postoffice address, and to state whether the child has a sound mind and is free from disease. Upon receipt of such information, an application blank will be gladly furnished.

Address letters to Clifford B. Martin, Superintendent, Kentucky School for the Blind.

BE PROPERLY EQUIPPED FOR OUTDOOR FUN

Better take along a Remington .22 calibre rifle when you're getting ready for an auto trip, a fishing or camping trip, or a day in the country. Unless you've already tried it you've no idea how much fun a snappy little Remington Autoloader, Repeater or Single-Shot will add.

Though small in calibre, these guns are just as fine in construction and as deadly accurate as the high-powered big-game rifles that have made the name Remington famous for more than a century.

Immortality of Folk Songs.

What does it matter who write the laws or rule the people of earth's governments? Laws and rulers change. But some of the song of peoples do not change—the simple, home melodies which stir the heart to throbbing with tender emotion.

For ages these songs have been born from the souls of inspired, and often obscure and unknown poets, who touched the strings of Apollo's golden harp with modest, trembling fingers, translating from vibrations of harmony all that the soul can feel and realize of love and hope, and tenderness.

Faintly these songs fall on the ear from the ancient Grecian land, from the fierce Northern coasts, from the tropic expanses—and always they tell of the simple dreams and inspirations of the masses of men—always they outlive oratorical and noble scores, as Sappho's songs have outlived the Hellenic choruses; even as "Annie Laurie" may outlive the majestic harmonies of the "Messiah."

America has its folk songs, and none of them are sweeter, nor shall be more enduring than those left us by Stephen Foster. Some of these the other day stirred the air of the Blue Ridge Mountains when was dedicated to the memory of this poet a bronze tablet, the gift of the Asheville Central Labor Union, at Fletcher, North Carolina, at the old Calvary Church, in the presence of a representative gathering from the North and South.

With swelling heart these men and women sang "Old Black Joe," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Swanee River," "Massa's in de Cold, Cold Ground," with a fervor born of deep emotion.

Stephen Collins Foster was perhaps, the most typical among the writers of Southern melodies. His fame is secure. He ranks with the homely minstrels of many lands who left to posterity a deathless heritage of heart songs. It is well that a united people should pay tribute to his memory, as was done the other day at Fletcher, in the heart of the region he assisted to immortalize.

AGED WOMAN PASSES AWAY

Ms. Frankie Hall, widow of Henry Hall, died Monday at the home of her son on Bull Creek, about a mile above here, as the result of neuralgia of the heart. Death came suddenly, though after a protracted illness.

Mrs. Hall was about 80 years old, and was a member of a pioneer family of this section. She was born and reared on Beaver Creek, and before her marriage to Henry Hall, who died 24 years ago, she was Miss Frankie Caudill. She had lived with her son on Bull Creek for several years.

The deceased was a member of the Baptist Church for many years, and was highly venerated by all who knew her.

Surviving her are 11 children, five daughters and six sons. The following of her sons live near here: Nelson, Mingo, Reuben and Rev. Will Hall, Lee and Jarvey Hall, two others of her sons, live in the West. Names of her daughters were unavailable.

E. P. Arnold and Company, funeral directors, were in charge of the burial, which was made Tuesday on Bull Creek. Brief services were conducted from the home, and the funeral will be conducted later.

Dirty Politics Cause Of Childress' Resignation

Incensed at the manner in which the recent primary election was conducted in Pike county, Judge J. E. Childress, of the Pike-Letcher judicial district, offered his resignation to Gov. W. J. Fields in a letter written August 11.

Governor Fields in turn appointed Willis Staton, Pikeville attorney, to succeed Judge Childress. Mr. Staton will assume office August 22, and will conduct court in both Pike and Letcher counties before the judge to be elected from that district at the November election takes office.

Judge Childress, a Democrat, was elected six years ago by a large majority from a Republican stronghold. He is one of the most popular and capable jurists in the state.

In submitting his resignation, Judge Childress stated, "I feel there was a good deal of theft committed in the primary and that I would be handicapped in investigating it. Three hundred votes were stolen in one precinct and there was theft in other places."

INTERESTING LETTER ON TRIP TO TEXAS

Prestonsburg, Ky., August 16, 1927

The Floyd County Times: On July 12, my wife and I started on a visit and vacation to Henderson, Texas, leaving Prestonsburg on the evening train, arriving at Ashland the same evening; stayed overnight at Ashland, and boarded the C. and O. train early on the morning of July 13.

We arrived at Louisville about noon of the same day and there bought our tickets via Memphis, Tenn., and Little Rock, Ark., to Fairview, Texas, and arrived at Fairview on July 14, and were met there by W. H. Powers and Nora Powers, our son-in-law and daughter, who glided us over the good roads at the rate of thirty-five miles an hour to their beautiful home in Henderson, Texas.

This is not only the great state of Texas in area, but is greater for its great and hospitable people, as good as the best in this great country of ours.

Henderson, Texas, is a city of about 4,000 or more; has fine churches and fine school buildings and the best of business men. At the courthouse in Henderson you will find the court business carried on with dispatch and with courtesy to all. Not only the people having business in court, but the "strangers within the gates" at the courthouse and everywhere are met with a happy greeting, which makes you feel that you are almost one of them. The people are very much like our own Kentucky folks and make you feel at home with them.

Then there are the bountiful crops of almost every thing: cotton, corn, tomatoes, peas, sweet and Irish potatoes in great abundance. Texas is a great country for cattle, sheep, hogs and poultry of all kinds.

If our Kentuckians were there and worked as they do here, they would get rich in a short time. Then they have the best roads you ever saw. The worst there is better than the best we have here. It is no trouble there to go out in the country forty and fifty miles and do business and return home for early supper. We were out in the country nearly every day; were also out in Smith, Shelby Cherokee, and other counties while there, but I believe Rush county, Texas, is the best county, taking all things into consideration, in that section of the state.

We were on our way back to old Kentucky on the morning of August 13, and arrived here on the morning of August 15.

We had a great time and enjoyed the trip both going and coming, but being there from July 14 to August 13 with our folks, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Powers and meeting our grandson, John Graham Powers and his wife and their daughter, Rea, and Mrs. R. T. Blair and family was the most enjoyable part of our visit to Texas.

I write this in answer to many questions about the great state of Texas. I have much more that could be said, but space will not permit it now.

Group Organizes To Assure Future of Area Magazine

By RON DALEY

For the past nine years, Knott County has been the home of Appalachia's highest quality literary magazine.

The Appalachian Heritage magazine, edited by Ball resident Al Stewart, has provided a positive representation of the area and an outlet for expression by both established and up-and-coming regional writers. The quarterly publication has celebrated Appalachian life and culture and educated its readers concerning the history, folklore, crafts, architecture, art and education of the Central Appalachian region.

In March, Alice Lloyd College, citing financial reasons, decided to cease publication of the magazine.

It seemed Appalachian Heritage would suffer the same fate of other statewide and regional publications that have folded in recent years because of skyrocketing publishing costs.

However, a group of supporters of the magazine have decided the magazine is too vital to this area and too worthy of continuance to let die.

Led by former state representative Bill Weinberg, an impressive board of directors has been formed for the magazine, have been incorporated (Appalachian Heritage, Inc.), and have announced the next issue will be published in August or September.

Weinberg, who began the Appalachian emphasis programs at Alice Lloyd College in the early 1970s, worked closely with the magazine during its early years.

"Al has done too good of a job. It's just simply too good of a publication to die," said Weinberg.

He predicts a bright future for the magazine because of the active board and positive reactions by possible funding sources.

That board met Saturday at the Knott County library and voted to accept the agreement worked out with Alice Lloyd College to transfer all rights of publishing to Appalachian Heritage, Inc.

For 68-year-old Al Stewart, the founder and sole editor of the magazine during its tenure, life would be very different without those editorial responsibilities.

"It felt like waking from a terrible nightmare to a warm, lovely morning with the world okay again," said Stewart after the arrangements were made to continue the publication.

Knott County native Stewart has been the magazine. For the past six years he has volunteered his services at the college to be the editor. There he was given a home and opportunity to work with the staff who typeset the magazine. He does the tedious proofing and layout work.

While appreciative of the past arrangement with the college, Stewart welcomes the change and cites the chance for a rebirth for Appalachian Heritage.

"We've been given a new lease on life and we will make the most of it," said Stewart. "I'm as excited about the magazine as I was when it first began."

A literary magazine should be independent of other institutions or organizations to have complete freedom of expression, explained Stewart.

