

Rate Cut Benefits Gas Customers Here

City's Utilities Starts Search For Cheap Gas

At the approach of cold weather and increased use of natural gas for heating purposes, customers of the Prestonsburg Utilities Commission received good news this week.

First, Bill Harvey Howard, utilities superintendent, announced that a 66-cent per 1000 cubic feet reduction went into effect Sept. 1 on gas. This resulted from a reduction in that amount to the city from its supplier, Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company.

Next was the announcement that the city's commission is looking for cheaper gas elsewhere and that it entertains hope of finding it.

In the past, Howard said, when cheaper gas was found the owners of transmission lines were not required to convey the fuel from its source to Prestonsburg. Now, federal law requires transmission line owners to convey the gas at a reasonable charge if their lines are not already full to capacity.

The new gas rates are:

In the corporate limits of Prestonsburg, $5.44 minimum for the first 1000 cubic feet and $5.01 per 1000 for all gas above that minimum.

To customers outside the city limits the rates are $7.14 minimum for the first 1000 cubic feet and $5.51 per MCF for all over 1000 cubic feet.

"We passed on to our customers exactly what Kentucky West Virginia gave us in rate reduction," Howard said.

Meanwhile, the city water system is operating at normal after a brief boil-water notice was in effect.

Fugate Is First In Police Probe To Serve Term

The first person to do prison time as a result of a state police investigation of the 1982 Floyd county administration is due to report to the county jail here this Friday.

Hugh Fugate, of Price, was sentenced in Pike Circuit Court last Friday to three one-year sentences following his pleading guilty in July to three counts of theft by deception. The sentences are all to be served at the same time.

A week earlier, Third District Magistrate Ed Caudill, at whose trial Fugate testified for the prosecution, was given a year's sentence as a result of his conviction on a forged check charge. Execution of the sentence has been postponed pending an appeal, however.

Scheduled to be sentenced on October 31 is Alma Castle, of Hueysville, who was originally indicted on a forged check charge but pleaded guilty to the lesser count of criminal facilitation.

Meanwhile, trial dates have been set in November for seven other defendants indicted last December as a result of the county government probe. On Nov. 12, Ballard Crum and sons Ricky and Jackie are scheduled to be tried before Special Judge Will T. Scott in Floyd Circuit Court.

Supreme Court Ruling Dashes Miner's Hopes

Her hopes that the state Workers' Compensation Board might be forced to give a better accounting of its decisions were dashed last week when the state Supreme Court handed down a decision on the case of a Floyd county miner, Prestonsburg attorney Janet Stumbo Pillersdorf said this week.

Elva McKinney, 50, of Grethel, had his black lung claim turned down in 1980 by the compensation board, whose decisions the attorney characterized as inconsistent. "We send in two claims that are substantially the same, only to have one granted and the other denied," she said.

Moreover, the board chooses which evidence—including which physicians' reports—it will be swayed by, without feeling any need to justify its selection, she said.

While Floyd Circuit Judge Hollie Conley backed the compensation board's decision in McKinney's case, the fact that, in denying the Grethel miner's claim, the board neglected to consider the evidence submitted by two physicians was the basis of a successful appeal, a 1984 Court of Appeals decision regarding the compensation board to "consider all the evidence."

PART OF AN ESTIMATED $1 million marijuana crop harvested Sunday by state police and conservation officers. As the result of a tip, some 1300 plants, from 12 to 14 feet tall, were discovered in a field near old KY 80, about a half mile above the old Almar Drive-In, between Allen and Martin. "It's the biggest haul in Floyd county I can think of," remarked State Det. Danny Stumbo.

Knott Countian Claims Woman's Death, Accident

A Knott county woman was shot and killed Saturday afternoon near Langley, reportedly following an argument with a former boyfriend.

According to Coroner Roger Nelson, Brenda T. Thornsberry, of Pippa Passes, an employee of Druther's restaurant in Martin, was shot in the left side of the head following an argument with Hayden Hall, a resident of the Knott county community of Raven.

The shooting was said to have taken place at about 3:15 p.m. along Ky. 80, after Hall had flagged Mrs. Thornsberry off the road. Nelson said Hall later told police he had shot Mrs. Thornsberry, but claimed it was accidental. After the shooting, Hall was said to have driven to the home of his brother, Earl Hall, near Raven. The brother returned to the scene and took Mrs. Thornsberry to Our Lady of the Way hospital at Martin, where she was pronounced dead at 3:55 p.m.

The body was removed to Louisville, where an autopsy was performed by state medical examiner Dr. George Nichols. Nelson said it was determined the weapon was probably fired from a .38 Smith & Wesson revolver.

PATIENCE is in order as motorists wait for a chance to cross one-lane bridge leading to Clark Elementary School. But it will take more than patience to prevent a potentially dangerous accident, critics say, as traffic backs up onto the busy Mountain Parkway. The Clark PTA has asked school and county officials to provide better access to the school.

Freddie The Talking Hydrant To Take Message to Schools

A rolling, cajoling fire hydrant named Freddie will accompany City Fire Inspector Larry Adams and others to county schools, beginning next Tuesday, to help promote National Fire Safety Week in the area.

The fire hydrant, a talking robot manipulated from a distance by an operator with a control box and microphone, will appear on stage with Adams and tell children of the importance of smoke detectors and other areas of fire prevention.

"I know that the children might have a tendency to let their minds wander with us just standing there lecturing them," he said, "but Freddie should keep them interested." Adams added that Freddie has a siren and flashing light on top to keep the attention of even the most restless child.

But Freddie isn't the only device Adams plans to use to reach the children. He said he will also be handing out pamphlets "on everything from wood and coal burning stoves to arson prevention," as well as showing movies stressing the importance of smoke detectors and fire drills in the home.

Freddie's message won't end after Fire Safety Week, said Adams. He plans to continue taking the robot "wherever we can in the name of the Prestonsburg Fire Department." And another new program, Operation Child Rescue, will become a permanent service of the fire department as well, he said.

In Operation Child Rescue, a program Adams developed for the city, the fire dept. will keep on file the number of children in each household in their response area. Reflective stickers will be issued to homeowners who will affix them to children's bedroom windows. In the event of a fire, firefighters will go first to those rooms to search for the children.

Adams said he knew of no similar programs anywhere, but hoped Operation Child Rescue would spread at least countywide, and, hopefully, across the state.

Neither of these programs, he said, are supported by fire department funds. Rather, a raffle is being held, in which a video cassette recorder, portable black and white television, pizza maker and other prizes hopefully will induce people to contribute a dollar to the cause. Adams said he has also received money from private sources who didn't believe in raffles, but wanted to contribute.

Adams will present his program at Clark Elementary Tuesday at 8:30 and 10:30 a.m., and at the Cow Creek fire department at 7 p.m. Wednesday he will be at the Allen Grade School at 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. and the Garrett school at 1 p.m. Thursday evening at 7 o'clock he will again be at Clark, and invites anyone interested to attend.

FREDDY, billed as a talking fire hydrant, gets a lift through the courthouse here Tuesday at the hands of Don Hall, left, and Larry Adams. Hall, who doubles as Freddie's voice, and Adams, Prestonsburg fire inspector, will take the motorized robot to area schools as an aid in teaching children about fire safety.

This Town...That World

Looking backward is not always a profitable or beneficial move, as Lot's wife proved, but if we don't take a look behind us from the coign of vantage of a gloomy, rainy October day we may never fully appreciate those golden days of August through which we sweated and griped.

A TOUGH QUESTION
"What," a good friend writes, "has become of plain, old, unadulterated, spontaneous fun?"

I was wondering about the same flaw in the human condition, 1985 model, and will try to make, as they say, a few remarks about the matter.

Now, as I regard the question, we are not talking about happiness or joy but just plain fun, the brand that's panned.

DUI Charges... Two Dismissed, Seven Amended, 12 Convicted

Two drunk driving charges were dismissed—one on a motion of the county attorney, the other on a motion of the defense—because of the unavailability of police officers in Floyd district court this week.

The case against Edward E. Ousley, charged by State Trooper C.T. Henson after the defendant recorded 20 percent on breath analysis, was dismissed on a motion of David Barber after it was said that the prosecuting officer had not been told of the trial date.

The charge against Clarence Edward Baldrige was dismissed on a motion of Public Defender Sandra Simmons when the arresting officer, Larry Goble, was reported away at school.

MCC Interim Director Cancels Some Firings

Top appointments announced this week by the interim director of Mountain Comprehensive Care Center include the rehiring of a staff member fired under the administration of former director David E. Bell, Jr.

Richard T. Stai, interim director, announced that Michael Ferguson, of Keaton, in Johnson county, has been named director of the agency's substance abuse program, a position he held for six years before being fired on June 5.

State investigators said later they could not see the point in Bell's appointing an allegedly unqualified person to replace Ferguson as head of the drug abuse program.

While Ferguson was rehired this week, he was not reinstated, an action that would have restored his lost pay and benefits but that would also have reflected on the agency's board of directors, which ratified the original decision to fire him.

The two roles played in the Bell administration by Chuck Hicks, whom investigators questioned about his use of MCC credit cards while he was the mental health agency's personnel director and purchasing agent, have been split up in the latest reorganization. Bonnie Faulkner, of Auxier, a 12-year veteran of the agency, has been named personnel director and candidates are reportedly being interviewed for purchasing director. Hicks is on a leave of absence.

Chalmer Howard, of Auxier, who has been with Mountain Comprehensive Care since 1970, for most of that time as clinical supervisor of the greenhouse sheltered workshop, has been appointed director of the mental retardation/developmental disabilities program.

Also rehired this week was Lois Baldrige, fired in May after 16 years with the agency. David Amburgey, another of those squeezed out in a spate of firings and layoffs under Bell, has been reinstated.

Among other developments following this summer's probe by state Human Resources Cabinet officials, a Franklin Circuit Court grand jury has reportedly issued a subpoena for financial records of the mental health agency for the period of Bell's tenure as director.

The long-simmering dispute between Left Beaver Coal Company's Ligon tippie and some of its neighbors is bubbling again. The company last week won a restraining order against two persons who were accused of blocking a haul road to the site. Residents say they will try again this week to quash the tippie's operating permit.

District Judge Harold Stumbo last Wednesday ordered Danny Blankenship and Frank Phillips not to block the road used by trucks hauling coal to and from the Clear Creek processing plant. The restraining order had been sought by officials of Turner-Elkhorn Mining Company, Left Beaver Coal's parent firm.

Company officials said a lease signed 15 years ago by property owners and the Imperial Elkhorn Coal Co. gives them a right to use the haul road, which provides their only access to the plant. Heirs of some of the signatories claim the agreement is invalid, however.

Dawson Confirms Route for US 23

The state Transportation Cabinet announced Tuesday that the route location for the 15-mile, four-lane US 23 between Prestonsburg and Paintsville has been approved.

The location follows the route outlined in last week's Times—connecting with the existing four-lane 23 and the Mountain Parkway at or near the Katy Friend intersection here and following, generally, the present KY 1428 (old 23) down Little Paint Creek and terminating at the Johnson county end in the vicinity of the old Pride motel, near Paintsville.

Transportation Secretary C. Leslie Dawson commented:

"Now that the route location has been approved, final design and right-of-way estimates will begin. The project will provide a safe, four-lane roadway that will improve access for the movement of the area's major industry—coal."

Secretary Dawson expressed his gratitude to State Senator David Lemaster and Representative Greg Stumbo "for their efforts to see this project through."

Stumbo also confirmed the Cabinet's official action, late Tuesday afternoon. Design of the highway will be financed by Resource Recovery bond monies and is expected to require two years for completion. Four firms have been selected for the work.

Forest Fire Season Begins

By STEPHEN R. BRACKETT, District Forester

October 1, began the first day of the fall fire season in Kentucky. During this period through December 15, it is illegal to set fire to any flammable material within 150 feet of woodland or flammable material leading to woodland except between 4:30 p.m. and midnight. Persons burning between 4:30 p.m. and midnight shall exercise all reasonable care and precaution to prevent the escape of fire to woodland by carefully clearing around and piling material to be burned. All fires must be closely guarded to prevent the escape of fire until dead out. No burning should be done on windy and dry days.

During last spring's fire season, the Eastern District took action on 381 woodland fires which burned 8,831 acres. The estimated economic loss due to forest fires in the Eastern District was over $17½ million dollars. The district includes Floyd, Pike, Magoffin, Martin, Johnson, and Lawrence counties.

While fire noticeably kills only small seedlings, it does major, unnoticed damage to the bark of larger trees, which later allows invasion by insects and disease, causing the harvested log to be generally unfit for use.

As part of a cooperative effort with the Division of Forestry, the Kentucky Forest Industries Association offers a standing reward of $500 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any woods arsonist.

This fall will continue to see an increase in enforcement of the state's forest fire protection laws. Last spring, a total of 126 court cases were initiated for violations.

For additional information on forestry laws, safe burning practices, or to report a forest fire, call the District Forestry Office at 886-8562 or your local ranger, Jr. Spears, 478-2936; or Dawson Deal, 478-2479.

A SPECIAL THANKS

We, the family of Amos Dayton Williams would like to express our deep appreciation and thanks to all of our friends and neighbors who sent flowers, brought food, and shared comforting words with us during the loss of our loved one.

A special thanks to Hall Brothers Funeral Home, Joppa Regular Baptist Church, Ellis Holbrook, Monroe Jones and the other preachers who shared with us God's word. Also, a thank you to Hiram Couch who touched our hearts with a song. Dayton was known as a little man with a big heart and will be remembered by all those that knew and loved him. May God bless you and keep you always.

