§ 21. The Board shall keep an accurate account of the money paid in premiums by each of the several classes of occupations or industries and the disbursements on account of injuries and deaths of employes thereof and the disbursements for salaries and expenses, and it shall also keep an account of the money received from each individual employer, and the amount disbursed from the Workmen's Compensation Fund on account of injuries and death of the employes of such employers should any money remain to the credit of any class, at the end of any year, after disbursements on account of deaths of and injuries to employes of that class during such year, such remainder not exceeding ten per cent of the money paid into said fund on account of such class shall be set aside for the creation of a surplus, until the surplus shall be sufficiently large to guarantee a Workmen's Compensation Fund for such class. But claims for the benefits under this Act shall always have priority over the surplus fund.

§ 22. On the first day of July, 1915, and semi-annually thereafter, a readjustment of the rates shall be made for each of the several classes of occupation or industry, which in the judgment of the Board, have developed an average loss ratio in accordance with the experience of the Board in the administration of law, as shown by the accounts kept, as provided herein.

§ 23. § 24. The State Treasurer shall give a separate and additional bond, in such amount as may be fixed by the Governor with sureties to be approved by him conditioned on the faithful performance of his duties as custodian of the Workmen's Compensation Fund.

same manner and subject to all provisions of law with respect to the deposit of State funds by such Treasurer, and all interest earned by such portion of the Workmen's Compensation Fund as may be deposited by said Treasurer, in pursuance of authority herein given, shall be collected by him and placed to the credit of such fund.

§ 26. The Workmen's Compensation Board shall have the power to invest any surplus or reserve belonging to the Workmen's Compensation Fund, in bonds of the United States, State of Kentucky, or of any county, city, school district or taxing district of the State of Kentucky, at current market prices for such bonds, provided that such purchase be authorized by a resolution adopted by the Board and approved by the Governor.

§ 27. Every employer subject to this Act who shall elect to pay into said Workmen's Compensation Fund and receive the benefit of this Act, shall, on or before the 1st day of January, 1915, and monthly thereafter in advance, and on or before the 10th day of each month beginning March 10th, 1915, pay into said Workmen's Compensation Fund the amount of premiums so paid by each employer to be determined by the classification, rules and rates made and prepared by the Board, and a receipt or certificate, certifying that such payment has been made, shall immediately be mailed to such employer by the Workmen's Compensation Board, which receipt or certificate, attested by the seal of the Board shall be prima facie evidence of the payment of such premium.

§ 28. In order to create a fund available on the application of this Act as aforesaid on the first day of January, 1915, the payments for the months of January, February and March, 1915, inclusive shall be made on or before the first day of January, 1915, and be preliminarily based upon the pay roll of the operations of any three months between July, 1914, and January, 1915, to be selected by the said Board. If any employer be found to have overpaid for such three months, he may deduct such over payment from the first monthly payment made to the fund. If any employer be found to have underpaid for such three months, he shall pay the deficiency made by him after the end of said three months. Every employer electing to pay into said Workmen's Compensation Fund after January 1, 1915, shall pay into said fund three months in advance the amount of premium to be based preliminarily upon such employers' pay roll for the three months preceding the application; any over payment to be credited on his first monthly payment after the expiration of said three months and any under payment to be made up by him upon his first monthly payment as hereinbefore provided with respect to employers who elect to pay into said fund on or before January 1st, 1915; and the Board shall make proper rules and regulations to carry this provision into effect and for cases where the employer has had no pay roll preceding his application.

§ 29. It shall be lawful for any employe subject to this Act, including persons under twenty-one years of age to contract with any employer subject to this Act who elects to pay the premiums herein provided to be paid into said Workmen's Compensation Fund, to accept the compensation provided to be paid to injured employes and the dependents of those killed, and to accept the benefits conferred on employes by this Act, in lieu of any cause of action which he might have, if injured, or that his representative might have if he was thereafter killed through the negligence of such employer, or the negligence of his agents, servants, officers or employes, and to waive all causes of action against such employer conferred by the Constitution or Statutes of this State or by the common law for his injury or death, occurring through the negligence of the employer or his agents and such contract shall be binding upon the employer and upon the employe and upon his heirs, personal representatives and all persons claiming under or through him.