So, Stewart and members of the board believe the magazine, within a year or two, will be stronger than it ever was.

Stewart and Weinberg state that they have received a lot of encouraging statements about the need of the magazine following the Lexington Herald story written by Lee Mueller about the possible demise of the magazine.

"That article got the ball rolling and we don't intend to stop," said Weinberg.

The board approved a tentative annual budget of over $65,000. If all the funding is received, the board expects to hire a full-time assistant editor to help Stewart.

Stewart says that, while his health remains strong, he would feel more comfortable knowing someone is trained to continue his work.

This person would also aid in promoting the circulation of Appalachian Heritage, something no one has been responsible for doing during the past few years.

Fourteen people are presently on the board. They are Knott Countians Bill Weinberg, Al Stewart, Mike Mullins, Gary Conley, Ron Daley, and William Hayes (Lexington), John Stephenson (Lexington), A. H. Perrin (Berea), Paul Neil Allen (Prestonsburg), Richard Spears (Ashland), G. B. Johnson Jr. (Ashland), Mrs. Kathy Sloane (Louisville), Bill Gorman (Hazard), and Nash Cox (Frankfort). Seven positions are vacant on the board.

At Saturday's meeting, Weinberg was elected chairman, Gary Conley vice-chairman, and Al Stewart as secretary-treasurer.

Subscription rates of $12 for one year, $20 for two years, and $28 for three years were approved.

Categories for persons or organizations interested in supporting the magazine were approved: benefactor - $25-$100, supporting member - $100-$499, sponsoring member - $500-$999, sustaining member - $1000 and over. Subscriptions are included for those making these donations.

"Appalachian Heritage will remain a voice for our people," said Stewart.

Several noted authors have praised the magazine for touching the human side, said Stewart. "This attribute, along with the magazine's quality, we hope to continue," stated Stewart.

In the last issue (Winter-Spring 1982), Alice Lloyd College staff member Bob Hilton compiled a sample of Al Stewart's poetry.

Those poems demonstrate Stewart's fervent love of this land and place. One of those poems that best illustrates this is "The Untoward Hills."

The Untoward Hills

It was my wish to find kinder hills
than these,
Valleys of less violent green,
earth formed from shoes
Lashed by less obdurate seas...
And though I must gather my content
From angular stone and narrowed
sky,
My wish was for a splendid land
where men
Grow splendidly in peace and seasons brood
On inward deity whose lost fragrance
tints the air—
A world grown large and splendid as my dream.
And though I may move downward
from these slopes,
Toward seasons of more moderate
sun
And nearer the reach of common
hope, I shall not go far:
Lower hills, maybe; no, never the level land.
Persons interested in subscribing to financial contribution, can write to:

Healing Herbs

By RUFUS REED

Oats—Nature's great health food and medicine for many ills.

A steady diet of oatmeal will remove the cholesterol from the arteries and keep it cleaned out.

Oatmeal is rich in phosphorus and is thus a good brain food. School kids should eat a bowl of oatmeal every morning for breakfast, as this will make them more adept in their studies.

How to prepare a "Youth Elixer" with oatmeal. To remove the signs of age and renew the body and make yourself younger make a "Youth Elixer" as follows:

Put two tablespoonsful of oatmeal in a quart of water and boil for ten minutes. Add a tablespoon of strained honey, then seal up in a jar. Drink one half glassful of this "Youth Elixer" twice a day. It will keep you young and vigorous.

Let's see what elements are in oats to make them a superb health food as well as good medicine. In addition to phosphorus mentioned above, oats contain 67% carbohydrates; 14% albumen; also amino acids, enzymes, vitamins A, B1, B2, Vitamin E, and others. An oatmeal poultice will cure ulcers and sores and relieve the piles. Oatmeal also has antiseptic qualities and is a natural remedy against contagious diseases. Oats are also a good nerve tonic and are valuable in helping sick people recuperate. One recognized herbalist writes:

"Oatmeal exerts a beneficial effect on the muscles of the heart. It helps to remedy heart disease."

For insomnia, a bowl of hot oatmeal eaten before bedtime promotes sound sleep. To cure the freckles, boil oats in a pint of vinegar to form a soft mash. Apply to the freckles twice daily.

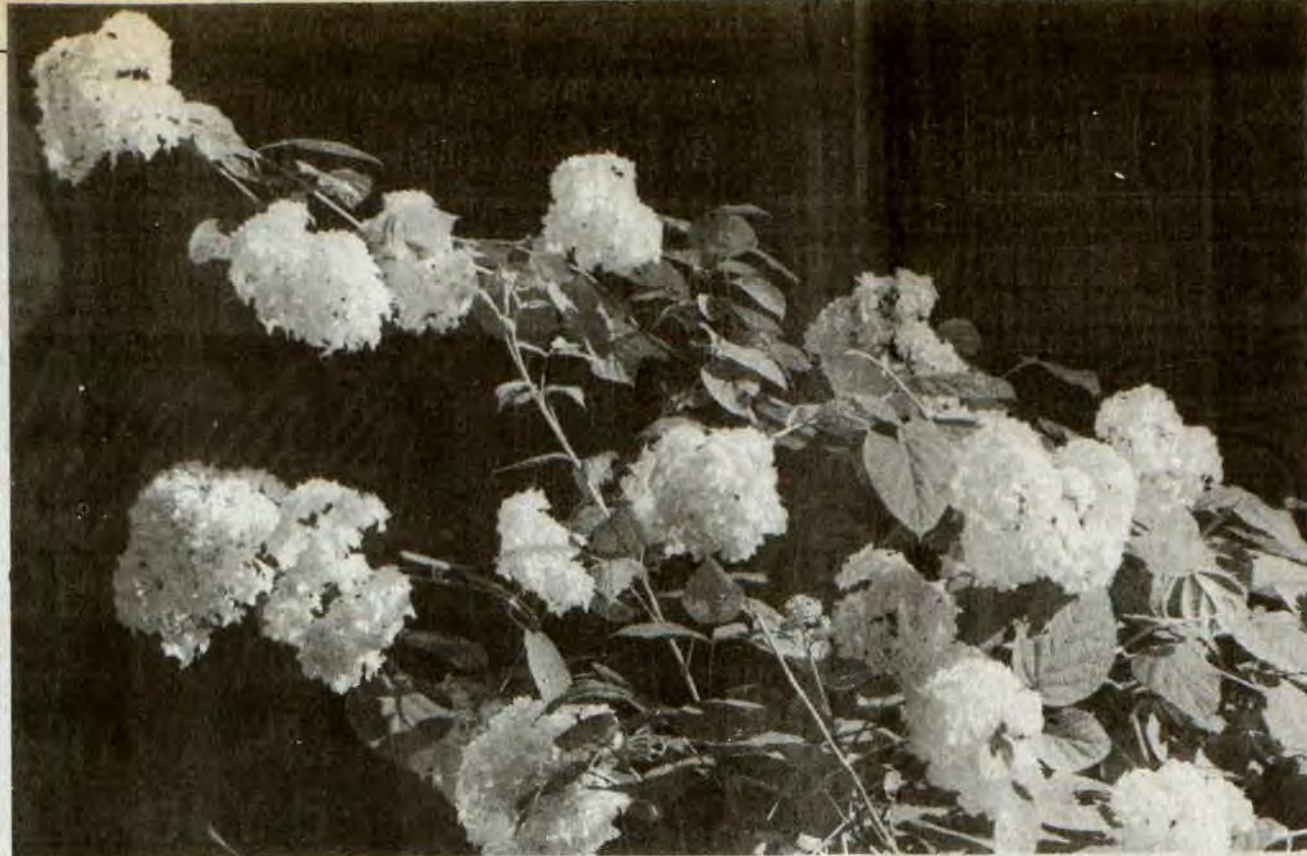

Away back when I was a boy, I watched the local farmers plow up their fields in mid-March, then sow them down in oats. By mid-July the oats would be waist-high. Then they cut them down with a cradle and tied them in bundles to feed their livestock come winter's snows. Cradling oats on a hot July day was a man-size job.

These days I miss the joy of seeing lush crops of oats on our hillside farms. Oats made a great feed for farm mules.

MSU TO BE CLOSED MONDAY, JULY 5

Morehead State University offices will be closed on Monday, July 5, in observance of Independence Day.

Offices will reopen and registration for the Summer Session II will begin at 8 a.m. on Tuesday, July 6.

FLUFFY BLOOMS of hydrangea, or the snowball bush, as they are commonly called, stand out in bold contrast against the dark background of a wooded hillside.