Cardinal Hill Lists 19 Patients From Area

Nineteen persons from Floyd county were patients during the past fiscal year at Cardinal Hill Hospital, Lexington, according to a report just issued by the Medical Records Department for the period ending August 31.

Cardinal Hill Hospital is a 100-bed facility providing rehabilitation services to disabled persons in the areas of stroke, spinal cord injury, brain damage, and general physical disability. The hospital also has a program for about fifty children, 6 months to 6 years of age, dealing with problems of the young.

A facility of the Kentucky Easter Seal Society, the hospital has a staff of 72 outstanding physicians from Lexington and Central Kentucky areas and has an affiliation with the University of Kentucky College of Medicine.

P'burg Woman Wins $7,000 for Damages

Nine of 12 jurors—the minimum necessary to render a verdict in civil trials—agreed Monday that a Prestonsburg woman should be paid $7000 as the result of a collision between the car she was driving and a Prestonsburg police cruiser.

The head-on collision occurred on June 29 last year, during heavy rain, on U.S. 23 a few miles north of here. Myrtle Hinkle, 42, said she was travelling toward Prestonsburg when the police car, which was driven by city police officer Lewis Caudill, crossed the median strip and collided with her. The accident occurred on a curve just south of Highlands Regional Medical Center.

Attorneys for the city and its police officer raised questions about the extent of Mrs. Hinkle's injuries and, in pre-trial motions, claimed that the plaintiff appeared unwilling to disclose the complete medical record.

In a deposition read in court, Pikeville neurologist Michael J. Passidomo said he diagnosed in Mrs. Hinkle a cerebral concussion and resultant depression. But defense attorneys noted that various tests ordered by the physician proved negative and that his diagnosis was based on the victim's own account of the accident and her symptoms.

The Floyd Circuit Court jury which heard the evidence awarded Mrs. Hinkle $3000 to cover her medical bills and $4000 to compensate for her pain and suffering.

A companion suit filed by a passenger in Mrs. Hinkle's car was settled out of court for an undisclosed sum. James H. Taylor, 49, of Johnson county, had sought $20,000 for medical expenses, $213,000 for pain and suffering, and $213,000 for loss of earning ability.

Fish and Game Club Holds 14th Fish Fry

The Dewey Lake Fish and Game Club held its 14th annual fish fry, Sunday, September 29, at the Stratton Branch club grounds.

Lavonne Stephens, of Prestonsburg, held the prize-winning tickets for both the first prize, a Zenith 19" color TV., and the second prize, a Remington shotgun. Bill Webb received a $100 gift certificate for selling the winning ticket. Third prize, a Garcia reel and graphite rod, was won by Mrs. Diana Crider, of Stratton Branch. Mrs. Oma Connors, of Auxier, won fourth prize, a 68-quart Coleman cooler, and Tommy Smith, of Betsy Layne, was the winner of the fifth prize, a Buck knife.

Winners of the men's division of the horse shoe tournament were Henry Harvey, of Martin, and Wade Castle, of Drift. A mother-daughter team, Zeda and Tammy Martin, won the women's division of the horse shoe tournament. Bill Setser had high score for the turkey shoot, and Oakie Harless won the most matches.

The bait casting contest, women's division, was won by Zeda Martin. The men's division winner was Chris Collins, and the junior division was won by Greg Collins. Both are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collins, of Prestonsburg. Winners of the bait casting won $10 gift certificates.

Members of the Dewey Lake Fish and Game Club extend their appreciation to all sponsors.

SCHOOL OFFICIAL SAYS ATTENDANCE IS IMPORTANT

A Message From Acting Superintendent, Ray Brackett

Dear Parents,

We are asking for your assistance in an extremely important project. Many of our young people who are eligible to attend school are not currently enrolled in either public or a private school. Others attend so infrequently that our attendance rate is among the lowest in the state.

As Superintendent, I feel a tremendous personal responsibility to help provide the best educational opportunity possible for our children. Teachers share this concern and sense of responsibility, but they simply cannot teach children if they are not in school.

We urge you as parents and concerned citizens, to survey your neighborhood; help us locate and inform parents and children of the following: Children who will be five by October 1 are eligible to enroll in Kindergarten, and in fact, must have completed Kindergarten before they can be admitted to first grade in 1986-87. This regulation holds true even if they meet the six year old age requirement at that time.

All school-age children are required by law to attend school. Any parent who fails to meet the responsibility of keeping his child in regular attendance is, in essence, contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

If a child is physically or mentally handicapped, our Special Education program is committed to finding the most appropriate learning environment for that child.

It is a fact that when children are not enrolled, or are consistently absent, our school system loses money that could be put to good use in meeting our financial needs; however, this loss is minor compared to the loss of potential of our young people who fail to get an education. They are the big losers, and will continue to be that, unless we can make the difference.

You can help to make that difference by contacting the Attendance Office at the Floyd County Board of Education—886-2354, if you know a child who should be in school, but is not attending.

Sincerely,

Ray Brackett
Ray Brackett, Acting Superintendent
Floyd County Schools

ALTERING

COPYRIGHT 1985 KVMA
Kentucky Veterinary Medical Association

Much emphasis is placed on birth control in today's society, to the point where it is said in the United States that the rate of growth is at least stable.

We are, however, still struggling with the population explosion among animals—packs of wild dogs still roam Kentucky's farmlands, wild domestic cats are sometimes seen, and thousands of unwanted kittens and puppies are born each year in Kentucky either to the packs of wild animals or to domestic animals with irresponsible owners.

Many of these unwanted and unplanned for animals will die of starvation or neglect, others in accidents. They all will become problems.

Hence, the almost universal appeal to neuter or spay your pet.

Of course, this obviously doesn't apply to those who breed purebred species, but then they don't often create a problem.

For others, there may be a misconception regarding the general health of animals which have been spayed or neutered.

Assuming you value your pet for its companionship and have no plans to breed it, you will probably increase the length of its lifespan by neutering. Statistics indicate that well cared-for cats live an average of 10 to 14 years of age, some much longer. These same statistics indicate that altered cats—especially males—live longer than their unaltered counterparts.

There are some reasons for this.

In females, spaying eliminates the possibility of an infected uterus, which is a serious malady in older animals. It also reduces the risk of mammary cancer and generally tends to improve the health of both cats and dogs.

Castration of a male dog or cat has other advantages. One is that aggressiveness is greatly reduced, the animal will be considerably less inclined to fight with other animals. The pet doesn't wander as much, and is usually more friendly and a better companion.

The myth that neutered animals necessarily gain weight is just that—a myth.

Veterinary research indicates that an altered pet does not eat more food than before. There is, however, a tendency for the animal to be less active and less interested in exercise. For this reason, altered animals sometimes gain weight—but the gain can be counteracted by exercise and supervision to assure the animal is getting the proper amount of food and a balanced diet.

There is no definite time to alter an animal. Your veterinarian is your best advisor on this. The operations are highly developed now and quite safe, with little risk.

Remember, however, that altering your pet does not give the owner reason to become careless in supervision of the animal. It only makes the animal less amorous and hence less likely to wander off for purposes of the heart. Care still must be taken against automobiles and other common hazards.

According to the National Fire Protection Association, five seconds is the safe speed for each person to pass through a revolving door.

Crystal Gayle Comes Home

Crystal Gayle's performance at Johnson Central High School in Paintsville next Saturday will be in the nature of a homecoming. She is a sister of Loretta Lynn and she spent her girlhood on Butcher Hollow, near Van Lear.

Combining pop, country and blues, Crystal is an artist whose style is hard to categorize and whose appeal is as diverse as the voice itself. Asked about her style of music, she said, "I never label my music. I just try to sing good songs and hope that as many people as possible like what they're hearing."

Obviously, they must. She already has two "Platinum" as well as four "Gold" albums to her credit. She has twice been named "Outstanding Female Vocalist" by the Country Music Association and has received the same accolade from the Academy of Country Music three times. She received a Grammy for her performance of her multi-million seller, "Don't It Make My Brown Eyes Blue." And she has twice been named "Favorite Female Country Vocalist" at the American Music Awards.

In Paintsville, she will be performing songs from her new album, "Nobody Wants To Be Alone," including her current hit single, "A Long and Lasting Love," as well as many of her past hits.

I DON'T MAKE PROMISES THAT I CANNOT KEEP!

A Promise To Me Means Words Spoken With A Commitment, Words That Are Binding...

Rumor has it that if my opponent gets elected he will do many things...

I would like to tell you, the voters of Floyd County what can be done and what has been done during my 2 years of being "your" Floyd County Clerk...

AS "YOUR" COUNTY CLERK, I do not set the fees. Your state government is the one who makes the laws which set the fees on each transaction done in the County Clerk's office...

THE DOOR IS NEVER shut in anyone's face. We are here to serve you. The clerk's office is open Monday thru Thursday 8:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m., and on Friday 8:00 a.m. till 7:00 p.m.

WE HAVE YOUR LEGAL DOCUMENTS safely recorded and microfilmed. Not many county clerks' offices have their deeds, wills, mortgages, leases and surveys on microfilm. If there was ever a disaster in the courthouse, your documents would still be safely recorded.

IT SEEMS THAT THE INTEGRITY of the clerk's office and the HONESTY of the clerk is always a POLITICAL ISSUE. I have spent valuable time and money proving that I have not done anything wrong while as a deputy clerk or even now as your County Clerk. As "YOUR" County Clerk, I have turned back over to the county over $89,000.00 in excess fees for a period of less than 14 months time. NO OTHER clerk or fee official in Floyd County's history has ever turned back to the county this amount of money.

THE CLERK'S OFFICE has a neat, clean professional business appearance. The deputy clerks are eagerly awaiting to serve you.

THE ELECTION MACHINES are in the custody of the County Clerk. This means the clerk must see that they are properly stored and taken care of from election to election. Along with this, the clerk must work with the judge in arranging for payment of this storage and service. Everyone needs an education on Voting Machines and then there would not be all of these rumors concerning the county elections. (For further info on our voting machines see "The Curtain of Doubt About Kentucky's Voting Equipment" elsewhere in the paper.)

Because I have had many years of working experience in the Floyd County Clerk's office, I know that NOTHING can be PROMISED other than—When Elected—

I WILL BE "YOUR" COUNTY CLERK. I AM THERE TO SERVE YOU

MY DEPUTIES AND I GIVE AND WILL CONTINUE TO GIVE PROMPT, COURTEOUS, FRIENDLY SERVICE. The Clerk's office is "YOUR" office—I am asking that on November 5th, GO TO THE POLLS AND VOTE for the Clerk who will give you the best service—Vote for the Clerk with Office Experience—VOTE FOR YOUR CLERK—

DISTRICT JUDGE

HI, FLOYD COUNTY!

Even though I'm only two months old, I know that my daddy would make a great District Judge.

My mommy says that my daddy will see to it that all the people are treated fairly in District Court.

My mommy and daddy are having a campaign picnic at the Dewey Dam Spillway Park area, on Saturday, October 5th at 6:00 p.m. We would love for you to come, and bring your family. See you then.

Ivel Girl Is Winner In KET Reading Contest

Samantha Brown, daughter of Mrs. Vernice Brown, of Ivel, and a third-grade pupil of the Betsy Layne Elementary School, is one of six youngsters who are winners in KET's summer "Reading Rainbow" contest. Other winners are Tracy Layne, Belfry; Travis Wilson, Morehead; Karrie Frederick, Providence; Tom Earl, Lawrenceburg, and Samantha Carson, Madisonville. These six winners were drawn from 300 entries. The entrants qualified for the drawing by reading at least six books during the summer.

Mrs. Brown said reading six books during the summer was no problem for her daughter. "I took her to the county library at Prestonsburg every two weeks, and each time she took out between 10 and 15 books," Mrs. Brown said.

Each of the winners will have a choice of a KET prize—a director's chair with KET emblazoned across the back, or a National Geographic book set, or a Sesame Street sleeping bag. The Floyd county winner has narrowed her choice down to two of these but is having a little trouble deciding between the book set and the sleeping bag.

"Reading Rainbow" has been praised by librarians, statewide, according to Jim Nelson, state librarian.

Beaver Creek Little League Champs

The Wayland Little League team not only won first place in the Beaver Creek Little League tournament, four of its members were also named to the Beaver Creek Little League All Stars. They are Anthony Martin, Joey Gray, Brian Combs, and Mark Mosley.

Hazardous Substances Seminar at May Lodge Scheduled November 12

A landmark safety standard designed to insure the employee's right to know about hazardous substances will soon go into effect, and the Kentucky Labor Cabinet is taking steps to educate employers and employees now.

The Division of Education and Training under Kentucky's Occupational Safety and Health Program will hold a series of seminars to inform affected industries about the new regulatory standard. The one-day seminars, which are free and open to the public, will be conducted throughout the state in the months of October and November.

The seminar for this area will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Nov. 12 at May Lodge, Jenny Wiley State Park.

The new Hazard Communications Standard, which was adopted by the state Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board, is scheduled to go into effect November 25. At that time, all manufacturers working with hazardous substances will be required to properly label all chemical containers and make detailed safety information available to all establishments.

Under a second phase of the new standard that becomes effective May 25, 1986 employers will be required to inform and train workers who come in contact with hazardous substances in order to protect them from illness or injury.

2 Recipients Share Education Award

Pikeville College's Granville Teaching Award, established in 1982, was instituted to honor the outstanding student in practice teaching for regular elementary school. During the 1984-85 academic year, two student teachers in elementary education were so outstanding they caused the first tie in the history of this prestigious award.

Linda Pritchard and Judy Conley Raines, both of the Grundy area of Virginia, were awarded the Granville Teaching Award at May, 1985 graduation ceremonies. Each received a citation for outstanding performance as student teachers, and shared a $500 monetary prize.

