Easy Labor

Chances are 50-50 it'll be raining if you're reading this on Friday, but Labor Day looks clear, according to the Jackson Weather Service. Today holds a 50 percent chance of thunderstorms, with highs in the upper 80s and lows in the mid-to-upper 60s. Cloudiness continues tonight and into Saturday with the chance of rain dropping to 30 percent.

Expect partly sunny skies for Sunday and Monday, with less humidity, highs in the mid-to-upper 80s and lows in the upper 60s. Look for humid conditions to return as Tuesday rolls in and the temperature inches toward 90.

Day In The Park

The Seventh Annual Day in the Park, sponsored by WMDJ Radio and First Guaranty National Bank in Martin, will be held Sunday, Sept. 3, at Allen Park.

The event is free of charge, and will feature special guest star Earl Thomas Conley. Also appearing will be the Soul Searchers, Prime Country and Double Edge.

Contests will be held, and $1,000 in prizes given away, according to Dale McKinney, owner of WMDJ Radio.

Events get underway at 2 p.m., and will last until dark.

Gas Price Drops

Motorists traveling through central and Eastern Kentucky over the Labor Day weekend can expect to pay an average of $1.15 a gallon for gasoline, AAA Blue Cross/Kentucky reported this week.

AAA's latest survey showed prices had dropped an average of 8 cents a gallon since the last survey, taken prior to the July 4 weekend. Full-serve prices are averaging $1.16 for regular and no-lead, and $1.23 for premium. Self-serve prices are averaging $1.50 for regular and no-lead, and $1.18 for premium. Prices for mid-grade no-lead were $1.23 full-serve, and $1.06 self-serve.

The overall average of $1.15 a gallon is 3 cents higher than Labor Day weekend a year ago. AAA's survey includes 30 service facilities throughout 47 counties in central and Eastern Kentucky.

Festival Food...

The Cow Creek Volunteer Fire Department will operate the concession stand each evening during the Highlands Folk Festival, slated Thursday, Sept. 7, through Sunday, Sept. 10, at the amphitheater at Jenny Wiley State Park near Prestonsburg.

The department will serve food all day Saturday at the entrance to the parking lot. The menu will include hot dogs, hamburgers, barbecue, nachos, popcorn, drinks and homemade candy and baked goods.

Forum Board To Meet Sept. 5

The Floyd County Education Forum will hold its regular board of directors' meeting at the Presbyterian Church in Prestonsburg at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 5.

The public is invited to attend.

The agenda will include a discussion of ways to encourage the community to use the Kentucky Task Force on Education Reform hotline (1-800-372-7181). Other items on the agenda include a review of the current changes in the school district's attendance policy and a report on the Forum's dropout prevention program.

Copies of the Phase 3 mandates from the Kentucky Department of Education to the Floyd school system will be available.

Prestonsburg: Going For The Gold

Prestonsburg is "Going for the Gold" in Kentucky's municipal equivalent of the Olympics.

Four times awarded the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce's "Certified City" designation, Prestonsburg is seeking to be accredited for its fifth consecutive year, and in doing so be named a Gold Certified City.

"The program recognizes the community development efforts we're making," said Mayor Ann Latta. "People who are familiar with the program know we've already met certain criteria."

The Certified Cities Program recognizes Kentucky communities that meet strict requirements in community and economic development. The award denotes that the Certified Cities are among the best places in the state to do business, explains Jeff Eger, vice president for economic and community development with the Kentucky Chamber.

"The Certified Cities Program unites local leaders in a common effort to achieve economic growth, civic improvement and a better quality of life," said Gov. Wallace Wilkinson in support of the program.

Locally, Prestonsburg has met stringent requirements in several areas for the past four years, including fire and police protection, education, existing industry and small business, voter turnout, recreational facilities available to the public, art and culture, health care, transportation and utilities.

"The state Chamber of Commerce requires a lot of local initiative and effort to be shown, and once you achieve that, it shows people... that there are people in this town who are willing to work for the community. It gives us a little bit of an edge in our economic development effort."

In going for gold certification, Prestonsburg must maintain the past levels of excellence recognized by the state Chamber, as well as follow additional recommendations made by a certification team to continue to improve the area.

"It's really important that we make it this year," said Latta, explaining that if a city is not certified this year, it must begin essentially begin again to be a gold certified city.

"The requirements make it mandatory that a city be certified five consecutive years to reach the gold certification," said the mayor.

The city was first certified under the leadership of former mayor Harold Cooley, and was recertified three more consecutive years during Latta's term.

Evaluation team members are scheduled to assess Prestonsburg on Tuesday, Sept. 12. This year's Certified Cities will be announced on Thursday, Nov. 16, at an awards luncheon in Lexington.

Going for the Gold

Prestonsburg Mayor Ann Latta displays four plaques the city has received during its four consecutive years of being designated as a Certified City by the state Chamber of Commerce. Last year, the city earned silver certification; this year, Latta hopes it will reach gold certification status.

Purple 'Flash Back'

There will be a sea of purple in Martin today, tomorrow and Sunday, as more than 1,000 alumni of the now-defunct Martin High School gather for their annual reunion.

"Come Home to Martin, Part II: The Saga Continues" is the theme of this year's reunion, which brings home hundreds of Martin Purple Flash alumni annually.

On Friday, Sept. 1, a reception will get underway at 4 p.m. in the school auditorium, with refreshments served in the lunchroom.

Saturday, late registration will be conducted through 10 a.m., with coffee and doughnuts available in the lunchroom.

Lunch will be served from noon to 1:30 p.m.

Welcome home ceremonies for bearers of the purple get underway promptly at 1:30 p.m. on the campus. Dale McKinney (Class of 1963) will serve as master of ceremonies. The invocation will be given by William R. "Bill" Hughes, Class of '48.

Roy Ratliff, Class of '45, will welcome alumni back to the school. Eunice "Sis" Flanery Hall, Class of '53, will provide memories of Martin High School.

"Mr. Purple Flash," better known as Denzil "Hoss" Halbert, will be honored by Jack Hutchinson, Class of '48. Awards will be presented by Jim Hammond, Class of '62. The benediction will be provided by Arthur Smith Jr., Class of '55.

Individual class reunions will get underway at 3 p.m. in classrooms of the school.

At 8 p.m., a 1950s dance will be held in the gym. Attendees are asked to dress in their favorite memory of the '50s while Randall Stith, Dickie Campbell, Dave Campbell, Troy Calhoun and other members of the original "Blue Notes" provide music.

Additionally, a picnic will be held at Allen Park at 1 p.m.

Sen. Mitch McConnell Addresses Local Leaders

An estimated 40 county leaders turned out to hear US Sen. Mitch McConnell speak at a breakfast gathering Wednesday morning.

The republican senator targeted drugs as a primary issue facing the nation today, and urged those attending to pay close attention to President George Bush's planned speech Tuesday night.

McConnell said primary targets of the drug eradication effort include the sources, transporters and users. He said lawmakers on Capitol Hill are giving serious consideration to legislation which will allow more stringent measures to be taken against both sellers and users. He added that casual use of drugs can become an offense, with jail terms rather than "a slap on the wrist."

"What we need to defeat drugs is a total commitment," the senator said. "The type of commitment America witnessed during World War II, when everyone worked as one to defeat the Axis powers."

McConnell also addressed pending acid rain legislation. He noted the present form of a proposed bill is "too tight," and he said he was concerned about its possible effect on high-sulphur coal regions. McConnell said he "couldn't predict" what amendments would be made to the bill before it is voted upon.

The senator said he favored a "true freedom of choice" bill to allow more time for utility companies to install scrubbers to lessen fuel waste emissions.

McConnell also fielded questions from those attending. Asked about problems in education, the senator said more money should be set aside for students who excel. "In today's international competition, we have sometimes forgotten those students who make the best grades. We need a reward system for performance excellence without affecting those who are behind," he said.

Filing Ends

Seats Hot In City Elections

The contests for municipal office promise to be hotter than they originally appeared as filing for slots on the November ballot ended yesterday afternoon.

Three men have indicated they would like to be mayor of Wheelwright come January, according to Floyd County Clerk records. Billy T. Meade, Lowell D. Parker and Kenneth Johnson all filed within the last two weeks. Mayor Larry Mullins filed to run for city commission, but not for mayor. Allen Taylor, who originally signed up to run for the top municipal post, has switched to running for a commissioner's slot.

Prestonsburg Mayor Ann Latta is being challenged by councilman Paul E. Joseph in what looks to be a heated race.

Two current Wayland town council members, Ernest E. "Gene" DeCoursey and Hobert Webb Sr., are vying for mayor of the Right Beaver community. Mayor Patricia Murphy is apparently stepping out of town politics since she filed for neither mayor nor council.

In Allen, Acting Mayor Vernon Porter is the only candidate to file for mayor, and in Martin, the mayoral post is not up for re-election.

Twelve candidates have filed for eight city council seats in Prestonsburg. They are incumbents William R. Callihan, Charles G. Hale, Michael D. Vance, William O. Goebel and Danny Hamilton, along with challengers Bill Ray Collins, Gary D. Brown, Jack Absher Jr., Greg Clark, Jerry Fannin, Doug Howes and Harry Ray Porter.

Four city commission posts in Wheelwright are being contested by 10 candidates. Running for re-election are incumbents Jerry Tackett, Dennis Harris and Dennis Holbrook. Others are Allen Taylor, Vance Bates, Danny Bates, Donald Johnson, David M. Sammons, Jerry Keith Tackett, along with the present mayor, Larry Mullins.

Only three persons are running for four council seats in Wayland, indicating a write-in campaign will probably occur, according to Floyd County Clerk Carla Bolton. The three candidates are Jerry A. Fultz and incumbents Eugene Mullins and Tommy Millard Robinson.

Running for four slots in Allen is incumbent Elmer Parsons and Edward J. Holman, Billy R. Rowe, Gary L. Elliott and Anna Lee Bentley.

Martin's slate of council candidates includes James Robinson and incumbents E.P. Grigsby Sr., John L. Maddox, Joe Simpson, Earrit M. Hayes and Denzil Halbert.

Candidates have two months to rev up their campaigns, with elections set for Tuesday, Nov. 7.

BLHS Teacher Claims Student Assaulted Her

A Betsy Layne High School English teacher said that one of her 10th grade home room students assaulted her shortly after school began Wednesday morning.

Georgia Blackburn, who has taught at the school for three years, said the student hit her three times in the face and knocked her off her feet in the hallway outside her classroom. Blackburn said she had sent the male student to the principal's office to be disciplined after he had disrupted the short home room period before classes started.

When the bell rang for student to go to their classes, Blackburn said she went into the hall, planning to go to the principal's office to check on the student. The student, she said, was still in the hall where he "both verbally and physically assaulted" her.

Blackburn said she has filed a petition against the student, and a hearing is being scheduled by school system officials. Floyd County School Superintendent Ron Hager was not in his office yesterday to comment on the case, and assistant superintendent Gary Frazier said his knowledge of the case is "hearsay." Frazier did confirm that a hearing was planned, but he did not know the date.

