SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

We feel that our Instructional Program in the Floyd County School system has been greatly strengthened in Floyd County this year by using Federal funds for many additional instructional and supervisory units as well as many other additional services to our young people. Our test results bear out the fact that during the 1967-68 school year, harder working teachers were doing more effective teaching to a more alert, recipient young people all over Floyd County, We are not completely satisfied with the progress we have made in improving our Instructional Program because we realize there is still room for improvement. We shall dedicate all our energy to greater improvement in the years ahead.

Charles Clark

IN MEMORY OF ULYSSES COLLINS

And though you be done to the death, what then?
If you battled the best you could?
If you played your part in the world of men,
Why, the Critic will call it good.
Death comes with a crawl, or comes with a pounce
And whether he's slow or spry,
It isn't the fact that you're dead that counts,
But only how did you die?

—Cooke

GARRY MULLINS

IN MEMORIAM

We are so blind about this thing called death.
 We break our hearts, we sob with catching breath,
 Mourning in selfish and helpless grief,
 Unconsciously begrudging the relief
 To our Beloved who God's hand hath set free
 To climb the bright hills of Eternity.

We mourn with tear-filled eyes that grow too dim
 To clearly see we should rejoice with him;
 We should be glad to know, his life here done,
 He walks carefree beneath the heavenly sun.
 We should be glad for his quiet peace, but oh,
 We are so human, and we miss him so.

WAYLAND

Life is like a journey on a train
With two fellow travellers.
At each window pane,
I may sit beside you
All the journey through,
Or I may sit elsewhere,
Never knowing you,
But should fate make me sit by your side,
Let's be pleasant travellers,
'Tis so short a ride.

WE REMEMBER

MR. BEVERLY

His life was gentle, and the elements so mixed in him, that nature might stand up and say to all the world, "This was a man."

RETIRED TEACHERS

FRANCES JONES

MARGARET COLLINS

KITTY SANDIGE

Being a teacher is caring . . . knowing pupil's needs . . . and being willing to give One's heart, hands and mind to the fulfillment of these needs.

Decades of these teachers lives have been spent in preparing a generation for service in the world.

Man shall rest his wandering heart in the glory of God's mountains . . . and high in the nook of folded earth the music of the hills will echo His Peace.

Here Mrs. Collins, Miss Jones and Mrs. Sandige may you enjoy the autumn of your years knowing you have met the test and never been found wanting.

FACULTY

Cooperation between the principal and faculty has been of the best. There is a friendliness and warmth between the staff and student body, which we feel is one of our strongest points. We, as teachers, are proud to be members of this faculty.

