

Council Decides To Ask TV Bids

Opening the city up to a potential lawsuit, Prestonsburg city council voted Monday night to allow new television cable companies to submit bids for the franchise here.

The culmination of long-standing dissatisfaction with Cablentertainment, the cable company which has served the city since 1976, when it was granted a 15-year franchise, the vote came after City Attorney Larry Brown told the council that there was an avenue by which they could accept new bids, based on a federal law handed down last December.

The law, which says in part that exclusive cable franchises are illegal, could set the city up for a suit by other cable companies, on the grounds that by giving the sole franchise rights to Cablentertainment the city had denied them legal opportunity to place bids before now. On the other hand, Cablentertainment might seek a restraining order against the taking of new bids, suing the city for breach of contract, said Brown.

City Manager David Evans pointed out that at the time the franchise was let, it was within the city's rights to enter into the present agreement.

Councilman Bill Ray Collins, who has led opposition to Cablentertainment for more than a year, said one cable subscriber had told him she had made 19 calls to the cable company within a 45-day period, without once having service representatives come to her residence while she was there. Collins said, "I think at every turn this cable company has slapped the people of Prestonsburg in the face with a 'go-to-hell' attitude, and I for one am sick of it."

In other action, the Council had a first reading of a proposed speed limit ordinance for emergency vehicles. The ordinance, which complies with state regulations allowing emergency vehicles to travel no faster than 15 miles (See Story No. 1, Page 4)

State To Build One Span Here, Widen Another

The state Transportation Cabinet will "soon" widen the single-lane bridge spanning Middle Creek near the Clark Elementary School and a way has been found to finance construction of a new bridge serving the Goble-Roberts section, Judge-Executive John M. Stumbo confirmed this week.

Stumbo met here Thursday with top Transportation Cabinet officials, including Secretary C. Leslie Dawson and Rural Highways Commissioner Otto Ingram, to discuss the bridge projects. State Senator Benny Ray Bailey and Prestonsburg Mayor Harold Cooley also attended the meeting.

Traffic congestion around the Clark school bridge has been a target of criticism in recent months. The proposed improvements would see the bridge widened by six feet and the approaches widened also.

In addition, a deceleration lane will be added for motorists approaching the bridge from the direction of Salyersville and an acceleration lane will be provided (See Story No. 2, Page 4)

16th Red, White, Blue Day To Honor Vietnam Veterans

Red, White and Blue Day, Floyd county's annual celebration of what's right with America, is set for this weekend in Martin.

After its founding in 1970 by Eastern housewife, Marcella Bailey, Red, White and Blue Day was held during its first 11 years in Prestonsburg. The festivities were moved to Martin in 1981.

This year's theme is "Vietnam Veterans Remembered," and Thomasine Whicker, one of the event's organizers, says plans include a 21-gun salute in honor of all veterans, and the playing of Taps for those who gave their lives in battle.

Mrs. Whicker stressed that, though the theme mentioned only Vietnam veterans, all armed forces vets would be considered honored guests, and both she and festival chairman Rodney Hutchinson urged them to attend. She also asked that survivors of those killed in that war come to the festival, saying, "We hope at least one family member of each Floyd countian killed in Vietnam can come to see them honored."

Other events will include a Friday concert by the Ace High band. Also that day, businesses will be judged on patriotic window displays, and booths housing games and crafts will be set up on the streets.

Saturday the fun will continue, with more live entertainment; craft, food and game booths; a five-kilometer run beginning at 9 a.m. (with registration at 8 a.m.); a flag-raising at the Martin Grade School at 11:30 a.m.; an antique car parade at 1 p.m., and the Red, White and Blue Day parade at 2 p.m. through downtown Martin.

And there's a Red, White and Blue Queen, too. Crowned last Thursday at a contest at Allen Central High School was Trish Rivera, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Francisco Rivera, of Prestonsburg. Miss Rivera will appear in Saturday's parade escorted by Collin Combs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Combs, Knott county.

Heads 4-State Agency

Commissioners or Magistrates?...

Magistrate Opposes, Others Favor Change

Dr. Garland D. Godsey, Prestonsburg dentist, was elected president of the four-state Southern Regional Testing Agency, Inc. (S.R.T.A.) at the agency's annual meeting, August 23-25, in Nashville, Tenn. It was announced last week by Dr. Robert B. Thompson, executive director of the Kentucky Board of Dentistry.

Dr. Godsey was appointed to the Kentucky Board of Dentistry in June, 1981 by Gov. John Y. Brown, Jr. for a four-year term. He was reappointed to a second four-year term last May by Gov. Martha Layne Collins.

He served as president of the board in 1983 and at that time was appointed to the executive committee of the Regional Testing Agency. As a committee member, he represented Kentucky, which with Tennessee, Arkansas and

"The worst thing that could happen to Floyd county," said First District Magistrate Gerald DeRossett of a proposal to replace the county's four magistrates with three commissioners.

The proposal, which Floyd citizens will have a chance to vote on in the November election, would sever the close bond between the citizens of a district and their representative on the fiscal court, DeRossett argued recently.

Jackie Owens, a candidate for magistrate in District 2, has also come out against the proposal, arguing against a "costly" rezoning and warning voters that their interests could fall by the wayside under a commission form of government. "Which third would you be in?" he asked in a recent advertisement. "The third getting the goods or the third back in the woods?"

Proponents of the commission system—which would see a fiscal court made up of the judge-executive and three representatives, all elected countywide—do not generally disagree that it would weaken the bond between the magistrate and citizens in his district. But that would be a good thing, they contend.

Progressive government is hampered, they say, when magistrates, answerable only to the voters in their own districts, are given no reason to consider the welfare of the county as a whole.

That was a point made last week by James A. Knight, circuit judge in Johnson county, which switched 11 years ago to a commission form of government. "When they know they're going to have to run countywide, they feel more responsible for the whole county," he said. "It's more efficient."

State Local Finance Officer Robert L. Purdom agreed. While state law sets the number of commissioners at three, there may be anywhere from three to eight magistrates on a fiscal court, he noted. The smaller number "seems to work better," he said. "It brings the fiscal court closer together in its overall operation."

Whatever its drawbacks, the traditional fiscal court system dies hard. Until a constitutional amendment stripped them of their judicial functions in 1978, county judges and magistrates wielded considerable clout in their own bailiwicks. "The magistrate conducted trials. He married people. He was someone you went to to get things done," recalled Allan "Bud" Perry, editor of the Paintsville Herald, last week.

Johnson countians first appeared hesitant about changing the system, originally switching to commissioners in 1966, reverting to magistrates in 1970, and switching again to commissioners in 1974. Even now, only 19 of Kentucky's 120 counties have commissioner-type fiscal courts.

While the district court system was created to take over their judicial responsibilities, critics say that many magistrates continue to think of themselves as "godfathers" dispensing favors—a water line, a bridge, a graded road—in return for loyalty at the polls. The same face-to-face relationship that binds the magistrate to his small constituency, it is argued, makes it harder for him to consider the good of the whole county.

The tension is illustrated in the running of the county roads department. Officials of the state Local Finance office regularly lecture Floyd magistrates on their responsibilities. Rather than think-

Harvard Beckons But Wells Says No Change Now

While older politicians are busy setting their sights on offices to seek at the next statewide election, state Secretary of Labor John C. Wells is trying to decide if his future lies in the political arena or in a return to academia, his first love.

In an interview last week with a Frankfort newspaperman, Wells, who is a native of Floyd county, acknowledged that he had had discussions with Hale Champion, executive dean of Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government, about "the possibility of my joining the Kennedy School as a Fellow." The post, which is by invitation only, would involve teaching one course, lecturing in others and doing research.

Speculation to the contrary, Wells said last week that he did not plan to leave state government for the Harvard post. The initial discussions focused on the current school term or the next, which will begin in January, but Wells said he told Champion that he was committed to remaining in his state post during that time.

Meanwhile, he is pondering matters "on down the road."

A brilliant student, the former Floyd countian earned M.A. and Ph. D. degrees at Rutgers. He received his A.B. from the University of Kentucky. His first state position was that of commissioner of the Bureau for Manpower Services during the administration of Governor Brown. Then, although he was a leader in the campaign of Dr. Grady Stumbo for the Democratic nomination for governor, he was appointed Department of Labor chief by Governor Collins.

Wells said his talks with Harvard officials began in June "and more intensely" during a more recent visit there when he took part in a round-table discussion of the future of the U.S. labor movement. His invitation to the round-table, it was said, resulted from Kentucky's grassroots approach to labor-management relations. Eight local labor-management committees have been established during the Collins administration.

Private Wells In 21 Counties Said Polluted

A new report may give some perspective to Prestonsburg's recent concern about the purity of its water supply. While public water supplies in southeastern Kentucky are not without problems, bacterial contamination is widespread among the area's private wells, the report said.

According to a study released this week by the Mountain Association for Community Economic Development, a Berea-based group, 68 percent of the private wells in a 21-county area, including Floyd county, are contaminated. The number of people dependent on the contaminated water supplies represents 40 percent of the area population.

There is little data available that might show a direct link between poor water quality and health problems in the area, the report says. But it noted that the incidence of hepatitis in the area is more than twice the national average and suggested that widespread water contamination is at least partly to blame.

The study concluded that the failure of the state Division of Water to accept responsibility for testing and protecting private water supplies has contributed to the problem. But Division of Water officials contend that the law charges them with responsibility for regulating only surface water, such as streams, and public water supplies.

The number of people served by contaminated water supplies is reported to be decreasing as more and more people in rural areas get city water. But among those who are not connected to public water systems, the incidence of water contamination is said to be on the rise.

Writ Names Driver In School Bus Case

A truck driver narrowly missed hitting her son as he alighted from a school bus, Monday afternoon last week, a Prestonsburg woman has charged in Floyd district court.

In swearing out a warrant Wednesday against Jerry Gullett, a driver with the Overnite Transportation Company, Roxie Bumgardner alleged that Gullett passed a stationary school bus and came "within 10 feet" of striking her seven-year-old son, Charles, as he crossed the highway in front of the bus.

The mother said she was waiting for her son in front of the Regency Apartments on U.S. 23, a few miles north of (See Story No. 8, Page 4)

Letcher Man Held In Unspecified Jail For Knott Slaying

A Letcher county man was being held in a jail of undisclosed location this week after his arrest in the gunshot slaying early last Sunday morning in the Kite area of Knott county of 19-year-old Chris Everett Short, Knott Coroner Ken Gayheart said.

Gayheart said details of the shooting were meagre. It was indicated, he said, that young Short was shot one time by Darrell Hampton, about 35, after a dispute and tussle between the two outside the mobile home of Hampton's estranged wife, Denise.

The coroner said Mrs. Hampton was not at home at the time of the shooting. The accused man was taken to the Knott county jail at Hindman but was later transferred to another jail. The case is still being investigated.

Short is survived by his parents, Sherman Short, Jr. and Emma Louise Hall Short, of Topmost; his wife, Sherry; one son, Christopher Brandon; a brother, Sherman Keith Short, and a sister, Brenda Gail Hall, both of Topmost.

Wreck Victims' Survivors Sue

The families of two young women killed in separate traffic accidents here this summer filed suits for damages last week in Floyd Circuit Court.

Johnny Collins, of Lackey, seeks compensation for the June 19 death of his daughter, Susan Lynn Collins. Named as defendant is Aaron Tuttle, 71, of Eastern.

A sophomore at Eastern Kentucky University, Miss Collins died when her car collided with Tuttle's on KY 80, just east of Maytown. Police said Tuttle made a U-turn on the highway. The suit, filed by attorney Greg Stumbo, seeks unspecified damages to cover funeral costs, lost earnings, and the wrecked auto.

SPARE US, WE BRAY

Keep your eye on Congress, America! Something big is brewing.

No, it isn't a presidential impeachment or a declaration of war, or the deficit, or the financing of "Star Wars" that has the nation's lawmakers poised for action. It's legislation to establish Oct. 26 as Mule Appreciation Day.

And why not honor the sons and daughters of the jackass? Almost everything else already has been, or soon will be, memorialized by a special Day, Week or Month. Why not the mule? You see, this Oct. 26—a week from this coming Saturday, yet—marks the 200th anniversary of the arrival in America of the first purebred jack. And if you'll take a look, you'll find that till that historic date the country hadn't amounted to much. So we celebrate...

Appalachian Center Gets $111,000 Grant

The University of Kentucky Appalachian Center has received a $111,000 grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities to establish a summer institute for junior high and middle school English teachers in Appalachia.

In addition to the NEH grant, the university will contribute approximately $75,000 to the program.

The NEH grant will allow 35 teachers from eastern Kentucky school districts to participate in a four-week institute at UK focusing on themes in Appalachian literature which compare with similar themes in American literature.

Gurney Norman, project director and a member of the UK English faculty who teaches Appalachian literature, said, "Kentucky is now in the midst of a literacy renaissance. We are blessed with excellent writers and a strong literary tradition—stronger now than ever with the emergence of such writers as Bobby Ann Mason, Ed McClanahan, Wendell Berry, James Baker Hall and others."

The State Lottery Illusion

When the Kentucky Legislature convenes next year one of the major items of legislation that it will consider is this matter of a state lottery.

Although opposition to this move for public gambling admittedly has its difficulties, we are among those who oppose it. The fact that the horse racing industry (or sport) has for generations had its state-sanctioned gambling via the parimutuel system makes the track a bit sticky for us who oppose the lottery. And many, including several legislators, have succumbed to the claim that revenues from the lottery would result in such a tax windfall that state and school financial problems would be solved and that the ordinary taxpayer would find his taxes greatly reduced.

The fact is, however, lottery revenues are a mere fraction of the tax income states need. The record shows that taxes from state lotteries never amount to more than four percent of the revenues that are needed. Public gambling as a revenue-raiser is, in short, a rather dry joke.

Another pro-lottery argument is that a state-operated lottery would eliminate the illegal "bookie joints" and "horse parlors" which surreptitiously operate, tax-free. This also is a fiction. The illegal operations will continue for two very good reasons: 1. The bookie withholds no taxes on winnings while the lottery would; 2. paying no taxes, the bookie pays better odds.

Termed a method of "voluntary" taxation, the lottery fails to live up to its name. For example, if my neighbor buys a lottery ticket, he "voluntarily" contributes taxes to bear the cost of state government. If I at the same time "voluntarily" refuse to invest, I do not pay my share and get a free ride.

Actually, the lottery penalizes those least able to pay. The dream of the rich that have escaped them now glows, and the poor take a chance. And, even if everybody bought a ticket, the assessment from the poor would be heavier, for the simple reason that the poverty-level buyer of a lottery ticket would be investing a greater part of his means than those who have plenty to spend.

The lottery is not a plain matter of simply offering to the public the dream of a quick and easy road to riches. Historically, lotteries don't work that way. Instead, government goes to the media—mainly, television—to paint a rosy picture of instant riches. It actually urges everybody to get in on the gambling act: behold this man, a poor sharecropper yesterday, today a millionaire. All this hokum, despite the fact that the state government (which "cares about you") knows your chances of winning the huge jackpot is little better than your chances of being struck by lightning. Thus government urges its people to make an investment that it knows is not in the people's interest.

State-promoted public gambling may have its attractions, but most of them are illusions. We don't buy it.

per hour above posted speed limits, was endorsed by Fire Chief Tom Blackburn and Police Chief Stan Fletcher.

One point of concern voiced by some firefighters, however, was the manner offenders would be accused and punished. Blackburn averred he would not punish his men on the basis only of complaints from citizens. Fire inspector Larry Adams agreed with Blackburn's position, saying, "It seems unfair unless I get the same benefit of the doubt" as other citizens. Both men agreed the firefighters, police officers and ambulance drivers who were clocked at excessive speeds through accepted means, such as radar, should be disciplined, however. Blackburn said that such discipline would come from the offender's superiors within his department.

ed for those returning from the school to Prestonsburg.

The improvements should eliminate the problem of vehicles backing up on the Mountain Parkway, Stumbo said. Cost of the project is put at $35,000. In the meantime, the county will patch the road leading to the bridge, perhaps as early as this week, Stumbo said.

Plans to replace the bridge leading from the Goble-Roberts Addition across the Big Sandy to KY 1428, long stalled for want of adequate financing, firmed up as a result of Thursday's meeting and a design for the structure will be developed over the next few months, Judge Stumbo said.

The state had earlier committed $800,000 toward the million-dollar project, provided local officials could come up with the remaining $200,000. Most of the required local funds have now been committed by various sources, including $70,000 from the city of Prestonsburg, $50,000 from East Kentucky Paving, which operates a tippin in that section, and $20,000 from the county. To make up the balance, state officials agreed to contribute $60,000 from the rural secondary road fund.