Room Catches Fire

The bedroom in C. Howard Vanover's Martin area home caught fire Wednesday, Aug. 23. The cause was apparently electrical, according to Derrick Tackett, chief of the Left Beaver Fire Department. Vanover was not home at the time, but neighbors managed to keep the flames under control using a garden hose until the fire fighters arrived and finished the job, Tackett said.

Floyd County Rescue Squad:

Volunteers Who Dedicate Their Time To Serving Others

by Tess A. Whitmer
Staff Writer
(First in a series)

The Floyd County Rescue Squad is in its 31st year of dedicated, volunteer service to those in need in the Floyd and surrounding area.

Established in 1958 as a direct result of the school bus disaster in which 26 children and their driver died, the Rescue Squad is a viable and purposeful memorial to those lost lives.

The first bit of organizational documentation was written on the banks of the Levisa Fork of the Big Sandy as several men watched the Greenville, Tenn., Rescue Squad work so hard to free the trapped victims of the bus. It was decided then that Floyd County would benefit from such an organized group, and so thus the Floyd County Rescue Squad was formed.

Despite the "Floyd County" tag in its title, the squad's service area exceeds the county's boundaries, according to Onda Hunt, squad captain.

Twenty years ago, before other areas formed squads, runs were traditionally made to the Kentucky River for drownings and to the Smokey Mountain area in Tennessee and Silver Bridge in Pt. Pleasant, W.Va.

The mutual aid support of surrounding counties still exists, as do the dedicated men, and women (the first to ever join), who volunteer their time and skills to help those in need.

"A Rescue Squad member works two jobs and gets paid for one," noted Hunt, who is also a teacher at Prestonsburg Elementary School.

Hunt's co-captain is Chuck Hughes, a sales representative at Rudd Equipment. The secretary/treasurer is Dwight Crider, who teaches electronics at Mayo Vocational Technical School in Paintsville and who has also donated his talents for a rewiring project in progress at the station house.

Other elected officers are: First Lieutenant Brian Sexton, who works for Branham and Baker Coal; Second Lieutenant Timothy Curnutte, Power Equipment worker; First Sergeant Neil Osborne works at Mine and Power Products; and Staff Sergeant John M. Hunt is the Kentucky State Police dispatcher in Pikeville.

The first women to apply are Shea and Faye Hunt, 18-year-old twin sisters of Onda Hunt; both are on one year probation. All new members must be at least 18 years of age, have their high school diploma or GED, and complete a one year probationary period. The probation helps assure members' dedication and moral character, as well as their ability to perform the duties required of them, explained Onda Hunt. After the probationary period ends, active members can vote candidates into service.

SQUAD MEMBERS TRAINED

Any training that is not taught in-house is paid for by members, who also pick up the tab for their uniforms and helmets.

The Rescue Squad relies on donations during three yearly fundraisers for operating money, and on the Floyd County Fiscal Court for funds for vehicles and different equipment items. The squad's fall fundraiser is a road block, which will be performed tomorrow (Saturday, Sept. 2) in various locations throughout the county. Other members who are elected officers, and their place of employment, are: Charles Ferguson, first sergeant, Big Sandy Tire; Dwayne Osborne, Second Sergeant, Little Bear Market; James Nyberg, third sergeant, Mountain Comprehensive Care; Onda Hunt Sr., fourth sergeant, self employed; Quentin Scholtz, chaplain, pastor for United Methodist Church; and Mike Terry, assistant secretary, surveying technician for Elmo Greer and Sons.

Some of the original charter members such as James B. Goble, first secretary/treasurer, Graham Burchette, first captain, Ben Ferguson, Manis Grey and Don Wills, are still on the alert roster. "Burchette, who is in his 80s, will still go out on runs with the squad now and then," Hunt said.

Dedicated Volunteers

The Floyd County Rescue Squad is an all volunteer non-profit group whose mission is to serve, without charge, those in need. Representing the squad are, from left, Chuck Hughes, co-captain; Mike Terry, assistant secretary; Dwight Crider, secretary/treasurer; and Onda Hunt, captain.

Exhibitors Sought For Proposed Artists' Gallery

Eastern Kentucky artisans who wish to exhibit their craft work in state-operated parks and welcome centers are being encouraged to do so.

To help local craftspersons who are not exhibiting in state facilities, the Big Sandy Area Development District is coordinating a program to help artists become juried.

All artists' work must be juried — judged and approved by a panel of professionals — before being displayed by the state, according to Roger Recktenwald, executive director of Big Sandy ADD.

"We're trying to get a true visitor's center at Slade, including an artist's gallery," Recktenwald explained. "Although there will be limited display area, we are encouraging Eastern Kentucky craftspersons to have their work included. The first step in that process is becoming juried."

Depending on the type of medium used, artists will be allowed to display one or more works, as well as their business cards.

For more information on the local program, artisans should send their name, address, telephone number and type of art to be marketed to Visitors Center Gallery, care of Big Sandy Area Development District, 31 North Lake Drive, Prestonsburg, KY 41653.

Additionally, once a craftsperson becomes juried, they may become eligible for business development and loan programs or other segments of the state's plan to strengthen and expand the crafts industry, according to Susan Zimmerman, spokeswoman for the state Department of the Arts.

Craftspersons must have work juried and accepted for the Craft Marketing Program of the Department of the Arts in order to participate in the Business Development and Loan Program.

Cities Sprucing Up Before Winter

Throwing In The Trowel

Not really. Stanley Ward, left, and "Lightening" Blackburn were at work Wednesday smoothing out the concrete in the city of Martin's new sidewalks. Workers have been busy all week upgrading the city's walkways.

by Pam Shingler,
Assistant Editor

Road and sidewalk contractors are looking at a busy season as several local municipalities are taking advantage of state road aid money to make some needed improvements.

Sidewalks on the main thoroughfare and several side streets in Martin being rebuilt. Begun early this week, the project will probably take another week, according to a city official. Martin is also blacktopping a city lot behind the IGA supermarket. Earlier in the summer major resurfacing was done to the main street.

The City of Wheelwright is advertising for separate bids for blacktopping and sidewalk repair. In need of resurfacing are all city streets where new water lines have been laid, according to city clerk Mary Ann Johnson.

It's at least the second time around for trying to get a contractor to do the sidewalk job in the Left Beaver community. "We tried to get bids for sidewalks last year," Johnson said, "but there were no bidders, so we're trying again. We hope to get the sidewalk work done this time."

Sept. 8 is the deadline for bids on the Wheelwright work.

Allen saw the completion of its street blacktopping project early this month, and Wayland town commissioners are expected to make decisions at their Tuesday meeting on some street repairs, according to clerk Carol Stapleton.

Abandoning a plan to go with state contract bidding because of time, the city of Prestonsburg is also advertising separate bids for extensive sidewalk and curb projects and for blacktopping of several city streets. Bid deadline is Sept. 11.

Highlands Festival Features Activities For Children, Youths

Kathy Lowe, director of the Kentucky Highlands Folk Festival, is particularly proud of the festival's activities for children and youths.

The annual folk festival, scheduled Sept. 7-10 at Jenny Wiley State Park, will offer two special activities for the younger set on Saturday, Sept. 9.

A children's fun fair will be held in May Lodge at 12:30 p.m., with activities for children of all ages, Lowe said. Led by Pike County folklorist Georgia Muncy and Johnny Martin of the park staff, even the smallest children will be able to participate in story telling, puppetry and "play party" games, said Lowe. Clarence Henson will also lead in the dancing.

At 2:30 p.m. in the amphitheater, the second "Youth Festival" will be held. Tentatively scheduled to appear are a girl's ensemble from Prestonsburg High School, fiddler Noah Riley of Bristol, Va., dancers from Hellier Elementary School in Pike County, and Country Fried Cloggers, led by Vickii Puckett of Martin.

"The goal of our festival is to preserve our mountain culture and heritage, and the best way to do this is by involving our children," said Lowe. "We try to plan activities for them that provide a learning experience combined with fun."

For more information on the festival or specific activities, call 886-1497.

Festival Features Kids' Activities

The Kentucky Highlands Folk Festival, scheduled Thursday through Sunday, Sept. 7-10 at Jenny Wiley State Park, will include two special attractions for children and youths on Saturday, Sept. 9. At 12:30 p.m., a children's fun fair will be held at May Lodge, while at 2:30 p.m., a "Youth Festival" will be held in the amphitheater.

When our editor, Anne Chaney, informed the staff that it would start writing rotating columns, I thought "no problem." I always have something to say. But when my turn came around, and in our first Friday paper to boot, the unfathomable happened — I was at a loss for words.

Making this even more unusual was the fact that Anne said I had been editorializing much of my writing this past week and I needed to save that for the appropriate time and space.

So I put on the old thinking cap and thought of a lot of occurrences that perturbed me and of things that happened recently that I had questions about. But, being relatively new in the area, and even newer at journalism, I didn't want to step on anyone's toes.

Then my good buddy Ed Taylor reminded me that columns do not have to be negative, and suggested that I write about something I've spent a lot of time on lately — senior citizens. What a good idea! These people are great and rarely get their due in the paper, so here goes.

It doesn't matter if you hail from the north, the south or the moon — the folks at the senior citizens centers in the area will wrap their arms around you and pull you right into their circles. These people love to talk and they love to feed you.

Every time I go to a center to cover an event I find myself spending much more time there than it requires to take a picture and get enough information for a story or caption. It's like having 30-plus grandmothers all trying to make sure I don't die of malnutrition. And the men never lack for time when it comes to talking about the old days. But, the other side is, they also love to hear about the young people. They are quite good listeners, offering advice and anecdotes when needed.

They are very active people — people I want to be like someday. The sparkle in their eyes when they tell you how they met their first love, what times used to be like and much, much more, makes me realize just how much life is left in the older generation.

Believe me when I say that the seniors are not just sitting around waiting for life to pass. They are taking an active part in making their last years enjoyable ones. I have seen the labor of love that goes into the quilts the women make and the spark of competition that is still left in the men as they work out puzzles or shoot pool. I can see the determination and thought that went into building the Betsy Layne Senior Citizens Center, which is a standing testimony of that commitment.

These people have worked hard to get where they are. They are a valuable source of knowledge and an overwhelming wellspring of love. Anyone who feels lonely or just hungers for a bit of nostalgia — or good food — should stop by the center of their choice and open their minds, heart, ears and eyes to what can be found there.

Letters to the Editor

Why Does Principal Send Son To Pikeville?

Dear Editor,
It is no wonder that the Floyd County School System is in such pitiful shape. I just found out my neighbors, Betty and Gary Newman, principal and teacher at John M. Stumbo Elementary School, send their son to Pikeville Independent Schools.

There is a requirement for enrollment that you must live within the city limits. They do not make exceptions for good grades, sports or political reasons. I know, because I asked after I found out their son was enrolled. They live on Mud Creek where they are building their new home.