§ 30. Such a contract between an employe and his employer shall be conclusively presumed to have been made in every case where an employer has elected to pay into the Workmen's Compensation Fund, if said employe shall continue to work for said employer thereafter, with notice that the employer has elected to pay into said fund and the posting of printed or typewritten notices in conspicuous places about the employer's place of business at the time of the elections of such employer to pay into the Workmen's Compensation Fund that he has elected to pay into said Workmens' Compensation Fund shall constitute sufficient notice to all such employer's employes then or thereafter employed of the fact that he has made such an election, and the continuance in the service of such employers shall be deemed a waiver by the employe of his rights of action, as aforesaid. Except as provided in Section 32.

§ 31. Any employer subject to this Act, electing to pay into the Workmen's Compensation Fund, the premiums provided for by this Act, shall not be liable to respond in damages at common law or by statute for the injury or death or loss of service of any employe occurring through the negligence of such employer, or his agent, servants, officers, or employes, during any period of time in which such employer shall not be in default in the payment of such premiums. Provided, that the injured employe has remained in his service after notice is posted as provided in Section 31, that his employer has elected to pay into the Workmen's Compensation Fund the premiums provided by this Act. The continuance in the service of such employer or accepting service after such notice shall have been posted, shall be deemed a waiver by the employe of his rights of action, as aforesaid. Except as in Section 32.

§ 32. Any employe prior to receiving an injury may give notice to an employer who has elected to pay into said fund, that he will not accept the benefits of this Act and waive his right of action as herein provided. Such notice shall be in writing and served on the employer as provided by the Civil Code for the service of notices, and a copy thereof shall be mailed by the employe to the Workmen's Compensation Board. If thereafter such employe shall be injured or killed while employed by such employer who has elected to pay into the said Workmen's Compensation Fund, and an action shall be instituted against such employer to recover damages for the injury or death of such employe, it shall be sufficient defense thereto and shall bar recovery if the injury of said employe was caused by or contributed to by the negligence of any other employe of said employer, or if the injury was due to any of the ordinary hazards, or risks of the employment, or if due to any defect in the tools, machinery, appliances, instrumentality or place of work, if the defect was known or could have been discovered by the injured employe by the exercise of ordinary care on his part, or was not known or could not have been discovered by the employer by the exercise of ordinary care in time to have prevented the injury nor in any event, if the negligence of the injured employe contributed to such injuries. But nothing herein shall deprive such employer of any defense not herein mentioned. If the employer is not in default in payment of premiums and a recovery shall be obtained against him in such action, the said Board shall pay on said judgment not exceeding a sum equal to the amount which the said injured employe or his dependents in case of death, would have been entitled to recover if he had elected to accept the benefit of this Act, and the employer shall receive credit on said payment for the payment made by the Board. Such employe, at any time, after he has elected not to accept the benefits of this Act and waive his right of action, as in this Act provided, may withdraw such election and come under the provisions of this Act and accept its benefits and waive his right of action as herein provided, by giving written notice to his employer and to the Board; and shall thereafter occupy the same position as if he had originally elected to accept the benefits of this Act and waive his cause of action, provided, that such withdrawal of his election not to accept the benefits of this Act shall not affect claims for damages against his employer on account of injuries theretofore received; nor entitles such injured employe to be paid anything out of the Workmen's Compensation Fund on account of such prior injury.

§ 33. The Commission shall disburse the Workmen's Compensation Fund to such employes within the meaning of this Act of employers as have paid into such fund the premiums for the period in which the injury occurs, applicable to the class to which they belong that shall have received injuries in this State in the course of and resulting from their employment, or to the dependents, if any, of such employes, in case of his death, according to the provisions hereinafter made.

§ 34. All employers subject to this Act who shall elect not to pay into the Workmen's Compensation Fund the premiums provided by this Act, or having elected to pay shall be in default in the payment of same shall be liable to their employes within the meaning of this Act, for damages by reason of personal injuries sustained in the course of employment caused by the wrongful act, neglect or default of the employer, or any of the employer's officers, agents or employers, and also to the personal representatives of such employe and in any action by any such employe or personal representative thereof, such defendant shall not avail himself of the following defense. The defense of the fellow servant; the defense of the assumption of risk, or the defense of contributory negligence.