Memoriam

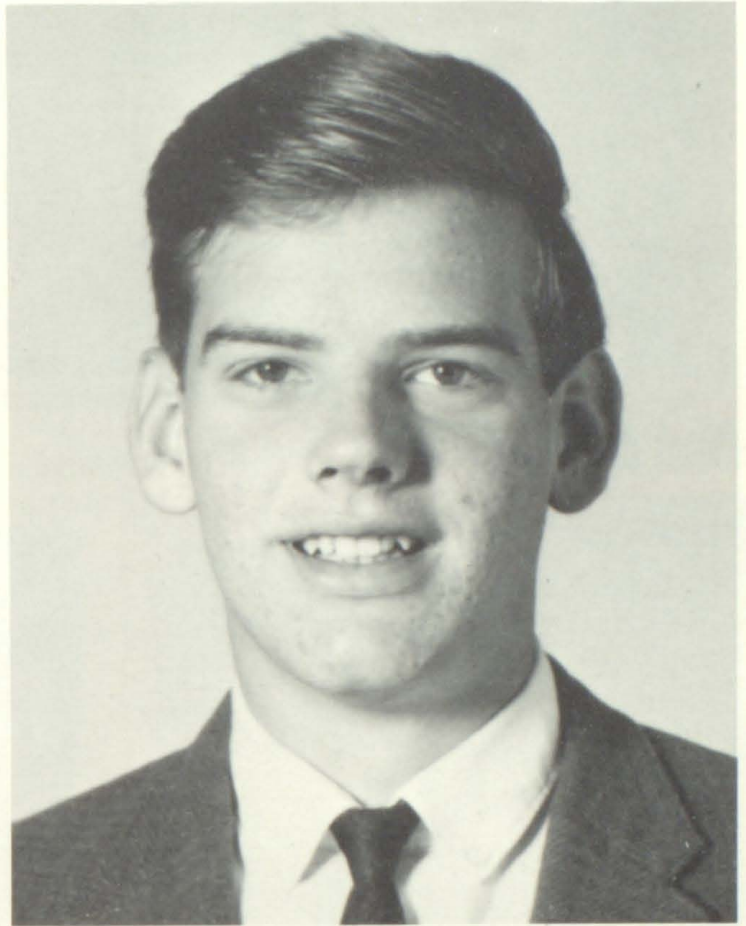

Clifton Gene Salisbury

July 30, 1950 - April 8, 1967

We miss you now, our hearts are sore;
As time goes by, we miss you more
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can fill your vacant place.

Loving Memories

Wayne Chetuning

May 10, 1949 - July 11, 1967

WAYNE

Once We knew a golden boy
With sunlight in his hair,
With laughter in his heart and eyes,
Who had a song to share.

His life was marked by special ways—
At home, at church, and school the same—
Not measured by the length of days,
But by the brightness of the flame.

Now all too soon the sunlight,
The laughter and the song,
Are gone from us, for Wayne had found
A new and golden home.

COMFORT

There is a day of sunny rest
For every dark and troubled night;
And grief may bide
an evening guest,
But joy shall come with morning light.

For God hath marked
each sorrowing day,
And numbered every secret tear,
And Heaven's long age
of bliss shall pay
For all His children suffer here.

Remember

Remember me when I am gone away,
Gone far away into the silent land;
When you can no more hold me by the hand,
Nor I half turn to go, yet turning stay.
Remember me when no more, day by day,
You tell me of our future that you planned;
Only remember me; you understand
It will be late to counsel then or pray.

Yet if you should forget me for a while
And afterwards remember, do not grieve;
For if the darkness and corruption leave
A vestige of the thoughts that once I had,
Better by far you should forget and smile
Than that you should remember and be sad.

CLASS PROPHECY OF 1968

It is the year 1988 and as I flew over the hills of Jenny Wiley State Park, the landscape appeared basically the same except all the native people of Floyd County seemed to be caught up in the national trend of flying rather than walking. While landing my flymobile on the golf course whom should I see, but one of my old classmates, John Webb, who was tending a bed of purple petunias.

"John Webb!" I cried. "You are John Webb, aren't you?"

"Yes, but who are you?" he asked. "You look familiar, but I can't seem to place you."

"I'm the former Timmye Danielson. We graduated from high school together, in that long ago year of 1968."

"Oh, yes! Has it really been twenty years?" he asked.

"I hate to admit that it has been. I see you accomplished your ambition to pick a purple petunia," I said.

"Yes, I suppose I have. Did you ever accomplish yours? Wasn't it to teach the world to love?" he asked.

"Yes, John, I did. I'm the Love ambassador to the United Nations. Do you ever see any of our old classmates?" I asked.

"Yes, I do. Otis Page and Joe Wallen put the light on P'burg when they tried to move the capital to Dwale and Allen at the same time."

I asked, "What did they ever do about that?"

"They compromised," he said. "The capital is in Dwale and the White House is in Allen."

"Speaking of Allen, whatever happened to Mr. Allen?"

John answered, "He retired a few years back and is floating down the Mississippi in a house boat. From what I hear he is living a life of ease."

"Who is the principal at P.H.S. now?" I asked.

"Remember Paul Chaffins? Well, he has been principal at the high school for the past five years. Freddia Jo Compton, or so she was before she married, is teaching English there also."

"John, it seems as though a lot of our classmates have made their places in the world." I said.

"Yes, especially Worth McGuire. I think it was great when he was elected president. Did you know that six of our old classmates are on his cabinet?" he asked.

"Yes, I did. There's Larry Branham, Vonda Slone, Alla Faye Johnson, Eric Hall, and Raymond Collins. Don't you think Glenna Fanning makes a beautiful first lady?" I asked.

"She sure does! Linda Price and Vivian Lewis are ambassadors to South Africa, along with Karen Nelson," he said.

"John, I was surprised at the excellent job Lonnie Robinson and Roger Shepherd did on remodeling the White House."

"Yes, it does look nice!"

"I must be moving on. I have a lot to do and a short time to do it in. Bye, John."