The rest of us have to send our children to Betsy Layne when they leave John M.

My question is, since Mr. and Mrs. Newman are a part of the Floyd County educational system, why are they sending their son to Pikeville? If the Floyd County schools are not good enough for their son, it shouldn't be good enough for ours, either.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman are handing out Floyd County education daily with the positions they hold. If it is so bad that they want their son out of it, then maybe we should, too!

I feel like Mr. and Mrs. Newman owe the children of John M. and Betsy Layne an explanation — if not an apology and resignation.

I wish I could print my name, but I can't because I have two children in this lousy system and I can't afford to move. I could drive them to Pikeville daily, but I wouldn't want the first thing they learned at Pikeville Independent School to be lying. That form of education belongs to Floyd County.

Just one more sad parent,
Grethel
(Name withheld by request)

(Editor's Note: Mr. Newman said that he and his son are living in Pikeville while the family's home is being built on Mud Creek. He added that his son prefers to attend Pikeville, and noted that the Pikeville system is ranked 16th in the state academically.)

MILK RUN IS OVER FOR AIRBORNE DRUG SMUGGLERS

Picture this: A Customs' aircraft is shadowing a suspected drug smuggling aircraft whose flight originated in Colombia. As the aircraft makes its way into US airspace, the side door opens and water proof packages begin dropping to a small cluster of high-speed boats waiting below. Within minutes, the packages are picked up and the boats begin their trip to shore. With its delivery completed, the aircraft turns and heads south, back to its home base. With luck, the boats and their crew will be apprehended, but the aircraft will get away scot free. This scenario is a regular occurrence for the men and women who are charged with intercepting drug shipments into this country.

The reason the plane escaped is that federal law-enforcement officials have no authority to force suspected drug-smuggling air-craft to land for inspection. Even when caught red-handed dropping drugs, the smugglers know that unless they land on US territory they are immune from prosecution. This is why the sea-drop has become one of their favorite tactics. Hopefully, this situation is about to change. On August 1, 54 senators joined me in passing an amendment I authored which will give federal anti-drug agencies the authority to use disabling and, if absolutely necessary, deadly force in stopping airborne drug smugglers who refuse repeated radio and visual requests to land their aircraft.

The passage of this legislation can not come at a more critical time in our war against drugs. According to Attorney General Richard Thornburgh, each day approximately 5,000 Americans try cocaine for the first time — 5,000 people. Many will be children, some will be Kentuckians. This same tragedy occurred yesterday and will occur again tomorrow unless we back up our tough talk with tough action. It is a fact that over half the cocaine flooding our streets is flown in by small, private aircraft from South American countries. If we are serious about waging a true war on drugs we will act now to shut down this last avenue where drug smugglers roam free with total impunity from the law.

Critics of this legislation cringe at the thought of using force to compel a suspect to land. They say that this policy would pose an unnecessary threat to legitimate civil aviation. I disagree. Using deadly force in the drug war is not new. Congress gave the Coast Guard this authority over nine years ago. Out of more than 1,500 sea interdictions that have been conducted since 1980, the Coast Guard has only had to use force, meaning firing their weapons at a fleeing boat, only 18 times. The Coast Guard has demonstrated its ability to exercise the authority consistent with safeguards which could easily be extended to aerial law enforcement.

The biggest threat our country faces today is not from a foreign government's army, it is the drug abuse that, if not stopped, will cripple an entire generation. As cocaine and its deadly derivative "crack" continue to inundate our shores, as its price decreases while the purity increases, as the age of drug abusers continues to decline, as drug related crime sky-rockets, there is no one safe from this terrible epidemic. Make no mistake about it, we are at war. We can not afford to wait any longer to give our law-enforcement officers this critical tool if we are serious about shutting down the flow of cocaine-carrying aircraft flying into this country.

Ten Years Ago

(September 12, 1979)

Extra-curricular activities are not to interfere with the daily minimum of six hours of instruction in Floyd county school. Participation in such activities cannot be required; neither can a fee for them be mandated, according to the board. . . Commissioners of the Mud Creek Water District are expected to contract this week with a newly formed utilities management group to take over operation of the long-troubled Mud Creek Water System. . . The City of Prestonsburg is again moving to prevent the mining of coal from a deep mine within the city limits. . . State and federal officials are said to have notified the City of Martin that it must remedy a serious sewage problem at the city's western end. . . Monzelle Prater says that she will not enroll her 6-year-old daughter Missy in any Floyd County school until school officials provide speech therapy for her and a place in a special classroom for children with learning disabilities. . . After the expected approval of a state grant for equipment purchase, the Prestonsburg Fire Department will officially serve a double role — that of fire department and rescue squad. . . There died: Gertrude Sammons, 79, of Martin, Friday at Our Lady of the Way Hospital; Laura S. Porter, 62, of Auxier Road, Saturday, Sept. 8 at Highlands Regional Medical Center; Edda Wicker, 65, of Kendalville, Ind., formerly of Mousie, Friday, Aug. 30; Jean Carol Hale, 53, at the Riverview Manor Nursing Home; Troy Green, 62, of LaGrange, Ind., formerly of Handshoe, Monday; Sylvester Gibson, 59, formerly of Knott county Sept. 1 in Petersburg, Mich.; Ruby Amburgey, 63, of Detroit, Mich., formerly of Bulan, Aug. 25; Clyde Maynard, 63, of Salyersville, Tuesday at HRMC; Bertha Davis, 79, of Kite, Tuesday, Aug. 30, at HRMC; and Margaret Ann Cole, 52, Saturday, Sept. 1 at the park Avenue Hospital in Norton, Va.

Twenty Years Ago

(September 11, 1969)

US. District Court at Lexington was asked this week to dissolve an injunction barring Appalachian Volunteers and VISTA representatives from Floyd school properties and to enjoin Superintendent of Schools Charles Clark and the Floyd County Board of Education from interfering with these two groups, the Eastern Kentucky Welfare Rights Organization and other individual plaintiffs. . . A former Prestonsburg woman, Alana Reed, 19, daughter of Vada Reed Young of Ashland and the late Alan Reed, was one of 83 persons who died Tuesday in the mid-air collision of a single-engine plane with an Allegheny Airlines jetliner, 10 miles southeast of Indianapolis, Ind. . . Two murder indictments and two others naming Floyd Countians for possession of narcotics featured the work of the Floyd Circuit Court grand jury, which ended Friday. . . The Spurlock, Price and Wheelwright operations of the Elkhorn Division, Island Creek Coal Company, have been strikebound since last Thursday, idling several hundred workers. . . There died: Charles R. Newman, 64, of Allen, Sept. 4, at Lexington; Orgie Adkins, 49, formerly of Hueysville, Sunday at his home at Columbus, Ohio; Ann Hall Adkins, 33, of Flatwoods, sister of Nell Lawson of Prestonsburg, Aug. 31 at Ashland; Hester Spencer, 89, of East Point, Monday; John Cora, 81, of Tram, Sept. 3 at Martin; Charles T. Halfhill, 46, Tuesday at his home here; Hatler Kinney, 72, of McDowell, Monday at the Appalachian Regional Hospital; Frank Hatfield, former Floyd County peace officer, at Columbus, Ohio; Luisa Howell, 96, Sunday at her home at Dana; Jessie Mae Blackburn Adkins, 72, formerly of Prestonsburg, Sept. 1 at her home in Nevada, Miss.

Thirty Years Ago

(September 10, 1959)

Andrew Jackson May, former Congressman and Congressional wartime leader during the administrations of Presidents Roosevelt and Truman, died at the age of 84 Sunday morning at the Prestonsburg General Hospital. . . Although the total enrollment of all pupils in Floyd County schools remains approximately the same this year as last, the number enrolled in Prestonsburg is off slightly. . . Two Left Beaver men are in jail here, accused of the armed robbery of a crippled man in the Bypro vicinity of $180 cash. . . There died: Milton Mosley, 47, of Minnie, Sunday at the home of his parents; Lodena Collins Morgan, 61, of East Point, Friday at McDowell Memorial Hospital; Bee Cox, 64, formerly of Garrett, Aug. 27 in Indiana; Dora B. Combs, 85, formerly of this county, Friday at the home of a daughter; William Harrison Collins, 80, of Auxier, Monday at his home; Susan A. Pelfrey, 56, last Thursday at her home here.

Forty Years Ago

(September 15, 1949)

Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill last Thursday directed Circuit Clerk W.W. Cooley to make request of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals to return here the stub books and ballots from Kennedy precinct of this county for examination by the grand jury when it reconvenes Sept. 29. . . Wesley Campbell, Democrat, and J. O. Webb, Republican, both of Prestonsburg, have been appointed to the Floyd County Election Commission. The third member is the sheriff in an ex-officio capacity. . . Injuries sustained when struck by a train in the vicinity of his home at Bevensville last Wednesday resulted in the death of 48-year-old Andy Johnson. . . There died: George E. Auxier, 70, former resident here, Sept. 3 at Columbus, Ohio; Mallie Stephens Vanderpool, 39, of Hueysville, Tuesday at the Beaver Valley Hospital; Leonard Wells, 58, of Auxier Tuesday afternoon; Vina Engle Hoover, 55, Monday at her home at Garrett; Charles D. Milby, 51, former Prestonsburg business man, Monday at Hazard.

Fifty Years Ago

(September 7, 1939)

"I want you to make a special effort to investigate all violations of the election laws and, if possible, convince the people of Floyd County that there are some people who believe in honest elections," Circuit Judge John W. Caudill told the grand jury in his instructions upon the opening of September term of the Floyd Circuit Court. . . After WLW, Cincinnati radio station, had made an announcement of the Kentucky State Fair's "Tall Corn Contest," Dave Shepherd, Goodloe, wrote that he has a stalk of corn which is 23 feet tall. . . George B. Bentley, 21, died Sunday morning in the Beaver Valley Hospital, Martin, of a revolver bullet wound said to have been fired 12 hours earlier at Smallwood, between Allen and Banner, by a Daniels Creek man. . . Willard Adkins, the Allen youth who, as a caddy, lugs the clubs of members of the Beaver Valley Golf Club around for pay, then goes out and gives the boys golf lessons for the pure fun of licking 'em, Monday won the Big Sandy Amateur Golf Championship. . . Appearing "live and in person" at the Martin Theatre this week will be Tex Ritter. . . There died: Ishmael Scott, of Right Beaver, Tuesday at the home of a sister, of tuberculosis; Josephine Ellis Hager, 37, of Prestonsburg, Sunday at the Pikeville Hospital; Cynthia Allen, 74, of Langley, Thursday at the Stumbo Memorial Hospital, Lackey.

Last Graduating Class Remembers End Of Year At Martin High School

Closing the Books

Senior Trip

Good For A First Down

Allen Central JV halfback Adam Tackett (32) runs through hole created by offensive lineman Shawn Bailey (79) for a Rebel first down against Wheelwright. The Rebels lost the game 32-0.