Gas Prices Increase Drastically

The average price for gasoline in Kentucky increased 10 cents per gallon since last month, according to the Blue Grass Automobile Club's June Fuel Gauge Report. This is the largest single monthly increase recorded by the AAA Club and places the cost for gasoline at the level it was last summer.

"The primary reason for this large increase in cost is a result of supply and demand," said AAA spokesman Bob Owen. "The demand for gasoline had declined gradually since 1978, and this eventually led to a surplus of gasoline and lower prices. However, the demand for gasoline now is up about two percent over this time last year, and this higher demand means higher prices."

AAA's June Fuel Gauge Report shows the average price for full-service stations is now $1.37 for regular, $1.39 for no-lead and $1.45 for premium no-lead. The average price for diesel is $1.33 per gallon. Self-service prices are now $1.25 for regular, $1.32 for no-lead and $1.40 for premium no-lead.

Motorists planning trips during the coming July Fourth Holiday will find most stations open. Of the stations surveyed by AAA, 86 percent will be open past 6 p.m. on Saturday and all day Sunday, and almost 80 percent will be open on July Fourth.

Henry David Gibson

The death here last Tuesday afternoon of 13-year-old Henry David Gibson was caused by a convulsion induced by inhalation of gasoline fumes, according to autopsy findings by Dr. Buckley, District Health Examiner.

Young Gibson was found by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Porter in a car lot here after another youth with him had become alarmed. Although members of the fire department's Squad Six and P&B Ambulance staff attempted to administer aid, the youth was pronounced dead at Highlands Regional Medical Center.

A son of James and Elaine Setser Gibson, of Prestonsburg, he was born at McDowell, March 30, 1969 and had completed the seventh grade at the Porter Elementary School at Hager Hill. He was a junior member of the First Assembly of God Church of West Prestonsburg.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by one brother, Lindsey Robert, at home, and his maternal grandparents, Mrs. Roberta Howell Frasure, of McDowell, and Millard Setser, of Van Lear.

Funeral services were held at the First Assembly of God Church in West Prestonsburg at 2 p.m. Friday with the Revs. Wade Martin Hughes, Ishmael Hamilton, Ellis Stevens, Malcolm Wireman, and Birdie Hicks officiating. Burial was made in the Gibson cemetery at Open Fork of Middle Creek under direction of the Floyd Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Justin Setser, Bob Roop, Shanks Gibson, and Grover Wright.

Mrs. Chloe Hall

Mrs. Chloe Hall, 93, died at the Riverview Manor Nursing Home, here. A native of North Carolina, she was born November 6, 1888, the daughter of Lelishle and Josephine Denny. She was the widow of Alex Hall.

Mrs. Hall is survived by a foster daughter, Marie West, of Baltimore, Md., and a nephew and several nieces in this county.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Jones-Preston Funeral Home chapel by the Rev. Jerry Scott, and burial was made in the family cemetery at Meally.

Eugene Davis

Eugene Davis, 60, of East Point, died Tuesday, June 22, at his home.

A son of the late Elias and Flora Webb Davis, he was born in Johnson county, March 26, 1922. He was a self-employed merchant.

Survivors include his widow, Dorayne Reed Davis; three sons, Doug, Darrell, and Danny Davis, all of East Point; five daughters, Mrs. Flora Grim, Mrs. Amanda Howard, both of East Point, Mrs. Bonnie Reynolds, of Allen, Mrs. Rowena McKenzie, of Keaton, and Mrs. Vivian Conley, of Flat Gap; one brother, Elbert Davis, of Live Oak, Florida; 14 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services were conducted at 1 p.m. Friday at the Jones-Preston Funeral Home chapel by the Rev. Clarence Lemaster. Burial was made in the Webb cemetery at East Point.

Andrew Tuttle

Andrew Tuttle, 84, died at his home at Weesbury, Thursday, following a long illness.

A son of the late Tom and Hanna Collins Tuttle, he was born in Floyd county, July 22, 1897. A retired miner and member of the Old Regular Baptist Church for 21 years, he was preceded in death by two wives—first by Angeline Thornsberry Tuttle, who died in 1975, and in 1981 by his second wife, Dixie Tackett Tuttle.

Survivors include seven sons, Ephrom, Bill Ray and Hobert Tuttle, all of Kite, Gershin and Charley Tuttle, both of Wayland, Ronnie Tuttle, of Weesbury, and Charles E. Tuttle, of Hamilton, Ohio, and four daughters, Audrey Slone and Emogene Short, both of Kite, Ollie Jean Collins, Weesbury, and Faye Green, of Topmost. Seventy grandchildren and a host of great-grandchildren also survive.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday at 10 a.m. at the Dry Creek Regular Baptist Church (Knott church), with ministers of that church officiating. Burial was made in the Waddles Cemetery at Kite under the direction of the Hall Funeral Home.

Clay Douglas Martin

Funeral rites were conducted at 2 p.m. last Thursday at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Martin for Clay Douglas Martin, 41, of Benton, formerly of Martin, who died Monday, June 21, at Western Baptist Hospital in Paducah, victim of a sudden illness.

Born October 19, 1940, he was a son of Mrs. Pearl Jean Newsome, of Hi Hat, and the late Clay Martin and was reared by his aunt, Mrs. Lucy Casebolt Salisbury, of Southgate, Michigan. He was a truck broker for the Johnson Brokerage Company.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his widow, Barbara Gayheart Martin, and one daughter, Amanda Martin, at home.

The officiating ministers were Bill Hughes and Marty Spurlock, and burial was made in the Newman cemetery at Hi Hat under direction of the Hall Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Norris, Paul, Franklin and Stephen Salisbury, Kenneth and Douglas Edwards.

Mrs. Hester N. Maynard

Mrs. Hester Nichols Maynard, 79, of Varney, died Wednesday, June 23, at the Methodist Hospital, Pikeville.

A native of Pike county, she was born December 24, 1903, a daughter of the late Billy and Parlee Lowe Nichols. She was a member of the Regular Baptist Church.

She is survived by her husband, Lee Maynard; two sons, Buford Maynard, of Gulf Hermock, Fla., and David Maynard, of Ocala, Fla.; one daughter, Mrs. Belvie Farmer, of Rockford, Ill.; three sisters, Mrs. Sallie Canada, Mrs. Dixie Engfinger, and Mrs. Lucy Maynard, all of Meta; four brothers, Ernest and Phinis Hanners, both of Pikeville, Jimmie Nichols, of McCombs, and Johnnie Nichols, of Prestonsburg, twenty-nine grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Apple Orchard Regular Baptist Church at McCombs, and burial was made in the Apple Orchard cemetery under direction of the J. W. Call and Son Funeral Home.

Garrett Woman, 24, Is Gunshot Victim

The apparent victim of a self-inflicted gunshot wound, Julia Kaye Weaver, 24-year-old Garrett woman, died Sunday night at Hindman after being shot in the chest with a .357-caliber pistol, according to Kentucky State Trooper Mike Luttrell.

Miss Weaver apparently shot herself at about 8 p.m. Sunday at the home of Johnny Dyer at Carrie, near Hindman. Trooper Luttrell said that Miss Weaver had left a note and had told relatives that she was going to kill herself.

She was born December 4, 1957 at Martin, a daughter of Mrs. Leota Boleyn Weaver, of Garrett, and the late Roy Weaver. She was employed as a computer operator at the Brown Produce Company, here.

In addition to her mother, she is survived by a brother, Benjamin Lloyd Weaver, of Garrett.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. today (Wednesday) at the Christian Community Church at Garrett by the Rev. Jim Reed. Burial will be made in the Boleyn cemetery under direction of the Merion Funeral Chapel.

Mrs. Faye V. Dingus

Mrs. Faye V. Dingus, 69, of Martin, died Sunday at the Paintsville Hospital, victim of a short illness.

Born August 23, 1912 in Paintsville, she was the daughter of the late Noah and Boldia Blair VanHoose and was the wife of Furman Dingus. She was formerly employed by the Floyd County School Board as lunchroom supervisor at the Martin school.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by one son, Charles D. Dingus, of Martin; two brothers, Roy and Ray VanHoose, both of Paintsville; three sisters, Mrs. Josephine Howard, in South Carolina, Mrs. Edna Jett, of Paintsville, and Mrs. Mary Hope Walker, of Louisville; two grandchildren and four step-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. today (Wednesday) at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints at Martin by Elder Lamar Spurlock, and burial will be made in Davidson Memorial Gardens at Ivel under direction of the Merion Funeral Chapel.