§ 35. The commission shall disburse and pay from the fund in addition to any such amount as they may be entitled thereto under this act, such amounts for medical, nurse and hospital services and medicine as it may deem proper, not, however, in any case to exceed the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) in addition to such awards to such employes; payment to be made to the employer to the persons who may have furnished the services and supplies or to the persons who may have advanced payment for the same, as the commission shall deem proper. Provided, that in case any injured employe be entitled to under the contract connected with his employment, or otherwise, to hospital or medical services without further charge to him, no payment shall be made out of the Workmen's Compensation Fund for hospital or medical services.

§ 36. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore or hereafter contained, no employe or dependent of any employe shall be entitled to receive any sum from the Workmen's Compensation Fund on account of any injury to or death of an employe caused by a self-inflicted injury, wilful misconduct or intoxication of such employe. If injury or death results to an employe through the deliberate intention of his employer to produce such injury or death, the employe, the widow, widower, children or dependents of the employe shall have the privilege to take under this Act, or in lieu thereof, to have a cause of action against the employer as if this Act had not been enacted for such damages as may be sustained by such employe, his personal representative or dependent.

Provided, that if a suit is brought under this section, the right to participate in said Workmen's Compensation Fund on account of such injury, shall be waived and void as to all persons, and if a claim is made for compensation from said Workmen's Compensation Fund, all rights to sue the employer for damages for such injury shall be waived and void.

In case death ensues from the injury received reasonable funeral expenses, not to exceed seventy-five dollars ($75.00), shall be paid from the fund to the personal representative, to the employe, or to such other person as shall have advanced the same, in addition to such award to the employe's dependents.

In cases including the following schedule, the disability in each case shall be deemed to continue for the period specified, and the compensation so paid for such injury shall be as specified herein, to-wit:

The loss of more than the middle and distal phalanges of any finger shall be considered to be equal to the loss of the whole finger; provided, however, that in no case will the amount received for more than one finger exceed the amount provided in this schedule for the loss of a hand.

For the loss of a metacarpal bone (bone of palm) for the corresponding thumb, finger, or fingers above, add ten weeks to the number of weeks as above.

For ankylosis (total stiffness of) or contractures (due to sears or injuries) which makes the fingers more than useless, the same number of weeks apply to such finger or fingers (not thumb) as given above.

For the loss of a hand fifty per cent of the average weekly wages during one hundred and fifty weeks.

For the loss of an arm, fifty per cent of the average weekly wages during two hundred weeks.

For the loss of one of the toes, other than the great toe, fifty per cent of the average weekly wages during ten weeks.

For the loss of the great toe, fifty per cent of the average weekly wages during thirty weeks.

The loss of more than two-thirds of any toe shall be considered equal to the loss of the whole toe.

The loss of less than two-thirds, of any toe shall be considered equal to the loss of one-half toe.

For the loss of a foot, fifty per cent of the average weekly wages during one hundred and twenty-five weeks.

For the loss of a leg, fifty per cent of the average weekly wages during one hundred weeks.

§ 41. In case of permanent total disability the award shall be fifty per cent of the average weekly wages and shall continue until the death of such person so totally disabled, but not to exceed a maximum of twelve dollars ($12.00) per week and not less than a minimum of five dollars ($5.00) per week, at the time of the injury, in which event he shall receive compensation in an amount equal to his average weekly wages.

The loss of both hands or both arms, or both feet or both legs, or both eyes, or any two thereof, shall prima facie substitute total and permanent disability to be compensated according to the provisions of this section.

§ 42. In case the injury causes death within the period of two years, the benefits shall be in the amount and to the persons following:

Sub-sec. 1. If there are no dependents the disbursements from the Workmen's Compensation Fund shall be limited to the expense provided for in Sections 35 and 37. And the said Board shall have the sole right of action to recover from an employer who has elected to pay into said fund who is not in default in the payment of premiums for the death of an employe leaving no dependent caused by negligence of such employer or his employes or agents.

Sub-sec. 2. If there are wholly dependent persons at the time of death, the payment shall be fifty per cent of the average weekly wages and to continue for the remainder of the period between the date of death and six years after the date of the injury and not to exceed the maximum of three thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars ($3,750.00) nor less than the minimum of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500.00).

Sub-sec. 3. If there are partly dependent persons at the time of death, the payment shall be fifty per cent of the average weekly wages and to continue for all or such portion of the period of six years after the date of injury, as the Board in such case may determine, and not to amount to more than a maximum of three thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars ($3,750.00).