Criteria for the selection was based on characteristics in four areas; learning, motivation, creativity, and leadership. In addition, applicants were required to have at least a 3.5 grade point average in their education classes.

The Reciford Damron Education Awards were presented to Karen Martin (elementary education) and Johnny Shortridge (secondary education). Granville Awards for the Most Promising Elementary and Secondary Education Majors were awarded to secondary education major Susan Hayes and elementary education major Teresa Lockhart.

Layne-Jones Vows Exchanged

Miss Melissa Gail Layne and Mr. David Thomas Jones, of Langley, were united in marriage August 26 at 12 o'clock noon at Calvary Baptist Church at Betsy Layne, Kentucky. The Rev. Cohen Campbell, pastor at Calvary Baptist, officiated.

Miss Layne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Layne, of Langley, and Mr. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Jones, of New Castle, Ind., formerly of Langley, and the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wiley J. Jones.

The bride is a student at Allen Central and Mr. Jones is an employee of Edwards-Warrens, of Prestonsburg. The couple is residing at Langley.

Jenny Wiley Among 5 Parks Tabbed for Major Benefits

Tourism Secretary Wendell Combs announced last week that the Department of Parks has realized $2.8 million in additional funds, and that, as a result, Jenny Wiley State Park will be one of five to get major improvements.

Most of additional funds, $2.2 million, are generated from converting the park system to direct deposit. The remaining $600,000 became available from the early retirement of a previous Parks Department bond issue.

The $2.8 million will be used to finance a number of major construction and capital outlay projects for the Department of Parks. Combs said revenue-producing facilities were emphasized in the selection of projects.

The largest improvement project planned with the funds is to replace furnishings at five of the most heavily used parks. Jenny Wiley, Kentucky Dam Village, Lake Cumberland, Barren River and Lake Barkley state resort parks are scheduled to have their 20-year-old lodge furnishings replaced.

These five parks accounted for 53 percent of the total lodge room business in 1984-85. Upon completion of the furnishings program, 45 percent of park lodge rooms will be newly furnished. Estimated cost is $890,000.

Other improvements include the expansion of campsites at several parks, construction of fitness facilities, and conversion of existing facilities into meeting rooms.

These projects are:

—General Butler State Resort Park; construction of an addition to the park's recreation center at a cost of $75,000. The new facility will accommodate 200.

—E.P. "Tom" Sawyer State Park; construction of 35 campsites, including access roads and a restroom building. Estimated cost is $185,000.

—Lake Malone State Park; installation of 50 more campsites plus access roads, at a total cost of $195,000.

—Jefferson Davis State Shrine; construction of a public restroom for $28,000.

—Green River State Park; installation of 60 more campsites, roads and a restroom building, at a cost of $240,000.

—Carter Caves State Resort park; renovation of campground, including construction of new entrance and improvements to group camp building.

—Kentucky Dam Village State Resort Park. Conversion of old auditorium into gymnasium at a cost of $75,000. Also, conversion of housekeeping building into a meeting room, plus other park improvements; estimated cost, $75,000.

—Big Bone Lick State Park; construction of grocery store at campground for $42,000.

—Kincaid Lake State Park; construction of community swimming pool.

—Kenlake State Resort Park. Conversion of part of tennis center into meeting room accommodating 450 and including a holding kitchen. The cost is $75,000. Also, construction and furnishing of fitness center in part of existing tennis center at a cost of $65,000.

—Fort Boonesborough State Park; construction of a new entrance to fort, to provide easier access. A new paved access road will be constructed, as will a parking lot for 35 cars. The project will cost $135,000.

—General Butler State Resort Park; conversion of former Ski Butler administrative offices into meeting room at estimated cost of $75,000.

The funds also will pay for purchase of 62 new trucks and vans for various parks.

Wins Academic Award

The National Secondary Education Council has announced that Scott Anthony Tackett has been named an Academic All-American. The NSEC has established the Academic All-American Scholar Award Program in order to recognize superior students, who must earn a 3.3 or better grade point average.

A Betsy Layne High School student, Tackett was nominated for the award by Janet K. Akers, biology teacher. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tackett, of Banner, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Junior L. Conn, of Banner, and Mr. and Mrs. Logan Tackett, of Printer.

Allen Central Band Wins More Honors

The Allen Central Marching Rebels won first place in the band competition at the Mountain Heritage Festival at Whitesburg last Saturday. The Allen Central Flag Corps also placed first. Second place honors went to the Allen Central Majorettes.

THESE LOVABLE PUPPIES are but two of those awaiting adoption at the East Kentucky Wildlife Federation animal shelter, here. In addition there are several pedigreed dogs including a four-month-old male German shepherd, a three-year-old male silver poodle, and an old English sheep dog.

General Motors Corp., and the United Automobile Workers signed the first major contract with an "escalator" clause, providing for wage increases based on the Consumer Price Index, in 1948, according to "Important Events in American Labor History," a publication of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Over 50 million people are eligible to receive their payments by Direct Deposit; however, only 20 million are currently participating in the program. The goal of the Department of the Treasury is to have 80% of all eligible recipients enrolled in the program by 1990.

HONOR MRS. BOYD

As W. B. (Brad) Boyd was nearing his 90th birthday, which was on September 6, he requested that members of his family be at his home to share the occasion with him, and they were there—46 of them. Enjoying the dinner prepared by Mrs. Boyd and their daughters, Mrs. Fred Cottrell and Mrs. Lloyd Miller, both of Prestonsburg, were Mr. Cottrell and Mr. Miller, the Boyds' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Boyd, of Dayton, and grandchildren, brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews, and cousins of the Boyd family. Following the dinner, the hostesses served decorated birthday cake and other refreshments, a period of fellowship and reminiscing was enjoyed, and the honoree was presented many mementoes of the occasion.

Among the Floyd countians who attended "Appalachian Day" at Alice Lloyd College Saturday were Arthur Haywood, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Snively, Clyde Allen, Mrs. Zella Archer, and Mrs. Florence Castle Ison, formerly of this county, who now resides at Cumberland, Kentucky.

HOLD FIRST MEET OF YEAR

The Prestonsburg Kiwanians held their first luncheon-meeting of the new club year last Thursday. Mrs. Jane Bond, president, presided. Mrs. M. Robert Regan gave the devotionals. "Get well" cards were signed for Mrs. May K. Roberts, who had been ill, but was able to be present for this event, and for Mrs. Opal Dings, who is a patient at Central Baptist Hospital in Lexington.

It was announced that Mrs. Vera Ford had recently accepted a position with the Floyd County Board of Education, and had resigned her office as secretary-treasurer of the Kiwanians. Mrs. Barbara Dawson was selected to succeed Mrs. Ford.

The President said that it had been reported that the American flag, placed at the Floyd county courthouse by the Kiwanians a few years ago, was no longer there, and it was decided that persons in charge there would be contacted about this matter. An excessive amount of weeds along Floyd county rural highways was also discussed and it was decided that a letter about this would be written to persons who may be able to get improvements made.

Mrs. Garnett Fairchild announced that Jean Ritchie, noted folk singer, would give a performance Friday, Oct. 11, at 7:30 p.m., at Prestonsburg Community College for the benefit of the Big Sandy Hospice program, and she urged all members to attend.

Mrs. Lucy Regan reported that a request had been received from the Abortion Alternatives directors for maternity clothes, size 13, and it was said that this program is also in need of helpers and financial aid.

Mrs. Jane Bond, president, who works at the Floyd County Health Department, reminded members over 60 years of age of the "flu" shots that can be obtained there. The Spouse Abuse program was discussed briefly.

The next luncheon-meeting will be held Thursday, Oct. 24 at the lodge.

Present for Thursday's meeting were Mesdames Jane Bond, Mabel Jean LeMaster, May K. Roberts, Minerva Cooley, Mary Lou Layne, Docia Woods, Dolly Pettrey, Myrtle Allen, Garnett Fairchild, Rebecca Rasnick, Ada Meade, Zella Archer, Margaret Collins, Lucy Regan, Hope Whitten, Dorothy Osborne, Virginia Shivel, Jane Wallace, Margaret Alley, and Anna May Mellon.

CHURCH CIRCLE MEETS

The Wesleyan Circle of the First United Methodist Church met Tuesday evening at the church. The chairman, Mrs. Rose Glenn, opened the meeting and gave the devotionals. Mrs. May K. Roberts introduced Leonard Grant, who holds a position with the local Job Corps who spoke to the group on "B.E.P.—Placement Specialists of the Job Corps." Mr. Grant gave a discussion about the work and progress there.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Virginia Shivel and Mrs. Anna May Mellon, to a guest, Mrs. Gypsy Elkins, and members, Mesdames Vera Ford, Edna Carol Greenwade, Josephine Fields, Virginia Jeffries, Victoria Spradlin, Rose Glenn, May K. Roberts, Mary Margaret Webb, Jane Wallace, Olva Burchett, Fannie Runnels, Douglas Perry, Sally Goebel, Shirley Callihan, Dorothy Wells, and Misses Alice Harris and Maurine Mayo.

ENJOY SMOKIES OUTING

Thirty three members of the Cow Creek Baptist Church enjoyed a recent weekend in the Smokies (at Gatlinburg, Tennessee). During this time, they attended gospel singing, featuring the "Inspirations," of Bryson City, N.C., and the "Faith Travelers," of Salyersville, Tenn., and visited Silver Dollar City, where they attended Sunday morning services at an old log church.

CONCLUDES VISIT

Mrs. Peg Hewlett has returned to her home here after a 10-day visit with Dr. and Mrs. G.A. Culbertson in Paris, Kentucky. She was accompanied home Sunday by Mrs. Culbertson, who visited until the following day with her and another of their sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Davis. All of them spent some time with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hill, on the Abbott road.

House Leader Lauds Perkins

House Minority Leader Wright and Congressman Perkins at fund-raising event held at La Citadelle, Hazard.

House Minority Leader Jim Wright, (D-Texas) toured the Seventh Congressional district earlier this month with freshman Congressman Chris Perkins during fund-raising meetings for Perkins, and was forthright in his prediction that the son of the late Congressman Carl D. Perkins has a great potential for leadership.

In an interview with Ron Daley, editor of The Troublesome Creek Times, Hindman weekly newspaper, Wright said Perkins, like his late father, is a hard worker.

"There are two or three different kinds of people in Congress," the Texan said. "But it doesn't take members long to size up one, you know. A fellow who is glib of tongue and has a nice personality, seeing and being seen by his constituents once every two or three years might possibly pass himself off as something he wasn't. But those folks who work with you day in and day out have a special instinct. We can tell the difference between a cleverly camouflaged phony and the real McCoy. We've spotted Chris, and he's the real McCoy..."

Then the House minority leader added: "I don't have any hesitation at all in predicting, I've seen an awful lot of congressmen come and go. I've been there 30 years. It surprises me to realize that I have. I don't know how many I've seen, maybe two or three thousand, but I can spot them and I don't hesitate to prophesy to you—give Chris Perkins just a few years, he'll be one of the leaders of Congress."

McConnell Measure Would Ban Deficit

Senator Mitch McConnell said last week he has co-sponsored legislation which will eliminate the federal deficit by 1990.

The plan will set the maximum allowable debt ceiling at $172 billion—the cost of this year's budget deficit. The allowable deficit will be reduced in four equal steps to zero by 1990.

"This year Congress is planning to increase the debt ceiling to $2 trillion. The time has come to take drastic action to provide us with the discipline to say no," McConnell said.

"This plan will force the President and Congress to be responsible by submitting and passing budgets which will not exceed the maximum allowable debt ceiling. After five years, the President must submit a balanced budget and Congress must pass one," McConnell said.

"This plan will force the President and Congress to be responsible by submitting and passing budgets which will not exceed the maximum allowable debt ceiling. After five years, the President must submit a balanced budget and Congress must pass one," McConnell said.

"We are now in a state of emergency and emergency action must be taken. Somehow, somehow the voices of reason must prevail on this issue of the national debt," McConnell said.

In Scandinavia, klackstrangs or bell pulls are popular for doorway decorations at Christmas time. Tied with ribbons and hung with greens, the bell is rung by visitors to announce their arrival. Often a cow bell is used and almost always is painted gold.

From 1980 to 1984, the number of self-employed women in nonagricultural industries increased from 2.1 million to 2.6 million, a 22 percent gain. However, self-employed women constituted only 6.0 percent of all employed women in 1984, compared with 11.1 percent of employed men, according to the fact sheet, "Women Business Owners."

'Last Place on Earth' Opens 'Masterpiece Theatre' Season

The story of the harrowing, adventure-filled race to the South Pole between British Navy Captain Robert Scott and Norwegian Roald Amundsen is told in "The Last Place on Earth," a six-part series that launches "Masterpiece Theatre's" 15th anniversary season. The first episode will be aired on KET Sunday, October 20, at 10:00 p.m. (ET), 9:00 p.m. (CT).

Scott became a hero in the wake of a resounding failure to complete his mission. Because Amundsen, racing to the Pole at almost the same time as Scott, was first to reach the site, Scott missed his goal to become the first to plant his country's flag there. Yet after he and members of his team froze to death on their attempted return to civilization, he became a legend, a national hero held up as an inspiration to British fighting men on the eve of World War I.

"The Last Place on Earth" stars Martin Shaw as Scott, Norwegian actor Sverre Anker Ousdal as Amundsen, Susan Wooldridge as Scott's wife Kathleen, and Max Von Sydow as Fridtjof Nansen, Norwegian ambassador to England and Amundsen's mentor.

A British search party, scouring the Antarctic for Scott and his crew some 10 months after they disappeared, found their bodies just 11 miles from their destination. The search team also found Scott's diaries, in which he had written, "these rough notes and our dead bodies must tell the tale."