Construction of the bridge, which will be on the site of the original wooden bridge, now dismantled, could begin by next summer, it was said.

Also scheduled for construction, perhaps by late next year, is a highway to connect the two arms of Beaver Creek between Garrett and Minnie. Spalding Engineering, of Hazard, is currently designing the highway, which will run up Gosling fork of Goose Creek, through the head of Turkey Creek, and down Sizemore Branch of Left Beaver Creek.

Ten Years Ago

(October 15, 1975)

Four-laning of U.S. 23 from South Shore, Ky. to the Kentucky-Virginia line, near Jenkins, was stressed as the objective of the U.S. Highway 23 Association at its annual meeting Oct. 6 at May Lodge. Floyd county's Cathy Whitaker, 1975 Kentucky Apple Queen, was first runner-up to the Ohio girl who Saturday evening was named Miss Apple Queen, U.S.A. at the national pageant held in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. Damage estimated in excess of $200,000 resulted from the wreck of 18 gondolas of a Chessie System coal train last Thursday night at Allen. Movies around town this week include "Tommy," at the Strand; and, at the Prestonsburg Drive-In, "Man Eater," and "Invasion of the Bee Girls." The Prestonsburg Blackcats won the West Liberty Sorghum Bowl last Friday night, defeating the Morgan County Cougars, 34-0. Anticipating a crowd in the thousands here Saturday, Oct. 25, for Floyd county's annual Red, White and Blue Day, planners for the afternoon parade this week outlined the route the parade will take and other arrangements for handling both pedestrian and motor traffic. Married: Miss Deanna Lynn Horn, of West Prestonsburg, and Mr. Michael David Robinson, of Allen, August 16 at the First United Methodist Church here. There died: Earl Vanderpool, 63, last Thursday at his home on Racon Creek; Sidney Cline, 57, of Stanville, Monday at Methodist Hospital, Pikeville; James Edgar Miller, 93, of Wayland, Saturday at Highlands Regional Medical Center; Mrs. Ella Blanton Gibson, 84, of Melvin, last Thursday at the McDowell Regional Hospital; Mrs. Victoria "Sis" Cox, 50, of Stone Coal Creek near Garrett, Sept. 29 at the University of Kentucky Medical Center in Lexington.

Twenty Years Ago

(October 14, 1965)

A $684,864 grant to start a massive health program for Eastern Kentucky's rural poor was approved Monday by the Office of Economic Opportunity. An unscheduled portion of the University of Kentucky's Centennial Convocation program at the Jenny Wiley Amphitheatre here Wednesday morning was the presentation to the University of a deed to an additional 6.2 acres of land, expanding the Prestonsburg Community College campus to exactly 40 acres. The Maytown water supply was under attack this week after a report on a sample submitted to the State Department of Health had become known. The Dewey Lake Fish and Game Club was formed at a meeting held last Thursday evening at Prestonsburg high school by a group of hunters and fishermen. Born: to Mr. and Mrs. David A. Perkins, a son, Phillip Shawn, September 25 at Fayetteville, North Carolina. Mrs. Perkins is the former Mary Karen Burchett, of Langley; to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hicks, of Prestonsburg, a daughter, Maria Lynn, October 9 at the Prestonsburg General Hospital. There died: Mrs. Susan Craft, 83, October 12 at the Prestonsburg General Hospital; Mrs. Ruth Frasure, 36, Tuesday at her home at McDowell; Wayne Scalf, 76, October 8 at Endicott; Anderson Keen, 90, of Warco, Wednesday at the Methodist Hospital, Pikeville; John K. Artrip, 77, of Drift, Tuesday at the McDowell Appalachian Regional Hospital; Mrs. Faye Johnson, 20, formerly of Lancer, Wednesday at Morehead; Samuel Arthur Goebel, 65, of the Auxier road, October 11 at the Pikeville Appalachian Regional Hospital.

Thirty Years Ago

(October 13, 1955)

Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill, in circuit court held last Friday, dismissed the motion of four Virginians for an order of sale of lands they claim in this county under an old Virginia land patent. Edwin R. Denney, Republican candidate for Governor, opened his Big Sandy campaign against A. B. "Happy" Chandler with a speech at the courthouse here Tuesday afternoon in which he scored his opponent as "untrustworthy and unreliable." Withdrawal of Frederick A. James this week from the race for Mayor of Prestonsburg left the incumbent, Mayor Harry Sande, without opposition. Three members of a Floyd county family recently moved to Indiana were killed Saturday afternoon near LaGrange, Indiana in a two-car collision. The dead are Mrs. Okala Ousley, 45, wife of Henry Ousley, formerly of Pyramid, now of Garrett, Ind., and her daughters, Lois Rena, 19, and Bonnie Sue, 12. The third post-war county fair which ended last Saturday evening drew the best and finest livestock exhibits of the last three years, an official of the fair board said here this week. Floyd Post, American Legion, has procured from Dr. R. M. Sirkle an option to buy the building formerly occupied by the Big Sandy Tobacco Company as a future Post home, it was announced here Wednesday. There died: Robert Lee Mitchell, 83, of Ligon, last Saturday at the home of a son.

Forty Years Ago

(October 11, 1945)

Dick Smith, 67-year-old farmer-hunter, missing since Monday morning, was found dead with his two dogs atop the mountain near Glo where hunter and dogs had apparently walked into a "live" high-tension line. County Attorney W. W. Burchett said this week that only results gained to date by efforts of Floyd county officials to have the State Highway Department give the Prestonsburg-Salersville road black-top surfacing was a promise of 500 tons of gravel. Though suffering a 54-7 defeat at Hazard in their first football game of the season, Prestonsburg's Blackcats were anything but dejected as they prepped this week for Saturday's tilt at Jenkins. Harold Sammons, Prestonsburg flier, emerged unscathed from crack-up at the flying field on the Auxier road, near here, Tuesday after maneuvering his plane back to the field when engine trouble developed while 2,000 feet over Prestonsburg. Installation of two modern water systems was completed last week at Allen and Maytown, bringing the number of approved water plants in the county to six. Married: Miss Magnolia Spears, of Marrowbone, Ky., to Mr. David Hall, of Banner, and Miss Ann Conley, of Martin to Mr. William Oliver Hall, in separate ceremonies, Oct. 1 at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. Isaac Stratton; Miss Lorraine Jarrell, of Prestonsburg, and Mr. I. N. Hall, Jr., of Banner, Oct. 1 in Paintsville. Born: to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Breehne, of Cincinnati, Ohio, a son, October 4 in Cincinnati. Mrs. Breehne is the former Southa Branham, of Prestonsburg; to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lowe, of Banner, a son, Oct. 7. There died: James Sowards, 77, Tuesday at the Methodist Hospital, Pikeville; Mrs. Cynthia Stephens, 89, Sunday at Cliff; Mrs. Clara Vanhooze Rowe, 37, Tuesday at her home here; Fayette King, 16, Oct. 2 at the home of her parents at Wheelwright.

Fifty Years Ago

(October 11, 1935)

Within a few days after he had returned to the home of his parents at Virgie with the announcement that he had "come home to die," Willis "Wid" Tackett, 48 years old, brother of former County Attorney Joe P. Tackett and of Mrs. C. F. Bond, of Prestonsburg, died Monday. Articles of incorporation of Blue Beaver Elkhorn Mining Company, of Ligon, capitalized at $50,000 were filed last week with Miss Sarah Mahan, secretary of state. Winning over Olive Hall Saturday afternoon in a plunge over the goal line in the last three minutes of the game, the Prestonsburg Blackcat football team extended its undefeated record to 15 consecutive games. News was received here this week, Mayor A. C. Carter said Wednesday, that an additional $50,000 has been approved for expenditure on drainage and storm sewer construction in Prestonsburg by the Works Progress Administration (WPA). There died: Miss Hattie Gayheart, 37, of Prestonsburg, Saturday morning at the Beaver Valley Hospital, Martin; Mrs. Mae Wright Burchett, 34, wife of Oak Burchett, Friday at the Kentucky Baptist Hospital, Louisville.

"Where your friends and neighbors are"

Presented as a public service message of this newspaper

It may be that while Congress is busying itself with designating these Days and Weeks and Months it isn't wasting the taxpayers' money on bigger follies, but I'm told the paper work alone on the designating of one such date amounts to $100,000. The whole thing is getting silly, some members of the Congress admit.

Me, I've decided we're on the verge of having more "Days" than the 365 allowed by the calendar per year. It is my considered opinion that these Days which close postoffices, banks, courthouses, offices on Mondays are the worst of the lot. Fortunately, they can't close shop and go celebrating for a whole week or month.

Some idea of the enormity of Congressional holiday-making may be gained by glancing over a partial list of comparative newcomers to this silly act:

National Family Week (begins Nov. 24), National Temporary Services Week (beginning Oct. 20), National Community College Month (did you know we're smack dab in the middle of it, right now?), National Needlework Week (it ended Sept. 28, goody!), Made in America Month (scheduled for December), National Junior Bowling Week, National Navajo Code Talkers Day, National Nursing Home Residents Day, National Survivors Week, Surveyors Week, Municipal Clerks Week, Correctional Officers Week, and on and on, ad absurdum.

That's just a start. National Holstein Day came chewing its cud onto the scene only this summer. Not to mention National Make a Wish Month, National Care and Share Day and National Amateur Wrestling Week. And any day now we'll be celebrating National Lessons of Grenada Week.

And a happy day (or week or month) to you all!

LETTERS To the Editor

The views expressed here are those of the writers, and not necessarily those of this newspaper. No unsigned contributions will be published.

Views on Education

Have been following this School or Education thing in your good paper. I'll say, "It's a hoss and I wouldn't want the job of caring for it." But I do care (the biggest tax I pay is School Tax) about it and have some things to say about its or their policies.

Please allow me to express some views: A school, church or business of any type is no better than the people who run or direct it. If their policies aren't good or sensible their product will reflect it. It seems to me that a lot of our teachers need to be taught, instead of the children. When we leave off humanity, kindness, consideration of our fellow, fair play, equity, impartiality, decency and a few other things—well, we'll still have what we've got. It's o.k. to have authority, too, if it's based on or tempered with justice.

Since we've allowed our children to be taught that they are apes, lots of them, like their teachers act like beasts and have almost gone to the dogs. The reader may say, "We are talking about Education, not Religion." Well, of course, if we can't see the connection, we will still have more of what we already have. It'll get worse.

For example: I asked my little granddaughter, who is in the seventh grade, if she was still going to night school. She has to do homework till around midnight almost every day and has much to do weekends, also. It is customary to come home to rest, relax and refresh but she doesn't get much of that; I get so sorry for her. (Many a night I woke up at three and four in the morning and saw my only daughter still studying. Today, she has ulcers.) I see several of the teachers out with the fellows, chewing, smoking and gossiping evenings. One of our superintendents told me that when he came home, he forgot about it and left it behind. It's just the old Double Standard, if you ask me. They are causing lots of nerves and ulcers.

If I am informed correctly, they have taken away the noon hour and both recesses. This appears idiotic to me. Everyone who ever worked, ran, fought or what have you, knows that a break is essential. They don't forget their vacation, do they? When I went to school (to the editor also) we looked forward to the noon hour and our recesses with great anticipation; they were so refreshing.

I do feel that our schools need some wholesome conduct based on the authority of God's Word (the Bible) and not on the opinions of some educated fools.

Jenny Wiley A.A.R.P. Plans Health Fair

Jenny Wiley Chapter No. 3528, American Association of Retired Persons (A.A.R.P.) and McDowell Appalachian Regional Hospital will hold a free health fair for adults Saturday, October 26, in the Clinic of the hospital.

Hours will be from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., with registration beginning at 9:30. All adults are invited to attend.

RETURN AFTER CRUISE

In celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Hooker left by plane from the Lexington airport, Sept. 29, for Miami Florida. From there, they enjoyed a cruise to Cancun and Cozumel, Mexico, Georgetown in the Cayman Islands, and on to the Berry Islands, in the Bahamas. They returned home Oct. 6.

ing of themselves as grader operators, personally responding to their constituents' requests for road repairs, they should see themselves as legislators—setting policy, determining the county's road priorities, hiring a road crew to do the work and a foreman to oversee it—Al Howell, a field worker with the Local Finance office told the magistrates repeatedly in 1983.

The argument apparently fell on deaf ears. An Allen dentist who campaigned as a legislator last spring lost the primary to a candidate who campaigned as a heavy equipment operator.

In a political advertisement this week, District 2 candidate Owens praises magistrates for "working like a regular workhand" and "getting out and clearing snow-covered roads." Unless each magistrate takes care of his own section, "some parts of the county will get everything and other parts will get nothing," said Magistrate DeRossett.

A commission system would favor urban areas, DeRossett predicted. "Where there's a heavy population, that's where they'll do the work."

Under the magistrate system, county road workers and equipment are typically divided up, as far as possible, the magistrates then scrambling for the workers and materials they have to share. The thing that persuaded Johnson counties that they would do better with commissioners was the sight of "so much fighting (among magistrates) for a little bit of territory," said Perry. Johnson county's brief fling with the magistrate system in 1970 will be its last dalliance, Perry predicted. "One term of magistrates was enough," he said. "That's all it took when people saw the bickering going on."

For Bill Foley, the retired restaurateur who organized the petition to get the commission question put on the ballot here, the issue that might persuade Floyd countians to give the commissioner system a try is the magistrates' bloated salaries. Foley was distributing copies this week of a fiscal court decision setting the 1985 salary for Floyd magistrates at $22,104 a year. A $300 monthly expense check brings that figure up to $25,704. "These people are robbing the county," Foley said this week.

Nothing in the law requires that commissioners be paid less than magistrates, Foley concedes. But, at the least, there would be one fewer official to pay and the change in systems might provide an opportunity to scale the salaries down, he argues.

Under a commission system, candidates for commissioner would first stand for election in their district in the May primary. In November, those successful in the primary would stand for election countywide.

In a county as lopsidedly Democratic as Floyd, where a victory in the primary usually means a victory in the general election, the effect of a commissioner system is likely to be much muted. Even so, proponents argue, it is worth a try. "I think you get better qualified people, the larger the number of people in the (voting) unit," said Judge Knight.

Editor Perry agreed. "A district can put in a really sorry candidate," he said, "but it's harder for someone totally incompetent to get elected countywide."

here, when the bus bringing him home from Auxier grade school stopped in the southbound lane around 2:45 p.m.

Warning lights on the bus were flashing, at least two cars had stopped behind the bus, and vehicles had also come to a halt in the northbound lane, she said.

To her horror, she saw a southbound truck pass the stationary bus and cars, barely missing her son, who crossed the highway unharmed, Mrs. Bumgardner said. The truck did not appear to slow down until it had cut back in front of the bus, hit the curb and came to a halt at some distance, she said.

Ed Patton, transportation director for Floyd county schools, joined Mrs. Bumgardner in swearing out the warrant against the truck driver.

Gullett, who lives in Salyersville and is reported to be in his late twenties, was unavailable for comment Tuesday. But Kenneth Conley, an Overnite dispatcher, said the driver was shaken by the incident. "He said it scared him to death," the dispatcher said.

Gullett, who was returning to the company's Middle Creek plant with an empty truck, told him he came suddenly upon the stationary bus and cars, Conley said. The driver said he was faced with a choice of either slamming into the stopped vehicles or going around them, the dispatcher said.

In making his choice to go around, the driver calculated that the Bumgardner boy would be clear of the roadway, Conley said.

Gullett called on her at home the next day in an unsuccessful effort to dissuade her from pressing a complaint against him, Mrs. Bumgardner said. "He told me he almost had a heart attack," Mrs. Bumgardner said. "I told him I almost lost a kid."

The arrest warrant, which had still not been served yesterday (Tuesday), summons Gullett to a Nov. 11 court appearance.

"Something has to be done," Mrs. Bumgardner said. "I want to slow those drivers down."

D.A.V. TO MEET

A Beautiful Day at The Races — Terrence Is The Winnah

By JEANIE SPURLOCK
Saturday was a glorious day at the races! The weather could hold no equal as 180 terrapins hiked their way to the finish line during the Jenny Wiley Festival trots. The entire race was over in 1 1/2 hours compared to three hours at the Apple Festival trot.
Just five seconds off the 1984 track record was No. 141 Terrence, (Time: 52), winner of the trot's first place trophy and $100. Sarah Fitzpatrick, of Lexington, was the proud owner. Parents of Sarah are Attorneys Dickie and Maria Fitzpatrick, formerly of Prestonsburg. Coming in a close second was No. 6, "Vern," a speedy three seconds behind No. 141, at :55. This turtle was owned and operated by WKLW Radio Station, Paintsville, and collected a trophy and $50. Winner of third place with prize money of $25 and trophy was No. 168, "Rocky Top," owned by R. & R. Stone Co., Prestonsburg. The time on "Rocky" was 1:01 flat. Eat your heart out Secretariat!!

