

FOREWORD

It is notable that our County, nestled in the arms of the Appalachian Mountains, possesses spectacular scenery, numerous libraries, and churches of all creeds. But it is far more noteworthy that we can choose freely among these opportunities, for the joy of freedom inspires a beauty in the soul that far surpasses that of any scene.

Oh for a book and a shady nook,
either in door or out;
With the green leaves whisp'ring overhead, or the street cries all about.
Where I may read all at my ease,
both of the new and old;
For a jolly good book whereon to look is better to me than gold.

PaMomoria Martin School

the hearts of every student of Martin School.

As you remember this year, think of the people you knew, the places you went, the things you did. Remember the problems you encountered, the laughs you shared.

In the years to come when a face from the past pops up and a vain recollection of the name appears and you think, "Where's that old school yearbook of mine"; It is our hope that as you turn its pages you may, in memory, live again the happy school days spent here.

IAMES W. SALISBURY, Principal: To us, the student body, Mr. Salisbury is as much a part of Martin School as the High School building. He has earned the admiration, respect, confidence, and friend-hip of each student. 1, O. DinGUS. Assistant Principal: When we leave Martin School we feel that we each have benefited from having an excellent guidance and counselor as Mr. Dingus to advise us.

"The memories of our faculty, who have toiled with us and for us, shall live long."

MARTIN HIGH SCHOOL

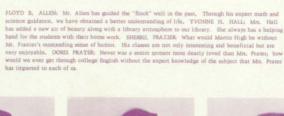

FACULTY

LEO WATTS: We consider Mr. Watts "Martin's Jack of All Trades", be teaches inducts in several different fields and does an excellent job in each. His deep sincerity and desire to help each of us has been deeply appreciated. RUTH MEDLEY. EUGENE CONLEY: Mr. Conley's nationed and likeable personality will always linger in our momenties of Martin School. DOROTHY ALLEN: When we needed originality for themse of floates, etc., we always chose Mrs. Allen. Everyone remembers the excellent float winger in the Homeocoming Parade sponsored by Mrs. Allen. THOMAS HARDWICK: We remember Mr. Hardwick as a friend to each of us, as well as an instructor. His techniques made learning fun as well as interesting.

DENZIL HALBERT: Never was a Gentleman more respected than our coach. Not only is Mr. Halbert considered the best coach in the district, but an excellent chamsoom instructor as well. NANCY S. DINGUS: We can cook, bake and sew because Miss Dingus told us so. Miss Dingus has always been ready to listen to our problems. She has given motherly advice to the girls and brightened up the Home Economics Department for the boys. BETTY CAUDILL: Miss Caudill has werked endlessly to obtain new band uniforms, and she has accomplished her goal. We shall miss ber, but we will always remember her. ELOISE ALLEN: Through Miss Allen's teaching, we have learned not only the subject matter us we have learned elf-reliance. She has worked diligently for the improvement of the school, reorganized the school paper, and brought many benevolent characteristics with her. DUNA COMBS: Mrs. Combs taught us how to appreciate the finer qualities of life, and to be a little more imaginative.