Arthritis Fund Drive Leaders Appointed

The following 1985 Arthritis Leadership appointments for the Floyd county campaign have been made by the Executive Committee of the Arthritis Foundation:

Miss Burieta Gearheart, of Prestonsburg, county chairman and treasurer; Mrs. Patsy Evans, of Prestonsburg, Special Events chairman; Mrs. Barbara Heinze, of Prestonsburg, publicity chairman; Blanche Finney, of Prestonsburg, Job Corps representative; Mrs. Maxine Martin, of Wayland, chairman for Lackey, Garrett, and Wayland; Miss Ruby Akers, of Drift, chairman for Drift and McDowell; Mrs. Dee Burchett, of Langley, chairman for the Martin and Maytown area; Mrs. Gaynel Clark, of Betsy Layne, chairman for Betsy Layne; Mrs. Betty Mullins, of Wheelwright, chairman for Wheelwright; Mrs. Aileen Fraley, of Weeksbury, chairman for Weeksbury; Mrs. Bonnie Walters, of Emma, chairman for Emma; Mary Hinchman, of Allen, chairman for Allen; Mrs. Virginia Goble, of Prestonsburg, chairman for the Cow Creek area; Miss Delores Tackett, of Harold, chairman for Harold and Boldman.

The 1985 campaign is scheduled for the month of October, with a goal of $1,400.

The Arthritis Foundation is the only voluntary health organization working in the field of arthritis which affects over 506,000 Kentuckians. Arthritis is the country's No. 1 crippling disease.

The State Chairman is urging 100 percent participation in this year's campaign from all Kentuckians.

The campaign in Floyd county will have the active support of the Senior Citizens Center of Prestonsburg, the Prestonsburg Job Corps Center, the Garrett Woman's Club, the Drift Woman's Club, the Wheelwright Woman's Club, the Allen Woman's Club, and the Martin Senior Citizen's Program.

The 1985 campaign will include the annual road block, sponsored by the Prestonsburg Job Corps Center, under the direction of Blanche Finney, to be held October 5, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., at the Mt. Parkway intersection and the Jenny Wiley entrance intersection. The first 150 motorists will receive certificates for french fries from Druthers Restaurant of Prestonsburg.

Exercise won't improve a diseased heart, but it will increase your fitness. Fitness has more to do with the quality of life than the quantity, says the October Reader's Digest. It is the ability to do work; it is movement; it is both muscular and cognitive energy.

New Hospice Director

Hospice of Big Sandy has named Chris Conley, of Prestonsburg, as its new executive director. Conley succeeds Beverly Green, who directed the local Hospice during the first year of its existence, and is leaving Hospice because she and her husband are returning to his Tennessee hometown.

Miss Conley, a native of Pennsylvania, earned her BA in English at Berea College, then took an MS in personnel administration at Syracuse University. She has worked in administration at Ball State University in Indiana and at Frostburg State College in Maryland. Her most recent position was as instructor in the Youth Education Training Program, a federally-funded project handled locally by the Big Sandy Community Action Program.

"Hospice of Big Sandy is off to a fine start in its first year, thanks largely to Beverly," Conley said. "Already, 30 families have been helped or are being helped through the crisis of a terminal illness within the family."

"As with any service of this type, our number one problem is funding. We don't feel people in these situations should have to pay for our help, but what we do does cost money. We receive no government funding, so we must count entirely on donations from community members and civic groups."

Hospice is currently engaged in its major fund-raising project for the coming year, an Oct. 11 concert at Prestonsburg Community College by noted folk singer Jean Ritchie. Proceeds of the concert will be donated to Hospice of Big Sandy.

Persons who would like information about volunteering their time or making donations may contact Conley or Sister Margaret at 886-2721.

Mother, Child Programs Mark 50th Anniversary

What is more important to the nation than the health and well-being of its children? This question was asked often in the early part of this century, and those who persistently asked the question succeeded in getting maternal and child health programs funded through the Social Security Act, which was signed 50 years ago.

Title V of the act provided grants to employ public health nurses, doctors, nutritionists, social workers and dentists to help insure the health and well-being of children and mothers. In Kentucky, the Department for Health Services administers the federal grant.

"Maternal and child health programs have made an impact on Kentuckians," said Patricia Nicol, M.D., Division of Maternal and Child Health director. "For example, the infant mortality rate was 27.8 in 1960 and 11.6 in 1984."

The infant mortality rate is the number of infants who die per 1,000 live births.

"We have also made improvements in the percentage of babies with low birth-weight, the greatest single hazard for newborns," said Nicol. "In Kentucky, the percentage of low birth-weight babies was 9 percent in 1970. It had dropped to 7 percent by 1984. We are now saving babies that weigh less than one-and-a-half pounds."

A significant contribution to the improved health status of Kentucky mothers and children has been the increased number and scope of preventive health services now provided.

"Less than 10 years ago, prenatal care offered by many local health departments consisted of little more than a pregnancy test and blood pressure checks," said Nicol. "Now we have comprehensive prenatal/maternity care in 104 of 120 counties and we have well-child programs in 118 counties."

Today's typical health department also offers immunizations, pediatrics, infant safety seats, and services for children with developmental disabilities, for crippled children and for families who have lost a baby to sudden infant death syndrome.

While accomplishments have been made, much work is yet to be done. "Improving the health status of women and children is a high priority," according to a proclamation signed by Gov. Martha Layne Collins recognizing Sept. 29-Oct. 5 as Maternal and Child Health Week in Kentucky.

"As we enter the second 50 years of maternal and child health programs, we still need to improve our efforts against infant mortality and low birth-weight babies," said Nicol of the program's future efforts. "Kentucky is trying to achieve the federal objective of a 9.0 infant mortality rate by 1990. We still have a long way to go to meet that objective."

Rubbing Worcestershire sauce or ketchup over a copper pot will make the tarnish disappear faster.

According to the October Reader's Digest, over 500,000 seemingly healthy Americans die from sudden, massive heart attacks every year. It is now believed that the major factor in triggering these attacks is painless, or silent ischemia, which is the sub-normal flow of blood to the heart.

'Brideshead Revisited' Comes Back This Month

"Brideshead Revisited," the 11-part series which won unanimous praise and record-breaking audiences when it premiered, encores on "Great Performances" on KET beginning Sunday, October 20, at 8:00 p.m.

Adapted from Evelyn Waugh's most successful and popular novel, "Brideshead Revisited" has been described by its author as "the operation of divine grace on a group of diverse but closely connected characters." "Brideshead" is the story of Charles Ryder, a painter who falls under the spell of a wealthy, aristocratic family, the Marchmains.

The action begins in 1944 when Ryder, a captain in the British Army, now disillusioned with military life, arrives at his regiment's new headquarters, Brideshead, the scene of the enchanting days of his youth. Ryder's return to the once handsomely furnished castle, presently a bleak army encampment, reminds him of his years at Oxford where he met the irresistible Lord Sebastian Flyte and was catapulted into the latter's privileged and glamorous milieu.

Featured in the distinguished cast are Jeremy Irons, Anthony Andrews, Sir Laurence Olivier, Claire Bloom, and Sir John Gielgud.

"Brideshead Revisited" is a production of Granada Television of England, in association with WNET/New York and NDR Hamburg.

Martin Singer In German Tour

Dean Conn, of Martin, recently returned from an 11-week concert and television tour of Germany to promote his new double single, "She's Not a Typical Girl" and "Live Your Life." While there promoting these recordings for Intercord Records, his songs hit the best-selling charts and helped to make him a rising new teen idol in Germany, his publicity agent said.

The BACKYARD NATURALIST

By Craig Tufts

Getting Ready for the Bird Feeding Season

Fall in the air means that soon the birds will be swarming back to our winter feeders. Now is the time to get feeding stations ready, and here are three things we can do:

1. Clean up used feeders. I've been feeding birds all summer, and have just cleaned up the suet feeder, a couple of tubular plastic feeders (which I use for niger seed), my hummingbird feeder, and a large feeding table. With the caked-on dirt off the feeders I (and the birds) can see the seed. Also, with a clean feeder, there's little chance (though chances are very slim anyway) that birds visiting my yard could possibly pick up some disease from fungi collected in the feeders' nooks and crannies during the warm, wet summer months. Occasional cleaning is good practice.

How to clean: Usually a mild detergent and a bottle brush is enough, but the caked-on debris may need a good soaking. You might want to invest (as I have) in plastic feeders that come apart and are easy to clean. Rinse very well. I gave my hummingbird feeder an especially thorough going-over and put it away for the winter.

2. Buy some new feeders. You may want to try to correct some of the feeder problems you encountered last winter.

—Attracting certain birds. If some large, greedy birds such as grackles and blue jays hogged your feeders and drove smaller birds away, try the tubular feeder I've spoken of before. It lets you vary the size of—or completely remove—the perches. Short perches (or none) discourage the bigger birds and are convenient for the smaller ones. Chickadees, titmice, nuthatches, woodpeckers and a few of the smaller finches need no perch at all.

—Squirrels and other animals. A pole-mounted feeder is one of the best ways to thwart squirrels, especially if it is equipped with a baffle above and/or below the feeder and if the pole is placed a distance from tree branches and overhanging eaves that make springboards for the squirrels. A slightly costlier feeder, equipped with a spring or an adjustable counterbalancing mechanism, closes up under the weight of squirrels and large birds but is not triggered shut when lightweight birds land.

3. Make some new feeders. Making feeders is a great family or neighborhood project (either following printed plans or designing your own). This is a very inexpensive way to provide food stations for birds.

—A feeding table. Simply provide an open, shallow area set 1 to 1½ feet off the ground. All kinds of wildlife will feed, including a number of birds such as juncos, blue jays and mourning doves that won't visit a hanging feeder.

—A plastic bleach-bottle feeder. On each side of a bleach bottle, 2 inches from the base, cut two feeding ports large enough (perhaps 3" by 3") for birds to fly into. Put several small drainage holes in the bottom and hang from a wire strung through two tiny holes in the bottle's neck. Not as beautiful as a redwood feeder perhaps, but efficient. It will last a lot longer than a plastic milk or juice container which is apt to be affected by sun and/or cold.

For more information about wildlife around your home, contact the National Wildlife Federation, Dept. BN, 1412 16th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036-2266.

October 13-19 Is Pharmacy Week

"Ask About Your Medicines" is the theme for Kentucky Pharmacy Week, October 13-19. Governor Martha Layne Collins cited the important role of pharmacy in the health care system of Kentucky and the need to utilize the pharmacist as a health information resource in proclaiming Kentucky Pharmacy Week.

More than 2,400 pharmacists provide professional services to the residents of the Commonwealth. The pharmacist provides expert guidance to the public on the use of prescription and non-prescription medications.

Volunteer Staff Adds 4 At Martin Hospital

Four persons became part of Our Lady of the Way Hospital's volunteer staff by participating in an orientation workshop, Sept. 16.

The orientation was conducted by Education Coordinator Naewana Nickles and Infection Control Coordinator Judy Hamm.

Participants, Dennis Hutchinson, Lisa Hutchinson, Jamie Ratliff and Tina Thomas, were given a tour of the hospital to acquaint them with hospital facilities and personnel. Judy Hamm explained hospital procedures and instructed the new volunteers in what they could safely do and what they should not attempt. The volunteers were also given TB skin tests.

Because volunteer services support and supplement the work of professional staff, Our Lady of the Way Hospital considers volunteers an integral part of the health care team. Volunteers help in a variety of capacities, according to individual skills and hospital needs.

Persons age 13 and over who are interested in sharing their time and talent in volunteer service at Our Lady of the Way Hospital should contact Sister Ann Koebel at 285-5181.

Pharmacy Footnotes

By HAROLD COOLEY

THE TRANSDERMAL PATCH

The transdermal patch offers an innovative approach to taking medicine. The patch looks like an adhesive bandage and sticks to the skin. A membrane controls the gradual release of medicine through the skin and directly into the bloodstream for prolonged periods. The patches make many prescription drugs safer, more effective and easier to take. When medication is swallowed, it is quickly released then followed by a drop to less-than-therapeutic levels. Dosage may have to be frequent to maintain optimum levels. Orally taken medicine must also pass through the gastrointestinal tract and liver. The liver metabolizes and destroys all or part of the drug's action before it can reach targeted organs or tissues. Larger doses, which encourage side effects, are thus required.

When your physician prescribes medication for you or a member of your family to be taken orally or through the skin on a transdermal patch have him call COOLEY APOTHECARY directly. As a full service drug store we feature a complete inventory of RX products. Close collaboration between your physician and us is very important as we are both members of a team devoted to the betterment of your health. You'll find us located at No. 2 Town Center Bldg., 886-8106 and open Mon.-Fri. 9-5:30, Sat. 9-4. Master Charge and Visa honored plus we welcome all third party payments.

Donates Supplies To Hospice
Highlands Regional Associate Administrator Russell W. Briggs hands some medical supplies to Hospice of Big Sandy's outgoing executive director, Beverly Green, as incoming director Chris Conley looks on. HRMC donated medical supplies needed by Hospice to continue its work in helping terminal patients and their families.

Highlands Regional Medical Center has made a donation of medical supplies to Hospice of Big Sandy, the one-year-old, not-for-profit group that provides support to victims of terminal illness and to their families. Hospice, which neither receives government funding nor charges for its services, exists entirely on donations from the community. "Hospice is an extremely worthwhile cause and a valuable complement to the Medical Center's in-patient services," said HRMC Associate Administrator Russell W. Briggs. "We are happy to help Hospice in any way we can." At its first anniversary, Hospice of Big Sandy has served or is serving 30 families in Floyd and Johnson counties. The group offers nursing care and respite care for both patients and families. Respite care comes in the form of volunteers performing routine tasks for the patient, allowing rest time for family members. Hospice also offers volunteer training to prepare its staff for working with affected families, and it offers in-service training on pain management for local physicians.

