Ferns, Trees and Dinosaurs

Take an old, dead dinosaur, some trees, and add some ferns,
Put it all under pressure, and get a rock that burns!
This seems like such a miracle, yet part of nature's plan,
Taking care of Kentucky; every woman, child and man.

When early man discovered, the potential of this feat,
I can hear the rejoicing now, "Finally, we can cook this meat!"
But to the people of Eastern Kentucky, it means so much more,
It's allowed us to remain here, in the hills we so adore.

My papaw speaks of days gone by, when times were really rough,
When fourteen hours of work each day, still was not enough.
And just to get to school each day, he had to walk for miles,
But mention coal or mining, and he becomes all smiles.

And my dad speaks of Wheelwright, just a little mining town,
Just because the coal is gone, they want to tear it down.
He tells my mom how it once was and she too is amazed.
How coal built this little town, where my dad was raised.

So when people go putting the blame on coal, for pollution and this and that,
Refer them to dad and papaw, they will tell them where it's at!
Refer back now to my first verse, and the fact will remain the same,
I hope the dinosaur, trees and ferns have all not died in vain!

Forensics Kick-Off Day

Forensics KICK-OFF! Day, held November 7, 1998, at Adams Middle School was a training event. All students, parents, coaches, and judges were invited to receive training to learn about Forensics. All categories were presented with demonstrations and tips for performance and for judging. Returning coaches, along with Chuck Stamper and Patricia Watson, led sessions for the day. Woodrow Carter emphasized the importance of gaining speaking skills and commended the many parents, grandparents and teachers who took part.

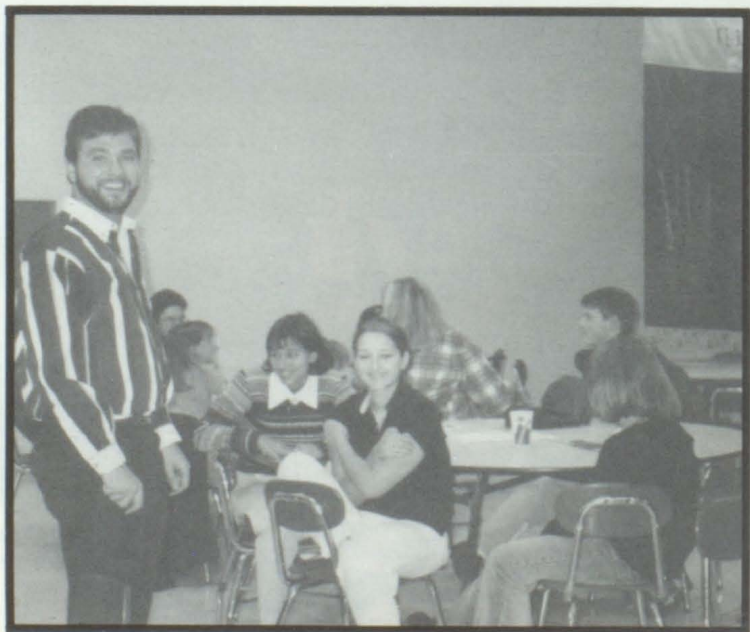

Arnold W. Carter, State Manager, addresses the group.

"Christmas Through the Eyes of a Child" was a joint program offered through WMDJ radio station, McDonald's, and Floyd County Schools. Children submitted writings with reflections about the meaning of Christmas rather than a "wish list." Members of the community read approximately 2,600 entries and selected 200 overall winners who read their selections on WMDJ radio station. McDonald's presented each winner with an "All American Meal" gift certificate, and the school district presented certificates to each participant. Each school was spotlighted daily with approximately 12 twelve students on WMDJ. From the 200 winners, each school had grade level winners as follows: K-3, 4-5, 6-8, and 9-12. Thirty overall winners from these grade divisions received tee shirts from McDonald's and the book, The Night Before Christmas from the school district. A reception was held Monday, December 21, 1998, at Adams Middle School Cafeteria from 5:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. for all winners, their parents, and community friends. Overall winners received their prizes at the school board meeting. This was the first Christmas project for the school district. The project was coordinated by Ms. Patricia Watson working with community involvement.

Monia McKinney Dingus and her daughter, Katie Anne, read The Night Before Christmas, at the reception held December 21, 1998.