Sub-sec. 4. The following persons shall be presumed to be wholly dependent for support on a deceased employe: (a) A wife upon a husband with whom she lives at the time of his death; (b) A child, or children under the age of sixteen years (or over sixteen years, physically or mentally incapacitated from earnings) upon the parent with whom she is living at the time of the death of such parent. In all other cases the question of dependency in whole or in part shall be determined in accordance with the facts in each particular case of such employe but no persons shall be considered as a dependent unless a member of the family of the deceased employe, or bears to him the relation of widower or widow, lineal descendants, ancestor or brother or sister. The word "child" as used in this act, shall include a posthumous child, and a child legally adopted prior to the injury.

§ 43. The benefits in case of death shall be paid to such one or more of the dependents of the deceased for the benefit of all the dependents as may be determined by the Board, which may apportion the benefits among the dependents in such manner as it may deem just and equitable. Payment to a dependent subsequent in right may be made, if the Board deems it proper, and shall operate to discharge all other claims therefor. The dependent or person to whom benefits are paid, shall apply the same to the use of the several beneficiaries thereof, according to their respective claims upon the decedent for support in compliance with the finding and direction of the Board.

In all cases of death where the dependents are a widow and one or more minor children, it shall be sufficient for the widow to make application to the Board on behalf of herself and minor children and in cases where all of the dependents are minors, the application shall be made by guardian of such minor dependent or dependents. The persons and classes of persons by this act specified shall be deemed to be the sole dependents of such employes and no other person, or class of persons shall receive any benefit from the fund hereby credited. And should any employe leave surviving him no such dependent, the amount that would be due and payable to his dependents, had any survived him, shall be paid, or credited to the Workmen's Compensation Fund, to the credit of the class to which such employe belonged.

§ 44. The average weekly wages of the injured person at the time of the injury, shall be taken as the basis upon which to compute benefits.

§ 45. Whenever the Board shall find that an employe has been injured without fault on his part while in the course of his employment, through the negligence of the employer in the failure to discharge a non-delegable duty, the Board may require such employer to pay an additional premium into said Workmen's Compensation Fund equal to an amount not exceeding ten per cent of the sum awarded by the Board to such injured employe or his dependents. Said premium shall be paid within thirty days after the order is made. Before making an order to pay such additional premium, the Board shall give ten days' notice in writing, to the employer, to show cause against the order.

§ 46. Whenever the Board shall find that an employe has received an injury in the course of his employment, through the fault of his employer in failing to comply with any Statute for the protection of employes, the Board shall fix a day on which the employer may appear before the Board and show any cause he may have against said finding, or against the Board awarding the additional sum herein provided, ten days' notice in writing, shall be given the employer of the time and place of said hearing. If no sufficient cause is shown by the employer against the finding of the Board, it shall enter an order to that effect and the employer shall, within ninety days, pay into and for the benefit of the Workmen's Compensation Fund a sum to be fixed by the Board in its order not to exceed an amount equal to twenty-five per cent of the amount awarded to the said injured employe, or his dependents, under sections 39 to 42 of this Act. Said payment shall be made by the employer in a lump sum.

§ 47. In case any minor employe who is illegally employed shall be injured or killed, in the course of his employment, his statutory guardian or his representative, if the infant is killed, may claim compensation under the terms of this Act or sue as though this Act had not been passed. In the event claim is made for the injury or death of such infant or compensation from said Workmens' Compensation Fund, the Board shall in addition to the sum awarded and payable from the Workmen's Compensation Fund award an equal amount against the employer of said infant not to exceed the sum of two thousand ($2,000.00) dollars. The amount awarded against him shall be paid by the Board to the said infant or to his guardian, or representative if the infant is killed in installment, or in a lump sum as the Board may determine as provided for the payment of awards from said Workmen's Compensation Fund. Before any order is made requiring an employe to pay any sum to the guardian or the representative of such infant, under this section of the claim, to compensation under this section, notice of the time and place of the hearing of said claim by the Board, shall be given to the employer and the employer shall have the right to be heard and to introduce evidence on the question of his liability.