Continuing Program Classes Scheduled

Would you like to learn a craft practiced in ages past and as current as the satellite-dish. Try knitting and crocheting. Works of beauty and utility can be created from this very personal craft-form. There is always a sense of pride when we accomplish something which is created solely by our own energies.

A knitting-crocheting class will begin October 7, and continue 6:30-8:30 p.m., on Mondays.

Photography can be an interesting hobby but many people feel intimidated by all the technical factors like f-stops, shutter speeds, lens types, etc. David Gardner is offering a beginners' course which will easily guide you through this information.

This class will begin Oct. 22 at 7 p.m. Denise Pocta has announced that she will start two new aerobics classes—one, from 4 to 5 p.m. for individuals with absolutely no experience in aerobics, and the other from 5 to 6 p.m. for people who have aerobics experience. The classes will meet Mondays and Wednesdays. Basic running shoes are suggested for the beginning class and aerobic shoes for the experienced class. Special clothes are not necessary—anything comfortable to exercise in is fine.

Ms. Pocta teaches mathematics at Prestonsburg Community College. Originally from Maryland, she lived in New Jersey and settled in Tennessee for 10 years before moving to Prestonsburg. (Persons interested in any of these classes should call Juanita Ratliff at 886-3863, extension 215.)

"All animals are equal, but some animals are more equal than others."
George Orwell

Exercise can reduce a diabetic tendency and can also lower blood pressure. Furthermore, the October Reader's Digest reports that expending 2000 or more calories a week in vigorous exercise such as biking, jogging, and rowing is associated with a declining rate of coronary heart disease.

YES, YOU CAN! You may have seen many new satellite earth stations, or "dishes", installed in our area recently and asked yourself, "Are those dishes legal?" or, "Can I have one of those?" Well, happily the answer to both questions is YES. In 1984, the U.S. Congress approved home earth stations designed for the reception of satellite broadcasts. Not only are dishes legal to use, they are affordable, too. You can enjoy the freedom and wide variety of satellite television today. • 10' mesh dish installed with crank—AS LOW AS $1249 For a Demonstration of Satellite TV Capabilities, see: CUSTOM ANTENNA TELEPHONE MARTIN, KY. 285-3984 10-2-4t.

QUARTERLY MEETING HELD

The K.R.T.A.-A.A.R.P. annual fall workshops and the quarterly meeting of the Big Sandy Retired Teachers' Association were held at May Lodge, Jenny Wiley State Park, Sept. 12. The day began with a coffee and the registration of guests, with Mesdames Marvin Dodson and Jack Gardner presiding at the guest-book.

Charles Spears, president of the Big Sandy Retired Teachers, opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Danese Amburgey, president of the Floyd County Retired Teachers, gave the welcome address. The roll call was given by K.R.T.A. President Jack Gardner, with representatives of five Eastern Kentucky counties responding.

Mr. Gardner presented M.L. Archer, who spoke on "Pre-Retirement Planning", and Mrs. Dolly Gillahan, who discussed "Membership." Mike Auxier, of Floyd county, who works at the retired teachers' office in Frankfort, gave an update on the Kentucky Teacher Retirement System, and he and the president summarized what they felt retired teachers should ask at the next legislative session.

Ted Crosthwait, K.R.T.A.-A.A.R.P. state coordinator, stressed the importance of the cooperation of these two groups. Miss Amy Braden, a representative of the Aetna Insurance Company, discussed the filing of insurance claims, and Dr. J.M. Dodson, director of K.R.T.A., and Mr. Crosthwait spoke on "Our Legislative Program."

Following lunch, the president of the Big Sandy Retired Teachers, Mr. Spears, was in charge of the meeting, and presented State Rep. Greg Stumbo, and floor leader of the Kentucky Legislature, and State Senator Bennie Ray Bailey, of Hindman. Rep. Stumbo spoke of the need for public awareness of education, and of bills pertaining to retired teachers that he felt should be brought before the next legislative session. Senator Bailey spoke briefly along these same lines.

Miss Ethel Fetterley, chairman of the Nominating committee, announced the officers and committee chairmen of the Big Sandy Retired Teachers Association for the year 1985-'86. These are: President, Mrs. Lenora Hall Gullett; president-elect, Mrs. Norma S. Stepp, vice-president, H.C. Dutton; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Imogene Salyer; executive chairman, Russell Boyd, and publicity chairman, Mrs. Docia B. Woods. Mrs. May K. Roberts serves as coordinator for these and other retired teachers groups.

It was decided that meetings of this organization would held as follows: September, Insurance and general matters; December, the Legislative program; April, membership.

Attending the workshop and meeting were these from a distance: Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Dodson and Miss Amy Braden, Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gardner, and Lee Watson, Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Crosthwait and Mike Auxier, Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. M.L. Archer and Mrs. Norcie Brown, Georgetown; Mrs. Dolly Gillahan, Ledbetter; Bennie Ray Bailey, Hindman. Others attending, and the counties which they represented were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spears, Goldia Benedict, Jane Elswick, Edith Roberts, Ruby Hinkle, Mae Hatcher Greene, Hobart Kinder, Quentin R. Howard, Bernice Hackney, Stella Mullins, Bernice Alley, and Alice J. Kinder, Pike county; Lenora H. Gullett, H.C. Dutton, Ellen Dutton, Russell Boyd, Luther Wright, Pearl Short and Anna Lee Wells, Johnson county; Imogene Salyer, Ethel Fetterly, Alma Frazier, Mabel Brown and Lillie Mae Prater, Magoffin county; Mary W. Chafin, Olive E. Endicott, Katherine Cline, Opal Preese and Rose H. Forsyth, Martin county; Norma S. Stepp, Danese Amburgey, Ruby Akers, Mae K. Roberts, Grace Sutherland, Opal S. May, Alice Martin, Agnes Kidd, Gladys Conn, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Martin, Linda Stephens, Elsie Stephens, Rhoda H. Prater, Virginia S. Goble, Sonia B. Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Allen, Mildred Salisbury, Lucy Regan, Alice Harris, Ruth Jones, Goldia S. Williams, Elizabeth M. Bailey, Edith Hopkins, Grace Conley, Ethel Ratliff, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haywood, Imogene Caldwell, Velva Hall, Wilma Montgomery, and O.E. Stanley, Floyd county.

NUMB ARMS, LEGS
Warning Signals

There may be misalignment of vertebrae in the spine causing pressure on nerves, yet the patient experiences no pain in the back. Instead, a variety of sensations may be felt in other parts of the body. These include tingling, tightness, hot spots, cold spots, crawling sensations, electric shock sensations, stinging, burning, and others.

The following nine symptoms involving back pain or strange sensations are often the forerunners of more serious conditions. Any one of these may spell back trouble.

- (1) Paresthesias (see above)
- (2) Headaches
- (3) Painful joints
- (4) Numbness in the arms or hands
- (5) Loss of sleep
- (6) Stiffness in the neck
- (7) Pain between the shoulders
- (8) Stiffness or pain in lower back
- (9) Numbness or pain in the legs.

These signals may indicate your body is being robbed of normal nerve function. Until this function is restored, you will, in some degree, be incapacitated. The longer you wait to seek help, the worse the condition will likely become. Don't wait! Should you experience any of these warning signals... call for in depth consultation in Layman's terms.

View New PCC Project

Carol Ann Sabella, the new assistant librarian at Prestonsburg Community College, pictured above with students, freshman, Ken Hunter, left, son of Betty Hunter, of Floyd county, and sophomore, Kyle King, son of Byron and Betty King, of Knott county, is excited about her first project at PCC. Mrs. Sabella is organizing a collection of out-of-print historical primary sources on microfiche. This unique collection has over 1500 items such as, the Log of Sir Walter Raleigh, patriotic songs of the 17th century, an 18th century history of Kentucky and numerous autobiographies. The collection offers fascinating research and reading possibilities for the community.

The position of assistant librarian is new and due to the steady enrollment growth at PCC. Mrs. Sabella has a B.S. in English and history from St. Francis College and a M.S.L.S. from Clarion University, as well as numerous hours in counseling, education and American Literature.

PCC's library has over 31,000 volumes, and it subscribes to 156 periodicals and 13 newspapers. It also stocks records, video cassettes, filmstrips and films. The library, located in the Johnson Building, is open to students and the public from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Friday.

How To File A Consumer Complaint

Consumers lose thousands of dollars every day simply because they do not take time to write a letter of complaint when a product or service is not satisfactory. Perhaps we are embarrassed because we feel we are somehow at fault, or we think it is simply not worthwhile to complain, or we do not want to be considered petty. One study found that only about one-third of all the people with complaints about goods or services take their complaint to the seller or manufacturer.

The Consumer Protection Division of the Attorney General's Office has the statutory authority to mediate consumer complaints. This office will handle both individual and group complaints.

If you as a consumer experience a dispute in the marketplace, here are some tips for handling your complaint:

It is important that you notify and give the business an opportunity to resolve your complaint prior to intervention by the Consumer Protection Division. Most consumer complaints result from misunderstandings and confusion between consumers and the business. Thus, bringing your complaint to the business' attention often leads to a resolution.

If you are not satisfied with the business' response to your complaint, you can file a complaint with the Attorney General's Office by calling our toll-free Consumer Hotline at 1-800-432-9257.

A consumer complaint should be concise and honest. It should include specific information that will not leave the person who receives it guessing about what the writer is trying to say. A letter of complaint does not have to be long; it only needs to state the problem clearly and should contain the following information:

Your name and address; the name and address of the business your complaint is against; a brief explanation telling about your complaint, including when the transaction occurred, how you tried to resolve it and any other pertinent information. If you have documents that substantiate your claim, include copies.

The Consumer Protection Division will act as a mediator between the consumer and the business. Approximately 85-90 percent of our consumer complaints are resolved through mediation.

Like many big animals, bison like to scratch their hides on tree trunks or rocks. It helps keep them clean. This habit proved a problem for 19th century communications across the North American West, says International Wildlife magazine. Telegraph poles looked just like trees to itchy bison. The shaggy animals scratched, poles and lines went down and the telegraph crews were busy repairing the mess.

The Consumer Protection Division is prohibited from acting as a private attorney on an isolated complaint. If your complaint demands immediate legal action, you should consider private legal action in Small Claims Court (no attorney necessary) if your claim is under $1,000 or seek the assistance of a private attorney, the Kentucky Bar Association will refer you to an attorney. You may call the Bar Association at 1-800-372-2999.

Because of the great demand for consumer protection assistance by Kentuckians, all complaints and requests for information and assistance should be submitted in writing. This will allow the Division of Consumer Protection to provide you with prompt and more effective service.

THE NEXT CENTURY:
WARM HEAT IS STILL GAS HEAT

Gas heat is the warm choice for your home... now and for the future. It gives you more warmth, compared to the cooler air from a heat pump. So your home is cozy and inviting... and not just for a few winters. A gas furnace can outlast two, even three heat pumps. So choose the heating system that's best... and that lasts. Gas.

City Well-Wheeled At Bargain Price

With fall officially here and winter edging closer every day, city residents can feel a little more secure, thanks to a purchase made recently by the Prestonsburg police department.

Although $25,000 had already been allocated for two new cruisers, the department has, instead, bought four used, 4-wheel drive 1978 Dodge Ram Chargers from the state surplus property auction in Frankfort. And at just $800 each for three, and $700 for the other, the price tag was only $3,100. Add another $400 per vehicle for reconditioning, and the complete package cost the city only $4,300. The remaining $19,700 was returned to the city's general fund, said Police Chief Stan Fletcher, to be used where most needed. City streets department head Leonard Joseph said the vehicles have proven to be a good investment in their own right. He estimates that, with improvements already made, they are now worth between $3,500 and $4,000 each.

But the real benefit to the people, said Fletcher, may come this winter.

"In addition to their day-to-day usage, we're going to use these vehicles to deliver groceries and medicine to people who can't get out because of bad weather," he said. He added that the Ram Chargers would be available to bring people to work if they were stuck in the outlying areas of town due to icy roads. Last year, he said, the city made 140 such runs with police cruisers.

City councilman Bobby Ranier applauded the purchase, noting there was no selfishness on the part of the police department, since it is keeping only one of the vehicles for its own use, with one going to the streets department, and the other two to the fire department.

But Fletcher is still wary of public concern, and believes some people might think the city has gone overboard on spending when they learn four vehicles were purchased instead of two. "We got them for the benefit of the city," he said. "It wasn't to help us individually."

Another option considered before the purchase was buying twelve used cruisers at auction, one for each officer, but the Ram Chargers were found to be more cost effective.

Jobs Agency Claims Record Placements

Gov. Martha Layne Collins recently announced that the Kentucky Department for Employment Services set an all-time state record for job placements during the 1984-85 fiscal year.

The department helped 76,743 Kentuckians find jobs between July 1, 1984 and June 30, 1985. The previous record placement year recorded by the state was 1978 when a total of 72,863 Kentuckians found work through DES placement.

"This is a splendid achievement," Collins said, "especially in light of the hardships facing job hunters everywhere today."

The figures represent 262 placements for each staff member working in job placement, the governor said. "This, too, is a record."

In addition to reporting record-setting placements, for the second year in a row the department led the U.S. Department of Labor's southeastern region in job placement growth. Other states in the region are Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee.

Collins cited Kentucky's growing economy as a major reason for the increased placements. "We have more employers looking for workers and taking advantage of the department's services," she said. "We also have more workers making job applications through our offices."