Needless to say, the other participants in the final big one were all speed demons. The winners of the heats were:
Heat No. 2: Jeremy Minton, No. 22. "Spree"; No. 3: Latta-Brown Law Offices, No. 26, "Legal Eagle." Heat No. 4: Rudolph Ousley, DVM and Staff, No. 40, "Rabid Racker." Heat 5, Larry Joe Wells, No. 45 "Thunder." Heat No. 6:

No. 59: Heat No. 7: Francis Stores, No. 73, "Huck's Flash." Heat No. 8, Alan Akers, No. 88, "Smurfie." Heat No. 9, No. 92; Heat No. 10, No. 100; Heat No. 11, No. 120; Heat No. 12, Happy Hour Liquors, No. 123, "The Winner." Heat No. 14, Cooley's Medical Equipment, No. 154, "Oz."
There were fifteen heats run with heat 11 won by No. 120 in '48 seconds, one second off the track record.
Masses of other contestants crowded alongside the track urging their undecided charges to go. Some even had "Do Not Disturb" signs on. (The Turtles). All of these reptiles and owners are to be congratulated for taking part in such a fun-fund-raising event. All proceeds go to Our Lady of the Mountains School with donations to both the Apple and Jenny Wiley Festivals. The event itself is sponsored by the First Commonwealth Bank which provides the monies and trophies.
The Terrapin Trots are now an annual affair in both side-by-side county festivals and are listed as regular events in both brochures. Since the first trot in 1983, with 60 entries, the races have tripled with over 130 businesses added. The trots are approved by the Wildlife Federation and save hundreds of Terrapins from certain death on the highways. This year the creatures were released in the vast forest of Paintsville Lake—far from the "Maddening" crowd. One spokesman from the Turtle Trot committee said that race was "one to see."

Card of Thanks

Susan Lynn Collins

We, the family of Susan Lynn Collins, would like to express our deep appreciation to everyone who shared our grief at the loss of our loved one. We shall always remember the kindness of all who sent flowers, food, cards, letters, prayers and those who came to be with us at this time of great sadness.
A special thank you to the Hall Funeral Home for their kind service and to Rev. Clinton Jones and Rev. Drew Martin for their prayers and consoling words at the services.

RE-ELECT HAROLD STUMBO DISTRICT JUDGE

To vote for me, pull the Non-Partisan lever on the extreme right side of the voting machine.

I hope I have the qualifications, as attested to by the following letter, to serve you as your District Judge:

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION AND LABOR
2101 RAYBURN HOUSE OFFICE BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20515

26 June 1980

Mr. Paul A. Willis
Executive Secretary
Judicial Retirement and Removal Commission
Frankfort, Kentucky 40601

Dear Mr. Willis:

I have learned recently that the Commission has authorized a preliminary investigation into the conduct of District Judge Harold Stumbo of the 31st Judicial District, Prestonsburg. If I am correctly advised, the matter under study is the Judge's record of dismissals and reduction of citations in his court.

At the outset, let me acknowledge that this is not a matter in which a Member of Congress has any official standing. But as a citizen of Eastern Kentucky who has long been familiar with Floyd County and its people, I would like to submit this letter for the record and for the consideration of the Commission in this matter.

I have known Harold Stumbo all of his life. I knew his father; I knew his grandfather; and I know his son who presently serves in the General Assembly of Kentucky. My close acquaintance with this family is of more than fifty years duration. During all of that time, I have never known of any action or suspicion of action that would compromise the integrity that is their heritage and their pride. And I am confident that a fair and thorough investigation will prove any suggestion of misconduct on the part of Judge Stumbo to be without foundation.

While I have not been a judge, I have been a County attorney and a Commonwealth's attorney, and I know well the strong passions and emotions that are aroused in the administration of justice. I doubt any plaintiff is ever really satisfied when a defendant is released by a judge, and the fact that the Commonwealth itself is a plaintiff does not alter that basic human reaction.

More than forty years ago I was severely criticized by the local press of that very area because, as Commonwealth's attorney, I successfully moved the then-circuit court for dismissal of dozens of felony cases, many of which had been on the docket for more than a decade. I took that step because it was my judgment after investigation that those cases could not be successfully prosecuted -- for want of witnesses, for want of provable facts, for want of substance, and for any of a dozen other legitimate reasons.

That action of mine back in the late 1930s subsequently was viewed by the community as a proper one. It was my belief then, and I cling to it now, that if a prosecutor has a weak or questionable case, he can better spend his time and the Commonwealth's money in concentrating on the strong cases.

I believe Judge Stumbo to be an upright and honorable man, a belief backed up by his 18-year record of public service among his people. He is a decent man and a compassionate one. And if he is accused of dispensing justice tempered with mercy, he is following the precepts of a higher authority than those frequently cited in the judicial process.

If there is any further information I can add about the high character of the Judge and his forebears in Eastern Kentucky, I will certainly be pleased to supply it. I know that a fair investigation of this matter will result in his vindication.

Very truly yours,

Carl D. Perkins
Carl D. Perkins, M.C.

Your Vote Will Be Appreciated.

PUBLIC NOTICE OF BLASTING SCHEDULE

Application No. 836-0100
Edco Energy Corp., shall conduct blasting operations on its 77.5 acre surface mining permit, application number 836-0100. Said operation is located approximately 1 mile(s) northwest of State Route 80 junction with 1210. Latitude 37° 33' 55" and longitude 82° 47' 10". The surface of the area to be mined is owned by Marvin May, Hershel Flanery, Henry B. May Heirs, J.S. Greer et al.
Blasting will be conducted each day, Monday through Saturday from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. Any major alteration from the blasting schedule will be published. Unscheduled blasting may occur in emergency situations where lightning, rain, other atmospheric conditions or the safety of the operator or public requires unscheduled detonation.
Control of the blasting area will be maintained by blocking access roads to the blasting area ten (10) minutes prior to the blast. Postdetonation access to the blasting area will be allowed only after an inspection and determination that no hazards exist.
A predetonation warning, consisting of three (3) long blasts of air horn/siren will be given. After personnel are cleared from the area, two additional long blasts will be given two minutes before detonation of explosives. Just prior to detonation, one additional long blast of siren will be sounded. Personnel are to remain in clear areas until a satisfactory postdetonation all clear signal, consisting of a series of short blasts on the air horn/siren will be given. These signals will be audible over a minimum distance of one half mile.
The preceding notice is published pursuant to 30 CFR 816.64 Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement Provisions and 405 KAR 16:120 and the regulations relating thereto.

Health Workers Share Skills With Students

Science students in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades at Maytown Elementary School received a lesson in blood typing recently at the hands of Don Hicks, lab director at Highlands Regional Medical Center, and Barbara Whitt, of the Central Kentucky Blood Center.

The project was the first to be sponsored by the School-Community Partnership Committee, a group formed recently under the auspices of the Floyd County Education Forum, Inc. The organization hopes to promote learning projects in the schools which draw on the expertise of business, civic and professional workers.

Retail Business Owners To Eye Strategy

The Kentucky Retail Federation, Inc., will sponsor a meeting for all local business people Thursday, Oct. 24, to plan strategy with retailers and restaurateurs to deal with the issues which will confront their business during the upcoming session of the Kentucky General Assembly. Major changes in shoplifting and bad check laws, labor laws, unemployment compensation and worker's compensation are proposed.

Mack J. Morgan, Jr., president of the Kentucky Retail Federation, said the strategy session will be held from 2 to 3:15 p.m. at the Floyd County Library. All retail businesses are invited and need to attend.

Legislation to be discussed will include proposed changes in the theft laws; a transient merchant law, increasing the minimum wage above the federal level; a proposal to change the felony definition from $100 to $500; legislation to control Worker's Compensation insurance increases, and three other bills that will affect retail operations.

Information about the tax changes made in the July special session will also be discussed, he said.

The discussion will be led by staff members of the Kentucky Retail Federation. Additional information about the meeting may be had from David Hereford, of Prestonsburg, who is the local chairman of the Federation.

Troubador To Regale Grade School Pupils In Anti-Litter Drive

Students of Floyd county elementary schools will take to the song waves about keeping Kentucky beautiful and nurturing precious resources, October 21-25, during a week-long anti-litter campaign.

The "Appalachian Troubadour," Michael Johnathon, who performed last November, will once again serenade students. Johnathon, a musician from Mousie, will use his guitar and banjo to communicate themes of garbage, environmental awareness, and community pride to school children. The time and place of the concerts are:

Oct. 21—Betsy Layne, 9 a.m.; Clark, 1 p.m.
 Oct. 22—Prestonsburg, 8:30 a.m.; Stumbo, 1:30 p.m.

Oct. 23—Harold, 9 a.m.; McDowell, 1 p.m.

The anti-litter week is part of an educational program jointly sponsored by the Kentucky Clean Community Program (part of the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet) and East Kentucky Beverage. The program uses the "Waste in Place" curriculum and involves inservice training for teachers; an anti-litter campaign carried out by the school; and a free musical concert for participating schools.

Severance Tax Returns

Floyd county mined 7.2 million tons of coal in the fiscal year just ended and severance tax collections returned to county government here totalled $283,375, State Rep. Greg Stumbo announced this week. In addition, five cities in this county also benefitted from severance tax receipts, he said. They were Allen ($1602), Martin ($3920), Prestonsburg ($1914), Wayland ($2849), and Wheelwright ($4100).

ELECT
COUNTY COURT CLERK

Ron Frasure is qualified to be your County Court Clerk. He graduated from Prestonsburg High School and attended the University of Kentucky and has served the public for over 25 years as an HONEST businessman. He will make Floyd County an HONEST clerk. The INTEGRITY of the office will never be questioned. Your valuable deeds and records will be safe with Ron Frasure as your clerk. There will be no alteration of any state document or transmittals. If any deputy clerk is charged of any wrongdoing, the clerk will be dismissed immediately and will be dealt with to the fullest extent of the law. Your voting machines are the direct responsibility of your clerk and Ron Frasure will see to it that they are protected in a safe, locked area between each election. He will have friendly, courteous people to help any person with looking up deeds or other documents—the clerk's office will be your office. The clerk's office door will not be closed in your face at closing time. If you need the services of the clerk's office, and arrive late, Ron Frasure will be available after hours and on weekends in case of emergencies. Ron Frasure believes that there are two ways to look at excess fees. One is, are our people being unfairly charged? Two, maybe the County Court could be getting thousands more dollars than they have been getting. Ron Frasure will find ways of speeding up the service so you won't have to stand in long lines wasting your valuable time.

A Vote For Ron Frasure Will Be A Vote For A Better Floyd County Clerk

Seen at the Jenny Wiley Festival

WHAT WITH A REAL LIVE MONKEY, these two in clown costume had a following among the youngsters, Saturday.

INDIAN DRESS was de rigeur for those in the spirit of the day.

MAXINE BIERMAN, founder of the Jenny Wiley Festival, looked pleased as she waved to the crowd.

THIS BEFEATHERED YOUNGSTER showed off his finery at Saturday's parade.

MISS JENNY WILEY, 1985, Paula Spencer, waved to those along the parade route.

JANICE SHEPHERD was obviously happy with the trophy she and her husband, Cleve, won in the car show.

CARLY BINGHAM, of Prestonsburg, winner of the costume competition, seems rather nonchalant about the whole thing...

AND RUNNER UP, Christina Piercy, of East Point, in full Indian regalia plus war paint, adjusts her feathers.

AMONG THE FLOATS in Saturday's parade was this entry of Mayo Vocational School depicting the temptation in the Garden of Eden.

RICK ROBERTS broke the course record to win the two-mile run.

AND WHAT WOULD A PARADE BE without marching bands. Allen Central High School was among those who provided the beat to march to.

State To Take Initiative In Vegetable Crop Market

Governor Martha Layne Collins last week announced plans for a major initiative in the marketing of vegetable crops in Kentucky.

She said she has asked Agriculture Commissioner David Boswell and Commerce Secretary Carroll Knically to work with the State Board of Agriculture to develop a program to serve the interest of present and future growers seeking new supplemental income through the production and marketing of produce.

She said the state's universities are being asked to make technical and support personnel available to assist in the implementation of this new thrust toward making vegetables a greater income source for Kentucky agriculture.

"This past summer has convinced me of the widespread interest among Kentucky's farmers in commercial vegetable production," Governor Collins said. The governor, saying the limiting factor to greater production is the lack of grading, packaging and marketing capabilities, said, "I believe state government has a responsibility to respond by taking a stronger initiative in seeing that a marketing system is available to those farmers wanting to capitalize on the opportunity commercial vegetable production offers for new cash income."

Governor Collins did not discuss specific details of the proposed program, but did say that it probably will be built around regional cooperatives. Kentucky is the leading producer of bell peppers for processing, with Cumberland Farm Products at Monticello being the marketing center for production concentrated in the Lake Cumberland area. The cooperative is also highly successful in tomato production and marketing as well as fresh process market cabbage sales. Cumberland Farm Products has been in operation since 1969, and after some difficult years in the beginning, has grown to be a highly successful operation.

Two new cooperatives, Kentucky Agricultural Marketing Association, Lexington, and Kentucky Mountain Farms Co-op, in Lee county, were started this year. In addition to private financing, the Lexington co-op received a $33,000 grant from the City of Lexington and Kentucky Mountain Farms started with a $66,000 loan provided through the Commerce Cabinet. Cumberland Farm Products at Monticello was founded with a federal loan of nearly $200,000 and later received some $400,000 in federal grants.

Kentucky fruit and vegetable sales are estimated at about $35 million annually, with about half of this coming from vegetable sales. A study by the University of Kentucky has shown that Kentucky farmers could increase fresh vegetable sales by as much as $35 million a year by taking advantage of markets in 11 major cities within one day's drive of Kentucky.

Governor Collins said she expects the program, which is to be developed in consultation with agricultural extension personnel, marketing specialists, and farmer-grower representatives, to be formulated by December 1. She said a volume increase in vegetable production could bring increased activity at existing processing facilities in Kentucky as well as attracting potential new processing plants.

SAFETY TIPS FOR HALLOWEEN

OCTOBER 31

6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Halloween is a time for Trick or Treating and it is a time to be safe. When it comes to safety, here are the basic rules:

1. Make sure all costumes are flame-resistant and that they do not dangle or trail behind the child.
2. Use only flashlights in out-door Jack o' Lanterns.
3. Make sure that young children are adequately supervised by an adult.
4. Go only to houses or apartments of people you know.
5. Make your child understand that he is to eat no treats until you have gone over the loot together. (A box of raisins or a bag of candy provided by you for the journey will make the child feel less tempted.)
6. Discard any unwrapped candy, or any goodies in torn packaging.

REMEMBER—TRICK OR TREAT NIGHT IN THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG IS THURSDAY, OCTOBER 31 FROM 6:00 P.M. TO 8:30 P.M. ONLY CHILDREN 12 AND UNDER CAN WEAR MASKS.

THESE SAFETY TIPS ARE GIVEN TO YOU AS A PUBLIC SERVICE OF THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG.

HAVE A HAPPY (AND ABOVE ALL) SAFE HALLOWEEN!

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY

I read with great interest the paid political ad entitled, "A MESSAGE TO THE FLOYD COUNTY TAXPAYERS," which appeared in the Oct. 9, 1985 Floyd County Times. This so called "Message" is nothing but MUD-SLINGING at its worst. Ron Frasure is KNOWINGLY publishing only a Half-Truth, or whatever you would prefer to call it. I call your attention to the July 10, 1985 issue of the Floyd County Times. This article states, "The bottom line is they didn't have any evidence of criminal conduct on the clerk's part. Of the allegedly forged receipts, Boyd's initials appear on only five and—like the initials of the half-dozen other deputy clerks which appear on the receipts—were TYPEWRITTEN, NOT HANDWRITTEN". "Anybody who used a typewriter could have done it" said Jerry Patton, Boyd's attorney.

County Attorney Arnold Turner, Jr. in the same article added "my experience with Carla Boyd has been good and I have long felt there was no substance to the long-circulated rumors of her connection with misconduct."

Attorney Patton suggested that the attention given recently to the state police investigation of the clerk was prompted by "someone interested in running (for clerk) four years from now." The attorney noted that Floyd Republicans are in the process of choosing a new candidate to square off against Boyd in the general election in November. My client fully cooperated with investigators. They spent six months investigating her and said THEY HAD NO CASE. THE WHOLE THING IS POLITICAL," added Patton.