Provided, that a claim made to compensation from said Workmen's Compensation Fund by the guardian of the infant or his personal representative, if the infant is killed, shall be a waiver and bar of all rights of action on account of said injury to said infant, and the institution of an action by the guardian or representative of the infant, shall be a waiver of the right to compensation from said Workmen's Compensation Fund.

§ 48. Should a further accident occur to an employe receiving periodical payments under this Act, for a temporary disability, or who has been previously the recipient of a lump sum payment under this Act, his future compensation shall be adjusted according to the other provisions of this Act with reference to the combined effect of his injuries and his past receipt of money, under this Act.

§ 49. The powers and jurisdiction of the Board, over each and every case shall be continuing, and it may from time make such modifications or changes with respect to former findings or orders with respect thereto, as its opinion, may be justified.

§ 50. The Board, under special circumstances and when the same is deemed advisable, may commute periodical benefits to one or more lump sum payments.

§ 51. Compensation before payment shall be exempt from all claims of creditors and from any attachments, executions or lien, and shall be paid only to such persons as shall be entitled to take under this Act, and any assignment of such claim shall be void.

§ 52. The Board shall have full power and authority to hear and determine all questions within its jurisdiction and its decision thereon shall be final. Provided, however, in case the final action of such board denies the right of the claimant to participate at all in such fund on the ground that the accident did not arise in the course of employment, or upon any other ground going to the basis of the complainant's right, then the claimant, within thirty days after notice of the final action of the Board, may file a petition against the Board in the circuit court of the county wherein the injury was inflicted, asserting his rights therein, to participate in said fund. In such action, the Commonwealth's Attorney and the County Attorney, in the circuit court, and the Attorney General in the Court of Appeals, if the case is appealed, shall represent the Workmens' Compensation Board, said action shall proceed as ordinary actions in the Circuit Court, and if the court shall find and adjudge that the plaintiff is entitled to participate in such fund, the Board shall fix his compensation within the limits and under the rules prescribed in this Act. Such action shall have the same precedence on the trial dockets of the circuit court and the Court of Appeals, as election contest cases now have.

§ 53. The Workmen's Compensation Board shall not be bound by the usual common law or statutory rules of evidence or by any technical or formal rules of procedure other than as herein provided; but may make the investigation in such manner as in its judgment is best calculated to ascertain the substantial rights of the parties and to carry out justly the spirit of this Act.

§ 54. A minor legally employed shall be deemed sui juris for the purpose of this Act, and no other person shall have any cause of action or right to compensation for an injury to such minor workmen or loss of service on account thereof, but in the event of the award of a lump sum of compensation to such minor employe, such sum shall be paid only to the legally appointed guardian of such minor.

§ 55. No agreement by an employe to waive his rights to compensation under this Act shall be valid. No agreement by an employe to pay any portion of the premium paid by his employer into the workmen's compensation fund shall be valid, and any employer who deducts any portion of such premium from the wages or salary of any employe entitled to the benefits of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars for each such offense.

§ 56. Any employe claiming the right to receive compensation under this Act may be required by the Board or its chief medical examiner, to submit himself for medical examination at any time and from time to time at a place reasonably convenient for such employe, and as may be provided by the rules of the Board. If such employe refuse to submit to any such examination or obstruct the same, his right to have his claim for compensation considered, if his claim be pending before the Board, or to receive any payments for compensation therefore granted, shall be suspended during the period of such refusal or obstruction.

§ 57. All books, records and pay rolls of the employers of the State, showing or reflecting in any way upon the amount of wage expenditure of such employers, shall always be open for inspection by the Board of any of its traveling auditors, inspectors, or assistants, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of the wage expenditure, the number of men employed and such other pertinent information as may be necessary for the uses and purposes of the Board in its administration of the law. Refusal on the part of any employer to submit his books, records and pay rolls for the inspection of any member of the Board or traveling auditor, inspector or such assistant presenting written authority from the Board, shall subject such employes to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each offense, to be collected by civil action in the name of the State, and paid into the Workmens' Compensation Fund to become a part thereof.

§ 58. Any employer who fraudulently misrepresents to the Board the amount of pay roll upon which the premium under this Act is based, shall be liable to the State in ten times the amount of the difference in premium paid and the amount the employer should have paid. The liability of the Board under this section shall be enforced in a civil action by the Board and all sums collected under this section shall be paid into the Workmen's Compensation Fund.