Since taxis are obsolete, I took one of the so called "Bubbles". It is a new type of flying car! It was nice to be able to sit back and relax. It was surprising how time passes by so quickly. My graduating class is scattered throughout the world: Mark Howard having a furniture store in France; Joe Tussey as Prime Minister in Vietnam; Brenda Wilcox is married to a Hawaiian pineapple farmer; Connie Blackburn married to the captain of the Dallas Cowboys; and Gordon Akers, a psychiatrist in New York.

As I look around I notice that Prestonsburg now has a dozen red lights. The town has grown so much. I decided to go to the Francis Store and see how it looked. As I walked into the store I noticed a well-dressed woman coming towards me. She looked so familiar. Of course, it was Missy Frances.

"Missy," I cried.

"Yes, may I help you?" she asked, very politely.

"Remember me? Timmye Danielson?"

"Yes, I do, It's been so long, How long has it really been?"

"I'm afraid too long. Are you managing the store now?"

"Yes, I am. We have enlarged it quite a bit. We now have a second floor. And a staff of over 150. Diane Blankenship is our Chief secretary and Thayran Kaye Sturgill is our cosmetologist. You remember them, don't you?" she asked.

"Yes, I do. How about bringing me up to date on some of our old classmates?"

"Steve Midkiff is now Dr. Midkiff. He took over his father's practice; Sharon Hill is Dean of Women at Eastern; Dave Ann Wallen is a physical therapist at the hospital; Sharon Meade is president of the Healthy, Wealthy, and Wise Association; Sue Lafferty, Cathy Westfall, Barbara Brown, and Mary Ruth Smith are teachers at Mayo."

"Isn't it wonderful that everyone is doing so well?" I asked.

"Yes. What have you been doing?" Missy asked.

"Traveling, etc. While I was in New York I saw Patricia Flannery. She is giving a concert at the Metropolitan Opera House. Jennifer Burkett is a Commerce teacher in Buffalo, New York," I said.

"How long will you be staying?" she asked.

"I'm not sure. I must be going now though. I hope to see you again before I leave."

"Good-bye," said Missy.

PROPHECY CONTINUED

While walking down the street I noticed that Wright Brothers is now Janie Wright's Jewelry Shop; that Donna Ray had her own beautician pool; that Clyde Burchett's Jewelry is now Randy Burchett's Jewelry, Inc. Since the weather is warm, I decided to stop at Rose Drug Store to get a coke. Roses looked the same. I was surprised to see Londa Connors working behind the counter.

"Hi, Londa! Remember me?" I asked.

"I'm not sure; but you look like Timmye?"

"That's right. This is a surprise seeing you here. Anything new?" I asked.

"I'm full of news. Vonda Crider married Nickey Blackburn and they are living in Pikeville. Danny Hall is a barber and has three shops here in Floyd County. Patty Taylor is a private nurse for Governor Kenny Thompson's family."

"I was so happy when Kenny won the governor's race!" I exclaimed.

"Yes, so was I. After he bought Floyd County he decided to buy the state," Londa related.

"I heard that there are quite a few of our classmates in politics," I said.

"Yes, there are. Linda Ousley, Sarah Robinson, Wanda Hammons, and Vernon Bays all have important positions in Frankfort," said Londa.

"It has been nice talking to you again," I said, "but I must be on my way."

As I left the drug store I noticed quite a few new stores. Don Blackburn had a used nail store; Juanita Ratliff has a dress shop; and Karen Molt has started her own secretarial school. Libby Baldrige is now married to a senator; Shirley Lafferty is living in high society in Washington

C. Then there is Rita Harris, the mayor of Middlecreek, who finally married that boy from Mayo.

I was on my way to the post office when I heard someone call my name. I turned around and there was Pat Derossett. "Pat!" I cried. "Gee, it has been so long since I last saw you. How are you doing?"

"I'm fine. What are you doing here?" she asked.

"I just came back to visit. What have you and everyone else been doing?"

"Timmye, I married the president of the First National Bank and I am quite happy. Karen Holbrook is a housewife, too, with three children. Don Holbrook finally invented a lasting VW and has been selling them for quite some time now. Cloria Alice Herald married Jim and has three children."

"Pat, on my way into town I noticed quite a few new homes. Who built them?"

"Kevin Shannon did and Randall Stephens drew up the plans. Did you notice the new radio station?"

"Yes, I did. When was it built?"