Rebels Battle Phelps In Home Opener Tonight

by Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

Week number three in high school football begins tonight as the Allen Central Rebels of Coach Donnie Daniels host the Phelps Hornets of Coach Kerry Fannin at the Betsy Layne High School field. The game, originally scheduled as a day game at the Don Daniels Athletic Complex, was moved to Betsy Layne as Phelps did not want to play a day football game.

Fannin's Hornets are coming off a 3-8 rebuilding year centered around quarterback Jukey Dotson, 6', 170 pounds, who will captain this year's Hornet offense. Phelps will take the ball to the air more this year because of the confidence that Fannin has in his returning quarterback.

Look for tailback Mike Sincell, a 5'

9", 166-pound senior to lead the ground attack this season for the Hornets. Gone, via graduation, is Roger Kellione who shared backfield duties last season with Sincell, but waiting in the wings to fill the spot is 6' 2", 202-pound junior Danny Estep.

Kevin Hurley and Dwayne Stevens will head up the Hornets' receivers against the Rebels. Phelps' defensive line will be held up with 6' 3", 295-pounder, Mike Gibson.

Daniels' Rebels will look to their powerful running back, Mickey Parsons, a 5' 10", 180-pound senior. Parsons ran for 96 yards in a loss to Jenkins at the start of the season and gained 105 yards in a loss to Paintsville last Friday night.

When the defense is keyed on Parsons, the Rebels have Tommy Gibson, a 6' 0", 195-pound junior, to contend with. Gibson carried the ball eight times against Jenkins for 70 yards and six times for 107 yards against Paintsville.

The Rebels' defense will be led by Brian Wallen, a 6' 3", 302 pound junior, and 307-pound, 6' 6", senior Brian Meadows.

On the offensive line, Wallen and Meadows must open the holes for Parsons, who seems to have a nose for finding the openings.

Allen Central's air attack could be questionable as quarterback B.J. Aldrich (who suffered a broken nose against Paintsville) has yet to go to the air much, although he completed four of six attempts last Friday evening. A "W" in the win column will depend on the running of Parsons and Gibson.

Johnson's 'Golden Arm' To Lead Johnson Central Against Bobcats At Eagles' Stadium This Evening

by Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

Coach Steve Trimble of Johnson Central's Golden Eagles is in a rebuilding year after being hit hard by graduation last year. Twenty players were lost to the Eagles by graduation. Trimble returns 14 players from last year's 7-4 squad; however, only eight starters, three on offense and five on defense, return to the Golden Eagles team, a team that just missed the playoffs last year after a 16-15 loss to Clay County.

Trimble's "exciting" Eagles will entertain first year Coach Gerald Newsome's Betsy Layne Bobcats, 0-2, tonight in an 8 p.m. game.

Back for the Eagles will be junior quarterback Mitchell Johnson, 6' 2", 185, who has a strong throwing arm. Also returning is George Clifton, heir apparent to the running back spot vacated by all-area running back, Brian Hall. Also in the backfield for the Golden Eagles will be Darren Gamble and Greg Hunter, small but hard runners.

Derrick Preston returns at end for Johnson Central. Preston had 22 catches for 550 yards last season. Preston will be the primary target when Johnson passes.

Betsy Layne, coming off a loss to the Magoffin County Hornets, 34-0, will counter with halfback Larry Hall, a 6' 1", 180-pound senior. Also in the backfield for Betsy Layne will be senior fullback Morris Adkins and Chris Bias. Craig Hunter will call the signals for Newsome's Bobcats.

A healthy Dave Raczkick and Gary Shortridge will lead the defensive charge for the young Bobcat squad.

Experience could be a problem for a young Bobcat team. But Johnson Central is definitely in a rebuilding year. So who knows?

Art of Punting

Wheelwright's defense forced the Allen Central Rebels junior varsity team to punt in their game Monday evening at the Don Daniels Athletic Complex. The Rebels JVs fell to the Trojans, 32-0.

Betsy Layne JVs Fall To Fleming-Neon, 26-0

by Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

Fleming-Neon's Junior Varsity football team overwhelmed the Betsy Layne Bobcats JVs 26-0 last Monday night at the Lloyd Hamilton Athletic Complex.

Fleming-Neon took the open kick off and went 57 yards for a touchdown. The extra point failed and Neon led 6-0.

On Betsy Layne's first possession, the Bobcats got good field position and drove the football into Fleming-Neon territory, but the ball was intercepted with 2:08 left in the first period.

Fleming-Neon threatened in the closing minutes of the first quarter, but the Bobcats defense held off the threat.

In the second stanza, Fleming-Neon pushed the ball to the Betsy Layne 2-yard line. On next down, the visitors hit paydirt with a run off right end to make the score 14-0 after getting the two point conversion.

On the kick off Fleming-Neon caught Betsy Layne on its own 1-yard line, but Betsy Layne drove down to the 37-yard line on a pass from quarterback Brian Combs to wide receiver Bobby Wise. A penalty on Fleming-Neon moved the ball into Fleming-Neon's territory with 35 seconds remaining in the half. Combs' next pass was intercepted, and Fleming-Neon ran the ball back but was tackled at the Betsy Layne 3-yard line.

Fleming-Neon scored and made it 20-0 with a touchdown early in the fourth period. With just seconds left in the game, Fleming-Neon intercepted another of Combs' passes and ran the ball into the end zone to make the final score 26-0.

The Betsy Layne JVs will play at M.C. Napier Tuesday, Sept. 5, at 6 p.m.

Turkey Season Dates Set For 1990

An earlier opening date, more weekend hunting and a fall archery season are the major changes in next year's turkey regulations, approved by the Fish and Wildlife Resources Commission at its recent meeting in Frankfort.

Turkey season in all open counties will begin on the second Wednesday of April (April 11) instead of the third Wednesday, as in past years. Zone A counties will continue open for 19 days, closing on April 29. This will give hunters in this zone four more hunting days plus an additional weekend.

The Zone B season will remain at seven days, closing on April 17. Zone A hunters may take two turkey gobblers again this year, while zone B hunters are limited to one gobbler.

Something new on the turkey hunting scene will be a month-long (October 1-31) fall archery season for either six turkeys beginning in 1990. Only seven counties with good turkey populations will be open.

Fort Knox, Fort Campbell, Reelfoot National Wildlife Refuge, Land Between The Lakes and the Higginson-Henry Wildlife Management area will be open to turkey hunting under special regulations.

Prestonsburg Visits Whitesburg Tonight

by Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

When you talk of a football program showing signs of becoming a good football team, you have to look to Coach Bill Letton's Prestonsburg Blackcats which have shown they are capable of playing with anyone.

The Blackcats, 1-1, will take on defending Region Four, District Two champion Whitesburg tonight in a road game.

Whitesburg returns eight from last year's starting team, three on offense and five on defense. Whitesburg Coach Tom Searcy plans on mixing up this year's line last season.

"We mix it up, about 60-40," last year's Division Two champions mentor stated. "We have a lot of sophomores and juniors from last year coming in filling positions vacated from last year's team. Many of them played in eight junior varsity games, and they have rotated in and out at different positions, so I don't think of it as a rebuilding year. I don't like that term really."

Much will rest on senior quarterback Junior Holland's shoulders this season. Steve Amburgey, 5' 10", 170 pounds, and Owen Gibson, 5' 10", 190 pounds, will fill the backfield at the fullback positions. Converted tackle, Tom Sayers, 5' 10", 258 pounds, will be at the center spot for Whitesburg.

Coach Searcy will also look to two guards, Richard Craft, 6' 1", 240, who will play at the off guard position, and Everett Shepherd, 5' 11", 205-pounds, for leadership this year.

Whitesburg has yet to play a game this season because of the cancellation of the game with the Elkhorn City Cougars last Friday night. The game was canceled because of the Cougars' shortage of players following the "time episode" at Wheelwright two weeks ago.

Letton says that he doesn't know much about the Whitesburg team because "they haven't played yet this season."

Whitesburg lost tailback Junior Matthews via graduation. It will be a See P'BURG VISITS, Page 10

Jackson Leads Trojan JV Past ACHS Rebs, 32-0

by Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

Sophomore halfback Steven Jackson (5' 6", 148) rushed for 112 yards and scored three touchdowns to lead Coach Roger Johnson's Wheelwright Trojans junior varsity football team to a 32-0 first-game victory over the Allen Central Rebels JVs.

After a scoreless first quarter, Jackson broke tackle for a 26-yard run in the opening minutes of the second period for a touchdown. The two-point conversion was good and Wheelwright led 8-0.

With 3:23 showing on the scoreboard, Wheelwright recovered an Allen Central fumble. On first down, Shane McCoy was thrown for a loss of four yards, bringing up a second and 14 for the Trojans. Trojan quarterback Steven Shelton tossed to Jackson on a screen play and the halfback galloped 43 yards for a TD. McCoy got the two-point conversion to send the Trojans on top, 16-0.

The Rebels had problems in moving the football. Allen Central was guilty of fumbling the ball four times. Wheelwright intercepted the Rebels three times. Wheelwright fumbled twice to the Rebels.

Wheelwright scored again early in the fourth. Wheelwright had the ball on the Allen Central 4-yard line when Jackson scored his third touchdown of the game on short yardage. Greg Burke ran the two-point conversion to make the score, 24-0.

The Trojans made it 32-0 on a 36-yard run with 2:38 to go in the game.

Allen Central had six first downs while the Trojans had four. The Trojans were penalized 30 yards and Allen Central 25.

Bumping Heads

Two players from Allen Central and Wheelwright bump heads in a game played at the Don Daniels Athletic Complex Monday evening. The Trojans won over the Rebels 32-0.

Pigskin Report

by Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

We recently published our annual football tab of all local high school football teams. Without the help of the coaches and players in the county, this would have been impossible.

The head coaches and players were very cooperative during interviews and photography sessions. To all of them, we say thanks and wish each team the best of luck in the present season.

We also urge all fans to get out and support their favorite team during the year. You will see a lot of good exciting football. The 15th region has some top talent that will have college coaches knocking on doors this winter.

HYDRATED LIME USED ON WHEELWRIGHT'S BRACKET FIELD

By this time, everyone knows the sad circumstances that took place at the Elkhorn City and Wheelwright game on August 18, where two or more Cougar players received serious burns because of the use of hydrated lime to mark off the field before the game. The lime, in conjunction with rain and body sweat, caused some serious burn spots on two Cougar players, Mitchell Potter and Mark Aragon.

I'm sure that no one feels any worse about what happened than the officials at Wheelwright high school. We can be confident that steps will be taken to see that the incident doesn't repeat itself.

Elkhorn City parents are considering what legal action can be taken. They say they want to see that it doesn't happen again, and want to receive some financial compensation.

Since this incident occurred, the Wheelwright High School football field has been declared safe to play on by David Chaffins, Hazardous Materials Chairman for DES.

The Floyd County Times is still in need of grade school football schedules. If you want your team covered, please send us a schedule of games. Also, all grade schools who have basketball schedules completed may send them in. Mail to the Floyd County Times, Box 391, Prestonsburg, Ky, 41653.