Pallbearers will be John Simonton, J. Michael Click, Phillip Arthur Dingus, Merel Salyers, Eddie VanHoose, P. Jack Daniels, Raymond Griffith, Jr., and Morris Isaac.

Honorary pallbearers will be Bill Crush Dingus, Bob Simonton, Bill Reynolds, Parker Reynolds, Hubert Frye, Olvo Dingus, Billy Mayo, Le-Mayne Dingus, Jack Dingus, and Clyde Stephens.

Virgil (Dobbin) Rowe

Virgil (Dobbin) Rowe, 59, of Langley, died Sunday at the VA Hospital in Lexington following a long illness.

Born March 9, 1923, he was a son of the late Claude and Susan Ousley Rowe. A disabled miner, he was a member of the United Mine Workers of America, District 30, and a veteran of the Army during World War II. He was a member of the Baptist Church and of the D.A.V., Chapter 128, at Garrett.

Survivors include his widow, Joyce Ann Williams Rowe; two sons, Jerry Anthony and Terry Lee Rowe, and one daughter, Rhonda Ann Rowe, all of Langley; two brothers, Elmer Rowe, of Langley, and Delmer Rowe, of Auxier; four sisters, Mrs. Marcella Bailey and Ronda Rowe, both of Langley, Mrs. Gladys Wolfe, of Galloway, O., and Mrs. August Carter, of Columbus, O., and one grandchild.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. today (Wednesday) in the chapel of the Hall Funeral Home by ministers of the Regular Baptist Church, and burial will be made in the Stewart cemetery at Langley.

Blood Supply Low During Summer Time

For hospital staffs, summer vacation time creates a serious problem of critically low blood supplies.

"It's not that the need for blood increases during the summer, but that the supply diminishes," says a spokesman for CKBC. Since 75% of blood donations comes from large groups, such as businesses and universities, vacation season means a sharp decrease in donors. Supplies sometimes drop so low that hospitals are forced to cancel elective surgery in order to save blood for emergency transfusions.

Giving blood is a simple and painless procedure. Some of the requirements are that the donor must be healthy, between the ages of 17 and 66 and weigh at least 110 pounds. You first give a blood sample, which is checked for iron and answer a few questions about your medical history. After donating a pint of blood which takes about 10 minutes, you are given a snack to help restore energy.

Once collected, blood can be stored up to 21 days, if it is kept whole. More often, however, it is broken down into various components so that it can be given to several different patients. Since some of these components last only a few days, fresh supplies are constantly needed. Type O, the universal donor, tends to be in short supply since it is the blood type most often in demand.

On June 23, Wednesday night, three patients required 90 pints of A+ blood which depleted the supply on hand. All types are running critically low from day to day.

The Highlands Regional Medical Center is sponsoring a blood drive Tuesday, July 13, in the Inservice Classroom, from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m.

Area residents may donate at the Prestonsburg Donor Station in the Municipal Building, Tuesdays from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Thursdays from 12 noon to 8 p.m., Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Walk-ins are welcome or make an appointment by calling 886-1557.

Montgomery Drowns While on Vacation At Daytona Beach

Col. Thomas M. Montgomery, 48, well-known Floyd businessman, drowned late Saturday afternoon while he and his wife were vacationing at Daytona Beach, Florida.

An autopsy was performed to determine if the victim may have suffered a heart attack while swimming, a short distance offshore, but its findings had not been reported here Tuesday. The tragedy occurred shortly before 5 p.m., and he was pronounced dead 45 minutes later at Halifax Hospital Medical Center, Daytona Beach.

A native of Blue River, Montgomery was a son of the late Dayrus and Lula Hale Montgomery. He was a resident of Abbott Creek and was president of Worldwide Enterprises. A veteran of the Korean Conflict, he was a deputy sheriff, a member of the Kentucky Sheriffs' Association, Landmark Baptist Church in Cincinnati, the Masonic Lodge, VFW Post No. 5839 and Floyd Post, American Legion.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Teena Davis Montgomery, of the Abbott road; a daughter, Dianne Niemeyer, of Cincinnati; four brothers and two sisters, W. J. Montgomery, of the Abbott road, Bun Montgomery, of Little Paint Creek, Forrest Montgomery, Ada, O., Roy Montgomery, of Prestonsburg, Mrs. Billy Pruitt and Mrs. Worth Music, both of Prestonsburg.

Funeral rites will be conducted tomorrow (Thursday) at 1 p.m. from the First Baptist Church here, the Revs. Dean L. Pack, Charles Milam and Garland Lacey officiating. Burial will be made in the Mayo cemetery here under the direction of the Floyd Funeral Home.

Cancer Hopeline

Q. I have just learned that my mother has cancer. We are very close, and I want to do whatever she needs as I care for her, but I'm so numb I can't even think. Can you offer any general advice?

A. First, your instincts to be supportive of your mother are absolutely correct; be there, hold her hand, listen, etc. Take your cues from her, but let her know you're available. Ask advice from her doctors and nurses.

Second, learn as much as you can. It takes time to get over the shock of a cancer diagnosis, so don't rush yourself. But when questions arise, write them down on a list, and when you're ready, seek the answers. The search may be frustrating, however, for some questions have no definite answers. For example, it may be that no one can tell you why your mother has cancer nor guarantee that she will be cured.

But many of your questions can be answered. You can learn how cancer begins as a single cell that reproduces too rapidly. You can learn that surgery is the treatment of choice for many cancers and that it may be teamed with chemotherapy or radiation or both. Much good information is available on these topics. Consult your mother's physician, or contact the Cancer Hopeline.

Third, as a care-giver, you need to know that you do not have to do everything yourself. Accept offers of assistance, and be assured that the giver is grateful to be allowed to help. You will be better for taking a break, and so will the care you provide.

Fourth, share your feelings with someone you trust. We all need someone to understand how it is with us sometimes, and especially so when the going is rough. It may be a relative or friend, or you may call the Cancer Hopeline and find a compassionate, professional helping hand and listening ear. We can also put you in touch with an educational and self-help programs available to cancer patients and family members in your area.

Call the Cancer Hopeline, toll free at 1-800-432-9321 from 9 to 9, Monday-Thursday, and 9 to 5 on Friday. Ask for free brochures on cancer, its treatment, and support for patients and families. You may also write Cancer Hopeline at 915 S. Limestone Street, Lexington, KY 40536.

Man Named in Death Of East Point Woman Jailed Here Tuesday

Barry Moore, the 21-year-old Minnie man whose pickup truck allegedly struck a car driven by Mrs. Parcella Collins, 39, of East Point, and killed her the night of April 29, was jailed here Tuesday by State Trooper Ernest Dudleyson on a reckless homicide charge.

Moore himself was seriously injured in the wreck which took place on KY 22, at McDowell, and only recently was dismissed from a hospital.

He signed a statement saying he had no recollection of events of the day. Mrs. Collins was killed while en route to a Left Beaver church where her uncle's body lay in state.

Women's Rights Meet Scheduled, July 1

Did you know that women in Kentucky earn $.44 for every dollar earned by men? Did you know that the average female college graduate earns less than the average unskilled male laborer with an eighth grade education? Did you know that women are the fastest and largest growing poverty group in the country today?

Anyone who is concerned about these and other economic and social inequities facing women are invited to come to Frankfort on July 1 and join in a celebration of the continued pursuit of equal rights for all Kentuckians, beginning at 11 a.m. on the Capitol Building steps.

Sponsored by the Kentucky Commission on Women and many women's organizations from across the state, the event will feature entertainment, speeches, and a special awards ceremony honoring former Lt. Governor Thelma Stovall for her contributions to Kentucky and to women.

The standards and symbols we use today for graduation attire were set back in 1894 by the Intercollegiate Commission.

Two Die, 2 Injured In Magoffin Wreck

An automobile and a pickup truck met in head-on collision during a heavy rainstorm late Monday afternoon on the Mountain Parkway, nine miles west of Salyersville, leaving two dead and two others critically injured.

Killed were Michael L. Robinson, 27, of Frenchburg, safety inspector in this section for Sierra Coal Co., and James W. Curtis, 28, of Flat Gap, equipment operator for the Meadow Branch Coal Company.

In serious condition at the Highlands Medical Center here are two passengers in the truck driven by Curtis—Roger Warner, 34, and Clifford L. Cantrell, 30, both residents of Flat Gap, Johnson county.

State Trooper Ernest Dudleyson, who investigated the wreck, said the two vehicles apparently met in the middle of the highway. He quoted a witness, Jack Collins, of Meta, as saying the Curtis truck passed him and "had to be going 80 miles an hour." The truck was travelling east toward Salyersville.