Cabinet for Human Resources Secretary Al Austin praised the Department for Employment Services for the figures which amounted to a 24 percent increase in the total job placements made in 1984. "In fact the 1985 record total exceeded by a third the goal for placements set out by the department before the year began," Austin said.

Employment Services Commissioner James Daniels said, "The only other years the department made more than 70,000 placements were 1977, 1978 and 1979. These were peak years largely because of public service employment jobs created under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act. In other years during the past decade placements have ranged between 50,000 and 60,000."

Daniels attributed part of the current placement growth to the department's intensified efforts to recruit full-service employers. "Currently about 1,300 Kentucky employers rely exclusively on us to recruit, screen and test job applicants," he said.

Kentucky Seniors' SAT Scores Improve

The scores of college-bound Kentucky students remained at the same level as last year on one widely used national test and showed significant gains on another. Superintendent of Public Instruction Alice McDonald announced last week.

The composite score of 1985 graduates who took the American College Test in Kentucky stood at 17.9, the same as the year before, a report from the American College Testing Program shows. Naturally, the average composite score was 18.6 out of a possible 36 points.

On the 1985 Scholastic Aptitude Test, the scores of Kentucky high school seniors averaged 491 on the verbal section and 529 on the math section. Those scores represent increases of 12 points on the verbal section, from 479 last year, and 11 points on the math section, from 518 last year.

McDonald noted that the scores of graduating seniors taking the SAT not only improved over past years but remained well above the national levels of 431 on the verbal section and 475 on the math section. The national scores reflect increases of five points on the verbal section and four points on the math section over 1984 scores.

"Traditionally, more Kentucky students take the ACT assessment because that is the test required for admission to the state's public universities," McDonald said.

"We need to remember that each year a different group of students takes this test. Last year's graduating seniors reversed a downward trend that began in 1970, and we are happy to see that this year's class maintained that same level."

The SAT as administered by the College Board. Figures from the two testing companies show that 22,844 Kentucky students took the ACT and that 3,454 took the SAT in 1985. A total of 39,983 seniors were enrolled in Kentucky high schools in 1984-85.

The national composite score of 18.6 on the ACT represented an increase of 0.1 over 1984. Nationally, scores dropped slightly in math, were unchanged in English and increased slightly in social studies and natural sciences.

Scores of Kentucky students were unchanged in English, at 18.0, and natural sciences, at 20.4; dropped 0.2 in math, to 15.7; and increased 0.2 in social studies, to 16.9. The national figures were English, 18.1; natural sciences, 21.2; math, 17.2; and social studies, 17.4.

Black students in Kentucky had a composite score of 12.8 on the ACT, outscoring those tested nationwide by 0.3. The national composite for black students tested was 12.5. The relatively high standing of Kentucky's black students is "very encouraging," McDonald said.

More women than men took the ACT—55 percent to 45 percent. The composite scores were 18.6 for men and 17.2 for women, with women's scores higher in English but lower than those of men in the other three areas.

In a survey portion of the ACT, 61 percent of Kentucky students rated their high schools as either excellent or good, and 62 percent expressed satisfaction with their schools' guidance services.

"We are pleased by the positive opinions Kentucky students expressed about their high school experience," McDonald said.

Kentucky students who take the SAT are usually those planning to enter private or out-of-state colleges. Of the graduating Kentucky seniors who took the SAT, 52 percent were men and 48 percent were women.

Among Kentucky students, men scored higher on the math section—548 compared with 509 for women—but the scores of men and women were the same, 491, on the verbal section. SAT scores are on a scale of 200 to 800.

SAT scores began to rise gradually throughout the nation in 1982 after declining steadily for more than two decades. Kentucky students have consistently scored higher than the national averages, McDonald said.

Stress State Water Watch

By ART LANDER, JR.

Topics relating to the importance of clean water fish and wildlife resources, tourism, public health, agriculture and industry were discussed during the 10th Annual Governor's Conference on the Environment, September 25-27.

Conference participants received a poster by naturalist/photographer James Archambeault, and a packet of information concerning water use and management issues. The sessions were divided into panel discussions, addresses and workshops on topics including the effects of water quality on wildlife, river basin management, human health issues and drinking water, acid rain, coal production and water management, flood control, and the role of agriculture in water management.

Governor Martha Layne Collins proclaimed September 22-29 Natural Resources Week, urging all Kentuckians to take part in the protection and wise management of the commonwealth's natural resources. One program that's ideal for group or community involvement on a local level is Water Watch, a year-long statewide program of education, water quality assessment, restoration and recreation which began in April.

The Water Watch Program goals are to encourage the formation of public interest groups that will:

1. Adopt a river basin or watershed.
2. Promote the adopted water resource by documenting its unique ecology and history.
3. Improve water resources throughout Kentucky with direction and guidance from local and state government.

Through active participation in designated Water Watch public interest groups, persons concerned about Kentucky's lakes, rivers, streams and wetlands can gain hands-on experience in water management. For example, educational programs presented by the Division of Water can provide Water Watch groups with information about activities in their adopted watersheds or basins that could adversely affect the community's water resources.

Other Water Watch group activities include water quality assessment walks along the adopted watershed or basin to record observations involving plant and wildlife communities, withdrawals of water, chemical spills, fish kills, algal blooms, litter and erosion problems. Additionally, Water Watchgroups can sponsor local restoration and recreation projects such as stream or riverbank cleanups, habitat improvement efforts, seasonal field trips, fishing tournaments or canoe and rafting trips to build public appreciation of the state's water resources.

Statue of Liberty's French Connection

Edouard de Laboulaye, a Frenchman, believed the United States represented a new idea in the world... a nation based on liberal principles determined to make its ideals a reality through its Constitution. America inspired the French who were trying to free themselves from the tyranny of Napoleon III and establish a republican government.

De Laboulaye and a group of friends proposed giving a monument to the people of the United States to remind them of ties stemming from the American Revolution, and to rebuke the French Government. They would name the statue "Liberty Enlightening the World."

This project died, but one of that group—a sculptor named Frederick Auguste Bartholdi—kept the idea and developed the design in 1869 in anticipation of America's centennial in 1876. One of its first plans was to build the Statue as a lighthouse with the light coming from the crown. A lookout standing on the balcony surrounding the torch would provide navigational aid.

The framework for the Statue of Liberty was created by Gustave Eiffel who later designed the new famous Eiffel Tower in Paris.

An American architect, Richard Morris Hunt, designed the pedestal for Bartholdi's statue. That base is 89 feet high, it rises from the ramparts of star-shaped Fort Wood in New York Harbor dating from 1811. At the time of its construction, the pedestal was the largest single concrete mass ever built.

The Curtain of Doubt About Kentucky's Voting Equipment

By J.R. Harp, Sr., President, and Joe R. Bolton, vice-president, of Harp Enterprises, Inc.

For many years now the voters and even the politicians have had and do have many suspicions about the mechanical equipment. It was suspected before the use of the mechanical monsters, the election was won or lost at the counting room, not at the polls. Now, perhaps, many believe the election is won or lost by the mechanical deviations of the machine. The mechanical machine was designed somewhat like the old Linotype machine. No one, other than the person who used it day by day, really understood how it worked. It just worked. It simply meant if you hit an "A" you always got an "A". So soon everyone realized that if a word was misspelled and an "O" appeared, everyone knew it was human error, not mechanical. Here are some of the questions that still arise: (1) you can tell how someone votes; (2) you can fix the machine so when you vote for Joe, John can receive the vote; (3) the people setting the machine can set it to produce any results they want. These seem to be the most common suspicions. Let's attempt to supply answers to these questions.

We sincerely believe that after some 30 years of servicing and standing responsible for many of the machine results, we are qualified to answer these concerns. The only way you can tell how someone voted is if everyone voted the same way. If in a General Election only two people voted, and they voted differently, you definitely cannot tell how and who voted for what without asking the voters. Remember, all candidates and questions have their own counters. When you vote for any candidate, just the candidate's counter increases. The public counter on the front only shows how many people come in the machine. It is not connected to any candidate's counter.

The machine also has a protective counter on the side which is never reset. It also keeps up with how many people enter the machine, not how they vote, because it is not connected to any candidate's counter either.

Now, by signing your name, some people believe that at that time the Election Officers can tell how you vote. Remember, your signature, by law, only identifies you as legal voter and the Party you represent. There is no way you can connect your signature to the candidate's counter when you vote. Now when I vote for Joe, can I make John the recipient of that vote? Somewhere, somehow this myth was born.

Many of the custodians use rubber bands to direct them to the area of the machines where they are working. By leaving these rubber bands on the machines, it was and is believed this is an attempt to fix and redirect the voter's vote. The machine is built like an archery range: (1) on the front you have a candidate's name; (2) behind the name is a removable metal plate inserted with the name in front of the counter, and when the machine is activated, the metal strip may not be removed without locking the machine against any further voting; (3) behind the metal plate is a three digital counter—all zeros are showing in the

UK To Hold Seminar Here On Real Estate

The Kentucky Real Estate Education and Research Center will conduct free seminars on real estate listing, selling and motivation in 11 Kentucky locations, including Prestonsburg, this month. "The Kentucky Real Estate Commission and the center have made it possible for real estate practitioners all around Kentucky to hear a wide variety of excellent speakers," says Dr. John C. Wolff, director of the Center. The speakers are Steve Brown, Atlanta; The Fortune Group, an international training and consulting company; Elwin Garnes, Ridgecrest Real Estate Training Services, Gatlinburg, Tennessee; Wade Gaddy, Atlanta Institute of Real Estate, and Marsha Sell, a successful Atlanta real estate salesperson.

A seminar will be held at Prestonsburg Community College on Tuesday, Oct. 29, in the Auditorium, Pike Technology Building. To advance register or for further information, call Wolff at 606-257-4827.

Proposed Health Plan Released for Review

The state Health Coordinating Council is releasing the proposed State Health Plan for public review from Sept. 24 through Oct. 29. The local Health Planning Council is receiving written or oral comments concerning any aspect of the proposed plan. The Council is encouraging greater citizen involvement in the health planning process and is seeking comments that can be subsequently provided to the Cabinet of Human Resources at its public hearing on Oct. 29 in Frankfort.

The proposed state health plan may be reviewed at the Big Sandy ADD office, 2nd Floor, Municipal Building in Prestonsburg, or written comments may be sent to the same address, attention of the Health Planning Council.

First Birthday

Shaun Michael (Mikie) Estep celebrated his first birthday, September 23, at the home of his grandparents. He is the son of Regina Shelton Estep and the grandson of Fred and Brenda Shelton, of Martin. The theme of his party was Sesame Street.

Visiting him on his birthday were his godmother, Wanita Kay Shepherd, grandparents, Liz and Tim Shelton, Otie Lee Lester and Cindy McGlothlin, of Dayton Ohio; Misty Ward and Brent Jenkins, of Paintsville. He is also the great-grandson of Hershel Lester and the late Hazel Kirk and also Lizzie Shelton and the late Fred Shelton, Sr.

OWENS FOR MAGISTRATE

JACKIE EDFORD OWENS, DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE for MAGISTRATE in District 2 got a chance to shake hands and exchange a few words with GOVERNOR MARTHA LAYNE COLLINS at the "Grass Roots Club Potluck Picnic, Thursday, Sept. 26. This picnic was originally planned for the Spillway Picnic Grounds at Jenny Wiley State Park, but due to rain it had to be moved to the Prestonsburg High School Cafeteria. I am sure the rain hampered some of the crowd, but still there was barely standing room. Nearly every county in the 7th Congressional District was WELL REPRESENTED.

"Getting Greater Participation by the Democrats at the precinct level is the goal of the Grass Roots Club." Chairman Ed Coleman and Guest Speaker Governor Martha Layne Collins Thursday night called upon the DEMOCRAT PARTY to "UNITE WITH A PURPOSE FOR BETTER GOVERNMENT AND A STRONGER PARTY." Governor Collins urged ALL DEMOCRATS to get involved and to help strengthen the Democratic Party and work AS A TEAM.

I urge the Democratic Party to GET INVOLVED and join the Grass Roots Club. Not just District 2, but ALL OF FLOYD COUNTY. I think this is a fine organization. This gives you a chance to meet and talk with not only Governor Collins, but also high-ranking officials such as State Representative Greg Stumbo, State Representative David Lemaster, the head of the Dept. of Transportation, the head of the Dept. of Agriculture (the list just goes on and on).

BE SURE TO VOTE DEMOCRATIC

ELECTION SERVICE NEWS
By CARLA 'ROBINSON' BOYD
Floyd County Clerk

117.185 ELECTION OFFICERS, INSTRUCTION AND COMPENSATION

(1) Not less than four (4) days before the day of any election, the county board of elections shall call together the officers of election of each precinct and instruct them in the use of the voting machines. No election officer, upon being notified to appear for instruction, shall fail without just cause so to do. If any officer does so fail to appear, the board may appoint and instruct some other qualified person, from the same list from which the defaulting officer was appointed, to act in place of the defaulting officer.

(2) Compensation in the minimum amount of five dollars ($5) shall be paid by the county to the election officers for attending the instruction session.

Pickets Block Work At Mine, Suit Says

A group of pickets at a Stephens Branch minesite is blocking its mining operation, a Pikeville coal firm claims in a suit filed last week in Floyd Circuit Court.

Edward Groves, president of Edco Energy Corp., is seeking a court injunction that would ban pickets from harassing miners trying to enter the site. He is also asking for damages—said to total $130,000 already and to be growing by $13,000 every day the operation is shut down—and punitive damages.

Named as defendants are Clarence Martin, of Drift, and Linville Mosley, of East McDowell. The suit says they and others congregated by the mine road on 10 days in September and "threatened with violence" employees of Huscoal, Inc., the firm under contract with Edco to mine coal underlying the property of Herschel Flanery. Huscoal is operated by Richard L. Clarke.