Danita Johnson, former guard for last year's Betsy Layne Lady Bobcats, will be attending Alice Lloyd College this fall. We wish her the best at ALC.

Jesse Osborne of the McDowell Daredevils will be attending Morehead State University this school term. Osborne displayed his defensive talents in the 15th Region tournament by stopping Virgie Eagle 6' 5" center Ray Hall to help the Daredevils to victory. Good luck Jesse!

Alice Lloyd College got its share of Floyd County athletes this past spring. The Eagles recruited two basketball standouts, Henry Webb and Brian Hall. Five baseball recruits inked with the Knott County College — Todd Justice, Thomas Nairn, Daryl Sparks, Tim Trusty, all of Prestonsburg, and Duran Newsome of Betsy Layne.

Explosive Backfield Describes Paintsville

by Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

When looking for adjectives to describe the backfield of the Paintsville Tigers, "explosive" fits.

Quarterback Jeremy Holbrook and running backs Greg Slone and Tucker Howard return to form perhaps one of the best backfields in Single A competition.

The Tigers will host Wheelwright in a district game tonight at Paintsville. Game time is 8 p.m.

The Tigers had things going their own way last season, winning their first eight games, allowing no score in four of them. Paintsville then dropped a game to eventual state champion Pikeville, 22-0, followed by losses to Lawrence County, a 13-12 heartbreaker, and Hazard 33-14.

If Paintsville takes to the air, as the team likes, things could be rough for the Trojans. Holbrook, 6'1", 175-pound senior, was ranked among the state's elite in passing last season as a junior. Paintsville was ranked 12th in passing statewide with 120.8 yards per game, according to the KHSAA.

Howard, 6'0", 215, is a power threat to go up the middle in the Tigers offense. Throw in Greg Slone, a 5'7", 166 pounds, and you have double trouble. Although small in stature, Slone is an explosive back and probably one of the top running backs in the state. To realize the explosiveness of Slone, one has to only look at his credentials last season. He rushed for 846 yards, averaging 6.7 yards per carry. Slone led the Tigers with 11 TD's.

Of course, Coach Roger Johnson's Trojans are not without their own offensive threat. Senior halfback Bobby Hood, at 5'9", 150 pounds, is a bona fide running threat for the Trojans.

Senior Chad Hall, 6'175, who had to miss the Fairview game, can go up the middle with power or sweep around the ends for long yardage. Sophomore halfback Steven Jackson, at a small 5'6", 148, makes up for his lack of size with speed. Jackson rushed for 72 yards in his team's opener against Elkhorn City. Adam Hall leads the Trojan defense.

Wheelwright is a young team and this could be a learning experience for a youthful squad. The Trojans are 0-2 on the year, while the Tigers stand at 1-1.

Player Spotlight

ALLEN CENTRAL REBELS
Junior halfback Tommy Gibson, 6'195, against Paintsville, rushed for 107 yards in his team's 49-14 loss; running back Mickey Parsons, 5'10", 180, ran for 105 yards against Paintsville.

BETSY LAYNE BOBCATS
Senior quarterback Craig Hunter, 5'10", 157, hit halfback Chris Bias with a 63-yard toss in his team's loss to the Magoffin County Hornets.

PRESTONSBURG BLACKCATS
Freshman quarterback Aaron Tucker, 6'1", 152, tossed two touchdown passes and ran for another against Bates Creek in the Blackcats 34-27 loss. Tucker passed for 276 yards in the game. He has passed for four TDs and run for two so far this season.

WHEELWRIGHT TROJANS
Sophomore Steven Jackson, 5'6", 148, rushed for 59 yards against Fairview last Friday night in the Trojans' 20-8 loss; senior quarterback Steven Johnson completed four of six pass attempts against Fairview for 76-yards; senior Bobby Hood, 5'9", 150, ran for 52 yards against Fairview.

Spud Fest Tennis Tournery Set Sept. 6-10

The First Annual Lawrence County Potato Festival Tennis Tournament, sponsored by the Louisa Junior Woman's Club and McDonald's of Paintsville, is slated for Sept. 6-10.

Tournament divisions are for men's A and B singles, men's A and B doubles, women's A and B singles, women's A and B doubles, mixed doubles, boys and girls 18 and under singles.

Entries must be received by 5 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 4. Entry fee checks should be made payable to the Louisa Junior Woman's Club and should be mailed to Terry Spradlin, P.O. Box 781, Louisa 41230.

All players are asked to provide one can of yellow Penn or Wilson Balls. Tennis balls for the competition finals will be provided.

team that will go to the air more this year than last and utilize the fullback position more.

The Blackcats are a tough defensive team and can look to freshman quarterback Aaron Tucker for yardage or call on their strong backfield to get the ground game going. Even though they had a dismal performance against Bates Creek last Friday, power runners Bill Tom Compton and Ryan Porter, teaming with speedster Aaron Flannery, have the potential to put together a good ground game. Tucker's favorite receivers, Jeff Slone and Mike Crace, will be at the tight end and flanker positions. After playing Bates Creek tough on their home field, the Blackcats' confidence has to be high.

Squirrel Season Runs From Sept. 2—Nov. 10

Squirrel season officially opens in Floyd County (Eastern Zone) on Sept. 2 and will run through Nov. 10. The hunt for the furry animal will open statewide on Nov. 21 and will run through Dec. 31.

There is a daily limit of six squirrels and a possession limit of 12.

P'Burg JVs Shutout By Golden Eagles, 20-0

by Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

Johnson Central's Golden Eagles' junior varsity football team got its season off to a good start with a 20-0 shutout of the Prestonsburg Blackcats JVs at the Prestonsburg field Monday evening.

Neither team was able to score in the first period of play. However, the Golden Eagles scored early in the second period. On fourth down, the Eagles faked a kick and ran the ball instead up to the Prestonsburg 2-yard line. Halfback Guthrey Preston ran the ball up the middle for a TD and a 6-0 Eagles lead. The extra point failed.

In the third period, Johnson Central threatened to score from the Prestonsburg 26 when James Derossett intercepted an Eagles pass on their own 20-yard line.

Johnson Central picked up a touchdown in the fourth quarter when Greg Hunter ran the ball into the Prestonsburg end zone to give the Golden Eagles a 12-0 lead. The extra point was no good.

On the kick off, the football bounced off the chest of a Blackcat player and Johnson Central recovered the ball. On first down, Hunter carried the ball 39-yards into Blackcat territory. With 1:34 to go in the game, Gary Senters scampered into the end zone for a TD. The Eagles scored on the two point conversion and the final score was 20-0.

Injury List

Following is a list of football players who are injured and out of action.

WHEELWRIGHT TROJANS
Shane McCoy, knee, out two to three weeks; James Branham, defensive lineman, torn ligaments, out two weeks.

Returning players: Chad Hall, halfback, burn, was out one week.
ALLEN CENTRAL REBELS
B. J. Aldrich, quarterback, broken nose, expects to play.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 1
244th Day, 121 To Go
Labor Day Weekend Celebration begins at Jenny Wiley State Resort Park; for details, call 886-2711. Also at Buckhorn Lake State Resort Park, 1-800-325-0058.
Be Kind To Editors and Writers Month.
Brazil Independence Week.
Cable TV Month.
Emma M. Nutt Day, honoring the first woman telephone operator.
Notable births: Labor leader Walter Reuther (1907-70); actress Yvonne DeCarlo, 65; singer Barry Gibb, 43; conductor Seiji Ozawa, 54; comedienne Lily Tomlin, 50; country singer Conway Twitty, 56.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 2
245th Day, 120 To Go
Calendar Adjustment Day. Time literally disappeared on this day in 1752 when the British Calendar Act went into effect. The "Gregorian Correction" proclaimed that the then-Wednesday, Sept. 2, would become Thursday, Sept. 14. Rioters demanded their 11 days back — to no avail. The act also established that New Year's Day would fall on Jan. 1, instead of March 25 as had been the case.

Notable births: Spaceliner Challenger victim Christie McAuliffe (1948-86); author/conservationist Cleveland Amory, 72; football player Terry Bradshaw, 41; tennis player Jimmy Connors, 37; football player Eric Dickerson, 29; actor Mark Harmon, 38; actress Linda Purl, 34.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 3
246th Day, 119 To Go
Treaty of Paris Anniversary. Treaty between US and Britain on this day in 1783 ended the American Revolution.

World War II officially began on this day in 1939 when the British formally declared war on Germany, following the German invasion of Poland.

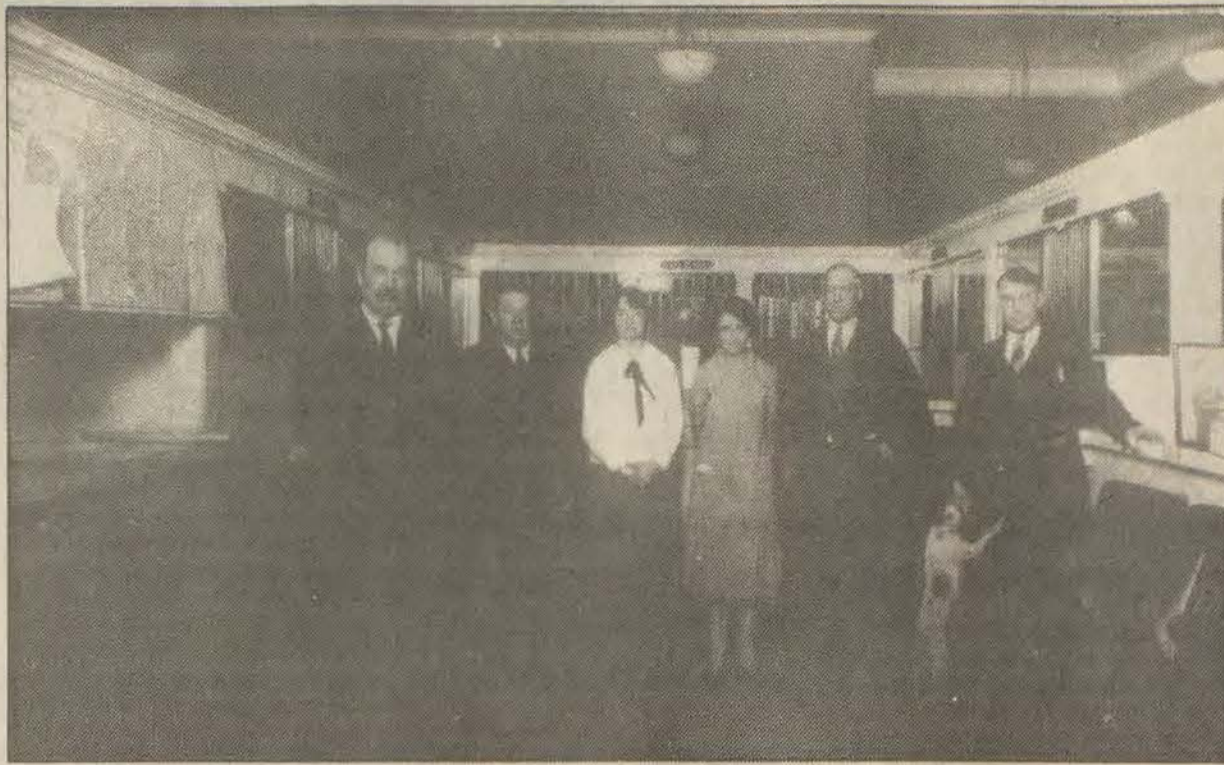

Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon of Muscular Dystrophy, through tomorrow.