Of course this added, and vital, information did not reach Ron Frasure's desk in time to be included in his "Message to the Taxpayers". I, and thousands of other voters like me, do not believe everything that is put in print; and it is a shame that such a FLAGRANT DISREGARD FOR THE TRUTH can be conveyed under the guise of freedom of speech or freedom of the press.

The common man in this country has learned from bitter experience that this type of campaigning comes only from a candidate trying to cloud the issues or discredit his opponent. This type of candidate attempts to keep the attention on everything but himself and his qualifications.

By the way, I did vote in the May Primary. What puzzles me is that I do not remember seeing Ron Frasure's name on the opposing ballot of Carla R. Boyd. Surely it was there, else he could not be running against her this November, or could he? Of course not, Ron Frasure got zero (0) votes, because his name WAS NOT on the May Primary Ballot. Neither is the name of the Republican candidate, because he had no opposition, so how does Ron Frasure fit into all this? Through advanced planning and political chicanery, he and other high ranking Republicans ran Ray Dempsey in the May election. Poor Mr. Dempsey, not so suddenly, became too ill to make it to the November election. So Ron Frasure, who felt it his civic duty, volunteered to run in Dempsey's place. This meant being elected after all; not by the people of Floyd County though, but by a handful of Ron Frasure's political party. So, he did receive 19 votes after all, while Carla R. Boyd received 8609 COUNTY WIDE VOTES.

Ron, the people spoke out in May and they will speak out again in November; and it WILL NOT be for the kind of POLITICAL CHICANERY that you have chosen to represent and have so graciously adopted. POWER TO THE PEOPLE!!!!!!

Thank you,
 Larry D. Robinson

Ginseng Prices Drop This Year

The 1985 ginseng prices are a little off 1984 prices, but it's still too early in the season to tell how prices will finish, according to reports from the Kentucky Department of Agriculture.

"Ginseng diggers are receiving only about $125 per pound of dried ginseng this year, as compared to about $140-$145 per pound last year," according to Agriculture Commissioner David E. Boswell.

The Commissioner said this year's harvest is forecast at approximately 23,000 pounds, about the same as last year's.

"We estimate the harvest by talking to dealers who handle large amounts of ginseng. They keep a close track on the trade," Boswell said.

The county-by-county harvest last year ranged from as little as 1.8 pounds in Woodford county to 3,000 pounds in Pike county, according to Department of Agriculture records.

"It's easy to see why ginseng is extremely important in some areas," Boswell said. "Ginseng contributed $375,000 to Pike county's economy, and that's just to the digger. Dealer transactions would make it even more."

Dealers make approximately $5 to $10 a pound for exporting the ginseng they buy from diggers, trading it through brokers or selling it in domestic markets in Asian communities.

"Ginseng digging may seem like easy work, but it takes many pounds of green ginseng to make a pound of dried root," Boswell said.

"Sometimes diggers use 230-300 plants to make up a pound of dried root, but it would be better for the future of ginseng if diggers went after only the bigger roots," Boswell said.

"There is a concern that by digging so many small roots, some people may be digging themselves out of business. They may not be leaving enough small plants to ensure reproduction," Boswell continued.

It was partially a concern over the possible extinction of ginseng which caused the federal government to require states to regulate its harvest and export.

As the result of a 1982 state law, ginseng dealers must be registered with the Agriculture Department and must keep records of the ginseng they buy and sell. Ginseng must be certified by the department before it enters the foreign trade market.

Ginseng can be harvested in Kentucky from Aug. 15 to Nov. 30. The roots can be bought and sold from Aug. 15 through next March.

WIDOWS ARE EASY PREY—OR ARE THEY?
Widows must be wary of frauds and schemes. C.O.D. deliveries for clothing, appliances, expensive fishing tackle or "telephone ordered" merchandise and subscriptions are suspect and need not be honored by the widow in most instances.
We have seen published an account of one wise widow who was approached by a publisher's "representative" who wished to include her late husband in a scientists' "Who's Who" book. The text would be $500 and the inclusion of a photo brought it to $750.
The widow agreed to meet with the representative at a certain place, date and time...during office hours at her lawyer's place of business! Having a lawyer expose the fraud neatly saved the widow more than just anxiety and annoyance—it saved her $750!
Professional counselling at law or funeral direction is important to bereaved families. We are pleased to be of service—professionally, in our area of expertise. Call or stop by for information before the need arises.

9 Kentucky Professors Named to Roll of Honor

Nine faculty members from six Kentucky colleges and universities have been included in the national Faculty Roll of Honor compiled by the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) for Higher Education Week, October 19-26.

Those honored were among the 25 annual semifinalists in the competition for the national Professor of the Year award since it began in 1981.

Kentucky's professors honored in this year's Roll of Honor include:

Richard Barber, University of Louisville; Ruth Barnes, Morehead State University; Henry E. Cheaney, Kentucky State University; Joseph C. Deck, University of Louisville; Jules R. Dubar, Morehead State University; Thomas Marsh, University of Louisville; Monroe Moosnick, Transylvania University; Donna Snell Smith, Lees College, and Donald R. Tuck, Western Kentucky University.

The theme of Higher Education Week in 1985 will be "Honor Thy Faculty," and will be highlighted in Kentucky with special programs and recognition ceremonies on many campuses. Higher Education Week is sponsored in Kentucky by the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education in Kentucky (CASE-K), the Council on Higher Education, and the Council of Independent Kentucky Colleges and Universities.

Express Appreciation

The Cow Creek Volunteer Fire Department thanks all who came by their concession stand at the Jenny Wiley Festival. They also thank those who donated or helped in any way.

EBB HAIR CONSULTANT
WILL EXPLAIN HAIR PROBLEMS AT HEART-O-HIGHLANDS, US 23 South, Paintsville SUNDAY, OCTOBER 27 CALL FOR APPOINTMENT

Mr. J. M. Jones will be back in Paintsville again Sunday, October 27. Now is the time to act on this great opportunity. Every man and woman now losing hair should take advantage of this FREE CONSULTATION.

GUARANTEED
You will be given a written guarantee on a pro-rated basis from the beginning to the end.

CAN'T HELP
Male pattern baldness is the cause of a great majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss, for which no method is effective. Ebb Hair Specialists cannot help those who are slick bald after years of gradual hair loss.

Many conditions can cause hair loss. No matter which one is causing your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead you are beyond help. So, now is the time to do something about it before it's too late.

CALL FOR AN APPOINTMENT FOR FREE CONSULTATION
Just take a few minutes of your time on Sunday, October 27, and call the Heart-O-Highlands, US 23 South in Paintsville between 1 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. Ask for J. M. Jones and make an appointment.

There is no charge or obligation... all consultations are private, you will not be embarrassed in any way.

Frank Moran Shows He ReGrew Hair. He Did Not Have Male Pattern Baldness.

Employers Have Till July 1 To Collect On Vets' Reimbursement

Because of a congressional extension, Kentucky employers now have until next July 1 to obtain reimbursement for hiring and training jobless veterans under the Emergency Veterans' Job Training Act.

The Department for Employment Services is participating in a nationwide effort to increase the hiring of unemployed Vietnam-era and Korean War veterans under this program.

The Veterans Administration has approved 547 Kentucky employers for participation in the program since it began in December, 1983. "This represents 1,410 jobs, of which 541 have been filled," said Jack Lesley, director of the DES Division of Veterans Employment Services. "Meanwhile, 3,963 veterans have been approved for the program."

While Congress extended the time for employers to apply, the deadline for veterans to sign up for the program was Feb. 28. Participating employers can recoup half the costs, up to $10,000, of hiring and training eligible veterans in technology-based or growth industries or where demand for labor exceeds the supply.

Normally training lasts nine months, but disabled veterans may qualify for a 15-month training period, Lesley said. The training may take place on the job or in a vocational or specialized training center.

"This program is a stepping-stone toward our goal of getting unemployed veterans to work in jobs that offer long-term career potential," Lesley said. "And it offers employers a unique opportunity to expand their workforces and increase their productivity."

For more information, interested employers should contact a local office of the Department for Employment Services or the Veterans Administration.

Claude Ratliff (Phone 886-2396) is the employment representative here.

ALLEN HOMEMAKERS MEET

The Allen Homemakers met October 10 at the Allen Baptist Church with Linda Porter presiding. The devotional was given by Pearl Watts on Spiritual Dressing.

FLOYD COUNTY HEALTH NEWS

By JANE BOND
Health Educator

Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS), the sudden and unexpected death of apparently healthy babies, is the major cause of infant deaths, between the ages of one month and one year. In the United States SIDS is responsible for approximately 7,000 infant deaths each year. During Fiscal Year 1984-85 there were 92 SIDS deaths in Kentucky. SIDS can produce intense and traumatic reactions among surviving family members.

The Floyd County Health Department has a counseling program for those families who have had a SIDS death. Through this program, trained health professionals help the family through their grief. For more information about this program call the health department at 606-886-2788.

There will be a Pap clinic at the health department Friday, October 18, from 8:30-11:30, and from 1-2. This free clinic is open to women of all ages, but those 45 and over are especially urged to take advantage of this service since this is the high risk age.

Nurses will be at the Health Department branch office at Beaver every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. They will offer T.B. skin tests, urinalyses, blood pressures, anemia screening, WIC, and immunizations. These services are free and the public is welcome.

Nuclear Weapons Topic In KET "War" Series

Public television's much discussed series "War: A Commentary By Gwynne Dyer" continues in November with "Notes on Nuclear War." This sixth episode in the series airs Tuesday, November 5, at 9:00 p.m. on KET.

The arms race is profiled from the World War II dropping of the first atomic bomb through the Cuban missile crisis of the early 1960s to today's nuclear stalemate. In the western world, Dyer examines the network of businesses which gain million dollar profits from preparing for war. A similar situation exists in the Soviet Union also. However, monetary profits are replaced with the chance for promotion within the Communist Party and career advancement.

Dyer contends no rational person wants a nuclear war; yet everyone conspires to make one possible through voting and tax increases or actively participating in nuclear war preparations.

With the hanging possibility of nuclear war growing more realistic each day, Dyer notes that neither the Soviet Union nor the United States had designed a plan to protect civilians. However, there are elaborate plans to protect government leaders, generals, and senior bureaucrats.

Two physicians, one from the United States and the other from the Soviet Union, describe in horrifying detail the medical consequences of nuclear war and the inability of the medical profession to handle the disaster.

THANKS

FROM THE JENNY WILEY FESTIVAL, INC.

We, the members of the Jenny Wiley Festival, Inc. of Floyd County, wish to express our appreciation to the City of Prestonsburg Police Department, Chief Stan Fletcher and the Auxiliary Police and Fire Department, Tom Blackburn and the Volunteer Firemen, Lenard Joseph and the Street Department.

We wish to thank the Floyd County Chapter of Alice Lloyd Alumni, First Methodist Church, Community Methodist Church, Archer Park, River View Manor Nursing Home, Prestonsburg Community College, Jenny Wiley Resort Park, Kiwanis, and the Jenny Wiley Car Club.

A special thanks to the Banks, area merchants, civic organizations, clubs, schools, auxiliaries, Shriners, chairpersons and individuals. Also to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Allen for their hospitality, and to all others we may have failed to mention.

Without their contributions and cooperation, there would be no Jenny Wiley Festival.

TO ALL WHO DECORATED THEIR WINDOWS:

For the fourth year, we thank you for contributing so much to the Jenny Wiley Festival. Your efforts are enjoyed by all who see your windows and I'm sure you enjoyed pleasant memories while fixing them.

We regret that all windows cannot win prizes—each one deserves one—but prizes are not the goal. The idea is to add to the air of the festival. Our heartfelt thanks to those of you who did.

NUMB ARMS, LEGS Warning Signals

There may be misalignment of vertebrae in the spine causing pressure on nerves, yet the patient experiences no pain in the back. Instead, a variety of sensations may be felt in other parts of the body. These include tingling, tightness, hot spots, cold spots, crawling sensations, electric shock sensations, stinging, burning, and others.

The following nine symptoms involving back pain or strange sensations are often the forerunners of more serious conditions. Any one of these may spell back trouble.

- (1) Paresthasias (see above) (2) Headaches (3) Painful joints (4) Numbness in the arms or hands (5) Loss of sleep (6) Stiffness in the neck (7) Pain between the shoulders (8) Stiffness or pain in lower back (9) Numbness or pain in the legs.

These signals may indicate your body is being robbed of normal nerve function. Until this function is restored, you will, in some degree, be incapacitated. The longer you wait to seek help, the worse the condition will likely become. Don't wait! Should you experience any of these warning signals... call for in depth consultation in Layman's terms.

KFTC Meeting Set

Members of the Kentucky Fair Tax Coalition will hold their annual meeting this Saturday, October 19, in Hazard. The group has been instrumental in securing protections for groundwater near mining operations, limiting strip mine permits under broad form deeds, and having the exemption from property taxes given large mineral owners declared unconstitutional.

Organizers said the meeting will focus on the upcoming legislative session and increased protections for the state's water resources, local control over land use decisions, and additional rights for surface owners.

Afternoon workshops will be held on water, land, and tax issues as well as on organizing skills.

The Kentucky Fair Tax Coalition is a non-profit, membership-based organization consisting of 13 local chapters and 1,200 members statewide. KFTC works on a variety of issues including water, landowners' rights, and fair taxation of land and minerals. The coalition also helps new community groups learn how to organize themselves to address such issues, and emphasizes the development of leaders within each community.

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday at the Hazard Community College. The meeting is free and open to the general public. Lunch and child care will be provided.

HEARING FLOYD COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Floyd County Board of Education will hold a public hearing at the gymnasium of Martin Grade School on October 23, 1985 at 7:00 p.m. for the purpose of hearing public comments on a proposed general fund tax rate of 28.0 cents.

The general fund tax rate levied in 1984-85 was 17.9° and 22.2° and produced revenue of $754,580.22. The proposed general fund tax rate of 28.0 is expected to produce $1,175,132.62 for fiscal year 1985-86, none of this amount is from new property. The compensating tax rate in 1985-86 is 18.3 cents and revenue expected to be $812,754.87.

The general areas to which revenue in excess of 1984-85 revenue is to be allocated is as follows: cost of collections, exonerations, discounts and delinquents, $50,466, instruction $125,000; pupil transportation $75,000; maintenance of plant $90,000; operation of plant $80,086.

The General Assembly has required publication of this advertisement and the information contained herein.

Jail Turned Privy Reveals "Secrets"

Kentucky Historical Society archaeologists have finally hit "pay dirt" in their investigation of the historic Public Square in Frankfort. After more than two months of digging and sifting through fourteen feet of fill dirt on the old Capitol grounds, archaeologist Ron Deiss and his crew finally reached the privy level in one compartment of the limestone foundation they have been researching since last year. Deiss and KHS curator Elizabeth Perkins believe the large stone underground structure was the first state jail, built in 1796 but later abandoned and eventually converted to a privy in the 1840s. The jail, with two-foot-thick limestone block walls, was the second structure built on the public square and may be one of the only surviving examples of an underground jail house in the United States.

Among the hundreds of artifacts recovered from its use as a privy are dozens of patent medicine, bitters, and "Jamaica Ginger" (a mixture of ginger, herbs, and French brandy) bottles, as well as ceramic spittoon pieces and drinking cups. A rare Rockingham-glazed coffee mug was pulled out in perfect condition. Two silver dollars dated 1880 and 1882 were also found in the privy, obviously lost by some unfortunate visitor to the outside facility.

The artifact that caused the greatest excitement, however, was a U.S. Model 1836 flintlock pistol which had been converted to percussion. Pistols of this type saw extensive service during the Mexican War. A few, especially those altered to percussion in the 1850s, were issued during the opening months of the Civil War. The archaeologists can only speculate as to how the pistol came to rest in the public square privy.

Nor can they explain what hundreds of small bits of metal were doing there. These matchstick-sized objects baffled excavators until a local printer cleaned a few off and pointed out that they were actually nineteenth-century printer's type. Privy buildings were notorious in the last century for being good places to dispose of unwanted items. Obviously, the owners of the type, pistol, and bottles never dreamed that these objects would later be dug up by historians curious about life one hundred years ago at Kentucky's state capital.

The archaeological excavations on the Frankfort Public Square are sponsored by the Kentucky Historical Society and the Kentucky Heritage Council. Visitors to the Old State Capitol can see the excavations as well as an exhibit and slide show about last year's dig. A new exhibit about this year's finds is planned. After the field work concludes, the archaeologists will spend the next several months washing, cataloguing, and analyzing the artifacts recovered. The Historical Society will issue a report on the two-year project next spring.

Two Application Sites For Energy Aid Listed

As a convenience to participants in the 1985-'86 Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP), the Kentucky Department for Social Insurance will operate temporary HEAP application sites in 55 counties.