A hearing on the petition has been set for today (Wednesday) at 9 a.m.

CARD OF THANKS

We, the family of Bill Adams, Jr., of Melvin, thank everyone who helped in any way upon the passing of our husband and father: those who sent flowers, brought food, dug the grave, and came to the church to sit with us, the Little Rock Church, the ministers of the old Regular Baptist Church and R.S. Jones for their kind and helpful services.

Kentucky
Fishing
Report

Lake levels continued to drop slowly although surface water temperature rose slightly at a few lakes because of the dry, hot weather during the past week.

Scattered catches of bass, bluegill, crappie and white bass were reported at several lakes during the Sept. 21-22 period covered by this report. The lake-by-lake rundown, as reported by conservation officers and creel clerks at each lake, is as follows:

KENTUCKY: Moderate fishing activity was reported by Creel Clerk Don Fortenberry with extremely clear water conditions making fish wary. Crappie were being taken over dropoffs, ledges and brush piles 10-12 feet deep. Bass were being caught on plastic worms, spinnerbaits and crankbaits fished over rocky points in 6-10 feet of water. Very clear, falling slowly, 3.7 feet below summer pool and 75 degrees.

BARKLEY: Light to moderate fishing activity was reported by Creel Clerk Norman Brantley. Crappie were being taken on minnows and jigs fished over stump beds and dropoffs in 5-15 feet of water. Bass were being caught on plastic worms and crankbaits. White bass were being taken on plunker and fly combinations in scattered jumps. Clear, falling slowly, three feet below summer pool and 77 degrees.

BARREN: Light fishing activity was reported by Officer Donald Depp. A few crappie were being caught over channel drops in 10-15 feet of water. Bass were being taken on topwater lures, with the best fishing early in the morning, by casting over flats of flooded grass. Bluegill were being taken on crickets and worms off steep rock bluffs. Clear, falling slowly, three feet below summer pool and 74 degrees.

NOLIN: Moderate fishing activity was reported by Officer Sammie Renfro. Bass were being caught on deep running crankbaits and plastic worms fished over rocky points. Crappie were being taken on minnows fished over flooded timber in 10-12 feet of water. Clear, one foot below summer pool and 79 degrees.

TAYLORSVILLE: Moderate fishing activity was reported by Creel Clerk John Morgan. Bass were being caught on plastic worms and jigs in 10-15 feet of water along treelines. Bluegill were being taken on crickets in 4-6 feet of water around shoreline brush and fish attractors. Clear to murky, stable at summer pool, and 75 degrees.

HERRINGTON: Light fishing activity was reported by Creel Clerk Bill Pinkston. Bluegill were being taken in 20 feet of water on crickets and worms off steep rock walls and around stickups. Bass were being caught on plastic worms fished over medium deep banks. Clear, stable, 10 feet below summer pool and 75 degrees.

CUMBERLAND: Light fishing activity was reported by Officer Randy Wilson. Bass were being taken by trolling medium and deep running crankbaits, casting plastic worms and spinnerbaits off points, and stillfishing with live crayfish. Bluegill were being caught in 15-20 feet of water off rock walls on crickets in the mid-section of lake. A few walleye were being taken by vertical jigging spoons off rip-rap along the dam. In the tailwaters, trout were being taken on corn, cheese and salmon eggs. Clear, falling slowly, 20 feet below summer pool and 76 degrees.

DALE HOLLOW: Moderate fishing activity was reported by Officer Marvin Edwards. Bass were being caught at night on plastic worms fished over weed beds and deep banks. A few crappie were being taken drift fishing minnows in 15 feet of water. Clear, falling, two feet below summer pool and 74 degrees.

LAUREL: Light fishing activity was reported by Officer Ken Mobley. Rainbow trout were being taken at night in 15-20 feet of water on worms and corn off steep rock walls. Bass were being taken on spinnerbaits off points in 8-10 feet of water. Clear, stable, seven feet below summer pool and 80 degrees.

CAVE RUN: Heavy fishing activity was reported by Creel Clerk Tim Sloan. Muskie were being taken in shallow, timbered coves on crankbaits and jerk baits. Bass were being caught on surface lures and plastic worms. Murky, falling, one foot below summer pool and 75 degrees.

BUCKHORN: Officer Billy Joe Napier reported light fishing activity with bass being taken on surface lures and jig and rind combinations off weed beds. Bluegill were being caught on worms and crappie on minnows fished over stumps and brush. Clear, falling, one foot below summer pool and 83 degrees.

GRAYSON: Light to moderate fishing activity was reported by Officer Kenny Skaggs. Bass were being taken on crankbaits and spinnerbaits fished across mud banks. Crappie were being caught in 6-8 feet of water around brush and tree tops on minnows. Clear, falling slowly, one foot below summer pool and 72 degrees.

DEWEY: Light fishing activity was reported by officer Dalton Conley. Bass were being caught early and late on plastic worms; catfish at night on liver and nightcrawlers. Clear, falling slowly, 1/2 foot below summer pool and 78 degrees.

FISHTRAP: Light fishing activity was reported by Officer Jim McCown. Bluegill were being caught on worms in 4-6 feet of water. Bass were being taken on plastic worms off points at night, and on surface lures early and late. Clear, falling slowly, three feet below summer pool and 77 degrees.

Garnis Martin: Football's Pete Rose

Garnis Martin, formerly of this county, may be to high school football at Bardstown, Ky. what Pete Rose is to professional baseball in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The parallels in their careers are impressive, although Martin is a coach and Rose owes his fame to his achievements as a player. Like Rose, Martin is a fierce competitor; he lives the sport; he enjoys coaching as much as when he began 34 years ago—and this week was only five victories away from becoming the winningest football coach in Kentucky history.

And he already is perhaps the most publicized, Kentucky newspapers this year have trailed his every move, and his phenomenal career has been recounted in detail by the daily press.

Starting with the year 1951 when he coached at Wayland High School and won one game while losing seven, Martin-coached teams have won 244 games while losing only 95. He went to Bardstown in 1952 and has been there ever since.

The following, excerpted from a full-page Courier-Journal feature by Bob White, tells more of the former Floyd county's story, including his acknowledgement of what two other Floyd educators meant to him, earlier in his career:

...Martin had coached Wayland High School's football team to a 1-7 record, after having launched his coaching career with a two-year stint at Prestonsburg (where he served as head basketball and baseball coach, and as an assistant in football.

"The job at Wayland paid $3,000 a year, and I was getting $2,220 at Prestonsburg," Martin said, showing his famous grin.

He has won every imaginable award or championship in football: three state championships—Class A in 1967 and 1970 and the AA crown in 1981—nine regional and 11 district titles.

His 1969 team was runner-up in the state Class A playoffs, and in 1977 he was chosen statewide Coach of the Year in The Courier-Journal's annual poll.

Five times Martin's teams have finished regular-season play undefeated, so until he breaks Ty Holland's record there aren't many more fields for him to conquer.

In his chase for the record, Martin has received a note of congratulations from his old high school basketball coach, Bob Harlow, who now lives in Kansas City, Mo.

"Don't laugh," Martin said. "My old coach is still living. He came up to see us play North Hardin four years ago. He was visiting his sister-in-law in Louisville. I recognized him right away."

Walter Price, Martin's old high school football coach (at Wheelwright), is dead but not forgotten.

"Give him credit for getting me to go back to college after World War II," Martin said. "I always wanted to coach, and I watched practice every day. That's why I went back to school, to get my certificate to teach and coach."

Martin went to Tulane University, a long way from Eastern Kentucky.

After graduation, Martin returned to Floyd County to coach at Prestonsburg two years and at Wayland one year.

"Doc Ferrell was the coach at Prestonsburg and I learned a lot of football from him," Martin said. "He played at the university (Kentucky) under coach (Paul "Bear") Bryant."

In 1952, Martin decided to go west. Until 10 or so years ago, Garnis Martin coached basketball and track as well as football. He also served as athletic director, a position he still holds. He teaches four driver's education classes and last year, when Talbott needed a civics teacher, he turned to Martin.

Martin coached two Bardstown teams to berths in the Boys' State Basketball Tournament (1969 and 1971), and guided the Tigers into the regional tourney 18 times before giving up that job six years ago. He won state Class A track titles in 1970 and 1971 before relinquishing that post.

When Martin won his 200th game a few years ago, grateful Bardstown fans gave him a new station wagon. Wonder what they have in mind for him when he caps the 249-win record set by Ty Holland in 43 years at Murray?

(Listed among Kentucky's winningest high school football coaches are Walter Brugh, of Paintsville High (218); Ed Miracle, Lynch (204); Jack Hall, Elkhorn City (163); Bill Dams, Pineville, and Dan Goble, Christian County (tied at 160). Goble, one of the younger coaches, is a native of Prestonsburg.)

Cats Find Middlesboro Easier Than Expected

The Prestonsburg Blackcats chalked up another win over a highly regarded foe Friday night as they vanquished the visiting Middlesboro Yellowjackets, 42-21.

Making the victory a little sweeter, perhaps, was the revenge of last year's only Blackcat loss, a 19-13, three-overtime struggle at Middlesboro.

Except for a 95-yard touchdown run on a kick-off return midway through the first quarter, all of the Yellow Jackets' points came in the second half against Prestonsburg's substitutes. Coach "Chuke" Williams later said his team could probably average 70 points a game if he played his starters more, but said he would rather have his "total team playing as much football as we possibly can."

The game opened with Middlesboro winning the toss and electing to receive. They were able to march the ball to Prestonsburg's 39 in nine plays, but the Blackcat defense hung tough, forcing a turnover on downs.

Middlesboro punted, with Pete Green picking up the ball at the 10 and moving to the 12. Goble passed to Keith Slone on the first play from scrimmage, with Slone then scrambling to the 15.

The Cats drew first blood on the next play, as B.D. Nunnery ran 85 yards for the touchdown. It was 7:15 of the first quarter.

Brent Hackworth's boot was good, making the score 7-0. Nunnery's touchdown made five straight games in which the Cats had scored on their initial possession.

A Wendell Burke recovery of a Middlesboro fumble on the Yellowjackets' next possession had Prestonsburg taking over on the Middlesboro 31. Goble hit Pete Green with a pass at around the eight-yard line, and Green dashed into the end zone at 6:09. Hackworth made the extra point for a score of 14-0.

But Middlesboro was not ready to roll over and play dead. Denny Turner received Greg Shepherd's kick-off at the five-yard line, and raced 95 yards for the score. Travis Powers made the extra point, upping the tally at 5:54 to 14-7.

The next scoring drive came with Shag Branham making a 44-yard run from scrimmage, breaking away from the Yellowjackets' Shawn Russell around the eight-yard line, and running into the left side of the end zone. Hackworth made the kick, sending the score to 21-7, capping a five-play, 64-yard drive.

In the second quarter, Nunnery ended a 62-yard, nine-play drive with a seven-yard scoring run. Hackworth made the extra point, for a 28-7 Prestonsburg lead.

The last points of the half came at 2:54, as Nunnery ran four yards, punctuating a six play, 71-yard drive. With Hackworth's kick, the score stood at 35-7 at the intermission.

The Cats had scored on their first five possessions. Time running out after a Nunnery interception at the 19 with six seconds left was all that prevented the Cats from scoring on every possession of the half. Nunnery did manage to get 11 yards on the possession, however, giving him 201 yards for the half, the first time a Prestonsburg back has gained as many as 200 yards for an entire game this season. Nunnery finished the game with 204 yards.

Prestonsburg was to score only once more, but that was plenty.

On a kick-off return to begin the second half, Pete Green caught the ball at the 24-yard line, tearing 76 yards downfield for the six points. Hackworth's kick was good, bringing the score to 42-7.

With the Blackcats dominating, Coach Williams substituted freely, the remainder of the evening. Middlesboro still could not make a serious threat, however, managing just two more touchdowns. The first of these came at 3:27 of the third quarter, on an eight-play, 86-yard drive ending in a four-yard scoring run by Turner. Powers threw to Russell for the two-point conversion, making the score 42-15.

The last TD came at 2:09 of the fourth quarter as Grigsby found Powers on a 45-yard pass, capping a two play, 52-yard drive. Powers ran for the conversion, fixing the final score at 42-23.

The game was relatively injury free, with Ronnie Slone being the only Blackcat on the injured list. Slone turned his ankle, but is expected to recover with a couple of days' rest.

Coach Williams said the game had "a story book ending. It was just super." He added that he was glad a lot of the younger players saw action, even though Middlesboro was able to capitalize on their inexperience for the late scores.

Getting experience for the subs becomes ever more important as the season slips away, as the Cats are losing all 11 starters next year.

Turning to next week's contest against 4-A George Rogers Clark High School, Winchester, Williams described the GRCHS team as "very fundamentally sound." He cited size as one of their strengths, as they start two 240-pounders on the line, along with another big lineman tipping the scales at 275.

Williams said his team would be "here, ready to go and hoping for the best," but declined to predict the outcome. "As far as predicting a win, we don't do that," he said. "We respect everybody and fear nobody."

DO SOMETHING WILD!

Kentuckians can now participate in the protection and preservation of our rich natural heritage. On Line 21a, you can designate all or a portion of your Kentucky tax refund to help wildlife.

Your tax deductible contribution will support non-game species protection programs by the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources and the purchase and maintenance of natural areas by the Kentucky Nature Preserves Commission. These programs have no other sources of funding.

Wildlife needs your help — No amount is too small.

Turner Wins Jenny Wiley Open Tourn

In the Jenny Wiley Open golf tournament held at Jenny Wiley state park July 21 and 22, John Turner won the championship flight with a seven under par 129.

Placing second was Tony Branham at four under par 132, and third was Wes Case with three under par 133.