"About ten years ago when Ernie Hall became DJ. You should see the inside of the station. Sue Patton did the decorating along with her assistant, Willie Endicott."

"While vacationing on the East Coast I saw Pat Hall." I said. "She is a model for Macy's now; Ruben Lafferty is manager of the men's department at Macy's, too; and Larry Hall is a representative in Washington from New York."

Pat said, "Donald Slone is a lawyer; Allen Zemo, an engineer; John Collins, a DJ; Susie Robinson finally simplified Physics; and Ronnie Ball a minister. Pam Hazellett and Steve Leslie made it to the altar; Terry Derossett is playing for the Baltimore Colts; Bobby Edwards is an M.D. in Pikeville; Rita Calhoun got her Ph.D. in math. Sylvia Magura invented a 'Love' potion and she and Lou Goble are married to men from California. Mike Castle opened the first American jewelry shop in Vietnam. Clyde Lewis and Vrigil Johnson are teaching school over there now. Barbara Ousley is a history teacher at P.C.C and Barbara married a man from Huntington. Eric Ousley survived the draft call, too. Kenneth Prater is still trying to get out of school and Vee Ann Smiley had her eighteenth child last year. Martha McKenzie is teaching Commerce at Martin."

"It's certainly interesting to find out what everyone is doing. Take Loretta Blanton. Whoever thought she would take over Mr. Craft's job. Then Bobbie Burchett who married Sheri; James Robinson who is a carpenter; Aster Hunter who is a businessman in Louisville; and Peggy Robinson a teacher in Florida. I sure miss the good old days at the high school, Pat," I reminisced.

"I do too," she said sadly.

"I must be going now, Pat. I'll be back again. Bye." On my way to my flymobile I realized how sad it was to know everyone was scattered out. We would never be able to relive any of those days back at the high school. I thought of Brenda Davis who is in England; Karen Rubin, who is an airline stewardess; Mike Fannin, the owner of a dozen 427 vetes; Matha McKenzie who is a Commerce teacher; Freddy James and Phillip Haywood, businessmen in town; Curtis Blackburn, a happy pappy; Larry Lyons, the father of his own football team; Mary Ruth Cavins who finally majored in "Music." Paula Pigg who is happy with Lloyd; Barbara Scheel an artist; Wilma Wallen with her dozen kids; Billie Sue Wells, who is happy with James; Phillippa Snipes who made Frankie happy with five little ones; and Donna Webb who is a happy wife in Charleston. And Sandi Derossett also a happy wife. Yes, everyone had made their places in the world. We can't go back into the past, but memories are just as good. As I started up my flymobile I thought of a saying my senior English teacher had once written on the board; "Be sure to take an interest in the future, after all, that is where you will spend the rest of your life." How right that statement is. The past will be gone, but the future will always be there

MAYTOWN, Ky. — This is basketball country.

The folks in this little (pop. 350) Floyd County community are excited about the basketball team making its first State Tournament trip this week. But not much more than usual.