In Floyd county applications will be received Oct. 21-23 and Nov. 18-20, at Little Nancy Church, Hi Hat, and Allen Central High School, Eastern.

HEAP applications in the other 65 counties will initially be taken at the department's local offices.

Social Insurance Commissioner Jack Waddell said the additional sites will be used during one or both of the heating assistance application periods handled by the department. Those segments are for low-income households with elderly or disabled family members (Oct. 21-31) and for all other eligible households (Nov. 18-Dec. 31).

The temporary sites will not be used during the final HEAP application period (Jan. 6-April 30). Applications by households without heat or facing imminent loss of heat will be accepted during this segment by the state's 24 community action agencies at sites selected by the agencies.

Waddell said, "Of course we will continue to take applications at our local offices as long as the first two HEAP segments have money available. Those temporary sites should make things a bit more convenient for our applicants."

A total of $15.3 million has been allotted for the first two segments of this year's Home Energy Assistance Program. Half of the amount is to be paid out in each segment, although unallocated funds from any HEAP segment would be carried over to the following period. An additional $6 million has been set aside for the crisis segment for low-income households without heat or facing imminent loss of heat beginning in January, 1986.

Former Blackcats Help Cumberland Revive Football

James Little and Irvin Spears, both of Prestonsburg, are members of Cumberland College's first football team in 61 years.

Cumberland, a private college in Williamsburg, opened its season with a 22-21 victory over Northeastern Illinois on Sept. 14. According to college officials, the non-scholarship program was begun in order to offer students a fall activity and to boost morale and spirit.

Both Spears and Little are 1985 graduates of Prestonsburg High School. Little is an outside linebacker for Cumberland. He played offensive half-back and defensive cornerback in high school. He is the son of Rodney Little, of Prestonsburg.

Spears is a wide receiver for Cumberland. As a Black Cat he played wide receiver and defensive end. He is the son of Ethel Spears, of Prestonsburg.

OWENS FOR MAGISTRATE

Mr. Foley, you act like you're so strong for Commissioners due to the fact that it would be for better government for Floyd County. The only thing you have to harp on is the Magistrate's salary. Anytime that you start cutting the say-so down from 4 votes to 3 votes, in my book that's the first step toward communism.

I will check into the surrounding counties that already have commissioners and get the views from the people and politicians.

Recognized for Service

Floyd Oil and Gas Payroll State's Largest Last Year

Although its production of oil and gas is less than that of some other Kentucky counties, Floyd led all other counties of the state last year in payroll totals resulting from the industry, according to data supplied by the Kentucky Independent Petroleum Producers Association.

The county's payroll for last year was $14,227,404—more than $300,000 above that of second-ranked Henderson county.

Location of area offices of major producers, Kentucky West Virginia Gas and Columbia Gas, in Floyd county, plus transmission stations at Dwale and Warco and a major installation of Kentucky Hydrocarbon at Maytown, are considered among the factors contributing to the county's payroll leadership.

Oil and gas exploration and recovery last year generated nearly 7,000 jobs and more than $100 million in payrolls for Kentucky, according to a study developed by the Kentucky Independent Petroleum Producers Association (KIPPA).

The KIPPA study, based on employment and payroll data submitted to the state's Cabinet for Human Resources for unemployment insurance purposes, showed total employment of 6,834 persons and aggregate payrolls of $107,337,155.

Employment consisted of 3,597 production personnel, 1,929 persons providing transportation, goods and services to the industry and 1,308 employees engaged in indirect wholesale and retail trade developed by the oil and gas industry.

Plans German Cuisine

The International Meals program returns to Highlands Regional Medical Center's cafeteria Oct. 25 with German cuisine, a salute to Oktoberfest.

Some examples of the fare available are sauerbraten with gingersnap gravy, stuffed Cornish hens (Hamburg style), bratwurst with sauerkraut, German potato pancakes, cucumber and tomato skillet, croissants, German coleslaw, shrimp honeydew salad, black forest cake, apple strudel and Linzer Torte.

The German cuisine will be available from 11:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. in the cafeteria.

"Young people, nowadays, imagine that money is everything, and when they grow older, they know it." Oscar Wilde

Payrolls included direct compensation to production personnel of $65,830,822, secondary payrolls of $28,050,513 and $13,455,820 for payrolls related to indirect goods and services.

A KIPPA spokesman said the 1984 totals represented a 5.5 percent increase in employment over the 6,477 persons recorded in 1983 and an 8.1 percent year-to-year jump in total payrolls from the 1983 level of $99,313,169.

Last year's Floyd payroll dropped 1.3 percent from 1983. Payrolls in other area counties last year were: Johnson, $3,634,421; Lawrence, $795,254; Pike, $4,935,343; Magoffin, $2,053,040.

Special Effects Examined On NOVA

A memorable scene from "Return of the Jedi" is considered by many to contain perhaps the most complex special effects in film history: 63 spaceships, all flying in different directions at great speeds, locked in heated intergalactic battle on screen. NOVA learns the intricate details of this fantastic visual escapade from the creator of the sequence and probes the magical side of movie-making in "Special Effects," to be aired on KET Thursday, November 7, at 8:00 p.m.

The art of special effects has mystified audiences for as long as movies have filled the screen. NOVA turns its eye toward several of Hollywood's most recent blockbuster films—"Return of the Jedi," "Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom," and "2010: The Year We Make Contact"—considered to be contemporary masterpieces of the art of illusion.

NOVA cameras journey behind the scenes to George Lucas' Marin County, Calif., headquarters, Industrial Light and Magic, where new worlds are virtually created. Filmmaker Lucas heads up a team of artists, technicians, and computer specialists who take amazing artificial concepts and make them look real on screen.

George Melies, a French magician, is considered the father of special effects, and his turn-of-the-century films are regarded as classics. "Special Effects" studies the roots of cinematic wizardry and examines vintage footage from an early favorite, "A Trip to the Moon."

In the event that you are one of the heirs of the above named individuals, then you must file an answer to the above captioned law suit by October 21, 1985. Said answer must be filed in Floyd Circuit Court Clerk's Office with a copy being sent to the Honorable George K. Wells, P.O. Box 1669, Paintsville, Kentucky 41240, the attorney for the plaintiff's.

Respectfully submitted, JOHN T. CHAFIN Warning Order Attorney for the Unknown heirs 10-2-3t.

PUBLIC NOTICE OF BLASTING SCHEDULE

Coal Mac, Inc., P.O. Box 2681, Pikeville, Ky. 40501, intends to conduct blasting operations on its 22.94 acre surface disturbance on underground/contour strip mining permit application number 836-5061.

Said operation is located approximately 0.13 miles northwest of US 23/460's junction with Daniels Creek Road. Latitude 37 deg. 36 min. 35 sec., longitude 82 deg. 41 min. 30 sec. The surface of the area to be blasted is owned by Ligon & Fitzpatrick Estate, H.D. Fitzpatrick, trustee, and Daniels Creek Development Corporation.

Blasting will be conducted each day, Monday through Saturday from 3:00 to 6:00 p.m. until surface blasting operations have been completed. Any major alteration from the blasting schedule will be published. Unscheduled blasting may occur in emergency situations where lightning, rain, or other atmospheric conditions or the safety of operator or public requires unscheduled detonation.

Control of the blasting area will be maintained by blocking access roads to the blasting area ten (10) minutes prior to the blast. Post detonation access to the blasting area will be allowed only after an inspection and determination that no hazards exist.

A predetonation warning, consisting of three (3) long blasts of air horn/siren will be given. After personnel are cleared from the area, a series of short blasts will be given one (1) minute prior to detonation of the explosives. Just prior to detonation, one additional long blast of siren will be sounded. Personnel are to remain in a clear area until a satisfactory postdetonation inspection of the blasting area has been made. A postdetonation all clear signal, consisting of three (3) short blasts on the siren or air horn will be sounded. These signals will be audible over a minimum distance of one half mile.

The preceding notice is published pursuant to CFR 715.19, Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement Provisions and KRS 350.220 and the regulations relating thereto. Kentucky Permit No. 836-5061. 11.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO MINE

Pursuant to Application Number 898-5003

In accordance with the provisions of KRS 350.055, notice is hereby given that Transcontinental Coal Processing Inc., Branham Village, Route No. 2, Prestonsburg, Kentucky 41653, has filed an amendment to an application for a permit for a surface coal mining and reclamation operation (Haulroad only) of approximately 60.81 acres located one (1) mile north of Ivel, Kentucky in Floyd and Pike counties.

The proposed operation is approximately (1) mile north from U.S. 23 junction with Ivy Creek Road and located (1) mile north of Levisa Fork. The latitude is 37° 36' 04", longitude 82° 38' 56". The surface area is owned by James Hatcher Estate, Law Heirs, Pam Wesley Harville, Denver Collins, and Astor Hunter.

The proposed operation is located on the Harold and Broad Bottom U.S.G.S. 7 1/2 minute quadrangle maps. Notice is hereby provided pursuant to KRS 350 that the proposed postmining land use of a haul road constitutes a change from the undeveloped forest land pre-mining land use.

The operation will affect an area within 100 feet of a public road, Ivy Creek Road. The operation will not involve relocation of the public road.

The application had been filed for public inspection at the Department of Surface Mining Reclamation & Enforcement's Prestonsburg Regional Office in Prestonsburg, Ky. Written comments, objections, or requests for a permit conference must be filed with the Dir. of the Div. of Permits, 6th Floor, Capital Plaza Tower, Frankfort, Ky. 40601.

This is the final advertisement of this application; all comments, objections and/or request for a permit conference must be received within thirty (30) days of today's date. 11.

Prestonsburg to Compete on 'Scholastic Challenge'

Prestonsburg

More than 117 Kentucky high schools will participate in the fourth season of "KET Scholastic Challenge," the academic game show which tests students' proficiency in English, history, math and science. On Sunday, October 20, at 1:00 p.m. on KET, six Kentucky teams, including one from Prestonsburg High School, will compete in this "varsity sport of mind."

The Prestonsburg team (left to right) includes William Fleming, son of Harold and the late Ruth Fleming, Prestonsburg; Lee Ann Bottoms, daughter of William and Jenny Bottoms, Prestonsburg; and Geoffrey Belcher, son of Bruce and Edith Belcher, Prestonsburg. Standing with host Bill Myers are faculty advisors Bob Wells and Judy Burchell, and alternates Tony Skeans, son of Floyd and Karen Skeans, East Polint; William Scott Wells, son of Bobby and Herbie Wells, Prestonsburg; and Chris Croot, son of Ernest and Mary Lou Croot.

Has First Birthday

Ashley Nicole Caudill celebrated her first birthday, October 4, at the home of her parents, Tom and Cheryl Caudill, of Garrett. A Care Bear birthday cake and refreshments were served to everyone.

Those attending were her parents Tom and Cheryl Caudill; grandmothers Revis Owens and Sue Gearheart; Donnie Ray and Ronda Owens; Rushie Sparkman and Mikie, and Charmaine Bailey.

Ashley is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Owens, of Garrett and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gearheart, of Hueysville. She is the great-granddaughter of Eva Robinson, of Langley.

Doctor Shortage Exists In 34 Kentucky Counties

Trying to attract physicians into Kentucky's rural areas creates headaches for smaller communities. Too few physicians have located in rural areas because rural practices sometimes mean having infrequent contact with hospitals and other doctors, being on-call constantly, and struggling to get the practice started.

But rural communities have a great need for physicians. In Kentucky, 34 rural counties and parts of 13 other counties qualify for federal designation as Health Manpower Shortage Areas.

"We have a maldistribution of physicians in this state," said Doug Bishop, director of the Kentucky Physician Placement Service in the Department for Health Services. "Forty-seven percent of all Kentucky primary care physicians are located in the large urban areas of Fayette and Jefferson counties, which have only 24 percent of the state's population."

In the past three years, at least 125 physicians were placed in rural communities by the Kentucky Physician Placement Service. These physicians have discovered that Kentucky's rural areas offer opportunities for professional growth and satisfied lives. The placement service, which charges no fees, matches physicians with rural communities that need physicians.

Communities recruiting physicians through the service complete a community description. The placement service provides these descriptions to doctors who have registered with the service. When physicians spot an interesting community, they are referred by the service to a contact person in that community.

Even though NHSC physicians are free to leave after fulfilling their one-to-four-year obligation, about 60 percent remain in Kentucky, according to a study conducted by Bishop's office.

According to several physicians, one incentive to practice in a small town is the opportunity for personal involvement with patients. Dr. Ann Colbert, who moved to Carter County's Olive Hill about nine weeks ago, agrees.

"Living in a small town has many advantages," said Colbert, a Michigan native. "There are more practice opportunities in a small town. You are able to take care of the whole family, and that's nice."

Although the service has been successful, the recruiting efforts continue, said Bishop. The service has on file 125 Kentucky communities that are recruiting doctors and more than 200 physicians seeking practice locations, he said.

A MESSAGE TO THE FLOYD COUNTY TAXPAYERS

The present clerk, Carla Boyd, claims in her ads that you, the voter, should vote for her on the basis of her honesty and experience in the County Court Clerk's Office for over 12 years.

An audit of these years of experience, published two years ago, demonstrates a shortage of approximately HALF A MILLION DOLLARS ($500,000.00) of public funds. A separate investigation by the Kentucky State Police, for the period your present Clerk claims her experience, was published June 18, 1985, in the Lexington Herald Leader newspaper, which revealed at least 174 documents that had been falsified and resulted in a further shortage of public funds.

If this campaign is to be run on the questions of honesty and experience:

- (1) The public should be told what happened to the missing public funds; and
- (2) Why wasn't the public made aware of the State Police report until after the May elections were over?

Floyd County clerk subject of 174 forgery allegations

By Lee Mueller
Eastern Kentucky bureau

PRESTONSBURG — Seven months ago, the state attorney general's office presented evidence to a Floyd County grand jury that resulted in indictments against 16 people, including three magistrates, a former county clerk and a trial commissioner.

But Attorney General David Armstrong's office did not show the grand jury 174 allegations of forgery prepared by Kentucky State Police investigators against Floyd County Clerk Carla Robinson Boyd.

Case records obtained under the state Open Records Law and reviewed by the Herald-Leader last week said that between 1980 and 1982, Boyd, as a deputy clerk, allegedly conspired with her uncle, County Clerk C. Ollie Robinson, to defraud the state and county of funds by typing fictitious receipts for heavy-truck registration payments.

The files mentioned no total amount of money missing, but Robinson, who died in office in February 1983, left a deficit of about $500,000. During a hearing for creditors conducted last month by Floyd County Master Commissioner Marshall Davidson, the state Transportation Cabinet filed a claim for $319,000 for motor vehicle registration fees it failed to receive from Robinson's office.

The state police documents said Boyd admitted typing the false registration receipts for her uncle, sometimes at a rate of seven or eight a day, for a period of two years.

"She would not admit to any monetary gain by the effort," the investigation report said. "Her only excuse for this action was that it was her duty to do as she was instructed."

Boyd told a reporter: "I'd say the reason they didn't prosecute me was that I was just following the boss's orders."

"That's what you do, don't you?" she asked a reporter. "Because if you don't, you won't be there very long."

Boyd said she never asked if what she was doing was illegal. "I didn't ask any questions," she said.

Dave Lewis, manager of the special prosecutions branch of the attorney general's office, presented the results of an 18-month state police investigation into financial practices by Floyd County officials to the grand jury. But he bluntly said, "No comment" when asked recently why he withheld two file boxes full of evidence against Boyd.

Assistant Attorney General Barbara Whaley, who helped Lewis prosecute the case, also declined to comment.

Numerous attempts in recent weeks to obtain comment from Armstrong, both in Frankfort and by telephone, were not successful.

Phillip Damron, a Prestonsburg lawyer who represents several of the defendants indicted last December, said he was not surprised that the material was not submitted to the grand jury.

"I have maintained since the date of original indictments that the special prosecutors had targeted specific individuals for prosecution while willfully omitting others," he said, "and the primary purpose of the original indictments was to influence the May elections."

In an interview last week, Boyd said she spoke with Armstrong by telephone last week about another matter, but said she did not know him personally and had no political ties to his office.

In a typical case file, James and Gary Mitchell of Beaver registered their truck in Robinson's office on April 1, 1980, and paid a fee of $190.00. Nine months later, Boyd typed and signed a fictitious license receipt indicating that the Mitchells had registered their vehicle for $48.40, the report said.

In another case, National Mines Corp. of Wayland paid a $475 registration fee on March 20, 1980, and Boyd typed and signed a fictitious license receipt for the state on July 1, 1980, showing the company had registered the vehicle for $356.50, records showed.

The difference between the amount of money reported in the actual and fictitious licenses appeared to range between $100 and $150 in many of the 174 cases.