Scene of the wreck is in Magoffin county, about two miles from the Magoffin-Morgan line.

Presbyterian Church Aide

Scott Barlow, of Richmond, currently a student at San Francisco Theological Seminary, will assist in the ministry of the Presbyterian Churches in Drift and Prestonsburg during the coming year as a student intern.

A graduate of Richmond Model High School, and the College of Wooster, he has completed two years of theological education as part of his training for ordination in the Presbyterian Church. The internship experience, similar to that in other professions, provides field experience in all aspects of Christian ministry under the supervision of an ordained pastor.

Mr. Barlow preached in the churches during the Rev. Timothy Jessen's absence June 27, and will participate in Christian education and youth activities while residing at Drift. He will return to the San Francisco Seminary after completing his year's experience here.

Food Stamp Program May Adopt Workfare

Though workfare demonstration projects for food stamp recipients have been operating for several years, proposed regulations announced by the U.S. Department of Agriculture today provide states and local jurisdictions the option for the first time of adopting workfare as a permanent feature of the food stamp program," said Assistant Secretary Mary Jarratt.

Under the "workfare" concept, work eligible food stamp recipients participate in a work experience activity along with receiving their food stamp benefits. The public service work done in return for food stamp allotments is valued at the federal or state minimum wage, whichever is higher. A maximum of 20 hours per week could be required of any household.

The workfare demonstration projects, some of which began operating as early as July 1979, provided helpful information for policymakers.

"We believe workfare can provide valuable work experience to recipients in assisting them to become self-reliant, and we are hopeful that skills acquired in this program will enable more public assistance participants to transfer to private sector employment," the assistant secretary said.

Past workfare participants have engaged in a wide array of work activities, including learning how to operate heavy construction equipment, using existing electrical and carpentry skills for community building projects, providing crafts activities to senior citizens and learning radio repair work.

The Agriculture and Food Act of 1981, Public Law 97-98, approved Dec. 22, 1981, authorized the extension of workfare as a permanent food stamp program feature at state or local political subdivision option. The law allows participating jurisdictions to combine food stamp workfare operations with those from other workfare-type programs that state and local jurisdictions might already administer.

"Obviously, the program is more economically feasible when operated in conjunction with other public assistance programs, and we are delighted that P.L. 97-98 allows local jurisdictions to combine their food stamp workfare with that for aid to families with dependent children, for example," said Jarratt.

The state agency, through its local offices, would be responsible for referring eligible recipients to workfare operating agencies and for establishing and processing sanctions for noncompliance, under the proposed regulations. The state agency also would be responsible for monitoring

5,000 To Re-Enact Perryville Battle

Up to 5,000 mock Civil War troops from throughout the country are expected to converge on Perryville Battlefield State Park over the July 4th weekend to re-enact Kentucky's largest Civil War engagement, the Battle of Perryville.

The re-enactment, scheduled for 11 a.m. Monday, July 5, will cap three days of activities observing Independence Day. Many battle participants will be members of the Sons of Veterans Reserve. Each year, the group gathers at Civil War battle sites to hold encampments that include contests in marching, artillery and other aspects of military life. Perryville will be the first national encampment the group has conducted south of the Mason-Dixon line. Other mock military units also will take part in the weekend's events.

Also scheduled for the weekend is a parade in Perryville starting at 4 p.m. Sunday, band concerts, historic tours and other activities. To handle the expected crowds, the Parks Department will set up a shuttle-bus service from nearby parking lots to the park.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the park at (606) 332-8631.

ANNUAL WATER RACE SET AT ROUGH RIVER

Area boaters will again be drawn to Rough River State Resort Park for the third annual Great Houseboat & Cruiser Race, scheduled for Saturday, July 3.

The event begins at 10 a.m. with a parade, followed by races in several boat categories.

Summer Scholarships Available At MSU

Morehead State University's Department of Psychology, in cooperation with the WHAS Crusade for Children, is offering a limited number of scholarships for a special class in MSU's second summer term starting July 6.

The course, Psychology 575, is entitled "Selected Topics: Programming for the Handicapped Student," and may be taken as an elective in all graduate programs in education, subject to the advisor's approval. It carries three semester hours of credit.

Topics include the characteristics of exceptional children, identification and placement requirements and curriculum modification required by exceptional children.

Additional information is available from Dr. George S. Tapp, Head, Department of Psychology, MSU, UPO 784, Morehead, KY 40351. The telephone number is (606) 783-2187.

Prison Terms Meted In Sheriff Shooting

A Martin county man has received two 20-year prison terms upon conviction in Johnson circuit court of last year's wounding of Martin County Sheriff Ray Fields.

Alvin Davis, 36, Pilgrim, was convicted last Wednesday of shooting Fields as he was driving his pickup truck along Ky. 202, about 6 miles east of Inez. Fields was shot in the shoulder and leg.

Both Davis and Fields were candidates for sheriff when the Sept. 20 incident occurred. Davis was an Independent candidate and Fields was a Republican.

Davis received the first prison term when the jury returned a guilty verdict shortly after noon. After a short recess, Davis was then tried on a second-degree charge of being a persistent felon. He was found guilty of the charge after brief deliberation by the jury.

The trial, which began Monday, was moved from Martin county after Circuit Judge James Knight granted the defendant a change of venue last week.

Davis' sister, Mary Murphy, 30, Wolf Creek at Pilgrim, and another woman, Rosy Whaley, were indicted along with Davis last October by a Martin county grand jury. Both women were charged with one count of complicity to commit assault in the first degree and complicity to commit attempted murder.

Trial dates for the women have not been set, according to the Martin county circuit court clerk's office.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Sealed bids will be received at the office of the Floyd County Board of Education, Prestonsburg, Ky., until 12 noon July 6, 1982 for furnishing lunchroom food and supply items. Bid conditions and specifications may be obtained from Blanche E. Dingus. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Honored by Company

Darrell L. Patton, of Star Route 1, Prestonsburg, was awarded a special A. L. Atchison Rookie of the Year Award and an EPI and Group Leader Award plaque by the New York Life Insurance Company, according to General Manager Peter B. Crane.

Mr. Patton, a New York Life representative in the Prestonsburg area, received the A. L. Atchison Rookie of the Year Award for his outstanding achievement as the top new agent hired in 1981 in the Lexington General Office, and the EPI and Group Leader Award was presented to him for leading the Region in the number of group sales in 1981.

Mr. Patton, who has represented New York Life since May of 1981, attributes his success in the business largely to his patrons in the Prestonsburg area and appreciates their continued trust and interest.

To Host Bible Schools

Three Bible school sessions for Floyd county children will be held at St. Juliana Church in Martin this summer. Studies will center on the family as a theme. Transportation will be furnished.

The children of Drift and surrounding communities are invited to attend the July 5-16 session. School begins at 9 a.m. and ends at noon.

For the youngsters of Wayland and its surrounding communities, classes will also be held July 5-16 but from 6 p.m.-9 p.m.

July 19-30 classes will be held for children in the Dwale-Allen area from 9 a.m.-12 noon daily.

For more information or to arrange transportation, call 285-3254.

NATIONAL FLOOD INSURANCE PROGRAM

Proposed Flood Elevation Determinations

AGENCY: Federal Emergency Management Agency.

ACTION: Proposed Rule.

SUMMARY:

Technical information or comments are solicited on the proposed base (100-year) flood elevations listed below and proposed changes to base flood elevations for selected locations in the nation. These base (100-year) flood elevations are the basis for the flood plain management measures that the community is required to either adopt or show evidence of being already in effect order to qualify or remain qualified for participation in the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP).

DATES:

The period for comment will be ninety (90) days following the second publication of this proposed rule in a newspaper of local circulation in each community.

ADDRESSES:

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. Robert G. Chappell, P.E. National Flood Insurance Program (202) 287-0230

Federal Emergency Management Agency Washington, D.C. 20472

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

The Federal Emergency Management Agency gives notice of the proposed determinations of base (100-year) flood elevations for selected locations in the nation, in accordance with Section 110 of the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973 (Pub. L. 93-234), 87 Stat. 980, which added Section 1363 to the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 (Title XIII of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 (Pub. L. 90-448), 42 U.S.C. 4001-4128, and 44 CFR 67.4 (a).