Qatar Independence Day.
Notable births: Violin maker Nicolo Amati (1596-1684); actress Eileen Brennan, 52; actress/singer Kitty Carlisle, 74; actress Anne Jackson, 63; actress Irene Papas, 63; actress Valerie Perrine, 46; cartoonist Mort Walker, 66.

MONDAY, SEPT. 4
247th Day, 118 To Go
Labor Day, official national holiday since 1894.

Notable births: Los Angeles, Cal., 1781; author/editor Craig Claiborne, 69; actress Mitzl Gaynor, 58; broadcaster Paul Harvey, 71; golfer Tom Watson, 40.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 5
248th Day, 117 To Go
Be Late For Something Day.
Notable births: Marketing expert Arthur Charles Nielsen of the Nielsen Ratings (1897-1980); composer John Cage, 77; actor William Devane, 50; football player Willie Gault, 29; cartoonist Cathy Guisewite, 39; comedian Bob Newhart, 60; actress Raquel Welch, 47.

LGW Club Promotes Education, Improvement; Sponsors Projects

The GFWC/KFWC Lackey-Garrett-Wayland Woman's Club was organized at Lackey in 1926 as a mothers' club, and was federated in 1934 as the Lackey-Garrett Woman's Club.

Later, as its membership spread to points between the communities of Lackey and Garrett and beyond to Wayland, the name was changed to what it is today. The GFWC/KFWC preceding its name signifies the club as a part of the Kentucky Federation and General Federation of Women's Clubs, which celebrated its 50th anniversary the same year the nation celebrated its bicentennial.

The club's purpose is to unite women for self-improvement and for the promotion of education, civic improvement, moral values and the arts. The club presently has 19 members who met once a month in each members' homes. At one time, the organization had 50 members before the exodus of so many of the area population when the Elk Horn Coal Corporation shut down.

Some of the club's projects during the years have been sponsorship of bloodmobile and x-ray mobile units when in the area; collection of clothing and food for the needy; active participation in the Floyd County Bookmobile; sponsorship of classes in civil defense, driver refresher courses and CPR; clean-up campaigns; student essays; art, music and sewing contests. Also, club members bake cupcakes each Valentine's Day for the Golden Years Rest Home patients at Lackey.

The club has contributed through the years to both Prestonsburg Community and Alice Lloyd colleges, and in the past to Pikeville College; given an annual award of $100 to a graduating senior at Allen Central High School, based on scholarship and citizenship; purchased and placed safety signs at both Wayland and Garrett Elementary Schools; bought flags and poles for area communities; helped in the purchase of a fire truck for the area volunteer fire departments, with smaller contributions to Care, heart, arthritis, cancer, kidney disease, Red Cross and veterans organizations, and they have often worked in these drives, especially gathering and shipping paper back books to veteran's hospitals. The members have also contributed to Allen Central's Learning Disabilities Program, and sends a child each year to 4-H Camp and child cancer patient to Camp Indian Summer.

The year the club raised $2,500 for a fire truck, using this as a Community Improvement Project, its annual report won third place. The club continues to contribute every year to the Wayland and Garrett fire departments. The son of one of the club members won three consecutive years in the district art contest for high school students and went on to win top honors in the state the third year. Also, this year two area high school students representing the club won top honors in the state art contest in different media. The club received a plaque for its participation in the various drives. During years when skits were used as reporting methods, the club was always in the top three. Written reports have also won awards.

Money making projects have consisted of rummage sales, making and selling quilts (in the past), flower orders for a percentage from a local flower shop, sale of pecans and small gift items, as well as greeting cards. The club also uses its interest income from the sale of its clubhouse to supplement money needed to carry on its "Good Deeds" programs.

The club meets once a month and usually has a guest speaker following a brief devotional period. During the year various social events are held sometimes including husbands and guests.

Current officers are Jo Ann Hall, president; Marsella Bradley, vice president; LaFaye Hughes, treasurer; Vera Allen, recording secretary; Libby Martin, corresponding secretary and publicity chairperson; and Marie Mullins, parliamentarian.

Sunday School Starts At St. James

A kick-off breakfast for the St. James Episcopal Church 1989-90 Sunday School was held in the Agape House on Aug. 27.

St. James is located on University Drive, where the Rev. Doc Whittaker is rector. Sunday School will begin Sunday, Sept. 10, at 10 a.m. and everyone is welcome.

Homecoming Singing Sept. 3

Martin Branch Freewill Baptist Church will hold its homecoming on Sunday, Sept. 3, featuring special singers Kenny Salyers and the Sounds of Rachel, The Gospel Harvesters and The Gospel Lights.

All members of the church are invited, as well as guests.

Baby Bailey

Tim and Teresa Johnson Bailey of Bypro announce the birth of a daughter, Bianca Brooke Bailey, born Wednesday, Aug. 9 at Our Lady of the Way Hospital in Martin. She weighed 7 pounds, 14 ounces, and was 21 inches long. Her grandparents are Milton and Verna Johnson of Price and Paul and Lavon Bailey of Bypro. She has one sister, Terri Brittany Bailey.

There's Lots To See In Eastern Kentucky

by Charla Jane Hylton
Kentucky Tourism Cabinet

Where can you hike mountain trails, delve into an all-but-forgotten American culture and come home with authentic works of art?

Only in the hills of Eastern Kentucky, where one finds Appalachian heritage and southern hospitality.

Jenny Wiley State Resort Park in Prestonsburg provides a home base, a variety of park activities and of course, the theater. Set snugly in the mountains, this is the only outdoor stage in the nation where, in season, you can see four plays in four days.

First stop for day-trips is the Hindman Settlement School at the Forks of Troublesome Creek in Hindman. Mike Mullins, the school's director, will introduce visitors to the school with a video history. The story of the school's funding and development is a glance at the unconquerable spirit of Kentucky's early settlers.

From Sol Everage, who walked from Troublesome Creek to Hazard in order to convince May Stone and Katherine Pettit to come teach in Hindman, to James Still, "the original bookmobile" and current writer-in-residence, the school has inspired commitment from those who have become involved with its programs. The school also has a history of tremendous community support, having twice burned and been rebuilt by the townspeople.

The school's modern goal to preserve the area's rich folk heritage is born of the same determination that built the school. Festivals and workshops intersperse with regular classes, adult education, early childhood development and a program for children with dyslexic tendencies. Special events are open to the public and celebrate traditional ways of life. Two of the most popular are the Appalachian Family Folk Week, held in June, and the Appalachian Writers Workshop, held in early August. Family Folk Week is a chance to learn about traditional mountain songs, dancing music, storytelling and crafts. Beginners are welcome. The writers workshop brings in writers from all around Appalachia to lead sessions in various writing styles.

There are also exhibits celebrating folk art. Recently showing were quilts made by Verna Mae Stone, filling the walls of the May Stone building. She also wrote the colorful descriptions of the quilts which explain the patterns and their origins.

"Making a quilt is a lot like living," her introduction begins, "when we are born we are given a bundle of scraps; the way we put them together is left up to us. We must have a few dark and shoddy pieces before the bright and pretty ones will look nice."

A visit can be rounded out by tours of the settlement building and hiking on several marked trails. Be sure to wear sturdy hiking boots and long pants if you plan to hit the trails.

The next day's trip is to Appalshop, in Whitesburg. This arts and education center is also devoted to preserving the culture and heritage of Eastern Kentucky. Visitors can expect a tour of the facilities which outlines the history of the center, as well as art exhibits and film screening. Festivals delving into traditional Appalachian music and folklore mix with festivals promoting cultural exchange.

Appalshop also has a theater ensemble, Roadside Theater, which performs throughout the United States and has been featured at European festivals.

Taken together, Appalshop and the Hindman Settlement School offer an informative view of Appalachia — but no visit to the mountains would be complete without a handcrafted souvenir. Some traditional crafts can be found in the Jenny Wiley gift shop, but the short drive to David Appalachian Crafts is worth the trip. Quilts, split oak baskets and woodcrafts are among the locally made works of art.

41st Anniversary

Ted and Alberta Shannon of Drift will celebrate their 41st wedding anniversary, Sunday, Sept. 3. He has been the pastor at Drift Pentecostal Church for 39 years.

Floyd County Families: Our Heritage

(Editor's Note: For the next few months, the Friday edition of The Times will run excerpts from former resident Billy D. Meade's book in progress, The Meade Family and Descendants. The Times welcomes genealogical research on other Floyd County families.)

Most of the Meads of Loudoun, Bedford, and other counties of Virginia are descended from one (#A) Richard Mead, of Mursley, Buckinghamshire, England, by his wife Joane, through his second son, (#B) the Rev. Matthew Mead of Stepney. Matthew was born in 1629 at Leighton Buzzard, Bedfordshire, England, died Oct. 16, 1699, and is buried in Stepney. Matthew married Elizabeth Walton in 1654 in the St. Mary Woolnoth Church in London, England.

The Rev. Mead (#B) was a prominent clergyman of the Church of England and a man of very liberal views. He was ejected from his charge for nonconformity in 1662. He seems to have been implicated in the House of Rye conspiracy and was imprisoned for some time. He was later set free by the king.

The Rev. Mead had 15 children. From christening records at Bull Lane Independent Church in Stepney come some of the names: (#1) William Mead, born Jan. 8, 1658, died 1716; (#1-A) Rebecca Mead, born Oct. 1, 1660; (#1-B) Richard Mead, born Aug. 22, 1673; (#1-C) James Mead, May 30, 1675; (#1-D) Elizabeth Mead, Feb. 10, 1679; (#1-E) Nathaniel Mead.

William (#1) married, and some of his children were: (#2) John Mead; (2-A) William Mead; (2-B) Robert Mead; (2-C) Samuel Mead; (2-D) Pleasant Mead, and (2-E) Sarah Mead.

The younger William (Jr. perhaps), born around 1700, married Ellen Worrell in Bucks County, Pa., and moved to Bedford County in 1746 (Fairfax County, Va.). Among his children was Mary Mead, who first married Moses Rhodes and then John Brown. Mary's daughter Hannah Rhodes married a Robert Mead (#3).

Our chief concern from here is with the line of (#2) John Mead, for it was through him that the Meade family of the Big Sandy Valley area of Eastern Kentucky is descended. John was born around 1693 in Cecil County, Md. He was married on March 2, 1726, in Bucks County to Mary Abrell, the daughter of Richard Abrell (Abrahall) of Cecil County.