Boyd, about 30, said she did not know why Robinson ordered her to prepare the false registration receipts, but she said, "I'd say lots of it had to do with truck drivers' not paying for their license plates."

She said Robinson sometimes allowed truckers to buy their plates on credit and wound up having to pay the fee himself when the truckers failed to pay.

But Alva Mitchell of Beaver, who keeps books for James and Gary Mitchell, said Robinson never let them buy licenses on credit. "We always took a company check and paid for it right there," she said.

Likewise, a National Mines bookkeeper chuckled at the prospect of registering trucks on credit. "I wouldn't think so," said the bookkeeper, who asked not to be identified. "We paid by check."

The first-degree forgery allegations against Boyd had been discussed with the attorney general's office as of Feb. 2 this year, according to a document filed by state police detective John Bauerle, "but no decision has been made as to when presentation will be made" to the grand jury.

The case was listed as closed, however, on March 18, "due to a lack of prosecution," according to a document filed by special investigator James Henderson.

Boyd pointed out that on March 15 this year she turned over $74,000 in excess fees to the county.

"If I was going to steal that money two years ago, I wouldn't have turned over $74,000 for doing my job this year, would I?" she asked.

In a synopsis of the investigation, Bauerle wrote that Boyd typed the fictitious truck registration receipts, knowing that they were illegal and that they would result in the state government's receiving much smaller fees.

According to the investigation report, police interviewed deputy clerks Peggy Kidd, Devon Rose, Cheryl Hughes, Tommie Layne, Evelyn Goble and Janet Halbert on Sept. 21, 1983.

"Based upon their interviews, we concluded that Carla Boyd could make us aware of how deceased county court clerk, Ollie Robinson, had managed to manipulate these records," the report said.

Later that day, Boyd signed a document, acknowledging her role. "I don't see any sense in denying anything," she said. "You know I'm not a liar."

GILLESPIE AUCTION SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19, AT 3:00 P.M.

We have been instructed by the owners to offer at Auction this fine home and boundary of land containing 35 acres more or less fronting on Calaboose Road and extending back to Chestnut Log Branch. This tract of land will be offered in two tracts.

TRACT NO. 1 containing approximately 16 acres with several acres of good clear land for cultivation and the balance in timber, improved with a fine home. This house is approximately 4 years old, has a modern built-in kitchen with adjoining dining area, living room, full bath, 2 bedrooms, wall-to-wall carpeting, fire place, full basement with walk-out entrance to back yard. The basement could easily be finished for extra living space or family room and bedrooms. There is a drilled well for water and the home is well-insulated and has Thermopane windows and doors. This is a highly desirable small farm in a good neighborhood.

Adjoining this tract is TRACT NO. 2 which contains approximately 19 acres (+/-) undeveloped, some cleared land with balance in timber fronting the blacktop road and having several beautiful home sites.

These two tracts will be offered separately, reserving the right to offer as a whole. If you need a good home and small farm or just a fine home site with acreage, look these properties over, make your arrangements and be at the Auction.

4-Year Plan To Solve Black Lung Backlog

Secretary of Labor William E. Brock has announced his recommendations for eliminating a major backlog of black lung benefit claims within four years and asked Congress to support implementation of his plan, beginning in fiscal year 1986.

The recommendations, based on findings of a senior Labor Department task force that Brock established last July, call for productivity improvements in Department operations and for increasing program resources by $17.7 million so that 141 new positions can be added.

"This four-year plan reflects our determination to end the intolerable delays that have held up black lung benefits—in some cases, for years. These delays have caused particular hardship to many elderly individuals," Brock said.

Noting that the large black lung case backlog became one of his first priorities when he took office, Brock said the General Accounting Office had predicted the department would take 35 years to catch up with it. "I was determined that this would not happen," he said.

The Office of Management and Budget has approved the four-year improvement effort in concept and has specifically approved first-year funding of $4.5 million to finance 82 added positions. "I have asked the Congress to include this funding in the Labor Department's fiscal year of 1986 appropriations bill," the Labor Secretary said.

According to the Secretary, more than 21,000 cases are currently awaiting hearings by administrative law judges, with 5,000 being added each year following initial determinations by the department's Division of Coal Mine Workers' Compensation. The bulk of these cases resulted from amendments liberalizing eligibility criteria for black lung benefits in 1978 and requiring old claims to be reviewed under the new criteria. Current resource and productivity levels permit only 5,400 of these cases to be resolved.

The program adopted by the Secretary is designed to eliminate the backlog at all levels within four years. Administrative law judges will dispose of 8,500 cases a year under the plan, in contrast to the existing 5,400. The size of the Benefits Review Board, set by law, will need to be increased next year to avoid a backlog at that level.

In announcing his decision to interested members of the Congress, the Secretary noted the department intends to continue its "humane and reasonable policy" of waiving repayment of previously paid benefits subsequently found to have been inappropriately paid, where the claimant was not at fault and where insisting on repayment would "create a hardship or be against equity and good conscience." Last year, approximately $1.5 million in inappropriately paid benefits were waived based on these criteria.

The Secretary also expressed serious concern about action by the Senate Finance Committee that would halt borrowing from the Treasury by the Black Lung Trust Fund as of October 1, 1987. "We certainly agree that the Trust Fund should cease borrowing from the Treasury," noted the Secretary, "but the proper way to ensure that this will happen is to increase the assessment on coal production that is supposed to finance the Trust Fund. By contrast, the result of the Senate Finance Committee action will be to either cut off benefit payments to deserving claimants under the program, or to require the taxpayer, rather than the coal industry, to pay the bill." The Secretary indicated that he is engaged in intensive efforts to advise members of the Congress about the potential consequences of the Finance Committee action, and to seek to have it reversed.

TO ANSWER SANDY DUFF'S STATEMENTS IN LAST WEEK'S PAPER:

I did state that I was the only Democrat running for Magistrate in the first ad of my November campaign, since your dad did not come out and run with any of the DEMOCRATS on the DEMOCRATIC SLATE—he chose to run on the INDEPENDENT Ticket. But since then I HAVE NOT stated that I am the ONLY Democratic candidate on the ticket for Magistrate as you say. If you look back in the Floyd County Times—Issues Sept. 11, Sept. 18, Sept. 26, and Oct. 2—I stated that I AM THE ONLY DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE ON THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET—AND I AM THE ONLY ONE. Your dad is on the INDEPENDENT ticket this time, although he was beaten as a write-in in November 1981 by Kenneth Roberts and also was beaten earlier in May 1981 as a Democrat by Kenneth Roberts. Zeb Ousley only lacked 4 votes in May 1969 beating Birchell Duff two to one. He was on the Democratic ticket at that time and so was Zeb Ousley.

TO ANSWER ANOTHER COMMENT THAT MISS DUFF MADE "Who would be the best for the people of District 2"—YOU DECIDE. I am a First Class diesel mechanic and heavy equipment operator. I was formerly employed by Wayne Supply, a Caterpillar dealership, as a field mechanic. I have worked for the past 9 years at the Price Preparation Plant, presently owned by Wheelwright Mining, Inc., as a U.M.W.A., First Class diesel mechanic and heavy mobile equipment operator.

I am sure your dad would do it to the best of his ability, but is his ability good enough for the shape our roads are in?

You also stated that Magistrates don't operate the heavy equipment in last week's paper—Why don't you tell this to Eddie Caudill in District 3—because during the last big flood we had, I saw him out working just like a regular work hand trying to help the people out after the ruins of the flood.

Tell it to Gerald DeRossett, Magistrate in District 1—that it isn't a Magistrate's job to get out there and work. He might want to stay home this winter where it's warm instead of getting out and trying to clear these snow-covered roads.

ANOTHER COMMENT of yours was that the Magistrates should know which roads are in the worst conditions and how the money should be spent in District 2. I am pretty knowledgeable about the conditions of the roads in District 2. THEY ARE IN PITIFUL SHAPE. I also know which roads are not in such bad shape, such as the newly blacktopped road that goes up to school board member, James Orville Duff's (Birchell Duff's brother) driveway up Reed Branch.

As far as spending the money, I think it is time District 2 got its FAIR SHARE and got it put to use where it is needed the greatest or on any project that would benefit the people of District 2 or Floyd County as a whole.

BIRCHELL DUFF—when you were asked back in the May Primary to donate to the U.M.W.A. Women's Auxiliary Locals 1741 and 1645, as were the rest of the candidates, wasn't your reply "COME BACK WHEN I AM RUNNING—I AM ON THE INDEPENDENT TICKET"? My feelings were—they needed help then, not when they were back to work. I DID donate then, as did a lot of the other candidates, because I am a member of Local 5899 and have been since 1977. I have got a lot of friends in both the Garrett and Wayland locals that I have learned since 1977.

I urge everyone to go out and VOTE for

JACKIE EDFORD
OWENS
Democrat For
MAGISTRATE
DISTRICT 2

P.S. I was unable to get the Garrett Harvest Festival put on the Hazard Channel due to change of management, and since their camera crew didn't film it, they were not able to show it. They might try to film the next Garrett Harvest Festival so they can show it on the Hazard Channel.

(Pol. adv. paid for by the candidate, 1tpd)

Four Years Old

Brooke MaShay Tackett, daughter of Gwen and Clyde Tackett, of Betsy Layne, celebrated her fourth birthday, September 26, at her home. Her cake and decorating theme was My Little Pony. Brooke thanked her family and friends for their gifts and for coming to her party.

She is the granddaughter of Gloria Tackett, of Grethel, and Thelma and R.B. Clark, Jr., of Harold. Her great-grandparents are Lucreasie Tackett, of Grethel, Inie Little, of Flatwoods, and Oma Reynolds, Goble-Roberts Addition, Prestonsburg.

"THE BRAIN" AIRS AGAIN

"The Brain," public television's acclaimed Peabody Award-winning science series, encores on KET, beginning Sunday, October 27, at 8:00 p.m. This eight-part series provides television's most comprehensive look ever at the remarkable three-pound "machine" that serves as the center of all knowledge, the storehouse of memory, the overseer of activity, and the wellspring of human emotion.

"The Enlightened Machine" explores the mysteries of consciousness. "Vision and Movement" explains how we perceive the world and move within it. Instinctive, subconscious rhythms and drives are explored in "Rhythms and Drives." "Stress and Emotion" deals with the relationships between anxiety and behavior. Theories about brain organization help to unravel the mystery of memory in "Learning and Memory." "The Two Brains" explores the cortical hemispheres, the relation of thought and language, and sex differences of the human brain. "Madness" deals with schizophrenia—present research findings and mysteries remaining. The last segment, "States of Mind," surveys today's science of the brain with a look at its future in medicine, artificial intelligence, and in the ultimate frontier of understanding—awareness.

Celebrate Birthdays

Saturday, Sept. 28, was a beautiful day for the happy birthday party for Charles Andrew Jones, 4, and his brother Daniel Lee Jones, 2, grandsons of Ruth Jones, of Price. Daniel's cake was Big Bird design and Andrew's was the General Lee car design. The party was enjoyed by a number of their young friends. Charles Andrew and Daniel Lee are the sons of Leroy and Greta Jones, of Hager Hill.

Governor Says Acid Rain Regs
Could Cost State 60,000 Jobs

Governor Martha Layne Collins warned this past week that acid rain proceedings in the federal courts could "add $500 million to $700 million dollars a year to Kentuckians' utility bills" and eliminate 60,000 existing jobs in the state.

To prevent that, Governor Collins said Kentucky would intervene in the proceedings.

She pointed out that Kentucky has done far more than New York and other northeastern states to curb the problem of acid rain. "Not a single northeastern state, not a single province of Canada can match what Kentucky has already accomplished," she said. "In fact, we have more scrubbers on our utilities than all of Canada plus New York and New England—by a wide margin."

"New York and other northeastern states—through the federal courts—are trying to force us and six other states to do more than our share," Governor Collins said. "Failing in the Congress, ignoring scientific evidence, they have turned to the courts. What's more, it's all being done under the guise of helping Canada."

"The ruling unfairly puts the blame on Kentucky and other Midwestern states. It assumes highly unlikely benefits for Canada and puts them before the certain hardships on the people of Kentucky," the governor added.

"I have acknowledged that acid rain is an environmental problem and that emissions of sulfur dioxide and coal burning utilities contribute to the problem. But we're being asked to pay billions of dollars without anyone being able to tell us with any certainty what the results will be," the governor said. "I will not stand by and let that occur without a fight."

Collins pointed out that Kentucky utilities have already installed $800 million worth of scrubbers on their smokestacks. Scrubbers reduce the amount of sulfur dioxides going into the air. Sulfur dioxides are released when coal is burned, and they contribute to acid rain.

In addition to these efforts, she said, the Commonwealth is investing $10 million in a large scale utility near Paducah to show that a promising new technology—atmospheric fluidized bed combustion—can burn coal cleanly.

GRADUATES AT LACKLAND

Airman First Class Paul T. Brown, son of Dolores Brown, of Banner, has graduated from the U.S. Air Force security police specialist course at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

Heartwarming Story
In Two-Part Drama

The love of nature will bring together a sensitive teenage girl and her reclusive aunt when "Wonderworks" two-part drama, "Seal Morning" airs Saturdays, November 9 and 16, at 7:00 p.m. on KET. The episodes are repeated Sunday, November 10 and 17, at 11:00 a.m.

Rowena Farre (Holly Aire) has lived abroad and attended boarding schools since the accidental death of her parents many years ago. However, circumstances are such that she is forced to withdraw from school and travel to the west corner of England to live with an aunt she doesn't know.

Rowena's reclusive Aunt Miriam (Jane Lapotaire) lives in a tiny house with a variety of animals which have full range of the house. At first, Rowena believes she cannot endure this situation.

However, it is the same wildlife which Rowena cannot understand that eventually brings her and her aunt together. After a local fisherman kills a mother seal and her pup is left to fend for itself, Rowena convinces her aunt to take in the young seal pup.

Greater understanding for human beings is shown through the aid of a Canadian naturalist who comes to the coast to conduct research. The scientist is portrayed by American actor David Birney.

The BACKYARD NATURALIST

By Craig Tufts

In Search of Insects—Friends and Foes

A garden task my kids and I look forward to is our annual fall insect hunt. To most people, I guess, fall means an end to insects. Yes and no. They may not be crawling or flying around, but many, both friend and foe, are right there—in our yards, out in the meadows, fields and woods—in masses of eggs or huddled up for the winter.

What my kids and I look for—and you can too—are mostly insect egg masses. The eggs of problem insects we destroy; the beneficial insects we try to protect.

Arm yourself with some good insect illustrations so that you'll recognize one insect or egg mass from another. Such guides are often available, sometimes on one specific insect or another, from your state forestry department or the U.S. Department of Agriculture. You can also consult such books as The Golden Guide to the Insects or The Book on Garden Insect Pests. Here's what you might find:

INSECT PESTS

- Gypsy moths, which have invaded about two-thirds of the U.S., hatch in spring and devour leaves. Look now along tree trunks, under picnic tables and in woodpiles for gypsy moth eggs (usually a dirty brown mass 1½ to 2 inches long and not quite as wide). Remove and destroy.

- Bag worm caterpillars can defoliate and kill many kinds of evergreens and deciduous trees and shrubs in the spring—especially your junipers and arborvitae. Cut their egg bags, constructed of plant debris and silk, off branches with scissors and throw the bags away. You can also spray the caterpillars themselves in the spring. Use only BT (available under various trade names); it's a bacterial moth-and-butterfly caterpillar insecticide that's harmless to other forms of wildlife—and to you.

- Eastern tent caterpillars are highly visible in many eastern states from late March through mid-June. Their unsightly, squirming silk tents festoon wild black cherry and related trees. However, even defoliated trees can recover swiftly, and certain birds (notably the cuckoo) prey on the caterpillars. You might tolerate them; but, if not, look for very small, shiny egg clumps, resembling varnished styrofoam. Break the clump up or knock it to the ground. You can also break up tents in the spring or spray them with BT. Don't burn them; you'll only damage the tree or shrub.

BENEFICIAL INSECTS

- Mantises (often called "praying mantises") are voracious insect-pest eaters in the spring. You might find their patterned egg masses (longer than they are wide and looking like dirty—not shiny—styrofoam) attached to the stems of shrubs (which can be left alone) or to annual wildflower stems (which you can bring home to your garden).

- Lady bird beetles (often called "ladybugs") are avid aphid eaters in the spring, and if you're in luck you'll find them overwintering right in your yard, hibernating in wood piles or rock piles. Wherever you find them, gently return their covering—and even add some leaf mulch to give them extra protection until spring.

For more information about wildlife around your home, contact the National Wildlife Federation, Dept. BN, 1412 16th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036-2266.