These elevations, together with the flood plain management measures required by Section 60.3 of the program regulations, are the minimum that are required. They should not be construed to mean the community must change any existing ordinances that are more stringent in their flood plain management requirements. The community may at any time enact stricter requirements on its own, or pursuant to policies established by other Federal, State, or Regional entities. These proposed elevations will also be used to calculate the appropriate flood insurance premium rates for new buildings and their contents and for the second layer of insurance on existing buildings and their contents.

Pursuant to the provisions of 5 USC 605 (b), the Associate Director, to whom authority has been delegated by the Director, Federal Emergency Management Agency, hereby certifies that the proposed flood elevation determinations, if promulgated, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. A flood elevation determination under Section 1363 forms the basis for new local ordinances, which, if adopted by a local community, will govern future construction within the floodplain area. The elevation determinations, however, impose no restriction unless and until the local community voluntarily adopts floodplain ordinances in accord with these elevations. Even if ordinances are adopted in compliance with Federal standards, the elevations prescribe how high to build in the floodplain and do not proscribe development. Thus, this action only forms the basis for future local actions. It imposes no new requirement; of itself it has no economic impact.

List of Subjects in 44 CFR, Part 67, Flood Insurance, Floodplains

Surface Mine Agency To Hire 78 More for Enforcement Job

Kentucky's Bureau of Surface Mining is growing by 78 staff members to handle the increased demands of full enforcement of strip mine regulations in the state.

The state Environmental Quality Commission heard a discussion last Wednesday of the charges brought about by primacy, under which the state has sole authority to enforce surface mine regulations and the federal government has a greatly reduced role.

"What they do now is revert to an oversight program. They'll be looking at what we do," said Larry Grash, deputy commissioner of the Bureau of Surface Mining.

George Risk of the bureau's reclamation and enforcement division said if Kentucky's program were not successful, the federal Office of Surface Mining "would have the option of coming in and taking over the entire program, or coming in and taking over part of the program."

Grash said the current staff of less than 350 will grow to 412.

That will include the addition of 30 mine inspectors, 15 experts such as geologists and soil scientists, 10 attorneys for expanded permit hearings and other clerical and support personnel, he said.

"We feel that we will be able to grow and with the 78 additional employees we will be able to handle the primacy program," Grash said.

The mine inspector force will grow to 180, he said, and the current staff of eight investigators to ferret out illegal

"wildcat" operations will soon increase to 11 and eventually to 15, he said.

Risk said a hearing will be held July 29 in Frankfort to receive public comment on the new regulations, which he said include numerous new environmental safeguards.

These will include requirements for a better accounting of environmental conditions before mining starts, and more intensive review of permit applications, he said.

Inspectors will have increased powers to halt mining if danger to the public or the environment appears likely, and public participation will be increased, Risk said.

He said individuals will be entitled to request an inspection of a mine, and to accompany the inspector at the mine site if desired, he said.

Ky. Fried Chicken Plans Help For March of Dimes

The Colonel Sanders memorial "Help Change the Future" March of Dimes campaign is about to start its fourth annual fund-raising drive to help assure every child a healthy start in life. The campaign kickoff was announced last week by Cecil and Judy Fannin, owners of the Prestonsburg Fried Chicken Store, and Debra M. Massengale, executive director of the Goldenrod March of Dimes.

The fund-raising campaign will continue through July and all Kentucky Fried Chicken employees will work closely with the Goldenrod March of Dimes Chapter. Each store will have a special canister into which patrons are urged to donate their change. In addition, a contribution will be made to the March of Dimes, based on the number of items purchased on July 3, 4, or 5.

Popular Summer Orientation Program Now Underway

RICHMOND, Ky.—Eastern Kentucky University's summer orientation and pre-registration program for incoming freshmen is now underway. The popular program, which is now in its 10th year, is geared to serve up to 2,300 new students who want to prepare for the 1982 fall semester.

According to Dr. Jack Culross, associate dean for undergraduate studies at Eastern, "The program has been especially successful in helping new freshmen get acclimated to the college environment, and we have found that the parents of these students like the idea as well."

The pre-registration program started June 21 and will continue on designated days through July 22. Culross says several dates in July still have a significant number of openings. He listed the available dates as July 6, 8, 12, 14, 15, 19, 21, and 22. A student who has already applied for admission should contact the Office of Undergraduate Studies (telephone 622-3047) to request an orientation date. Students who have not applied for admission should contact the Division of Admissions and School Relations (622-2106). Culross said up to 155 students are scheduled for each day.

While the program is aimed at students, parents are also encouraged to attend and sessions are scheduled throughout the day to brief them on a campus life, residence hall living, food service, and health care service. Students and their parents may also request lodging for a night in one of EKV's residence halls.

According to Culross, "It is possible for an incoming freshman to be completely oriented to the campus, advised and registered in academic classes, and arrange for on-campus housing." He said a bill, listing class and other fees, will be mailed to the student a few days following orientation.

Students planning to participate in orientation/pre-registration must make their ACT scores available by the date they attend. Students who have not taken the ACT may take it at Eastern on June 29, July 6, July 13, or July 20 and the pre-register the following day.

The orientation process begins at 8:15 a.m. each designated day. During the morning, freshmen will be oriented to the overall campus programs such as student activities, study interests, campus living, and general campus information. In the afternoon they will be academically advised and registered for specific classes which are required or fitted to their areas of interest.

IS YOUR INSURANCE AGENT LOCKED INTO ONE COMPANY?

There are 2 ways to buy insurance. You can buy your insurance from a one-company agent. But he's locked into only those policies that his company sells. So his hands are tied.

Or you can buy your insurance from an Independent Insurance Agent... the more-than-one-company agent. You see, your Big "I" Independent Agent doesn't work for one company. He represents several. So he's free to give you an independent opinion and advise you on the best coverage at the best price. And that goes for homeowners, automobile, business, life and health insurance.

Before you reach a verdict about insurance, see your Big "I" Independent Insurance Agent... the more-than-one-company agent. Do it today.

Good News Report

Charge of Direction

By THOMAS W. PAUKEN
Director of ACTION

The famous French saying, "the more things change, the more they stay the same," is not altogether true in this country. Three years ago, the official attitude concerning the dangers of marijuana smoking was hard to find. Some legislators were in favor of legalizing the drug's use; others ignored it; and still others accepted the propaganda put out by a well-financed lobby seeking acceptance of pot as a recreational drug more stimulating than harmful. Encouraging this benign attitude was a steady flow of rock music, books, pamphlets, magazines, news stories, radio and TV shows, and hollywood films. And although nearly 15 years of government and privately-financed research had produced solid evidence that marijuana is, as the American Medical Association stated recently, "a very dangerous drug," particularly for adolescents, the evidence, even when offered to congressional committees, was generally ignored, downplayed or scoffed at.

Concerned parents who were aware of the hazards of pots, having seen the effects on their children, looked for guidance to combat what had become public acceptance of the drug. They organized groups, receiving medical and legal advice on how they could best fight what was recognized by the National Institute of Drug Abuse as an epidemic among the young people of America. One such group, the National Federation of Parents for a Drug Free Youth, started in a mother's kitchen with a few extra dollars from the family food budget.

Today NFP is in communication with thousands of parent groups in all 50 states. There are numerous volunteer organizations like it, all dedicated to fighting drug abuse at every level. Two years ago they were struggling to awaken the public to a menace whose statistics indicated that more than 4 million high school seniors were regular marijuana smokers. These parents had long been looking to Washington for leadership and support. And in President and Mrs. Reagan they found it.

Soon after he took office, the President spoke out saying, "The problem of drug abuse is one that reaches deeply into American society. We need to mobilize our religious, educational and fraternal groups in a national educational program against drug abuse."

Recently, the First Lady chaired a White House Briefing hosted by ACTION, the national volunteer agency, on how best to attack drug problems through corporate voluntarism. "Attack" is the active word because by word and deed the President and Mrs. Reagan have quietly, but firmly, provided a rallying point of national leadership which has subtly, without fanfare or even notice, brought a change in public attitude toward the use of marijuana. The former belief that nothing can be done about it is no longer prevalent.

Mrs. Reagan's first-hand activities at drug prevention centers discussing the problem with young people have been duly reported. New information on the dangers of marijuana is gaining broader attention and acceptance in the press. Anti-drug films are appearing on the television networks; question-and-answer programs are heard on the radio. Most importantly, there is a slowly-growing perception among young people that pot is not cool, but bad news; the statistics are beginning to show a downward trend in its use.

Many factors are involved and no one has singled out the President and the First Lady and said it's through their leadership that the tide has begun to turn on this national problem. But those who have been working in this cause know what support from the White House has meant, that it has helped greatly to bring a change in direction.