Lowell Marcum won the championship consolation flight, with an even par 68, while Steve Clark placed third, with par-plus-one 69. Marcum scored a 155-yard hole-in-one on the thirteenth hole.

Jim Blackburn won the sudden-death playoff, while Troy Branham came in second and Ken Dawson third.

In the first flight, Jim Blackburn was victorious, while Bert Duff took second and Verle Newsome, third.

Troy Branham won the second flight, with Gary Murrell placing second and Steve Halbert, third.

Dr. Ruben Singayao was the winner of the third flight. Mike Turner finished next, with Gary Newman taking third.

In the fourth flight, it was Todd Duff, Ken Dawson and Keith Pugh placing one, two, three.

Dr. June Buchanan, co-founder of Alice Lloyd College at Pippa Passes, Knott county, has been named grand marshal of the Jenny Wiley Festival parade, to be held here October 12.

The Floyd county chapter of Alice Lloyd Alumni will host a reception in her honor that day from noon till 2 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church, according to chapter president Arthur Hayward.

All Floyd county alumni, friends of the college, retired teachers and other educators are invited to attend.

Betsy Layne Downs Knott Central, 9 to 0

Homestanding Knott County Central proved easy prey for the Betsy Layne Bobcats Friday night as BLHS rolled to a 19-0 victory. The Bobcat team rushed for 286 yards on the evening while twice turning back Central drives inside the 20-yard line.

Betsy Layne's next test will come at home Friday against a tough, defensive Elkhorn City team.

"Travel, in the younger sort, is a part of education; in the elder, a part of experience." Francis Bacon

Trojans Lose To Bath Co. To Play at Phelps Friday

Wheelwright's football Trojans were stung 52-19 Friday night by the visiting Bath County Wildcats.

Things started out well for the Trojans, as a 10-yard scoring carry by fullback David Hall capped a seven-play Trojan drive begun when Wheelwright recovered an on side kick around the 50-yard line. Johnny Isaac found the mark in the extra point attempt, for a 7-0 Trojan lead.

That must have been what made the Wildcats mad. Though Wheelwright wasn't to score again in the half, Bath county racked up 30 points before intermission, including a TD on their next possession. The Wildcats drove the ball 77 yards in 11 plays, finishing with a 20-yard pass into Chris Irving in the end zone by quarterback Chris Swartz. Not satisfied with going for an even game, Bath county made a successful attempt for the two-point conversion, for an 8-7 lead at 4:33.

The Wildcats next scoring drive came on a 30-yard Ryan Jones run, again followed by a successful two-point conversion for a score of 16-7.

Things were going badly for the Trojans, and they got worse, as they turned over their next two possessions, setting up two Wildcat scores. Along with yet another two-point conversion on the first of these, the score at the half stood 30-7.

It was more of the same in the second half, as Swartz hit Dave Moore for the score at the seven-minute mark of the third quarter. A two-point conversion attempt was good, making the score 38-7. Just over a minute later, at 5:54 the Wildcats cashed in on an interception, returning 24 yards for the touchdown. Bath Co. again went for the two points; but couldn't pull it off, the score remaining 44-7.

But Wheelwright still had a little fire left, as Hall finished a four-play drive with a 40-yard run to make it 44-13. Wheelwright went for the conversion, but came up empty.

Each team was to score once more, the Wildcats at 9:17 of the fourth quarter, again making the two-point attempt, and the Trojans on their ensuing possession, with Hall as the ball carrier.

Wheelwright's next outing will be Friday evening at Phelps.

"Kentucky Afield" Is Aired Weekly

The Kentucky Afield radio program is now being aired weekly over 125 stations throughout the state.

The 5-minute program, produced by Bruce Smith, a radio and TV specialist on the Division of Public Relations staff of the Kentucky Dept. of Fish & Wildlife Resources, is "designed to appeal to sportsmen, and other outdoor enthusiasts who share an interest in related cultural, geographic and historic topics unique to Kentucky."

Smith said that the program's wide distribution is made possible because of an arrangement with the Kentucky Network, which feeds the program to over 80 stations statewide. "We're excited about working with the Kentucky Network," Smith explained, adding that "it's a satellite distribution network providing news, feature and sports programming through regional correspondents."

Recent Kentucky Afield programs have dealt with news and features of interest to fishermen and hunters—a grouse trapping and relocation project that's continuing this fall, the hows and whys of fish attractors, and the department's acquisition plans for more than 3,500 acres of bottomland in Ballard county including Swan Lake, a 700-acre natural cypress pond first visited by John James Audubon in 1810.

The programming includes an interview format with guests such as Kentucky Dept. of Fish & Wildlife Resources Commissioner Don McCormick, Barkley Lake creel clerk Norman Brantley, and Kentucky author, storyteller and outdoorsman Jim Wayne Miller, of Bowling Green.

The Kentucky Afield radio program is distributed free; 45 of the stations receive the program on cassette tape, although Smith said that a reel-to-reel master is supplied to the Kentucky Network since they have to feed the program to their affiliates and better quality is achieved on the larger format. Each Kentucky Afield program includes a 30-second public service announcement (PSA).

Smith, who has a background in multimedia production, joined the staff of the department's Division of Public Relations in October '84 to re-vamp the program format, re-establish a working relationship with radio stations across Kentucky and look for better distribution channels since the program has been off the air for the last two years.

CARD OF THANKS

VIDEO SCENE

Eddie Murphy video has one flaw — he's no singer

By Barton Weiss

After his outrageous stunts at the MTV music video awards show, you would expect Eddie Murphy's new video, "Party All the Time," to stretch the possibilities of comedy in the music video.

Eddie Murphy

Unfortunately, the clip focuses on Murphy's singing, which is mediocre at best.

Idolesque

Simon F's "I Want You Back" can only be described as Billy Idolesque. It illustrates the story of a love lost, and then regained, apparently because of Simon's singing.

But this is not a running-through-the-meadow love story. The girl is an exotic dancer, and the Greek chorus consists of raincoat and sunglass-clad voyeurs.

Up in a swing

In his videos for Talk Talk, Soft Cell and other English "haircut" bands, director Tim Pope has specialized in placing the performers in unusual

KEY EXCHANGE (R-Paramount) Starring Brooke Adams, Ben Masters. ★ ★ ★

By J.T. YURKO

Love, sex and marriage in the '80s are the topics of "Key Exchange," a late-summer release that looks like it is being thrown away by the studio. Perhaps the intent of 20th Century-Fox is to gather an audience before the big fall releases overwhelm smaller movies, but this film's wit and intelligence should attract an ample number of filmgoers without scheduling tricks.

Ben Masters and Brooke Adams are perfect for each other. Everyone else in the film knows it. Even the man selling popcorn and the woman collecting tickets know it. The only problem is that they don't know it. He's a successful writer of detective novels; she's moving up in the TV business. They're a Yuppie couple trying to maintain an "open" relationship.

Their open relationship is more of a permission slip for him to fool around than for her, since she seems to be more mature and certain about their future. When she finally gets him to make some sort of commitment, it comes in the form of a simple exchange of apartment keys, which is no doubt the modern equivalent of getting "pinned." But it's a key moment in the relationship, and thus the title's double meaning.

Brooke Adams virtually duplicates the performance she gave in "Almost You" with Griffin Dunne earlier this year. She is sexy, sharp and solidly in control. Ben Masters, who has the looks of a Marlboro Man, plays the swinging single with the right amount of savvy, charm, fear and bravado. It adds up to a well-rounded character.

Fine performances are turned in by the rest of the cast as well, and veterans Tony Roberts and Danny Aiello rate special mention. The dialogue is crisp and witty, and scenes are tied together so nothing seems extraneous.

By the time the final credits roll, the inevitable has occurred, but like a well-planned trip, getting there is half the fun.

Trapper prepares to perform his first artificial heart transplant. (60 min.)

Wheelwright Competes in 'Scholastic Challenge'

More than 117 Kentucky high schools will participate in the fourth season of "KET Scholastic Challenge," the academic game show which tests students' proficiency in English, history, math and science. On Sunday, October 6, at 1:00 p.m. on KET, six Kentucky teams, including one from Wheelwright High School, will compete in this "varsity sport of mind."

KET developed this program four years ago to help promote interest in education in Kentucky. Sally Jackson, producer of "KET Scholastic Challenge," says, "It is long overdue that academic achievement in our high schools be recognized. Kentuckians should be proud of their youth, and KET is proud to bring their academic excellence to the attention of our viewers across the state."

Each hour-long program consists of two games, with three high school teams competing per game. Each game will have five rounds of questions, one of which is centered entirely on Kentucky. Questions about Kentucky were written by Dr. Richard Smith, and questions for the other rounds were provided by Altman Productions, who has developed questions for similar broadcasts in the Washington, D.C., area for 25 years.

This year's host is Bill Myers, a veteran broadcaster with 30 years experience in the Cincinnati area, including positions as anchor man and weather forecaster. Additionally, Myers was a cast member of the syndicated "Bob Braun Show," hosted the Opening Day ceremonies of the Cincinnati Reds, and is currently co-anchor of the "Cincinnati Business Weekly" for public television station WCET.

The winning team in the championship will win $500, and the two runner-up teams will each receive $250. The money is donated by the Friends of KET and goes to the libraries of the winning schools.

The Wheelwright team from left, in photo includes Darrell Hall, ward of Eddie Hall, Wheelwright; Chris Holbrook, ward of Elford Holbrook, Wheelwright; and Brian Tackett, son of Ronald and Clementine Tackett, Wheelwright. Standing are faculty advisor Delores Woody; alternates Amy Johnson, daughter of Wanda Johnson, Hi Hat; Margie Burke, daughter of Lewis and Polly Burke, Wheelwright; Tonya Burke, daughter of Luceifer Burke, Bevinville; faculty advisor Carol Stumbo; and host Bill Myers.

The team also includes Sheree Scott, Alice Johnson, Robert Hall and Kathy Price.

Mine Permits Issued

The Division of Permits of the State Department for Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement issued 195 permits in August.

The permits included 52 original permits, one transition permit, 71 revision permits, 23 amendment permits, 30 two-acre permits and 18 succession permits. Of the 195 permits, 12 were for preparation plants and refuse areas, five for haul roads, 130 for surface mining and 48 for underground mining.

Permitting activities for August authorized the disturbance of 18,034.65 new acres and resulted in the collection of $579,000.00 in fees.

Floyd operations permitted include: Left Beaver Coal Co. (prep plant); ED-CO Energy Corp., Energy Coal Income Partnership, Maple Ridge Mining, and Wolverine Mining (surface mines); Transcontinental Coal Processing (two permits) and Homer Short Co. (surface and auger); and Arlington Coal Co. (three permits), Bevins Branch Mining, Frog Branch Mineral, Spencer Branch Coal, Transcontinental Coal Processing and Turner Elkhorn Mining (deep mines).

WOMAN'S CLUB TO MEET

Mrs. Sharon Sparr, president of the Prestonsburg Woman's Club, reminds members of the regular monthly meeting to be held at the Emma Wells May Cultural Center, tomorrow (Thursday) evening at 7:30. Mrs. Sparr asks that members of the club's executive board meet at 7 a.m. Hostesses for the meeting will be Mesdames Terry Buchanan, Roberta Davidson, Florence Music, Kathryn Frazier, Maxine Bierman, and Miss Betty Rowland. The topic will be "Education," with Mrs. Marshall Davidson as leader.

Education Starts with Good Teachers

If America wants to improve its schools, it must start by upgrading the image and quality of teachers, according to the National PTA. The October issue of the National PTA's magazine, PTA Today, addresses "excellence in education" and offers suggestions for improving America's schools.

"We need the combined will to restructure schools to meet improved standards and to recognize teaching as a vital profession that must draw the brightest and best candidates to its ranks," says Ann Kahn, National PTA president.

Linda Darling-Hammond, director of the education and human resources program for the Rand Corporation, agrees that teachers must be valued. In PTA Today, Darling-Hammond says, "If we devalue the act of teaching, we devalue the act of learning as well. If we're serious about improving the quality of public education, we will need to explicitly and consciously value teachers. It will not be quick and easy, but is imperative."

Various groups have put forth proposals to attract and keep good teachers. Some suggestions noted in PTA Today are:

- Establish professionally competitive salaries for teachers;
- Hire clerical staff and aides for nonteaching tasks;
- Create opportunities for professional growth by providing local staff development programs;
- Create opportunities for professional advancement of talented teachers without requiring them to leave the classroom;
- Involve teachers in decisions about textbooks, course content and methods, scheduling and program design and student placement and assessment.

To increase the quality of those entering colleges of education and the quality of current teachers, the following recommendations have been made:

- Establish a minimum score on the SAT and American College Test for the admission of students to a teacher education program;
- Improve teacher education by making it more intellectually rigorous and requiring internships supervised by senior teachers before tenure is granted;
- Establish a national certification plan based on such things as classroom teaching experience, performance on tests and scholarly contributions to the teacher's field;

—Conduct more rigorous evaluation of current teachers every few years and incorporate input by teachers recognized as competent in the particular teaching area.

Another article in PTA Today cites a recent Department of Education poll of 1,200 adults on how they view school reform in secondary schools. The public indicated that they favor better teaching and are ready to support measures to attract and retain good teachers.

Of those surveyed, 84 percent support state and national teacher exams, 74 percent would raise teacher's salaries to an average of $25,000 a year; 67 percent agree with offering merit pay to outstanding teachers and 81 percent support having teachers spend one month each summer doing things to improve their teaching.

In addition, more than two-thirds of those queried said they would be willing to pay an extra $200 a year in taxes to finance education reforms such as better pay for teachers, extra teacher training and smaller classrooms.