First Birthday

Franklin Nathaniel Mitchell celebrated his first birthday Saturday, Sept. 28, at the home of his parents, Frank and Christine Mitchell, of Teaberry. Many friends and relatives attended. A McDonald's cake and other refreshments were served.

Franklin received many nice gifts from everyone. He is the grandson of Debber and Diddie Hall, of Grethel, and the late Edward and Bernice Mitchell.

Selling First-Aid Kits

True, no one but doctors, paramedics and other medical professionals can give long term care to the injured. But how knowledgeable and how well-prepared nonprofessional people are can mean the difference between life and death for accident victims.

Now is the time to realize the importance of keeping a first-aid kit in your car for emergencies. The students of Mountain Christian Academy are selling first-aid kits designed especially for travel needs. Available for the next three to four weeks, these kits are $4 each and the proceeds will go toward the school's operating expenses. For more information, contact any student or write or call the school at P.O. Box 1120, Martin, Kentucky, 41649; phone 285-5141.

"MY CUSTOMERS WANT WARMTH AND SAVINGS IN A HEATING SYSTEM. THEY WANT GAS HEAT."

"Our company has been in the heating business for three generations. Today, we have twenty crews installing heating systems year 'round. And almost all are gas. People prefer gas heating because it's clean, reliable...and most of all, warm. No matter how cold it gets outside, the home stays warm and comfortable. Gas heat saves money, too. The new high-efficiency gas furnaces can lower heating bills by as much as 30%. So when people ask us, we recommend gas. There's just no better choice!"

If you're looking for warmth and savings in a heating system, take it from someone who knows. Ask a heating dealer like Mark Swebston about a new high-efficiency gas furnace.

HOMEMAKERS MEET

The Prestonsburg Day Homemakers held their regular monthly meeting at Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church, Tuesday afternoon, October 8, with Mrs. Barbara Dawson, vice-president, presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. Judy Kittle.

Mrs. Frances Pitts reported that a Homemaker's Quilting Guild had been organized, and the Prestonsburg Woman's Club has given this group permission to use the Arts and Crafts building at Archer Park. Meetings are scheduled to be held on the second Monday of each month, from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. It is suggested that those participating bring their lunches.

Mrs. Pitts said that pecans, to be sold for the benefit of the Ovarian Cancer Fund, had been ordered. She said that the Floyd County Homemakers would again participate in decorating May Lodge for the Christmas season.

It was decided that members would bring gifts for the Jenny Wiley Nursing Home to the November meeting, and since each member is being asked to bring a decorated package for the lesson next month, Mrs. Barbara Dawson suggested that members may like to use their skills in decorating the nursing home packages. It is asked that packages have either "Man" or "Woman" labeled on them.

"Happy Birthday" was sung to members observing birthdays from the month of June through October. These persons were Mesdames Frances Pitts, Dolly Pettrey, May K. Roberts, Nancy Webb, Rebecca Rasnick, Mary Jane Brown, Eleanor Horn and Mary Sue Moore.

Mrs. Frances Pitts presented the lesson on "Accessorizing Your Clothes," and gave a "quiz" entitled "How Well-Dressed are You?"

Hostesses for the meeting, Mesdames Rebecca Rasnick, Dolly Pettrey and Mrs. Betty Roberts (substituting for Mrs. Beckye Short), served refreshments to Frances Pitts, Barbara Dawson, Dorothy Osborne, Fannie Runnels, Ann Alley, Jane Wallace, Lucy Regan, Alice Harris, Mabel Donahoe, Mary Jane Brown, Myrtle Allen, Ruth Francis, Rita Francis, Beverley Hackworth, Margaret Alley, Dorothy Burke, Peg Hewlett, Eleanor Horn, and Shirley Callahan.

SINUS ACHE

People with colds often complain that their sinuses ache. A "sinus ache" is caused by membrane swelling and mucus in the sinuses. Sinus congestion usually is just an extension of a cold from the nasal passages. If so, a decongestant can often be used. However, sinus congestion may be caused by a bacterial infection of a sinus. Unlike the congestion of a cold, bacterial infections are usually more painful. The pain often localizes over one particular sinus. The skin over that sinus sometimes may be tender also. A sinus infection caused by bacteria needs to be treated with antibiotics in addition to decongestants. Consult a physician.

The "Drug Store with a Difference" COOLEY APOTHECARY offers professional, concerned and personalized service so the next time your physician prescribes medication let us fill it. We will gladly answer any of your questions...when to take the medication...with what to take it and any allergic reactions to watch for. We provide everyday low prices on prescriptions and complete patient profiles. We are located at No. 2 Town Center Bldg., 886-8106. Master Charge and Visa honored plus we welcome all third party payments. Open: Mon.-Fri. 9-5:30, Sat. 9-4.

HANDY HINT:

A decongestant is all that is needed to treat the blocked nasal passages and secretions of a cold.

Vance Sentenced In Mine Scam
A West Virginia man was sentenced to a five-year prison term last Thursday, following his conviction on a charge of defrauding two Floyd coal operators who bought a continuous miner from him in 1983.
Robert Vance, 43, of Verdunville, W. Va., entered guilty pleas in U.S. District Court in Pikeville before Judge G. Wix Unthank. He faced charges of perjury and of inducing persons to travel in interstate commerce for the purpose of defrauding them.
Victims of the scam were Mike Vance and Sterling "Porky" Tackett, operators of the Triway Coal Company, on Spewing Camp. Assistant U.S. Attorney Thomas L. Self, who prosecuted the case, said the two men travelled to Logan, W. Va. in December 1983 to take delivery of the mining machine, for which they paid Robert Vance $25,000. Robert and Mike Vance are unrelated.
The purchasers never received a bill of sale for the machine and subsequently learned that it did not belong to Robert Vance in the first place, Self said.
The perjury charge stemmed from Vance's testimony before a federal grand jury in December, 1984, when he lied about his deal with the two Floyd operators.
Judge Unthank sentenced Vance to five years on each charge with the sentences to run concurrently. He also ordered the defendant to pay back the $25,000 he had received for the continuous miner.
The case was investigated by special agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Pikeville.

IN APPRECIATION
The family of Mrs. Ella May Prater wishes to express its appreciation for all the love and concern which was shown to her during her recent illness and upon her passing. Your kindness will always be remembered.

IN MEMORY

Phillip R. Coleman: Born Feb. 10, 1945. Died: Vietnam Oct. 29, 1966.
It's been such a long, long, time since God came and took you away, But the grief is still with us, And we still miss you every day.
I'm sorry we can't enjoy your memories, But the pain is too much to bear. We all grieve in silence, But you know we still care.
When the family gathers around, No one dares mention your name To cheat ourselves of your memories Is really such a shame.
I wonder if you're playing your drums And writing all those songs. You made music everywhere With your laughter all day long. You were good at playing basketball, You remember "Prince" was your nickname, But to follow in King Kelly's footsteps Made it an unfair game.
You were my big brother And like a father too. I still visit your grave site And bring my problems to you. Somehow I know you hear me, And you're looking down below. People tell me I'm crazy, But I know it isn't so.
You know you died a hero In a war no one can explain. To never see you come home again Put us through so much pain. I know you're in Heaven now— There'll be no more war to go through. I guess you're the lucky one 'Cause God is taking care of you. I'll say good-bye now And let you go on your way, And if we're lucky enough We'll get to join you some day.
Your loving sister,
SANDRA

IN MEMORIAM
Robert Slone, Prestonsburg, Kentucky, who departed this earthly life Oct. 10, 1984.
He did not die, our precious one, When he left us that sad day. His gentle spirit just got up And slowly soared away. To live in his celestial home Where pain shall be no more. And now he waits with God, our King, For us on that sweet shore. We miss him so, since he is gone Home'll never be the same. There's hardly a day that passes Without mention of his name. And, more so, on those special days Like birthdays, Christmas and such. I think it's 'cause when he was here, He enjoyed them, oh, so much!
But there's coming an extra-special day Like none we've ever known When he'll reach out his arms and say, "My family, welcome home!"
So let's all live and love and pray And serve our God much more. And on that glad eternal day We can meet him at that door.
Sadly missed by his wife, Lizzie Slone; children, Ravenna, Mack and Avonelle; grandchildren and great-grandchildren. It.

"Men often mistake notoriety for fame, and would rather be remarked for their vices and follies than not be noticed at all!"

DEMOCRAT TURNED OFF

I am a Democrat that has been turned off by the Democrat for magistrate in District No. 2. Reason No. 1: Because he talked about the other 14 opponents in the primary. (Also Mr. Duff on the Independent ticket). You don't talk about other people and prosper. And he says he is a bulldozer operator. What is he trying to do, knock some poor man out of a job? Doesn't he know the duties of a magistrate? His duties are to travel his district and look for the poorest road and culvert conditions and try to correct them with all his power and allocations. How can you find time to run a dozer?
He must do the job without malice and greed, or hatred, and treat all the people the same.
I am going to vote Republican November 5 on account I have been turned off.
Thanks,
JAMES JACK CONLEY Itpd.

DEMOCRAT TURNED OFF
I am a Democrat that has been turned off by the Democrat for magistrate in District No. 2. Reason No. 1: Because he talked about the other 14 opponents in the primary. (Also Mr. Duff on the Independent ticket). You don't talk about other people and prosper. And he says he is a bulldozer operator. What is he trying to do, knock some poor man out of a job? Doesn't he know the duties of a magistrate? His duties are to travel his district and look for the poorest road and culvert conditions and try to correct them with all his power and allocations. How can you find time to run a dozer?
He must do the job without malice and greed, or hatred, and treat all the people the same.
I am going to vote Republican November 5 on account I have been turned off.
Thanks,
JAMES JACK CONLEY Itpd.

GRETHEL HOMEMAKERS MEET

The lesson, "Accessories—the Finishing Touch," was taught by Extension agent Frances Pitts at the Oct. 7 meeting of the Grethel Homemakers Club.

It was announced that the Floyd County Quilters' Guild will meet each month on the second Monday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

"Shadow Quilting" samples were presented to the group.

Homemakers present were Arietta Hall, Glenna Evans, Barbara Newman, Brenda Hall, Shirley Hamilton, and Eileen Martin.

The next meeting is scheduled for Nov. 4 at 6:30 p.m.

Student Says He Was Stabbed by Salesman

A resident of the Regency Park apartment complex near Auxier was stabbed in the hand and abdomen Sunday, October 6, by an assailant who, he says, claimed to be a magazine salesman.

William Robert Reid, 32-year-old pre-nursing student at Prestonsburg Community College, was taken by a neighbor to the emergency room at Highlands Regional Medical Center, but transferred at his own request to Veterans Administration hospital in Lexington without being admitted at Highlands. He was admitted to the VA hospital, and discharged the following Thursday.

Reid said a man came to his door at about 5:30 p.m. that Sunday, claiming to be a college student from California, and selling magazines in the area. The man reportedly said he needed to make only a few more sales to be eligible for prizes from his employer. Reid said he told the man he wasn't interested, was unemployed and unable to afford the magazines. The man, said Reid, then told him he was thirsty, and asked if he could have something to drink.

Reid said he let the man into the apartment and went into the kitchen to pour a glass of tea. The man followed him into the kitchen, where he saw several dollars, which Reid's parents, who had been there shortly before, had left for him on a table. Reid said the man accused him of lying about not having any money, produced a knife and stabbed the man's wrist. He said the man then stabbed him in the abdomen, making a puncture wound one and a half inches deep. The assailant was reported to have taken the money from the table and fled.

Reid said he managed to pull himself outside and yell for help. An upstairs neighbor heard his cries and took him to the hospital.

Reid described the attacker as a white male, around 27 years of age. He said the man was about 5-10, wore a red flannel shirt, gray corduroy pants and a gray windbreaker.

Reid criticized Kentucky State Police Trooper Paul Lafferty's handling of the investigation, saying Lafferty failed to go to his apartment to search for clues.

Lafferty said, however, that he didn't go to Reid's apartment because Reid was not there, and it was against policy to go into someone's home without their being present. Lafferty said he did speak with some of Reid's neighbors, none of whom had seen anyone fitting the man's description.

Reid also said that Lafferty had told him he didn't believe his account of the stabbing. He added that he felt the trooper should have investigated his apartment, anyway.

Lafferty admitted he had expressed doubt about the magazine salesman going door-to-door on a Sunday but said he is continuing the investigation.

"The boy was stabbed, there's no doubt about that," said Lafferty. "But I haven't seen any sign of the magazine salesman."

EVERYONE WELCOME

Trish Rivera was crowned Miss Red, White, and Blue at the annual pageant held last Thursday evening at Allen Central High School. Miss Rivera, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Francisco Rivera, of Prestonsburg, represented the Mountain Christian Academy. She and her escort, Colan Combs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Combs, of Knott county, will be among those leading the Red, White, and Blue parade at Martin, Saturday afternoon.

Astrological Forecast..

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 21)—Work for a charity or service organization, it will do you good. Demonstrate stability and you can promote your ideals to the public. A romance could change your outlook and broaden your viewpoint. You will be pushing for more money at work and won't take "No" for an answer.

TAURUS (Apr. 22-May 22)—Being charming and diplomatic could get you selected for a public appearance. Propose any plans you have for expanding your responsibility and don't complain when the boss hands you an assignment that will be more challenging than that which will be your home-life. Your marriage will be transformed now, one way or another.

GEMINI (May 23-Jun. 21)—Venus has moved into your romance sector and that will be your primary motivation. If you're ever going to restore the magic to your marriage, this is the time. Work problems will be difficult so why not just forget them—time solves all things. A weekend "escape" will improve your enthusiasm and brilliance.

CANCER (Jun. 22-Jul. 20)—This is a fabulous time to take control of anything, but particularly your life. Watch out for a flirtation on the job—it could be expensive. Make plans for the children's future, you'll never be better at "deciding what they should do". Social commitments will be trying and interfere with personal plans this weekend.

LEO (Jul. 21-Aug. 20)—You should consider going into business for yourself or expanding one you're already in. A speculative opportunity will heat up and you'll have to "put up or shut up". Romance, Romance, Romance! They may not last long but there'll be plenty. Tread carefully, there's a kinky one in the bunch.

VIRGO (Aug. 21-Sep. 22)—Your mood will swing from extravagance to miserliness to generosity this week. You are entranced with bizarre and eccentric activities and they can change your life. A business opportunity will pass your way this week, but it will be speeding. Let the loved one make the plans for the weekend.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 25)—As your ruler, Venus, has moved into Libra, you will be more charming than usual this month. You are a genius at coming up with ways to make money (and to spend it). Your mother could help you with your problems if you would "tell all". But don't expect her to be 100% supportive—her role is more of a Devil's Advocate.

SCORPIO (Oct. 26-Nov. 23)—Great period for winning money, also losing it—don't risk anything you can't afford. Hide your bizarre side when entertaining acquaintances, they might not understand. Concentrate on your sex life this weekend, this is the time to come to grips with the short-comings. A community activity will cost you more than you want to spend.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 24-Dec. 21)—You are torn between conservatism and unreality—if you expect to make it big, stick to conservatism. A secret romance will become very expensive. Don't "save pennies" when entertaining friends, they'll remember. Get involved in helping an institution of some kind this weekend.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 17)—You need to associate with mature, successful and powerful people, that's where you can learn and get help. Solidify your personal and public goals and don't sit around and dream, get out and get to work! If you own any land, look around for a way to turn it into a "gold mine".

AQUARIUS (Jan. 18-Feb. 16)—Devote all your talents to your career, it could pay off sooner than you think. A Sagittarius could make it possible for you to market your "invention". Things are going your way now, but "be cool", you're so "wacky" you could spoil everything you've been working for.

PISCES (Feb. 17-Mar. 20)—Those relationship problems are still around, but the end is in sight. Take charge of a community project, it will be good for all concerned. A Capricorn will turn your life upside down and even Neptune won't be able to rescue you. Fortunately, the ideas you receive will be valuable.

VIDEO SCENE

New Talking Heads clip is very security conscious

By Barton Weiss

The new Talking Heads clip, "And She Was," relies heavily on color xerography. It is used to create two- and three-dimensional images, while the opening and closing of doors and mailboxes gives the clip a visual rhythm.

David Byrne

As he was in "Road to Nowhere," Byrne is obsessed with images of security. The importance of household items like vacuum cleaners is magnified, and houses themselves take on new meaning.

Marley series

A new clip for Bob Marley's "Three Small Birds" completes the video series of "Is This Love?" "One Love" and "No Woman, No Cry" from the album "Legend." All these videos feature a child walking around Jamaica. This one has a slightly different look, however, since some animation reminiscent of the classic Tom Tom Club videos has been added.