John and his wife were Quakers and in order to marry, certain requirements were made. One was "that the young man is desired to bring a certificate of his conversation and clearness."

The couple and John's brother Samuel moved to that part of Prince William County, Va., that later became Loudoun County in 1746. He died there in 1754 and is buried in the Mead family graveyard near New London in Bedford County, Va. His name appeared in 1741 on the poll list of those voting for members of the House of Burgesses in Prince William County.

While John was a landowner, his vocation was carpenter, as was that of his son William.

John and Mary's known children were (#3) Robert Mead, 1750-1825;

(3-A) Abrell Mead, ?; (#4) William Mead, 1725-1805.

Robert (#3) was born in Bedford County, Va., and died at the present site of Harold in Floyd County. He married Hanna Rhodes, a distant cousin, in Bedford County on Dec. 30, 1769.

He dealt in real estate from 1785 to 1801, when he came to Floyd County. His lands lay on Goose Creek or its tributaries in Bedford County. He had bought 1,600 acres from his brother William for 16,000 pounds of tobacco. Near the end of the century, he began to sell his vast acreage, evidently for the purpose of moving to Kentucky. He had earlier ventured into the eastern part of Kentucky and evidently saw promise in the new land.

Robert moved to Big Mud Creek, where, tradition says, he brought his slaves to do preliminary work to establish a plantation before bringing his family to the area. The Pike County Historical Papers, Number Five, states that Robert Mead in the 1810 Floyd County census had nine free "colored" workers and 14 slaves at his residence. The 1820 census by Norva and Norman Dixon shows Robert with 14 slaves.

The first order of court referring to Robert Mead was in 1810, when he was appointed as surveyor of a road from Graham's Shoals to the gap of Mud Creek. Ordered to help him were two sons, Robert Mead Jr. (#6) and Rhodes Mead (#7); Jacob Slusher, Ichabod McBrayer, Robert Toler, John Casebolt, and Christopher Toler. The latter, from whom Toler Creek gets its name, had married Robert's daughter Edy Mead.

Robert Mead died in 1825 without a will of record, and at a February term of court, a son-in-law Jonathan Akers was qualified as administrator. His sureties were Solomon Akers, another son-in-law, and Thomas Owens, a close friend.

After Robert's death, his sons began to move on to their own choices of the great new lands that lay waiting for those that had the courage and foresight to venture forth and claim them. Some sons stopped in present Johnson County and others went to the banks of the Ohio River. It was a restless day and the urge of the people was westward. (Part of the above extracted from Henry Scalp's TEK)

Robert and Hanna Rhodes Mead's known children were: (3-5) Benjamin Mead, 1772-1821, married Elizabeth Brown in 1796; (3-6) Robert Mead Jr., born 1778; (3-7) Rhodes Mead, 1780-1843, married Priscilla Newlon; (3-8) Moses Mead, 1788-1864, married Polly Hackworth in 1823; (3-8A) William Mead, born around 1775 in Bedford County, Va.; (3-9) Samuel Mead, born 1776, married Katy Goodbread in Bedford County, Va.; (3-10) Eli Mead, born 1786, married Siller "Priscilla" Akers; (3-11) Kate "Keete" Mead, born 1782, married Jonathan Akers May 19, 1812; (3-12) Edy Mead, born 1774, married Christopher Toler, Jan. 15, 1801, in Bedford County; (3-13) Matilda Mead, born 1791, married Solomon Akers Jr. in 1812 in Floyd County.

Next week: Robert Mead's brother William and Robert's children.

METHODIST WOMEN HOST SPIRITUAL RETREAT
The Ashland District United Methodist Women's Spiritual Retreat was held at May Lodge, Jenny Wiley State Park, Aug. 25-26.

The program leader was Linda Young, wife of the Rev. Ron Young, who serves as pastor of the Park United Methodist Church in Lexington. Mrs. Young taught Church school classes for many years, and has served as president of the Kentucky Conference of United Methodist Women.

The theme of the program was "God's eye is on the sparrow."

Special music was furnished by Billie Jean Osborne of Betsy Layne, who led the group in singing several hymns.

The retreat was attended by approximately 200 women, representing most of the churches in the Ashland district. A meal was eaten at the lodge restaurant.

Attending from Prestonsburg First United Methodist Church were Fannie Runnels, Alice Harris, Rose Glenn, Elizabeth Ramey, Becky Scholtz, Hope Whitten and Mabel Jean LeMaster.

COLLINS, STAPLETON RETURN FROM LEXINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Gorman Collins Sr. of Prestonsburg and Georgia Stapleton of Estill have returned from Lexington, where they spent a few days visiting with relatives, including Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Collins, Mr. and Mrs. George Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vaughn. They also spent some time with the Collins' daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Patterson, and their son in Versailles.

REUNION GUESTS

Among the persons from a distance who attended the Baldrige-Harmon-Conley reunion at Dewey Lake recently were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Osborne of Bevinville; Mr. and Mrs. John Calder, Nina Cotter and her two children, Joy and Stephanie Cotter, of Indianapolis, Ind.; Martha Christine Shepherd and several members of her family, including her mother-in-law, of Lexington; and Alvin Osborne of Louisville.

LUNCH GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. George Brown had as their luncheon guests at their home on Third Avenue this past Sunday their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Preston of Ashland, and Mr. and Mrs. George Cecil Brown of Rice Branch.

RETIRED TEACHERS MEETING

Floyd County Retired Teachers are reminded of the luncheon-meeting at May Lodge, Tuesday, Sept. 5 at 10

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION MEETINGS HELD

Attending the Baptist Annual Enterprise Associational dinner meeting, at the Garrett Baptist Church on Friday evening, Aug. 25, were the Rev. and Mrs. Steve Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Foy, Ruby Garrett, Lucy Regan, Myrtle Allen, Dixie Neeley and the Rev. and Mrs. Jim Smith.

Attending the association's luncheon meeting at the First Baptist Church in Paintsville on the following day were this same group minus Myrtle Allen, and Peggy Carter, the Rev. and Mrs. Hopkins and their two daughters, Rachel and Charissa.

WEBBS RETURN

Mrs. J.O. Webb Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. J.O. Webb Jr. have returned to their homes here after spending a few days visiting with relatives in Maryland. Mrs. Webb Sr., who has been ill for some time, is showing some improvement.

WALKER FAMILY VISITS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Walker and sons, Garrett and Stephen, were guests of Mrs. Walker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Camden Garrett, here recently. They all attended services at the First Baptist Church, and later joined in the celebration of Mr. Garrett's birthday, at the Garrett's home, near here.

CONLEY PASSES AWAY

Lawrence Aaron Conley, formerly of Floyd County, who with his family moved several years ago to Silver Lake, Ind., died recently in a veteran's hospital near there.

Born on Feb. 13, 1923, on the Conley Fork of Abbott Creek, he was the son of the late Johnnie and Lona Baldrige Conley. His grandparents were the late Rev. Henry and Lou Whitaker Baldrige and the late Ben and Polly Ann Hackworth Conley, all of Abbott.

He served for several years in the U.S. Navy.

Survivors include a sister, Lucille Hackworth, and two brothers, John and Ray Conley, all of Silver Lake.

Burial was beside his parents in Silver Lake.

HOMEMAKERS ANNUAL LUNCHEON SEPT. 29

Frances Pitts, Floyd County home economist, has announced that the countywide homemakers' annual luncheon meeting will be held on Friday, Sept. 29, beginning at 10:30 a.m. at the First United Methodist Church, here.

Good food and fellowship and interesting programs are always the "order of the day" at these annual county luncheon meetings, and the dispersal of floral arrangements, furnished by the various homemakers clubs, usually winds up this event.

ROBERTS PATIENT AT HRMC

May K. Roberts is a patient at the Highlands Regional Medical Center. Roberts, who taught for many years in the Prestonsburg High School, served for eight years after her retirement as president of the Floyd County Retired Teacher's Association, of which she is a charter member, and remained one of the most active members of this organization until her recent illness.

Her daughter and son-in-law, Atty. and Mrs. William J. Baird II, and family and other relatives and friends have been with her since her hospitalization.

PICNIC GUESTS

Eva Collins of Prestonsburg and Laura Ratliff of Allen were guests of Mrs. Orville Duff and Louise West at a picnic sponsored by the KFWC/GFWC Lackey-Garrett-Wayland Woman's Club and held at the Duff home recently.

ANNIE ALLEN CIRCLE TO MEET SEPT. 11

The Annie Allen Circle of the WMU of the First Baptist Church will meet with the group's president Ruby Garrett, at her home on Monday evening, Sept. 11, at 7 p.m.

Garrett says that officers for the year 1989-90 are to be installed, and she extends an invitation to all to attend.

VISIT FAMILY IN LEXINGTON

Mrs. Joe Osborne of Bevinville, accompanied by her daughter and son-in-law, Janet and Ervin Pack and sons, Tim and David, went to Louisville recently where they were joined by members of their family for a few days.

These included Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fletcher of Tucson, Ariz., Mr. and Mrs. John Calders, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cotter, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Akers, Ruby Joyce Osborne, and Alvin Osborne, all of Louisville.

From there they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher to Lexington where they visited with other relatives, including Donna Jo Conway, Nawonie Conley and her daughters Ruth and Rose. Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher also spent some time while in Lexington visiting with his parents and attending the 50 year reunion at Lafayette High School.

COLLINS VISITS

Malaree Collins of Lexington was in town last week for a visit with her father Gorman Collins Jr., Mrs. Collins and their daughter Hallee.

OSBORNE VISITS PARENTS

Vonda Osborne of New Orleans, La., spent some time recently with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Osborne and other relatives at Bevinville.

Hall Awarded Music Scholarship

A Floyd County resident was among more than 40 students receiving scholarships in music offered by Eastern Kentucky University this semester.

Beth Hall of Prestonsburg received the award.

"We are extremely proud of these students," said Dr. John Roberts, chairman of the ECU Department of Music.

"They've shown excellence in musicianship and in academic performance overall. We're glad they've chosen to come to ECU to study music."

Students select an instrument to specialize in, such as piano, voice, or other instrument, and in addition study a broad range of musical and liberal arts courses.

Roberts noted that ECU offers a wide selection of degree options in music at both the bachelor's and master's degree levels.

Students at ECU may choose from a wide variety of financial aid programs. Nearly 70 percent of ECU's more than 14,000 students receive some form of financial assistance.

Eastern Kentucky University offers programs on its 350-acre Richmond campus and throughout its 22-county service region and beyond.

For more information about music studies at ECU, contact the music office at 322-3266.

PCC To Offer ACT Prep Class

A four-session preparation class for the American College Test (ACT), required for admission to many colleges and universities, will be offered by Prestonsburg Community College, Sept. 11-14.

The sessions, set for 4 to 6 p.m., are planned for high school and college students who plan to take the ACT this year.