And that's the kind of change every thinking American can approve.

MASTER COMMISSIONER'S SALE

FLOYD CIRCUIT COURT

VS. NOTICE OF SALE

78-CI-089

Ellis Adams and Mary Adams, his wife; Lina Adams Howard and Adam Howard, her husband, Sharon Kay Holbrook and Willie Holbrook, Jr., Ellis Adams and Sheril Adams . . Defts.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Floyd Circuit Court rendered at the Aug. 18, 1981 term, in the above styled cause I shall proceed to offer for sale at the premises to be sold on the Mountain Parkway, on the waters of Middle Creek in Floyd County, Ky., to the highest and best bidder, at public auction, on the 12th day of July, 1982 at 10 o'clock a.m., same being a day of the regular term of the Floyd Circuit Court, for cash or upon a credit of six months, the following described property to-wit:

Those certain tracts of land lying and being situate on the waters of the right fork of Middle Creek in Floyd County, Ky., described as follows:

Those two (2) tracts of land conveyed by deed of May 30, 1944, from Ruby and Ollie Holbrook to Ben and Vinie Adams as recorded in Deed Book 124, page 200, on October 9, 1944, and described more particularly as follows; and a part of the land conveyed by deed of March 24, 1947, from Norman and Hattie Holbrooks to Bennie and Vina Adams as recorded in Deed Book 133, page 617, on May 12, 1947 and described more particularly as follows:

No. 1: A small wedge shaped piece of bottom land of one acre more or less between the state highway and Middle Creek with the barn on the lower end and being a part of the land purchased 3/24/47, D.B. 133, p. 617, from Norman Holbrooks, et al.

No. 2: A tract of land on the upper side of the state highway (right) side going up Middle Creek known as the home place of about seven acres more or less facing the state highway and running up the point below the house with the Helen Johnson Line to top of hill to the Charlie Hackworth line running westwardly with same to Beecher Holbrook line, thence down the point and with the point to state highway, being the same land purchased 5/30/44, D.B. 124, p. 200, from Ruby and Ollie Holbrooks Said Grantor.

Tract 2 of this property is sold subject to the following reservations of rights of way:

A right-of-way over Tract II to Tract III, seventeen (17) feet wide as presently in use.

A right-of-way seventeen (17) feet wide over Tract II to the lands of Ellis Adams' heirs, as presently in use, including a private bridge for the exclusive use of the family of Ellis Adams and his successors in title.

There is excepted from this sale that portion of Tract I that was sold Ellis Adams and Mary Adams, his wife, on May 5, 1963, by Bennie Adams and Viney Adams, his wife, as recorded in Deed Book 231, page 339 on October 31, 1977.

There is hereby reserved and excepted from the sale all mineral interests on Tract III of this property.

TRACT NO. 3

That certain tract of land conveyed by deed of March 24, 1947 from Norman Holbrook, et al, recorded in Deed Book 133 pg 617, Deeds of May 1, 1950 from Isom Holbrook et al, Deed Book 145 to pg 145 and Deed of May 2, 1950, from Norman Holbrook as recorded in Deed Book 145, page 211, and being the same land devised by Viney Adams to plaintiffs and defendants by mutual will of Bennie and Viney Adams, executed September 19, 1977, recorded in Will Book C, page 789, on December 3, 1977, and described more particularly as follows:

Being on the right hand side of the Mountain Parkway across the Right Fork of Middle Creek from the barn lot and running up the branch with the branch alongside the homeplace of the defendants to the second point on the right and up the center of said point to the top; thence right around the head of the hollow with the top ridge; thence with said ridge along the hill tops and with the crest of the hill tops along and up the Right Fork of Middle Creek to a marker at the top of the hill; thence to the creek at a point beyond the upper end of the wedge shaped tract and Right Hand Fork of Middle Creek; thence down said stream, to the mouth of the branch, the point of beginning.

This property is being sold to settle the estate of the late Bennie and Viney Adams.

The amount of money to be raised by this sale shall include the costs of this action, including costs of advertising of this sale and the fees and commissions for conducting this sale.

For the purchase price the purchaser must execute bond with approved surety or sureties, bearing legal interest from the date of sale until paid and having the force and effect of a judgment with a lien retained upon said property as a further security. Bidders will be prepared to comply with these terms.

Given under my hand, this 21st day of June, 1982.

MARSHALL DAVIDSON Master Commissioner Floyd Circuit Court 6-23-31.

WEKU-FM To Air Clay, Fee Series

The first in a series of four 30-minute dramatic episodes on the lives of abolitionists Cassius M. Clay and Dr. John G. Fee, who founded Berea College, will be aired each Sunday in July at 9 p.m. on WEKU-FM (88.9 on the FM dial), Eastern Kentucky University's 50,000-watt station.

The series, entitled, "The Lion and The Law," was written and produced by Dr. Jerry Perry, associate professor of Mass Communications at ECU, who has spent three years researching the lives of these two men who made significant contributions to Kentucky history during the pre-Civil War years. Perry began writing the script in August, 1981, and started production last April.

He said the series was made possible through a $1,000 grant from the Kentucky Humanities Council. According to Perry, application has been made for $1,600 in additional funds of which $1,000 will be set aside conditionally on the Council's evaluation of the work that has been done to this point.

In addition to the four dramatic episodes, a panel of well-known historians will be brought to ECU to tape a discussion on the ideas and values of Fee and Clay. Perry said a decision will be made on whether the discussion will be aired on a succeeding Sunday evening or be included after the final episode.

Historians include Dr. Lowell Harrison, professor of history at Western Kentucky University and author of several books on the anti-slavery movement in Kentucky; William Cooper, University of Kentucky archivist and scholar on the life of Fee; and Dr. David L. Smiley, professor of history, who published a biography on Clay, entitled "The Lion of White Hall," generally recognized as one of the best on Clay.

While most Kentuckians are familiar with the life of Clay, who operated the famed "underground railroad" for runaway slaves, published the emancipationist newspaper, The True American, and served as ambassador to Russia under President Lincoln, fewer know much about Fee.

Fee and his followers at Berea College were forced to leave the state before the Civil War began due to their abolitionist beliefs. "He was a white Martin Luther King who believed in non-violent resistance during the 1840's to 1860's," said Perry.

The role of Fee will be played by Richard Sears, a teacher at Berea College. He will also portray old Duke Wickliffe, the deadly enemy of both Fee and Clay, who was an historical figure himself for being the largest slave owner in Kentucky. Perry says that Wickliffe owned 200 slaves on his farm believed to be in Fayette county.

David S. Little, also of Berea, a Goodyear Company sales representative, and former radio personality, plays the role of Clay. Landon Nichols, a social science professor at ECU, plays the part of the inquisitor, a modern scholar who is transported by the "magic" of radio back into the 1800's.

Women's Rights Meet Scheduled for Thursday

The Kentucky Commission on Women and 50 women's organizations from across the state will sponsor a celebration of the continued pursuit of equal rights for all Kentuckians on July 1 in Frankfort on the Capitol Building steps.

There will be music, speakers and a special awards ceremony honoring former Lt. Governor Thelma Stovall for her contributions to Kentucky and to women.

Everyone is invited to attend and bring a picnic lunch. The activities get underway at 11 a.m.

For more information, call the Kentucky Commission on Women, (502) 564-6643.

For the sweetest cherries look for dark red color. It should range from deep maroon to almost black for the richest flavor.

INVITATION TO LEASE OFFICE SPACE

The Department of Finance of Kentucky desires to lease approximately 6,808 net square feet of office space to be located in Prestonsburg, Kentucky. Space must be available for occupancy on or before August 1, 1982. Space must have parking for 20-30 vehicles.

Responses may be made by any person in writing on or before 10:00 a.m. Friday, July 8, 1982. You need only designate the type and location of the property, the name and address of the property owner, and the date of availability of the property for lease. Lease Requisition Number PR 2691 should be clearly marked on the outside envelope of each proposal submitted to Room 171, New Capitol Annex, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601.

All responses received will be publicly opened and read at the above designated time. You will be notified by a representative of the Leasing Section so that an appointment can be made to inspect the proposed facility.

Property must be approved by the Office of the State Fire Marshal, meet OSHA and handicapped accessibility specifications, as well as existing applicable building codes. For any additional information, contact Willie Lile of the Leasing Section at (502) 564-2430.

BETSY LAYNE COMMUNITY NEWS

The Betsy Layne Church of Christ has just completed its Bible school, with 170 to 189 enrolled, Rev. Thomas Spears is pastor there.