SWEET DREAMS (PG-13-Tri-Star) Starring Jessica Lange, Ed Harris, Ann Wedgeworth. ★ ★

By J.T. YURKO

When producer Bernard Schwartz was shooting "Coal Miner's Daughter," the script called for Loretta Lynn to meet Patsy Cline. Schwartz became intrigued with the story of the enormously gifted Miss Cline, a singer who continues to this day — 22 years after her untimely death in an airplane crash — to sell 70,000 albums a year. He set out to learn as much as he could about her and to see if he could gather enough material to do a film of her life. He ended up with an 800-page journal.

"Sweet Dreams," starring Jessica Lange as Patsy Cline, Ed Harris as her second husband Charlie Dick and Ann Wedgeworth as her mother, is the resulting movie.

The story is built on Miss Cline's stormy relationship with her second husband. Various vignettes of Miss Cline's life and times are wonderfully presented. The dialogue is crisp, the staging is clever, and superb performances are given all around, but they fail to flow together into a unified, compelling portrait.

Comparisons with "Coal Miner's Daughter" are inevitable.

Both are about women country-western singers who rise to the top of their profession, but must contend with the sensibilities of their good ol' boy husbands who begin to feel useless and react by taking a few extra drinks, taking a few women on the side, and occasionally allowing their resentment to boil over.

Unlike "Coal Miner's Daughter," however, "Sweet Dreams" forsakes the musical story for the story of the stormy marriage. Only one or two scenes deal with Patsy Cline's rise to the top, her love of music, or the pressures of being a top performer. The rest is an on-again, off-again love story.

There's very little wrong with its individual scenes. Miss Lange, Harris and especially Miss Wedgeworth deliver marvelous performances, and Getchell's script contains many powerful scenes.

And there's plenty of music. Patsy Cline's own vocals were re-mixed with new accompaniments, but even these cannot tie together a film that turns out to be less than the sum of its parts.

Cats Claw Bulldogs To Keep Slate Clean

After surviving a close one against Clark County's Cardinals, the Prestonsburg Blackcats looked their awesome selves again last week in defeating district rival Lawrence County, 46-14.

Though the Cats were in command throughout the contest, leading at the start of the fourth quarter 46-0, the victory may prove costly. Several Prestonsburg players, including John Goble, Donnie Ray, Jim Murphy, B.O. Nunery and Pete Green, suffered minor injuries. And Prestonsburg is not noted for its depth.

The Cats kept their year-long string of first possession scores going, as Nunery ran 17 yards for the opening touchdown at 9:11 of the first quarter, capping a five-play, 66-yard drive. Brent Hackworth's kick was wide, leaving the score at 6-0.

Greg Shepherd kicked off for Prestonsburg, and the ball was spotted on the Bulldog 15. On the first play from scrimmage, Shag Branham sacked Bulldog Quarterback Dotson at the 13-yard line for a loss of two yards. Jerry Hammond was able to make it only to the 17 on the next play, setting up third down and eight. An incomplete Bulldog pass made it fourth and long, setting the scene for a Lawrence County punt.

Prestonsburg took possession at the Lawrence 47. Beginning the Cat's second scoring drive of the evening, Goble handed off to Nunery who was stopped at the line of scrimmage. Undaunted, however, Nunery raced to the 30 on the next attempt. Slone had the next carry, making it to the 26 for a gain of four. Pete Green took a screen pass and was stopped with the gain of a yard, putting the Cats at third down and five. Prestonsburg's second touchdown came on the following play as Goble hit Pete Green near the end zone, with Green dashing in for the score at 5:20. Hackworth's extra point try was good, lofting the score to 13-0.

Again Shepherd kicked off, with the Bulldogs returning to the 30. Chris Snodgrass stopped Hammonds at the 31 for second down and nine, and John Goble made the tackle at the line of scrimmage on the ensuing play. A Dotson pass to Lemaster, who made it to the 42, brought the Dogs their first earned first down of the game.

Unfortunately for the Bulldogs, the Blackcat defense held tight, allowing only nine more yards and fencing the turnover after the Dogs went for the first down on fourth and one.

The Cats took over at mid-field. Goble handed the ball off to Nunery, who gained six. Again Nunery carried, but was stopped a yard shy of the first down. Goble carried on the next play, making it to the 38 and the first down. As the quarter ended, Goble handed off to Nunery for a gain of one.

After the Cats were assessed a five-yard penalty, Goble carried to the 40. A 15-yard face mask call against the Dogs brought the ball to the 25, putting the Cats in position for their third touchdown in three possessions.

Goble again found Green, who had to twist around several Lawrence County defenders on his dash to the end zone. It was 11:13 of the second quarter, and Prestonsburg called time before the extra point attempt. Upon regrouping, the Blackcats lined up for a two point conversion attempt, but a five-yard delay of game call induced them to go for the single point kick instead. Hackworth's kick was off the mark, the score remaining 19-0.

Lemaster returned Shepherd's kick to the 18 as Lawrence County regained possession. The Dogs were able to gain only five yards on one play, though, as Dotson fumbled the snap on the second play from scrimmage with Snodgrass recovering for Prestonsburg.

It was the Cat's fourth possession, and their fourth scoring drive. Goble handed off to Burke, who scrambled for an eight-yard gain, setting up second down and two at the 15. Nunery went in for the score after a Goble hand off. With Hackworth's extra point kick, the score at 9:17 stood at 26-0.

Once again, Shepherd kicked-off, but in six, the Bulldogs made it only to the 37, finding themselves at fourth and eleven. The Bulldogs punted, with the ball rolling out of bounds around the 23. Prestonsburg's string of scoring possessions was about to end, though, as two incomplete passes, an illegal procedure penalty and a sack of Goble brought them to fourth down and 14.

Prestonsburg punted, with the Dogs taking over at the Blackcat 36. Things swung back Prestonsburg's way, though, as Mike Lyons recovered a Dotson fumble at the 41.

The Blackcats made it to the 26 in three plays before Nunery fumbled on the fourth play from scrimmage, with Kent McCoy recovering for Lawrence County.

But the Bulldogs couldn't hang onto the ball long, either, as Pete Green intercepted a Dotson pass at the 43, running it back to the 35. Again the Cats were to score, this time with Green taking a long pass from Goble at the four, running in for the six points and capping a 36-yard drive. Hackworth missed the extra point try, leaving the score at 1:59 of the half at 32-0.

Neither team scored again until Nunery ran 65 yards on a punt return at 10:11 of the third stanza, on the Cat's first possession of the second half. Hackworth missed the extra point, and the score stood at 38-0.

Prestonsburg's last touchdown of the evening came on a one-yard run by Burke at 1:27 of the quarter, capping a nine play, 53 yard drive. The Cats went for the two point conversion, with Green taking a three-yard pass in the end zone, upping the tally to 46-0.

Prestonsburg's hope of a shut-out was dashed, however, as the Bulldogs scored twice in the fourth quarter. The Dogs capped a 77-yard, 11-play drive with a one yard scoring run at 8:05. A successful two-point conversion brought the score to 46-8.

With 4:09 left in the game, Lemaster scored on a 32-yard run. With a failed two-point try, the final score was 46-14.

Prestonsburg's next outing will be its homecoming Friday evening, with Harrison County supplying the opposition. The game will be Prestonsburg's last home stand of the year.

Free Course for Hunters Slated October 17-19

A free hunter education course will be held Oct. 17, 18 and 19 at Johnson County Central High School, Paintsville. The course will be from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Oct. 17 and 18, and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Oct. 19.

The course, sponsored by the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources, will include classroom instruction in firearm safety, sportsmanship, hunter ethics, first aid and outdoor survival.

The last session will feature actual range firing and practice with both firearms and archery equipment.

Those successfully completing the course will receive safe hunter certificates valid in any of the 29 states where such certification is required. Completion of this or a similar hunter education course is also a requirement for those youngsters participating in the youth deer hunt at Land-Between-the-Lakes and hunters under 16 years of age at Ft. Knox and Ft. Campbell. Attendance at all three sessions is required for certification.

Any person, ten (10) years of age or older, who is interested in the shooting sports or wants to become a safe hunter is welcome to attend.

VISITS PARENTS

Miss Rebecca Haywood, a teacher in the Falmouth schools, was here during the weekend, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haywood. While here, she attended the Jenny Wiley Festival, and the reception for Dr. June Buchanan. From here, she went to Belfry for a visit with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Haywood, and daughters, Melissa and Jacquelyn, where she was joined on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haywood. All of them attended services Sunday at the Belfry Methodist Church, where Miss Haywood was guest soloist.

Announcement of Engagement Made

The engagement of Miss Sallye Gatewood Ligon, of Prestonsburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Ligon, to Mr. John Randolph Clarke, of Lexington, Va., was announced in a delightful manner when Mrs. H. H. Fitzpatrick, grandmother of Miss Ligon, and Mrs. C. Y. Ligon, mother of the bride-elect, entertained with a lovely tea at their beautiful home on Second avenue, to which more than one hundred guests called between the hours of two and five, Tuesday afternoon.

Owing to the prominence of the young couple and their families, the announcement of their engagement and approaching marriage, will be an item of much interest in social circles throughout the Big Sandy valley. Miss Ligon's wide circle of friends and acquaintances found this announcement one of much surprise and interest, and to attest the esteem in which she is held by her friends and relatives here, a large number of parties are being planned as a part of her pre-nuptial calendar. Miss Ligon is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Ligon. Her mother is an only daughter of Mr. and H. H. Fitzpatrick, who before his untimely death was a prominent factor in the business development and growth of the Big Sandy valley. Her father, Mr. C. Y. Ligon, has been connected with large coal interests, and has become widely known in this section for his influence commercially.

Mr. Clarke is a native of Virginia, and is a most excellent young man, belonging to one of the best families in the state.

The beautiful home of Mr. H. H. Fitzpatrick, which lends itself so charmingly to decoration, was aglow with summer flowers, and rich shades of pink and white were carried out in every particular with an abundance of sweet peas, roses and gladioli. Throughout the entire house, baskets and vases of flowers were charmingly used. A beautiful center piece of pink and white flowers was placed in the center of the handsomely arranged dining room table, while on each side of it were two beautiful pink candles, decorated with tiny bows of pink tulle. The guests filled the house to overflowing, attesting to the popularity of the bride-elect. They were received at the door by Mrs. G. L. Howard, of Huntington, W. Va., and directed to the receiving line, which was formed just inside. In the receiving line were Mrs. C. Y. Ligon, Miss Sallye Gatewood Ligon, Mrs. H. H. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. B. P. Friend and Mrs. Alice G. Hopkins. Mrs. E. R. Burke, of Huntington, W. Va., escorted the guests to the dining room, which had been converted into a real flower garden, and with its soft mellow light, made a beautiful picture. Delightful refreshments were served by Misses Judy Salisbury, Edna Nunnery, Margaret Rose, Mrs. R. E. Brunk, Mrs. L. S. Moles and Miss Ella Noel White. Those pouring during the afternoon were Misses Angeline Layne, Nelle Allen, Joan Allen, Florence Stephens, Kitty Salisbury and Mary Nunnery.

Assisting Mrs. C. Y. Ligon was Mrs. H. D. Fitzpatrick, aunt of Miss Ligon.

The menu consisted of Neopolitan brick cream, individual angel food cake and mints in beautiful pink and white baskets.

The announcement of the engagement was very unusual, a Western Union messenger boy delivering the telegram announcing the engagement of Miss Sallye Gatewood Ligon to Mr. John Randolph Clarke.

The wedding of Miss Ligon and Mr. Clarke will take place in the early fall. Following the wedding the young couple will enjoy a motor trip west, and later will return to Charleston, W. Va., where they will be received as an interesting acquisition to the younger married circle of that city.

Aunt Allie.

RETURN FROM TOUR

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Francis and sons Paul, Robert Day and Fred returned last Friday after a four weeks' motor trip through the southern and central states, during which they covered 2,800 miles. The tour included visits to Cincinnati, Nashville, Memphis, Hot Springs, Ark., St. Louis, Mo., and Louisville. In Hot Springs they met Lewis Hays, a former resident of Knott county, and in St. Louis they spent much of their time with Mrs. Allie Daniels and Miss Dora Combs, sisters of B. F. and A. B. Combs, of this place.

IT'S A FUNNY WORLD

Among the many thousand things I'd sorta like to know, Is why it's wrong to say "Oh, hell!" Yet right to say "Hello!"

MINER'S BACK BROKEN

Frank Webb, 28 years old, was taken to the Paintsville hospital Tuesday morning suffering from a broken back. The accident occurred when he was caught by a fall of slate in the mines at Van Lear Monday afternoon. The unfortunate man is paralyzed from the hips down, and no hope is entertained for his recovery.

Mrs. Rufus Martin returned last week from the Baptist General hospital in Ashland. She is improving slowly. Harry F. May, of Langley, was a business visitor here Friday morning.

DR. FITZPATRICK HONORED ON BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Stephens entertained Tuesday evening with a lovely dinner, honoring Dr. W. J. Fitzpatrick, of Miami, Fla., on his birthday anniversary.

Those who joined in wishing Dr. Fitzpatrick many more years to the addition of a useful life, and in enjoying the occasion with him were:

Mrs. W. J. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Rosa Fitzpatrick, mother of Dr. Fitzpatrick; Miss Edith Fitzpatrick, his sister; Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Leete, Mrs. Maggie Leete, Mrs. Winnie F. Johns, Mrs. J. M. Weddington and Mrs. Mary D. Allen.

INFANT DIES SATURDAY AFTER MONTH'S ILLNESS

The three-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Adams died here Saturday after an illness of about a month. Funeral services were conducted Sunday by the Rev. George Rose. Burial was made in the Richmond cemetery. E. P. Arnold was in charge of the body.

The child's parents and one sister survive.

WISDOM TEETH?

Miss Emma Murden, 83 years old, an inmate of the Home of the Aged and Infirm, in Louisville, has been enjoying the novel experience of cutting her third set of teeth, according to Dr. T. H. Sloss, superintendent.

Miss Murden came to Louisville from Boston with her father, a compositor on the old Louisville Democrat. She spends her time doing needle work and telling stories of the past. She recalls that her great-grandfather was a surgeon in Napoleon's army.

Mr. Sloss said she is one of the happiest persons in the home despite the fact that broken hips keep her confined to bed.

Miss Ellen Connors, sister of Mrs. Ballard Branham, is ill here, but is reported slightly improved.

The Most Amazing Quality in Chevrolet History

Offering the most amazing quality in Chevrolet history, today's Chevrolet is the most popular gear-shift car the world has ever known.

Quality in design! Quality in construction! Quality in appearance and performance! Never before has a low-priced car possessed them to such an amazing degree—

—because no other low-priced car combines the progressiveness of Chevrolet and the diversified experience, the vast resources and marvelous facilities of General Motors.

Go with the crowds and study today's Chevrolet. Mark well the aristocratic beauty of its lines—the superbly executed details of its bodies by Fisher.

Then go for a ride! Revel in the thrilling spurt that results when you "step on the gas." Delight in the smooth operation—the swift sweep of the passing miles. Marvel at the way the car hugs the road, the ease with which it obeys the steering wheel, the promptness with which it responds to the brakes!

Here is quality obtainable at prices which reflect the savings of tremendous production and which emphasize the willingness to share these savings with the public.

Here is the most desired object of American life today; a car of amazing quality—for everybody, everywhere!

Donors Being Sought
For Oct. 21 Blood Drive

The East Floyd Kiwanis Club and the Central Kentucky Blood Center ask residents to donate blood Monday, Oct. 21, from 12 noon to 7 p.m. at Betsy Layne High School.

Regularly scheduled blood drives, they explain, are essential for effective management of blood and specialized components in CKBC's 45-county service area. Red cells, the component most frequently needed, can be stored for only 21 days. Platelets, another component regularly needed, must be transfused within seven days after donating.

Blood drives such as the one being sponsored by East Floyd Kiwanis help provide a steady blood supply to patients in local hospitals. With the group's support, CKBC strives to maintain an inventory of 1,400 units of blood and blood components.

For further information, call Ellis Osborne at 874-9896.

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

As your next magistrate in District Number One, I will bring management, accessibility and responsibility to Floyd County government. As a business graduate of Transylvania University, and station manager for the past 4 years at WQHY-FM and WDOC-AM, I have the experience to bring management and better control of county revenues to Floyd County government. As station manager at WQHY-FM, and WDOC-AM, I have always been accessible to the public and have worked with, and for public service organizations and groups. As your next magistrate, I will continue to be accessible. As a homeowner in Middle Creek, and a lifetime resident of Floyd County, I have a responsibility and commitment to the betterment of our community, and the people of my district. I ask your support in the general election this fall. Make your choice for a new generation. I will be available to all the people all the time.

Thank you,