§ 59. The provisions of this Act shall apply to employers and their employers engaged in intrastate and also in interstate and foreign commerce for whom a rule or liability or method of compensation has been or may be established by the Congress of the United States, only to the extent that their mutual connection with the intrastate work may and shall be clearly separable and distinguishable from interstate or foreign commerce, and then only when such employer and any of his workmen working only in this State, with the approval of the Board and as far as not forbidden by any Act of Congress, voluntarily accept the provisions of this Act by filing written acceptances, which, when filed with and approved by the Board, shall subject the acceptors irrevocably to the provisions of this Act to all intents and purposes and if they had been originally included in its terms, during the period or periods for which the premiums herein provided have been paid. Payment of premiums shall be on the basis of the pay roll of the workmen who accept, as aforesaid.

§ 60. Every employer shall keep a record of all injuries, fatal or otherwise, received by his employes in the course of their employment. Within a week after the occurrence of an accident resulting in personal injury, a report thereof shall be made in writing to the Workmen's Compensation Board upon blanks to be procured from the Board for that purpose. Such report shall contain the name and nature of the business of the employer, the location of his establishment or place of work, the name, address and occupation of the injured employe, and shall state the time, the nature and cause of injury and such other pertinent information as may be required by the Board. Any employer who refuses or neglects to make any report required by this section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense. An injured employe, if he is able so as to do, and the attending physician, whether the injury results in the death of such employe or not, and within one week from the time of such injury or death, shall give written notice to the employer and the Board of such injury, stating the nature and extent thereof, the time and place of its occurrence, the name, address, and occupation of such injured employe, and the names and addresses of the person present at the time of the injury, so far as such names and addresses are known, or can be obtained. Any employe or physician failing or refusing to make report as by this section required, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25.00). And the Board may in its discretion, if such injured employe, or his dependents are subsequently found to be entitled to any payments out of the compensation fund, deduct any amount, not exceeding said sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) from the benefits payable hereunder, or from the amount that might otherwise be paid to said attending physician, should such physician fail to make such report.

§ 61. Upon the request of the Board, the Attorney General, or under his direction, the County or Commonwealth Attorney of any county, shall institute and prosecute the necessary actions or proceedings for the enforcement of any of the provisions of this Act, or for the recovery of any money due the Workmen's Compensation Fund, or any penalty herein provided for, arising within the county in which he was elected and shall defend in like manner all suits, actions or proceedings brought against the Board or the members thereof in their official capacity.

§ 62. All judgments contained in any action prosecuted by the Board under the authority of this Act, shall have the same preference against the assets of the employer as it now or may be hereafter allowed by law on judgments rendered for claims for taxes.

§ 63. If any employer shall default in any payment required to be made by him to the Workmen's Compensation Fund, the amount due by him shall be collected by civil action against him in the name of the Board as plaintiff. Such actions may be brought either in the Franklin Circuit Court or in the Circuit Court in the county in which the defendant resides or has his principal place of business.

§ 64. Annually on or before the 15th day of December such Board shall make a report to the Governor for the preceding fiscal year, which shall include a statement of the number of awards made by it, a general statement of the cause of accident leading to the injuries for which the awards were made and detailed statement of the disbursements from the expense fund and the condition of its respective funds, together with any other information which the Board deems proper to call to the attention of the Governor, including any recommendations it may have to make, and it shall be the duty of the Board from time to time to publish and distribute among employers and employes such general information as to the business transacted by the department as in its judgment may be useful.

§ 65. The Board shall cause to be printed in proper form for distribution to the public, its classifications, rates, regulations and rules of procedure, and shall furnish the same to any person upon application therefor, and the fact that such classifications, rates, rules, regulations and rules of procedure are printed ready for distribution to all who may apply for same, shall be sufficient publication of the same, as required by this Act.

§ 66. If any employer shall be adjudged to be outside the lawful scope of this Act, the Act shall not apply to him or his employes; or if the employe shall be adjudicated to be outside the lawful scope of this Act, because of the remoteness of his work from the hazard of his employer's work, such adjudication shall not impair the validity of this Act in other respects, and every such case as accounting, according with the justice of the case, shall be had of the moneys received. If the provisions of this Act for the creation of the fund or the provision of the Act authorizing employes to waive causes of action against employers for injuries received in the course of their employment and making the compensation to the employes and their beneficiaries provided in this Act exclusive of any other remedy on the part of the employe, shall be held invalid, the entire Act shall thereby be invalidated and an accounting according to the justice of the case shall be had of money received. In other respects an adjudication of the invalidity of any part of this Act shall not affect the validity of this Act as a whole or any part thereof.