IN MEMORY OF PHILLIP CASE

*There are people in life you can't forget
For their smile, their laughter, or for how you met
They may come in quick and stay awhile
Or they may just give you a quick, little smile*

*Phillip will remain in the hearts of those
Who knew him, cherished him, and loved him so
His memory will live on proud and tall
In the hearts, memories, and thoughts of all*

Dan A. Collins

All right students, listen up!
Take out your paper and pencil.

Students take notes as Mr. Collins lectures on the "Can Do Attitude."

And Organizations

We The People ...

... do hereby declare that our governing body, the Student Council, along with their fearless leader BUD REYNOLDS, shall endeavor to do their best yaddah, yaddah, yaddah. As always, go raiders.

YEAR IN

Happy Grandparents Day!

Thanks to everyone who came and shared the afternoon with us.

Mrs. Burke's class enjoyed doing special activities with their grandparents.

Grandparents visiting Mrs. Stanley's were entertained with singing.

Mrs. L. Thornsberry's class enjoyed sharing what they had learned with their grandparents.

Mrs. A. Shepherd's class enjoyed sharing stories they had written with their grandparents.

Eighty-six year old Grace Flannery enjoyed sharing stories with the kindergarten classes. She spent Grandparents Day with her great-granddaughter, Jenna Crum.

Jonathan Sizemore was proud to have his grandfather, Millard Sizemore show his banjos.

REVIEW**

Mrs. Combs, Ms. Horne, Barrie, Margie, Donna and Karen enjoyed Heritage Day.

Mrs. Shepherd, Mrs. Reed, and Mrs. Hatfield have a new appreciation for 'yesterdays' women.

Ms. May's first graders really had a good time making home-made butter. "Where's the bread?"

Brandi Jarrell, Kayla Gilliam, Josh Wright and other classmates enjoy Donna Gray demonstrating making the "Eifel Tower" with string.

Melinda Meadows and Nick Halbert sampled homemade corn-bread fritters and homemade butter.

Justin Robinson learned how to make a 'crows foot' with string.

Ron Thompson worked hard churning butter for everyone's bread.

Mrs. Akers and Mr. Clark had a busy day cooking beans on an open fire. They must have been good — NONE were left.

Year In Review Continued**

Dustin Rowe, School Winner and County Runner-up in poster contest "Why Be Tobacco Free." sponsored by O.L.W.H.

We appreciate all of our parent volunteers! Thanks for all you do.

"I guess you had to be there."

Virginia Hughes enjoyed helping kindergarten student, Phyllis Marshall, make ice-cream.

"Getting ready for Christmas."

Our Christmas Play under the direction of Mrs. Fulks and Mrs. Lester was a huge success.

Mrs. Castle helping Chelsie Conn make a gingerbread man.

We think we have the greatest cooks in Floyd County. We appreciate you!

In Memory of

Adam Patrick Blackburn

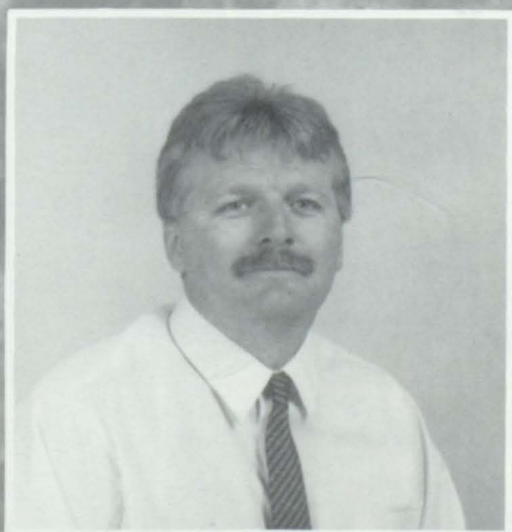

Called to Serve

We each have a special mission
our Father has chosen for us.
We each have a different purpose,
for being on this mortal earth.
And when our mission is completed,
we are called to return back home.
Where our Father in Heaven is waiting to welcome us with His warm embrace.

Young Adam has completed his mission and lives with Heavenly Father above.
Where he basks in the light and the love,
of our Father, whose son he has become.
And although Adam's stay was short,
the blessings he left us, are tenfold.