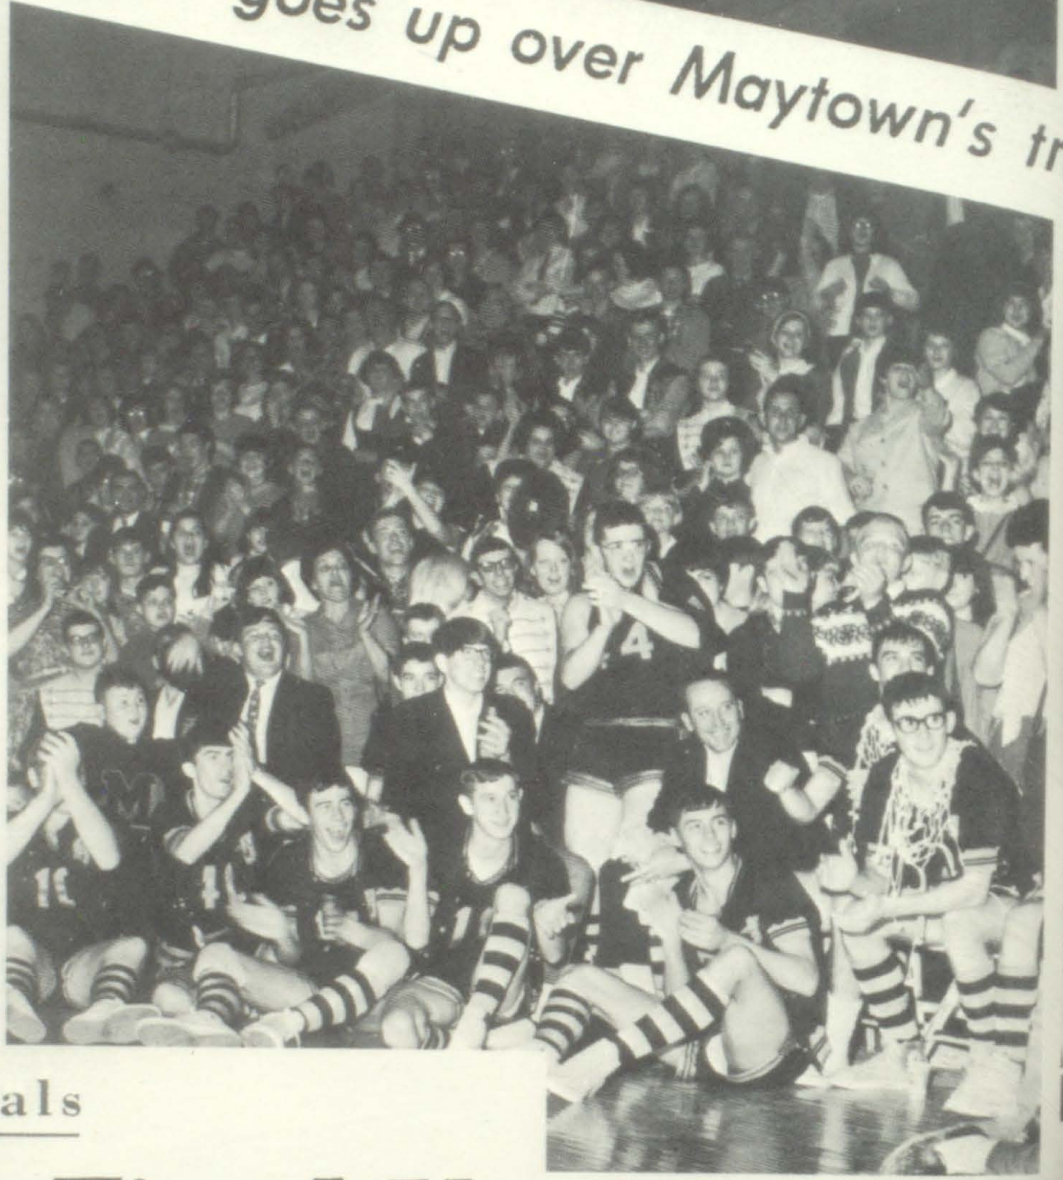

They've been through it before with their neighbors. Carr Creek is just up the road. Garrett is a few miles away. Wayland is just over the mountain.

What's going on? Well, there's a run

Go-Go 'Cats New For So-Slow Rebs

By TIM KELLY
In Louisville, the high school capital of non-offensive basketball, the run-and-shoot 'Cats rarely played in Eastern Kentucky's mountains. Louisville's Albertson (14-4) coach Eugene Minton, then, will have to contend at 3:45 p. m.
when he sends his Rebels against 13th Region champion Maytown in the first round of the State Tournament at Louisville's Freedom Hall.

Minton Lauds Maytown's Thacker, Tallent

By BOB WHITE
Courier-Journal & Times staff writer

"Earlington may run us off the floor, but they don't have anyone with any better individual moves than Maytown's Rudy Thacker and Mike Tallent."

That's how Alberton coach Gene Minton felt after seeing his team make its State Tournament debut yesterday with a 70-65 win over Maytown at Freedom Hall.

"Thacker and Tallent can play with anybody," said Minton in praise of the two seniors who scored 25 and 18 points, respectively.

ARCHIE BEVERLEY IN MEMORIAM

THE ETERNAL GOODNESS

I know not what the future hath of marvel or surprise,
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.

And if my heart and flesh are weak
To bear an untried pain,
The bruised reed He will not break,
But strengthen and sustain.

And so, beside the silent sea,
I wait the muffled oar;
No harm from Him can come to me
On ocean or on shore.

I know not where His islands lift
Their froned palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care.

J. G. Whittier

ELLA RECTOR
IN MEMORIAM

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of
Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.

Tennyson