§ 67. If a single establishment or works comprises several occupations listed in Section 15 in different risk classes the premiums shall be computed according to the pay roll of each occupation if the occupations are clearly separable; otherwise an average rate of premium shall be charged for the entire establishment taking into consideration the number of employes and the relative hazards of the employes in the several occupations.

§ 68. If the employe of an employer who has elected to accept the provisions of this Act, is injured by the negligence or wrong of another person not in the same employment the injured employe, or if death resulted from the injury, his dependents, as the case may be, shall elect whether to take under act or seek a remedy against such other persons, such election to be in advance of instituting any suit; and, if he take under this act, the cause of action against such other person shall be and is hereby assigned to the Board for the benefit of the compensation fund; if the other choice is made, the compensation fund shall contribute only the deficiency, if any, between the amount of the recovery against such third person actually collected and the amount of compensation provided by this Act for such case.

If such injury is due to the joint negligence of his employer and any other person not in the same employment, and the injured employe, or in case of death resulting from the injury, his dependents as the case may be shall have elected to take compensation under this Act, the causes of action against the other joint tort feason shall be and is hereby assigned to the Board for the benefit of the compensation fund.

Any cause of action, so assigned to the Board, may be prosecuted or compromised, in the discretion of the Board. Any compromise by the injured employe or his dependent, in the case of death, of any such suit, which would leave a deficiency to be made good out of the compensation fund, shall be made only with the written approval of the Board.

§ 69. This Act shall not affect any Section pending or cause of action existing on the 31st day of December, 1914.

§ 70. Notwithstanding anything in this Act, any employer filing notice with the Workmen's Compensation Board, of his intention so to do, and upon furnishing satisfactory proof to said Board of his solvency and financial ability to pay the compensation and benefits herein before provided, may make said payments direct to his employes as they may be entitled to receive same under the terms and conditions of this Act, and any employer electing to administer the compensation fund direct to his employes shall have the benefit of all the provisions of this Act as though said fund were paid into and administered by said Board.

§ 71. Nothing in this Act shall prevent any employer carrying his own risk from insuring his liability company authorized to do business in this State, provided the amounts to be paid are not less than that provided in this Act.

§ 72. In case any employer carrying his own risk cannot agree with an employe on the payments as provided for in this Act, such employe shall have the right to submit his claim in writing within sixty days to the Workmen's Compensation Board, and it shall be the duty of the Board to delegate one of its members to investigate said claim and endeavor under the provisions of this Act to reach a satisfactory settlement of the claim. In event the final action of the member of the Board denies the right of the claimant to participate in the fund as provided in Section 52, then the claimant may proceed as provided in Section 52, and compensation, if awarded the claimant, shall be fixed as provided in Section 52, and in the event the employer feels that the award should not have been granted, he shall have the right of appeal to the circuit court and from the circuit court as in other cases.

§ 73. The application of this Act, as between employers and employe, shall date from and include the first day of January, 1915.

§ 74. Every employer subject to this Act who shall on or before November 1, 1914, elect not to pay into said Workmen's Compensation Fund and receive the benefits, hereof, shall on or before the first day of November, 1914, so notify the Board in writing, and any such employer not so notifying the Board shall on or before January 1st, 1915, pay into the fund the premiums as provided in Section 27, hereof. Employers who elect to accept the benefits hereof, and pay into said Workmen's Compensation Fund, may at the time fixed for making any such payment, withdraw from the benefits hereof, and thereafter be relieved from further payments, but notice of such withdrawal shall be served on the Board and posted by written or printed notices in at least three conspicuous places about his plant. Such employer, may, however, at any time thereafter again elect to come under the provisions hereof by making payment of premium and posting notices as originally required. shall make application to the Board for benefits hereunder, it shall be the duty of the Board to at once notify such employe, or his dependents of the fact that such employer is not entitled to the benefits of this Act.

§ 75. Applications for benefits, hereunder, shall be made by the injured employe or his dependents, within one year from the time of the injury, and if not so made within said time, shall thereafter be barred and not allowed by the Board.