The class will include an overview of the test and what it entails, tips on taking standardized tests and refresher instruction in subjects covered by the test, English, mathematics, science and the social sciences.

For registration information, call PCC's office for continuing education and community services at 886-3863, ext. 278.

Don't Forget!

The deadline for Friday's society section is 5 p.m. Wednesday; the deadline for society news in Wednesday's paper remains 10 a.m. Monday.

Correction

Due to an editorial error in the wedding announcement of Tia Music and John Anderson, Aug. 30 issue, the name of the best man was listed as Roberta, his name is Robert Anderson, and the couple honeymooned at Grand Cayman not the Grand Canyon. The Times regrets this error.

Jack And The Tomato Stalk?

Nick Morris of Van Lear shows off this red, ripe tomato which grew on this 8-foot 9-inch tomato plant. Next to that plant is a cherry tomato plant which is over six feet tall. Morris said he has had to add three different stakes to his plants and "they just keep growing."

Council Deadlines Announced

The Kentucky Arts Council recently announced deadlines for 1989 grants to support and develop the arts in Kentucky communities.

Applications are being accepted for Arts Development, New Communities and Teacher Incentive Project grants. All applications must be postmarked no later than Oct. 16, according to Susan Zimmerman, representative for the council.

According to Zimmerman, Arts Development Grants support arts organizations' overall programs and services; New Communities Grants are available to groups in communities with little or no existing arts activity; and Teacher Incentive Project Grants are designed for teachers to develop artist-in-residence programs in their classrooms on a short-term basis.

Those interested in information on initiating new arts events in their communities or helping further existing arts programming are encouraged to contact the Council for guidelines. Staff is available to advise on organizing new arts groups, program planning and grant preparation.

RE: APPLICATION FOR PHASE II BOND RELEASE

Blackhawk Mining Company Permit No. 436-5051 (Cline Branch No. 4) Issued July 19, 1988

In accordance with the provisions of KRS 350, this letter serves to notify you that Blackhawk Mining Company is applying for a Phase II Bond Release on the above referenced permit. The current bond amount, issued in the form of Letter of Credit No. 634, is $11,400.00. Reclamation work was performed and seeding of disturbed areas. In 1989 and coincident with our application for a Phase II Bond Release, one non-permanent impoundment will be removed and the disturbed areas graded and seeded. We believe that this reclamation work satisfies all requirements for a Phase II Bond Release. The permit and bond release application covers an area of approximately 8.87 acres located approximately 2 miles southeast of Ky. Rt. 3 and Rt. 1428 at Lancer. The latitude is 37° 39' 32" and the longitude is 82° 42' 50".

As part of the bond release procedure, you and/or your representative have the right to:

(1) Submit to the Cabinet written comments and objections, request a public hearing and participate in the inspection. Comments and requests should be sent to the following before October 25, 1989: Commonwealth of Kentucky, Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet, Department of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement, 502 South Lake Drive, Prestonsburg, Kentucky 41653.

(2) Participate in a hearing, which has been scheduled for 1:00 p.m. on October 25, 1989 at the Cabinet's offices located at 502 South Lake Drive, Prestonsburg, Kentucky. This scheduled public hearing shall be cancelled if the cabinet does not receive a request for the public hearing by the closing date for requests for a hearing.

If we can be of assistance in answering any questions you may have, please contact us at 606-223-7959. 9-1-4tF.

BLASTING SCHEDULE

This is notice that Richardson Fuel, Inc.; General Delivery, Richardson, Ky. 41253, (606) 874-9241, Permit Application 836-0212, will be blasting at Northern at latitude 37° 30' 30" and longitude 82° 49' 50". Blasting will be done daily between the hours of 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.; 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m.; 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.; and 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. No blasting will be conducted before sunrise or after sunset. At least ten minutes before the blast, access will be controlled by Company personnel. Before each blast is detonated the following type(s) of audible warning will be given: Three short blasts of an airhorn or siren. The all-clear signal(s) after blasting will be: One long blast of an airhorn or siren. Blasting will not be conducted at times different from those given above except in emergency situations where rain, lightning, other atmospheric conditions, or operator or public safety requires unscheduled detonation. Prior to these detonations, the following audible alarm will be given: One short blast of an airhorn or siren. Also prior to these detonations, oral notices will be given to persons within one-half mile of the blasting site.

HOROSCOPE

September 3 through September 9

VIRGO (August 23 - September 22)
 You will be surrounded by friends and family; most likely you will be the center of attention in any group. A comfortable outing with a friend is in the picture.

LIBRA (September 23 - October 22)
 Your career will be spotlighted this week. Take a chance when asked to help with a special project. You may need to postpone an upcoming vacation.

SCORPIO (October 23 - November 21)
 You will be inspired to change a major part of your life this week. This will probably take place after meeting a certain person.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 - December 21)
 You need to make some long-term goals. By planning now, you will have enough funds for a special event that is to take place soon. Your lucky number is 5.

CAPRICORN (December 22 - January 19)
 Take a hard look at your relationships with loved ones and appreciate what you have. You also need to show your gratitude to those concerned.

AQUARIUS (January 20 - February 18)
 Don't let other people run the show this week. Stand up and take charge. You will be recognized for a great achievement this week.

PISCES (February 19 - March 20)
 This is a time for reminiscing. Family members and friends are needed for support. Share your ideas freely with them. Your conscience is very active now.

ARIES (March 21 - April 19)
 This will be a great week for mending emotional fences with family members. Avoid being around gloomy people. Your lucky number is 4.

TAURUS (April 20 - May 20)
 A neighbor could introduce you to someone special this week. The someone special will share your interest in a specific hobby and/or topic of conversation.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20)
 You will be in the spotlight at work this week. Make sure to check details carefully and you will be rewarded for your outstanding endeavors.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22)
 Don't be too hard on yourself this week. Nobody is perfect, but you can't seem to remember that. Take time to rest and relax; you deserve it.

LEO (July 23 - August 22)
 The clever Leo will find interesting ways to keep the home fires burning this week. Discussing your future with a friend brings about a strange turn of events.

Jerry Lewis gives his all in annual MDA telethon

Performers shine at Labor Day show

By Mary Ann Townsend

Like he has for the past 23 years, Jerry Lewis will help raise funds for the Muscular Dystrophy Association in the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon to air from 9 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 3, to 6:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 4, on a "Love Network" of more than 200 stations coast to coast.

The show will originate from the Jerry Lewis Theatre Cashman Field Center in Las Vegas, and will feature a variety of entertainers who not only perform, but also help Lewis by hosting the event.

With help from Ed McMahon, Sammy Davis Jr., Casey Kasem, Tony Orlando and Julius LaRose as well as dozens of other show business favorites, Lewis will attempt to top last year's pledges.

The telethon was inaugurated in 1966 when it was broadcast by only one station in New York City. That initial show was the first televised fund-raising event of its kind to raise more than $1 million in pledges.

In the 17 years in which the A.C. Nielsen Company has been measuring the viewership of the Jerry Lewis MDA Labor Day Telethon, the viewing levels for the show have grown by more than 50 percent. According to the Niensens, the 1988 telethon was viewed by more than 90 million people.

Money raised during the show helps the association carry on its fight against 40 neuromuscular diseases by supporting basic and applied research, a comprehensive program of medical services for patients and their families, and far-reaching professional and public education.

One of the most recent major discoveries about the disease happened late in 1987, when a research team identified the crucial protein—dystrophin—that is missing in boys with the fatal Duchenne muscular dystrophy. The discovery has helped scientists understand the cause of the once-mysterious disease.

In addition to serving as the telethon's host, Jerry Lewis is MDA's No. 1 volunteer.

His commitment to the cause remains firm. "Each man must choose the cause closest to his heart, and I've chosen mine," the performer said.

What keeps him fighting for a cure for MD is seeing the disease's affects, especially on children, who have affectionately become known as Jerry's Kids.

Each year, the association selects a child afflicted with a neuromuscular disease to represent the organization's efforts on promotional posters. This year's Poster Child is 6-year-old Ashley Nichole Antolak. Ashley has intermediate spinal muscular atrophy, a condition diagnosed when she was 3 years old. Ashley, her parents, Robert and Donna, and her 9-year-old brother, Anthony live in Athens, Tenn.

TV Q&A

Julia Duffy started out in realm of daytime drama

By Polly Vonetes

Q: For some time I have been trying to remember the name of the TV series that Kim Bassinger played in. It seems like she and a guy were private detectives and I believe she drove a Volkswagen. Also the girl who plays Stephanie on the Newhart show. I can't place her, but I have seen her play in something else. Can you give me information on her previous roles? You have no idea how these questions have been bugging me. —Thanks, Julie Breaux, Watson, La.

A: Kim Bassinger and Lou Antonio starred in the 1977 ABC series Dog and Cat. Antonio played Det. Sgt. Jack Ramsey and Bassinger played rookie Officer J.Z. Kane. The series ran for two months. Julia Duffy's first role on television was as Jerry on Love of Life for six months. She was then cast as Penny on The Doctors, a role she performed for four years. Her first series role on primetime television was in Wizards and Warriors as Princess Ariel. She also starred as Mary Hale in the miniseries The Blue and the Gray.

Q: I recently watched a rerun of The Planet of the Apes. It appears that one of the professors was actor Victor Newman of The Young and the Restless, can this be so? —T. Johnson, Billings, Mt.

A: Eric Braeden, who stars as Victor Newman on The Young and the Restless, lists Escape from the Planet of the Apes in his credits. There is no mention of The Planet of the Apes. Are you sure of the movie?

Q: Was Spider-Man ever a series starring Nicholas Hammond or were they just several movies? If so how many? And also has there ever been a movie or series entitled Lockjaw starring any member of the Carridine clan? —Darren Wolbers, Monmouth, Ill.

A: Spider-Man, starring Nicholas Hammond, was a 90-minute pilot film for the series The Amazing Spider-Man. The series aired a total of 12 60-minute episodes on CBS from April '78 to July '79. The Carridine clan has starred in everything from Boxcar Bertha to Massacre at Central High, but I see nothing titled Lockjaw in their credits.

Q: I am not getting the early show of Wheel of Fortune and am wondering if Rolf is still host? Rolf took Pat Sajak's place. —Blandena Reeves, Anchorage, Alaska

A: Bob Goen replaced Rolf Benirschke as host of Wheel of Fortune on July 17, 1989, when it premiered on the CBS daytime schedule.

AT A GLANCE

CBS is the powerhouse of programming this week.

The U.S. Open Tennis tournament dominates the tube this week with more than 24 hours of coverage slated on Sunday, Monday, Friday and Saturday mornings and afternoons.

Blake Edwards' That's Life, a dramatic comedy about an older couple worrying about their age and health, airs Sunday, Sept. 3, on CBS. Julie Andrews and Jack Lemmon star.

On Monday, CBS offers glimpses of two new comedy series. Starting Now stars Ricki Lake as an aspiring actress working as a "gofer" for a children's show. The other series, Julie Brown: The Show, features the entertainer in her own program.