Citizens of Betsy Layne extend sympathy to the family of Cora Jane Adkins Pife, who passed away last Sunday at the Methodist Hospital. She and her husband Harold Fife, are remembered by many for their singing of hymns.

Blackburn, Woodrow Conn, Palmer or Carlie Crum, all of Betsy Layne.

Mae and Lee Cecil are reported to feeling some better, but are still confined to their home. Their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ballard Cecil, has returned home, after staying here to help care for them, due to the illness of her parents in Florida, she was unable to stay here longer.

Sympathy is extended to the family of L.M. Miller upon the death of his wife, Ella Lucille Jones Miller, who died last week in Lexington. She was the mother of Loraine Smiley, of Betsy Layne, and was a sister of Nell Epling, of Banner. Mr. and Mrs. Miller owned and operated a store for many years in Betsy Layne but had retired and were living in Winchester.

Rev. Belmont Johnstone, pastor of the Boldman Free Will Baptist Church, is on vacation in Florida.

The Harold Church of Christ has just completed its Bible school with good attendance.

Bill and Geneva Lewis Blanton of Rochester, Ohio, were called here due to the illness of his mother, Josie Blanton, who underwent surgery last week at the McDowell hospital.

Visiting Ethel Foley and Lois Walters last week were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Elswick and children, of Columbus, Ohio.

Nora Bryant and sons, Mike and Jeff, have returned home after a visit with her brother, Homer Bryant, and family, in Ohio.

Mary Gibson, of Chicago, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Burton, of Montecello, Ky., were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Gibson, last week.

Martha Adkins, daughter of Dewey and Rose Lee Keathley Adkins, is still a patient in Central Baptist Hospital, of Lexington, where she is improving. She was involved in a motorcycle accident recently.

Jean Click is now at home after spending several days as a patient at The Highlands Regional Hospital, Prestonsburg.

Lynda Billiter and children, of Bridgeport, W. Va., have returned home after a visit with her mother, Cora Lynch.

Citizens of Betsy Layne remember in prayer the sick and shut-ins of our community. Known at this time are Otis Leedy, Willie Lawson, Martha Adkins, Mae and Lee Cecil, Vannie Turner, Flossie Hamilton, Hettie and Rubin Hall, James and Opal Adkins, Arthur Crider, Don Smith, Crate Meade, Maude Colegrove, Irvin Owens, Oscar Bush Sr., Lula Thompson, Mamie G. Stanfield, Oscar Ratliff, Garfield Castle, Randell Sweeney, Ranell Roberts, Charles Goble, Alice Layne, Era Stone, Jean Click, Josie Blanton, Faye Clark.

Faye Lynch Clark has been confined to her home due to illness.

We extend sympathy to the family of Eugene Conley, of Martin, who passed away last week. He was a cousin to Geneva Stamper Hamilton, of Harold. Lula Thompson is still confined to her home due to illness.

Lois Walters is some improved after a few weeks' illness at her home.

The graduating classes of Betsy Layne High School from 1928 to 1938 are planning an alumni reunion, Sept. 4. For further information contact Glen

Librarian Scholarship
Is Now Available at UK

The University of Kentucky's College of Library and Information Science is offering a one-year $4,000 fellowship plus tuition and fees for the professional training of an Appalachian librarian.

The fellowship is a result of an $8,000 award from the U.S. Department of Education for the college's Appalachian Library Training Program.

The program is aimed at persons from southern Appalachia who are interested in pursuing a master's degree in library and information science and who are committed to providing academic or public library service to the Appalachian region.

In addition to the professional courses offered by the college, courses on Appalachian matters are available through UK's Appalachian Center.

Applicants must meet UK's graduate admissions requirements. Interested persons should apply to the College of Library and Information Science, UK, Lexington, Ky. 40506-0027, before July 23, the final date for admission to the UK Graduate School.

Further information may be obtained by calling (606) 258-8876.

Pharmacy Footnotes

By HAROLD COOLEY

It is often asked if there is any medication that can stop snoring. It must first be explained what causes this disruptive noise. There is a soft, fleshy cap, which covers the opening of the windpipe. Its purpose is to block this air passage so that food will not be inhaled into it while eating. An individual, who sleeps on his back, especially, will sometimes breathe so as to vibrate the flap creating the snoring sound. When awake, an involuntary control stops the flap from moving. Gently awaken the snorer and suggest that he sleep on his side.

We may not be able to come up with a medication that can stop snoring, but at COOLEY APOTHECARY, INC. we can fill any prescription for you. We dispense only the very best quality ingredients available. You can find us at No. 2 Town Center Bldg. Open Mon.-Fri. from 9-5:30 and Sat. 9-4. 886-8106

VA Loan Program Expands Services

The Veterans Administration's loan guaranty program has expanded its services to veterans and their dependents with acceptance of growing equity mortgages (GEM). Under this new mortgage concept, loans are arranged to mature much earlier than standard 30-year mortgages. In some cases the loan could be satisfied in 11 years, even though early mortgage payments are in the same amount as those for a 30-year loan. This early payoff results from a gradual increase in mortgage payments, typically no more than 3 to 5 percent each year. Unlike variable interest rate mortgages, however, all of the payment increase is applied to principal rather than interest, resulting in an accelerated reduction in the loan balance. In addition to an early payoff of a GEM, another advantage to the borrower is that the investment in the property grows rapidly at a relatively low monthly cost. Lenders also benefit by receiving an early payback of capital and a lessening risk of loss as the property equity quickly increases. Like other types of VA financing, VA-guaranteed GEMs are obtained through mortgage lenders and other traditional residential loan sources. Although GEMs may not be widely available in all areas, the advantages of this type of mortgage loan are resulting in growing acceptance.

Floyd Racers Win at Isom

Paul David Harris, 27, is shown driving his blue (No. 10) Chevy Camaro to victory at the Mountain Motor Speedway, near Isom in Letcher county, last Sunday afternoon. He took all honors in the 90 m.p.h. plus "Super Modified" class.

Harris won the title for "fastest qualifying time of the day," 16.62 seconds for the quarter-mile dirt track, beating out Hindman veteran driver Walter Combs. Next he led the pack in the short "Super-Modified Trophy dash race". Later in the 25-lap feature race he again emerged the victor. Winning the main event paid him and his hard-working pit crew $400. Friday night he ran his first race at the Ashland race track where, finishing seventh, he won over $300.

Harris is a resident of Prestonsburg and employee of the family-owned Harris Trucking Co., of Martin.

Of the many Floyd county drivers and car owners competing Sunday, the only other to emerge a victor was "Rocky" Adams driving red Chevy No. 44, in the "Fast Stock" class. One note of interest: This is the same No. 44 owned and driven last year by Paul David Harris.

'Deacon Bob' To Serve With Two Pastorates

The Rev. Robert Damron was recently assigned by Bishop William A. Hughes to assist Monsignor Ralph Beiting, of Martin, and Father Frank Osburg, of Paintsville, with their pastorships.

"Deacon Bob," as he prefers to be called, was first introduced to Floyd county parishioners via a June 11 houseboat outing held for children enrolled in the religious education programs of St. Theodore Catholic Church, Prestonsburg, and St. Juliana Catholic Church, Martin. He was more formally introduced to all church members at the Saturday evening and Sunday morning liturgies that weekend.

Damron assisted Monsignor Beiting and Father Poole, former pastor here, with street-preaching in Eastern Kentucky the past two summers. From June 21 through July 2, he, Beiting, Poole and Osburg will be street-preaching in Floyd, Knott, Magoffin, Johnson, Lawrence and Martin counties.

Deacon Bob will spend July assisting Father Osburg with his churches in Paintsville, Hode and Louisa. In August, he will return to Floyd county.

Damron was ordained to the diaconate by Bishop William A. Hughes last April 3 in Covington. He will resume and complete his studies for the priesthood at Christ the King Theologate in East Aurora, N.Y., this fall. He expects to return to this area in January and continue his services as deacon until he is ordained to the priesthood next May.

Damron's home parish is St. Francis Church, Pikeville. A Pike county native, he is the son of Carven and Ruby Damron, of Virgie. He attended Morehead State University and the Southern Benedictine College in St. Bernard, Alabama.

ON DUTY IN GERMANY

Staff Sgt. Ricky A. Hamilton, son of Mary Hamilton, of Prestonsburg, has arrived for duty in Neu Ulm, West Germany. Hamilton, a supply sergeant with the 1st Infantry Division, was previously assigned at Fort Knox. He is a 1965 graduate of McDowell High School.
